

STATE EXAMINERS VISIT THE COUNTY TREASURER'S OFFICE

From Friday's Daily.
The office of County Treasurer W. K. Fox has just been visited by the state banking examiners who check up the different offices throughout the state and the work of conducting the business of the treasurer's office was warmly commended by the two examiners. The books of the office are kept up in the most business like manner and there is not one office in the state that can show a more efficient set of books than that of the Cass county treasurer. Deputy Treasurer Mike Tritsch and Miss Mia Gering look after this part of the work and certainly deserve the compliment that the state examiners have given them in the way the business of the office is conducted. There is no doubt in the minds of any one who has had much opportunity of observing but that the office is run on strictly business principles all the time and the clerks are right on the job all the time in their line of work.

DEGREE OF HONOR ENJOYS A VERY SOCIAL TIME

From Friday's Daily.
Last evening the members of the Degree of Honor held a most interesting meeting at their hall in the A. O. U. W. building that in the point of attendance and interest was the most successful of the season. After the usual business had been disposed of, the ladies enjoyed a rousing social meeting, the principal feature of which was a "trip around the world" and the stories of the trip given out lead one to believe that the ladies certainly had all records for quick travel. Each of the ladies was supplied with a grip, umbrella and a pair of rubbers as a part of their traveling equipment and as they sped onward in their journey they experienced a great deal of difficulty in handling their luggage. The prize for the winners was a trip for Mrs. C. A. Rosenkrantz and Mrs. James Hall, both of whom completed their journey in one minute and the ladies were again requested to make the trip which was again a tie and it was necessary to divide the prize between them. The average length of time consumed by the ladies was three minutes, so that the winners made remarkably good time in getting "around the world." A number of the contestants suffered the loss of their umbrellas and rubbers as well as a large number of hairpins before they reached their destination. The consolation prize was won by Mrs. Mary Nydetholm, who required five minutes to make the trip. The event was one that was thoroughly enjoyed and the ladies enjoyed immensely the fun of the evening until a late hour when they wished their way homeward feeling that the occasion had been one of rare enjoyment.

IT IS SURELY GRANDPA JOSEPH FETZER NOW

From Saturday's Daily.
Last evening a little stranger arrived in this city and will hereafter be an assistant in the Bank of Union, and the advent of the little son, who was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Patterson, has been the occasion of a great deal of happiness to the parents as well as the other relatives. The little lad made his appearance shortly after 9 o'clock and tipped the scales at nine pounds and is as fine a baby as could bless any home. Mrs. Patterson has been here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fetzer, and the new grandson has been received by them with much pleasure, and T. M. Patterson, the cashier of the Bank of Cass County, is greatly overjoyed over the arrival of the new grandson that will carry on the Patterson name.

SUIT FILED IN DISTRICT COURT TO SET ASIDE NOTES AND MORTGAGE

From Saturday's Daily.
Yesterday afternoon in the district court a suit was filed by Lee Noble Hanson against S. D. Check, Frank J. Davis and C. C. Carlson in which the plaintiff seeks to have certain notes and mortgages set aside by the court. In his petition the plaintiff states that he was the owner on November 4, 1915, of 129 acres of land in Pawnee county, Nebraska, of the value of $12,000. The defendant, S. D. Check, had sold to plaintiff a livery barn and lot in the city of Weeping Water of the value of $1,200 or $1,500. The petition further states that the defendant Check represented the livery barn to be of the value of $2,000 and that the barn and contents were worth $4,999 and had an earning of $3,000 per year from the business. The plaintiff then made and executed a note for $4,900 due and payable in one year to S. D. Check for the purchase of the livery barn, giving as security for the note a mortgage on the land of the plaintiff in Pawnee county, and also made a note for $1,000, giving as security ten horses and buggies in the livery barn. On March 27, 1916, S. D. Check has taken possession of the livery barn and had transferred the note for $4,900 to Frank J. Davis and C. C. Carlson. The plaintiff prays that the note and mortgage be cancelled and that the defendants be enjoined from using the note or mortgage and that the matter be declared null and void, and such other relief as the court may see fit under the law.

Slim Chance For Any Other.

John Wunderlich, democratic candidate for the nomination for the office of sheriff, was in Louisville last Friday and was a pleasant caller at the Courier office. Mr. Wunderlich is well known throughout the county and personally is a rattling good fellow, and had he not adjusted his political bonnet hind side foremost he would have made a good republican sheriff some day. But John couldn't help it—he got started that way when he arrived at the age of maturity. Whether he can muster enough votes to defeat Sheriff Quinton at the polls is a question Cass county democrats must solve for themselves, but if he cannot there would be a slim chance for any other Cass county democrat, for Quinton's popularity makes him a hard man to down.—Louisville Courier.

TRIES TO ENTICE LITTLE GIRL INTO A BARN—IS ARRESTED

This morning in police court a man named Mike Higgins was arraigned before Judge M. Archer, charged with being drunk and disorderly, the complaint being filed by Chief of Police Barclay. It seems that this man was badly intoxicated on Saturday evening and was found on South Third street, where it was reported he was trying to entice a number of little girls into a shed or barn and as soon as this fact was learned the police were notified and hastened to the scene and brought the man over to the jail. This morning, on being brought up for trial, he pleaded guilty to the charges preferred against him and received a fine of $50 and costs which he will be compelled to lay out in the jail. The court gave him a very severe reprimand for his actions and expressed regret that there was not a more severe penalty for such actions as this man had been guilty of. It is lucky for him that the officers of the law secured him before some irate parent had gotten his hands on him as there is no doubt that he would have been very roughly handled to say the least, and no one could be blamed for dealing out a pretty stiff punishment to him for his offense.

THE FUNERAL OF THE LATE "DAD" CHILDERS FRIDAY

The funeral of the late A. Childers was held Friday afternoon from the undertaking parlors of John P. Sattler and was attended by a number of the old friends of the deceased and relatives residing in this vicinity. The services were conducted by the Rev. H. G. McClusky of the First Presbyterian church, who gave a short sermon filled with comfort and words of cheer to the bereaved family. During the services, two of the old loved hymns, "Nearer, My God, to Thee" and "Jesus, Lover of My Soul" were given as the body of this worthy old gentleman was prepared for its last journey. Following the services the body was taken to LaPlatte where it was laid to rest in the cemetery beside that of his wife, who preceded him in death about a year ago.

THE PEOPLES GROCERY IS MOVING TO SOUTH SIXTH STREET

The People's meat market and grocery, which has been located in the Perkins hotel building, has removed to the Hild building on South Sixth street, where the furniture store of Mr. Hild was formerly located, and hereafter will be found there ready for business. The gentlemen owning the business will see that the same policy of good goods at low prices is given their patrons. The stock and fixtures were moved yesterday and placed in the new location and in a very few days the People's store will be open and ready for business with a full line of groceries and meats of all kinds. Remember the new location, South Sixth street in the building formerly occupied by the Hild furniture store.

HON. JOHN L. KENNEDY SPEAKS AT THE COURT HOUSE

The republican meeting held Saturday evening at the district court room was attended by a very good sized crowd, the court room being fairly well filled, and the meeting was commenced ahead of scheduled time owing to the fact that Hon. John L. Kennedy of Omaha, candidate for United States senator, being compelled to speak in Omaha on the same evening, and the meeting was called to order at 7:15 by Hon. R. B. Windham, who in a few remarks introduced Mr. Kennedy. The latter made a most earnest plea for the spirit of Americanism and for the preparedness of the nation. The address, while brief, was enjoyed very much by the republicans present and the candidate seems to have made a most favorable impression upon those he met while in the city.
