Be sure and attend the coffee at the library next Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Split were Plattsburgh visitors last Saturday.

Aug. Engelkemeier was visiting with Murray merchants Wednesday.

F. M. Massie of Mt. Pleasant precinct was a Murray visitor Tuesday.

Jessie Erwin has been numbered with the sick for the past few days.

William Puls, sr., was looking after some business matters in Plattsburgh Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Walker and Dr. and Mrs. Gilmore were Omaha visitors Monday.

Frank Schlichtmeier shipped a car of hogs to the South Omaha market Monday evening.

Bert and Wallace Philpot, the Weeping Water auto men, were in Murray Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. W. S. Smith, Miss Thorpe, Miss Livingston and Miss Sans were Omaha visitors Monday evening.

Ted Barrows and Mrs. W. G. Bodeker were visiting Tuesday with Mrs. Bodeker's mother, Mrs. Sans, east of Murray, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lewis are rejoicing this week over the arrival of a fine baby girl at their home last Thursday, March 23.

I am carrying a full line of up-to-date Spirilla Corsets. See me for the new Easter bargains.

Eita M. Nickels.

Herman Gansemer and family and Jake Kraeger and family were in Murray last Sunday, being guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Puls.

Mrs. Will Hunter and daughter, Helen, of Plattsburgh, came down on Sunday to attend the funeral of Vilas Philpot, which was held that afternoon.

Albert Young has commenced the erection of the new barn for Charles Warner just south of Murray. The barn at the Gopen place was completed this week.

Roy Spangler, who has been suffering with an attack of the measles for the past few days, is getting along nicely, but his little son, Kenneth, now has taken them.

Mrs. Ed Gansemer went to Omaha Monday where she made a brief visit with Mr. Gansemer, who is there receiving treatment. She returned home Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Tom Tilson, who has been quite sick for the past few weeks, remains about the same as last week. Dr. Cook of Plattsburgh was called in consultation with Drs. Brendel and Brendel Wednesday.

Mrs. D. A. Young, Mrs. O. A. Davis and Mrs. E. S. Tutt served the coffee at the library last Saturday, and even though the weather was very bad, the ladies cleared a nice sum of money for the library.

Mrs. L. H. Puls met with quite an accident Monday evening while preparing supper, severely scalding her left hand. While the burns were very painful she is improving and no permanent injuries were inflicted.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Adam Kraeger, a baby boy, on Friday, March 24th. Both mother and little one are getting along nicely, and Adam is so proud that he thinks he is about the only "dad" in this community.

This has been candidate week in Murray, and they have been flocking in rather thick. Candidate for Congress John A. Maguire was here on Tuesday. Monday the candidates for treasurer, Tritsch and Bryan, were here, also G. H. Manners, candidate for sheriff.

Mrs. E. M. Steiner came down from Lincoln Monday, and in company with Dr. Gilmore and her sister, Mrs. James Brown, went to Omaha Tuesday, where she was placed in the Presbyterian hospital, preparatory for a surgical operation that will be performed Thursday morning.

The young people are planning for quite a social time at the Puls & Gansemer hall on Saturday evening of this week. They have planned a program of various amusements, such as wrestling, boxing, athletic stunts and music, all for the benefit of the basketball team. There will be an admission fee of twenty-five cents charged.

Philip Schafer experienced quite a serious runaway last Saturday, which was also quite fortunate as well as serious. His mother and Virgil Urish were in the buggy with Mr. Schafer at the time his team became unmanageable and ran away. All the occupants were thrown from the vehicle, and Mrs. Schafer and Virgil were slightly injured. The buggy was completely demolished.

S. R. McKELVIE

The Murray Commercial club are planning for another one of those great big times that they gave to the people of this community a year ago, a banquet and entertainment at the Puls & Gansemer hall, on Thursday evening, April 6th.

The program, which will consist of very interesting speeches and music, will start at 8 o'clock sharp, followed by the banquet and social time.

S. R. McKelvie, editor of the Nebraska Farmer, will be present and deliver a very interesting talk on "Community Interest." Hon. W. B. Banning, of Union, will also be in attendance and deliver an address upon a subject that will be to the best interests of Murray, her people, and the people surrounding Murray.

The committee selected by the Commercial club are exerting every effort to make this gathering one that will surpass that of last year. There will be a great feast of good things to eat, and the musical program will be the best that is possible to obtain, and all that remains to make this one of the most successful gatherings ever held in Murray is that everybody come in and join in the good time, and partake of the good eats.

An invitation is extended to you, and to you, and so on clear along the line—we want you all to come in and join us. Everything is as free as the air you breathe. It will be a genuine good time with the Murray Commercial club.

The library association held their regular business meeting this week, and owing to the absence of the president, Mrs. Minford, Mrs. H. C. Long, the vice president, presided over the meeting. The regular matters of business coming before the board were properly disposed of.

Philip Lambert has commenced the work on the addition of two rooms to his residence property in Murray, which will make room for the son and family of Mrs. Lambert, who are moving to Murray from Omaha and will make their home here for the summer. Albert Young and George Gibson will do the work.

W. H. McDaniel, the jovial and wholesaled M. P. operator from Nebraska City, was visiting with old Cass county friends last week, a few hours of which time was spent in the county seat. While there "Bill" found a few moments' time to pay the Journal a brief call, where he is a mighty welcome visitor at any time he is a caller in the metropolis of Cass.

There was quite a pleasant gathering at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Puls last Sunday, the occasion being the celebration of Mr. Puls' birthday anniversary. All the relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Puls, including some nearby friends, were present. There was the usual big dinner spread before the visiting relatives, which was one of the pleasant features of the day.

Here From Nehawka.

Julius Ruhmann, the fine horse man, from Nehawka, in company with Frank Sheldon, the merchant prince of south Cass, was in the county seat a few hours last Saturday, and while here paid the Journal office a brief visit. Mr. Ruhmann passed through here a few days ago with a fine jack that he bought over at Chariton, Iowa, and will be found in the care of Mr. Ruhmann this season for breeders who may desire his services. Elsewhere in this issue of the Journal will be found an advertisement for this animal, as well as Mr. Ruhmann's fine Percheron horse, "Billy T."

FOR SALE—Good twin Indian Motorcycle. For sale or trade.

DEATH OF LITTLE SON OF MR. AND MRS. WM. J. PHILPOT

Vilas, the little 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Philpot, died at their home last Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, after five days of illness from diphtheria. The dread disease seemed to grip the little fellow from the very start, and while all the medical aid possible was brought to him his life could not be saved. The case from the start was so serious that Dr. Gilmore performed an operation upon his throat in order that his life might be saved, but only prolonged by this surgical skill. A specialist was brought from Omaha with only the same results. The little fellow was laid to rest Sunday afternoon in the Weeping Water cemetery, without services, owing to the strict quarantine. Funeral services will be held later, after the quarantine is lifted from the Philpot home. Mr. and Mrs. Philpot have the deepest sympathy of the entire community in their hours of sorrow and bereavement.

Improves Equipment.

L. H. Puls, proprietor of the Murray garage, has purchased the entire equipment of the Jameson machine shop at Weeping Water, all of which has been transferred to the garage of Mr. Puls here in Murray. This equipment consists of heavy turning lathes, milling machinery and everything that is needed to make up a complete machine shop. This, added to Mr. Puls' present outfit, will give him one of the most complete repair shops in Cass county.

Mrs. Sam Schwab drove to Plattsburgh Tuesday to attend to some important business matters and visit county seat friends for a short time.

Mrs. George Wagner and Mrs. Philip Keil drove to Plattsburgh Wednesday to attend to some business matters and visit county seat friends.
