THE NEW GLARION

 $\mathcal{B}_{\mathcal{Y}}$... WILL N. HARBEN

Copyright, 1914, by Harper & Brothers

CHAPTER VI.

The New Clarion. was after dark when Abner Trumbley was waiting on the been. porch anxious to see the purdown the road-done yore work an' am afraid"mine both. Now I'll have to wait till "Good-good news?" Mrs. Tinsley

With much ciation, Mary gave an exmother. Think of that!"

Trambley sulfied contemptuously, "To to me. daft about a rollin' stone like Howard day.

and sends hid by fer a rainy day, but | ed down a welling sob. you see of they don't."

daughter. "I hear Mr. Daniel on the | thought a place like that was better"

With slow fluxers Mary untied the wait."

old woman at the gate fully an hour home."

you of yore ma don't."

him an' her met old Tinsley in the big | the management. road t'other day an' that Howard turnest his head in another direction an' in the business," Abner smiled at havin' to stop an' lick the old skunk in | tricks. Stop me the minute I start to public," Abner chuckled mischievously. | make a wrong move. You are the boss, "Old Hiram has been shootin off his the too free about Miss Langham. He tickled. It is a new game to me, an' is thinks because she shakes a merry toe | goin' to give me a lot o' fun. As I see in the gay quadride un' lets the boys hold 'er tight agin 'em in the polka that she is leadin' 'em all straight to perdition. She ain't exactly the sour faced sort of females I was fetched up with, but I kind o' like 'er fer a change, I don't believe Howard is ashamed o' his daddy-the boy ain't that sort by g long shot-but he's havin' a hard time gittin' along with the old chap. Mary, go ahead-let the boy's ma know what's happened. If you don't go I they always treated me white. I've will have to, an' I want to avoid Hiram. got friends that are Populists an' a I know 'im well enough to know that few that fancy they are Socialists, an' he's goin' to git his back up over what I don't want to offend any of 'em.

turned aside to open the parcels, and issue that needs our aid. Say, I want Mary glided out into the twilight, her to tell you some'n', an' yet I feel unticipated Joy greatly diminished by sorter ashamed to do it." the reprimand she had received.

She found Mrs. Tinsley alone in the interested. big kitchen, which was dimly lighted by an off lamp on a table. Mary's step | blushed-"I don't want to brag or | Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and since the report has got out of this deal of our'n a lot o' folks has come to deal of our'n a lot o' folks has come to me an' said that they wish I'd run a department on the editorial page under my own initials, an' write just as plain as I talk. That is a lot o' plain people in these mountains, an' they tie to plain on the college.

deal of our'n a lot o' folks has come to me an' said that they wish I'd run a department on the editorial page under my own initials, an' write just as plain as I talk. That is a lot o' plain people in these mountains, an' they tie to plain our'n a lot o' folks has come to me an' said that they wish I'd run a department on the editorial page under my own initials, an' write just as plain as I talk. That is a lot o' plain people in these mountains, an' they tie to plain on the coals of the coals o who it was. Have you just got back? if you don't object, why"-I was going over to-to see you. I-I "Object?" Howard cried, enthusias From Friday's Dally.

make it known. In the short pause down. If if you wouldn't mind I'll a few hours, going to that city on the

"I see, I see. He's not comin' even | wad as possible." to say goodby to me. Maybe he'd rather I'd not go in town to see 'im off it is all right." either? It may be true, as some say, that the young can't feel partin' like coat hanging from a nall on the wall. but maybe I don't count fer much with | from a pocket. Unfolding it, and clearand Mary reached home. Mrs. him, as good a boy as he's always ing his threat, he began to read aloud; a saist in the care of her cousin, who is ases her daughter had made for her, ber own. She drew the old woman to the fust column?" Abner asked, as he What mider the sun kept you so her in a firm embrace. "Are you pre- looked up. Dun't she asked pettishly. "I've been pared for real good news, Mrs. Tinsto the door forty times and looked ley?" she asked tenderly. "You see, I sen up to see how you matched the held her breath, her eyes widening as they fixed themselves on Mary's.

"Yes, the best news in the world. plaustion of the important deal Abner Mrs. Tinsley. Howard is not going had made. "Howard won't go now, away at all. He would have come to tell you himself, but he had some im-"H ward, Howard, Howard," Mrs. portant work to do tonight and left it hear you all chatter, a body would cone Mrs. Tinsley, staring almost incredguide that the whole round world was | ulously, put her hand behind her, feelturnin' for that boy an' nothin' else. | ing about till it touched a chair. Then I hope you didn't make a fool o' yore she sat down, her eyes still devouring sent before Jim Tarp. A man with his | Mary's. Drawing up another chair and solid business head ain't agoin' to visit | holding Mrs. Tinsley's hand, Mary a girl with serious intentions that is told all that had happened through the

As she talked in her gentle way the "So aid Ab had fifteen hundred cash, girl saw the strong features melt into tid le ? Tobias Trumbley drawled out softness and take on a spiritual light as he leaned in the doorway to catch | more wonderful than she had ever be the conversation, his coarse shirt open fore beheld. Mrs. Tinsley put ber nt the neck. "I knowed the old duck | hand over her quivering lips and chok-

2 morely lowed the pile was as big as "The Lord's answered my prayer," that, lie won't lose nuther. Them she faltered out, "This mornin' after two'll make that paper walk along; you left, Mary, I went down in the big swamp. I kept goin' until I was out o' With the purcels unopened under her bearin' of any sounds but the birds. arm, Mrs. Trumbley was turning to the frogs an' the bees. Then I got ward the dining room. "Come on an' down on my knees right whar the mire yore supper" she said to ber was since month deen. Somehow I per h new. Take off that hat. Have a comfortable one. I throwed myself Mary stood hesitatingly, "I'm not into it and cried out to my Maker with hungry, mother-not a bit. Howard what seemed to me to be my last treated me and Uncle Ab to ice cream | breath. I told 'im to look at me an and cakes just before we drove out of point out anything that I had done of town. He was so happy over the trade harm to any livin' creature, even a being closed that he lasists on our do-dumb brute, or to him an' see if he hadn't overlooked my case too long. I "Well, you ain't goin' to sleep in yore | prayed an' prayed like that fer hours hat, shorely?" Mrs. Trumbley retorted on a stretch without stoppin'. Then sharpey. "What are you keeping it on all at once some'n' seemed to whisper inside o' me, 'Go home,' it said, 'an'

rildsans beneath her irresolute chin. "Strange, strange," Mary whispered. "I thought I'd keep it on because I "Tre prayed, too, that all your trouble have to to run over to the Thisleys. might be averted. I was losing faith but I won't need it now that it is when the good news fell like a bolt from a clear sky. Howard is going to "Over to Tinsley's! Did you ever?" make up with his father too. He told exceptimed Mrs. Trumbley. "What in | me that he was going to beg Mr. Tinsthe name o' common sense are you go- ley's pardon for his hasty words when kemier, late of the city of Plattsmouth. in ever thar fer? You talked with that he was so angry on the day he left this mornin', an' naw you have to see | "He shan't do it-my boy shan't low-'er before you are at home a minute. er himself," burst from Mrs. Tinsley's You will be sleepin' an' eatin' over thar | tight throat. "Howard hain't done wrong. Ef he was such a fool as to "Tut. tut, tut." The exclamation was believe all his pa tries to pound into Abner's, who was entering from the 'im I'd not respect 'im a bit. I want rear, his loose shoes scraping on the l'im just like he is. Would a man like floor. "Do let the gal alone. I heard Abner Daniel put money behind him ef 'er promise Howard to run right over be was like Hiram? Not much, be to relieve his mother's mind. The pore | wouldn't, in this day of progress an old creature is nigh crazy, expectin' the | enlightenment. All Hiram's cold blood boy to go away tomorrow, an' this ed ideas about the Bible make a reguchange in his plans will be glad tidin's. har fiend o' me. But when Howard ex-Go ahead, Mary. Old Ab understands plains it in his way I know he is right an' feel uplified."

I understand 'er entirely too well | A few days later Abner and Howard fer my peace o' mind," Mrs. Trumbley | were in full possession of all pertainsneered. "She is lettin' the entire ing to the Clarion. Hillhouse, elated country know she has Howard Tinsley over a congratulatory telegram from on er mind-right now, too, when the his brother and the happiness of his and lawful administration of said es- renew his subscription to this paper. triffin' scamp is drivin' here an' thar | wife over her coming change of resiwith that stuck up Atlanta girl. I dence, was in and out though the day heard-an' it come straight, too-that giving this or that advice in regard to

"I'm as green as a long handled gourd didn't so much as nod to the man he | Howard, once when they were alone and working without their coats in "Howard looked away to keep from the office, "but I'm willin' to learn new but ef I kin belp a little bit I'll be it, we must draft out a fresh policy an' make it known in our fust new is sue. I'm glad you think the independent basis is good. I'm a Democratdyed in the wool-it was shot into me for hatching, renewed strains from an' some of it stuck to my bones, but I've got good friends that was Union men an' are Republicans now. I never liked to hear 'em called black, because Bein' on the fence is a good thing, fer In high impatience Mrs. Trumbley then we kin drap on the side o' any

"What is it?" Howard asked, deeply

"Why, you see" - Abner actually requires constitutional treatment. Hall's

"Oh!" she exclaimed as she turned things. With yore education you kin and saw the visitor. "I didn't know pander to the other sort o' folks, but thought Howard surely would come tically. "It will be the very life of the back with you and be at your house if paper. You really are a philosopher,

"No: we left him in town." Mary's "Well, anyways"-Abner took the voice was full of tense emotion. She compliment gracefully-"ridin" out haid her hands tenderly on the bent home last night, an' even after I got shoulders. The fear flashed through to bed, a notion fer a sort of fust word. her mind that the good news might do from me kept runnin' in my head, an' merchants. the recipient serious harm, and she this mornin just after breakfast-out was wondering how size could best at the stable, of all places-I jotted it business visitors in Omaha today for that ensued a grean escaped Mrs. Tins- read it to you. It ain't so overly long, fer I've b'iled it down into as tight a "Fire away!" Howard cried, "Fill beta ness visitors in Omaha today for a the old do. He's all I got in the world, he took a crumpled piece of paper "'To one and all hearty greetings.' sick in that city, and will remain for Many caught the hardened palms in How's that fer big type at the top of some time.

(To Be Continued.)

In the District Court of the County of Cass, Nebraska.

Villiam A. Wood, Plaintiff.

wies E. Wiley and Leona Pe Wiley, Defendants, CHARLES E WILEY AND LESS EAR WILEY, Defendants, will to aver of which are to secure lod bon, three secret causes of and delivered by the defends plaintiff, and to secure the p of such judgment by attacked required to grawer or before the 15th da

NOTICE TO CREDITORS. to County Court.

before me, County Judge of C Nebruska, at the County Co Flattsmouth, in said Cours ounty Court, at Platismouth, Nebra a, this 1st day of April, 1816. Seat: ALLEN J. BEESON.

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PETI-TION FOR ADMINISTRATION.

Nebraska.

In the Matter of the Estate of Freder- friends. ick Engelkemier, Deceased.

To All Persons Interested in Said Es-

You will take notice that on the 6th and visiting with friends. lay of April, 1916, Henry Frederick Engelkemier filed his petition in this court alleging that Frederick Engel-Cass county, Nebraska, departed this ife, intestate, in said city and county, on the 30th day of January, 1916, leaving an estate to be administered. and praying that administration there- after the week-end trading. of be granted to Emilie Engelkemier.

the widow of said deceased. hearing will be had upon said petition Nebraska, and that unless cause be of business. tate may require.

By the Court: ALLEN J. BEESON. County Judge.

GOOD FARMING HORSE for sale, weighing 1,350 pounds. Inquire of W. E. Metschullott on Wintersteen 4-7-tfd like burnt powder from Yankee guns, best blood. Mrs. Wm. Gilmour, Platismouth, Neb.

Light Brahma Eggs

> WANTED to hear from owner of good neapolis, Minn.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least me dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly alluenced by constitutional co acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Sur-

Local News

Mrs. Nellie Agnew of Lincoln came -if he didn't come on here, Is-is he Uncle Ab. You don't know it, but you in this afternoon to visit here with elatives for a short time,

> P. H. Meisinger was in the city yesterday for a short time attending to some matters of business with the

John H. Becker was among the early Burlington train this morning. Thede Amiek was among the busi-few hours going to that city on the HIS JUDICIAL OPINIONS CLEAR Slowly Abner rose, and, going to his | early Burlington train this afternoon Mrs. Lucila Leasley departed this

> George P. Meisinger came in this morning from his home at Cedar Creek to spend a few hours visiting business matters. hours yesterday afternoon enroute to thousand voters in excess of the 3.000 his home from Omaha where he has required by law, are in the secretary been to look after business matters and motored from this city to Mur-

M. L. Freidrich, republican candidate for county commissioner, was a passenger this afternoon for Omaha, where he was called on some business matters, but denies that he is securing votes there.

William A. Becker drove in this morning from his home west of the city and departed on the early Burlington train for Omaha where hevisited for the day looking after some matters of business.

Mrs. John Cory departed this afternoon for Pender, to visit with her new great-grandson, who has just made his appearance at the Russell Chase home. Miss Garnet Cory accompanied her mother to Omaha.

John Gauer and brother, C. A. Gauer, of near Cedar Creek were in filed in said hours looking after some business matters of importance with the mer-

From Saturday's Daily. County Judge C. L. Wiles was among those going to Omaha this afternoon to spend a few hours looking after some matters

In the County Court of Cass county, farm home to look after the week-end en he will have no serious opposition shopping and to visit with his many for re-election. Under his leadership

Jennings, were in the city today for a more rapidly than ever before. Being few hours looking after some trading in the prime of life and in vigorous in the city this afternoon for a few hours looking after some matters of trading with the merchants.

Cornelius Bengen motored in this entire machinery of the court. morning from his farm home and spent a few hours in the city looking came up this afternoon from their You will further take notice that a home near Mynard to spend a few hours looking after some trading.

on the 4th day of May, 1916, at 10 Mrs. E. C. Harris was a passenger o'clock in the forenoon, at the County this afternoon for Omaha where she twenty years. Court room in the court house in the was called to spend a few hours in city of Plattsmouth, in Cass county, that city looking after some matters shown on or before said hour of hear- C. E. Dasher of Cedar Creek was ing the incumbency of Chief Justice ng, the prayer of said petition may be attending to some important business | Morrissey mothing has been heard of granted, and such other orders and matters in this city today and while the personal animosities and disagree proceedings in the premises as a just here took time to call at this office and Witness my hand and the Seal of ter, Miss Helen, were among those go-twenty-five years ago and has lived said court on this 6th day of April, ing to Omaha this morning where here ever since. Before coming to they were called to spend the day in Lincoln, his home was at Valentine,that city looking after some matters of business.

Miss Honor Seybert and Miss Pearl Dugay were among those going to mind that judges are no longer nom-Omaha this morning where they will visit for the day in that city with friends and attend to some business matters of importance.

farmers of the county, was in the city | printed on a ballot separate and distoday for a few hours looking after some matters of business with the merchants and visiting with his many one system or another a number of siding in the vicinity of Murray who that we adopted our non-partisan law, VANTED to hear from owner of good storing in the vicinity of Marray who Minnesota passed an act which not farm for sale. Send cash price and had his arm injured some time ago only takes the courts but also takes description. D. F. Bush, Min- by a tree falling on it, was a visitor the county offices and candidates for 3-16-2tw in Omaha yesterday where he is hav- the legislature off the party ballots. ing his injury treated there by a spe- In that state judges, county officers cialist in the hopes of restoring the and members of the legislature are use of the arm.

> for a short time there with friends. ours, and in the future party lines He expects to leave shortly for Ran- will be disregarded in lowa, as in Nedolph, Nebraska, to make his future braska.

Saturday hight to attend the social as many nominations as there are of chestra. dance to be given there. A good time fices to fill. Thus two candidates will and good order will be the order of be nominated for chief justice and six the evening.

JUDGE MORRISSEY HAS FILED FOR RE-ELECTION

CHIEF JUSTICE OF NEBRASKA SU-PREME COURT HAS MADE EXCELLENT RECORD.

afternoon for Omaha where she will Work of Court Expedited Under His Leadership - Gain of Six Months on Docket.

Chief Justice Andrew M. Morrissey, of the Nebraska supreme court, has with friends and looking after some hied as a candidate for re-election. Petitions for his candidacy from all J. D. Shrader was here for a few parts of the state, signed by several O state's hands

> On account of the excellent record 'hief Justice Morrissey has made on

CHIEF JUSTICE A. M. MORRISSEY who has filed for reelection which the work has been expedited P. A. Horn drove in today from his since he became its head, it is expecihealth, Chief Justice Morrissey has L. A. and P. H. Meisinger, jr., were not only handled his own part of the his energy has been infused into the Clear-Cut Opinions.

His judicial opinions are models of clear thinking concisely expressed. W. R. Young and Alvin Murray The chief justice gets to the point of a case without indulging in superfluous verbiage. This quality has won for his decisions the undivided respect and esteem of the legal profession, which calling he has followed for > Between his associates on the supreme bench and himself there has been the utmost cordiality, and he enjoys their respect and good will. Dur-

Judge Morrissey is a native of New Mrs. B. W. Livingston and daugh- York state. He came to Nebraska Lincoln Daily Star.

It will be well for voters to bear in inated or elected on party tickets. Nominations for judicial positions are to the method employed in electing city commissioners in cities under the John Kraeger, one of the prominent commission system. The names are tinct from the regular party ballot, no party designation is allowed, and the candidate runs on his merits. Under states have provided for taking the Barney Smith, the young man re- courts out of politics. The same year elected without a party designation and in utter disregard of party affili-John Swartz departed this after- ation. Last year lowa passed a nonnoon for Omaha where he will visit partisan judiciary law very similar to

This year we elect one chief justice and three associate justices. At the primary the voter is allowed to vote Those who enjoy a good time should for one chief justice and three assonominated for associate justice.

J. H. SWEET

Editor of the Nebraska City Daily Press

For District Delegate

Republican National Convention

THE RURAL COUNTIES of the First District are rightfully entitled to one delegate in the Chicago Convention. Vote for him.

Primary April 18th

Polls Open 8:00 a. m.

Close 8:00 p. m.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR NOTICE OF APPLICOTION FOR

LIQUOR LICENSE. nine cate, in the First ward of the said and a resident of the State of Nebras-March 15, 1916

Notice is hereby given to all person interested and to the public that the his petition and application in the office of the city clerk of the City of Platts-mouth, County of Cass, and State of Nebraska, as required by law, signed March 16, 1916 ADDLPH GIESE,

LIQUOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given to all person March 16, 1916

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR

LIQUOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given to all persons nterested and to the public that the is petition and application in the office of the city clerk of the Cary of Platis the required number of resident secholders of the said city, setting aring that a license may be issue the said J. L. Hussell for the sale building situated on the west had win of lot five (5). In block thirts our (34), in the Fourth ward of the said City of Platismouth, Nebraska.

LIQUOR LICENSE.

March 16, 1916

Notice is hereby given to all persons aterested and to the public that the adersigned Wm. Henrichsen, has filed s petition and application in the office the city cierk of the City of Platts outh, County of Cass, and State of Nebraska, as required by law, signed by the required number of residen free-holders of the said city, setting forth that the applicant is a man o spectable character and standing and resident of the State of Nebraska and lying that a license may be issue the said Wm. Henrichsen for th te of malt, spirtingus and vinous juors for the period of one year from e date of the hearing of said applicaon in a building situated on the west (w_2) of lot one (1), in block hirty-four (34), in the Fourth war of the said City of Platismouth, Ne WM. HENRICHSEN. March 36, 3916 Applicant.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LIQUOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given to all persons interested and to the public that the undersigned, Ed. Egenberger, has filed his petition and application in the office of the city clerk of the City of Platismouth, County of Cass, and State of Nebraska, as required by law, signed y the required number of residen-ree-holders of the said city, setting forth that the applicant is a man cospectable character and standing an resident of the State of Nebraska and f mait, spirituous and vinous liq or the period of one year from date of the hearing of said applicati

(e4) of lot twelve (12), in block twen ty-eight (28), in the First ward of the said City of Plattsmouth, Nebraska, ED, EGENBERGER, March 16, 1916

n a building situated on the east ha

Saturday evening there will be a 18 to 20 years experience is social dance given at the German worth something to those who Home, Everyone is invited and can be assurred of a good time in every be present at the German Home on ciate justices, but there will be twice way. Music by the Plattsmouth or-

> Read the Evening Journal. Only 10 cents a week.

LIQUOR LICENSE.

Notice is hereby given to all persons interested and to the public, that the undersigned, C. S. Trumble, has filed his petition and application in the office of the clerk of the village of Eagle, County of Cass and State of Nebraska, as required by law, signed y the required number of resident freeholders of said village, setting forth that the applicant is a man of respectable character and standing, ha, and praying that a license may be issued to the said C. S. Trimble for NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR the sale of male, spiritous and vinous liquors for the period of one team from the date of the hearing of said application, in a building situated on lots five and six .5 and 6, in block nineteen (19), in the said village of Eagle, Nebraska. C. S. TRUMBLE. Applicant. April 10, 1916.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LIQUOR LICENSE.

interested and to the public, that the undersigned, Ben M. Mohr, has filed his petition and application with the NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR village clerk of the village of Avoca, County of Cass and State of Nebraska, as required by law, signed by the required number of resident freeholders of the said village, setting forth that the applicant is a man of respectable character and standing and a resident of the State of Nebraska, and praying that a license may be issued to the said Ben M. Molo for the sale of malt, spirituous and vinous liquors for the municipal year ending May 2. 1917, at his place of business, situated on the west two-thirds of lot five (5), in block thirteen (15), in said village of Avoen, Nebraska.

April 10, 1916. BEN M. MOHR. Applicant.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LIQUOR LICENSE.

In the Matter of the Application of Henry H. Weideman for Liquor Li-

This is to certify that Heary II. Weideman, of the Village of Greenwood, Cass county, Nebraska, filed & petition in the office of the village clerk on April 8, 1916, as required by the statutes of the State of Nobraska and the ordinances of the Village of Greenwood, to sell mult, spirituona and vinous liquers for the coming NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR nicipal year, in the building signated on lot No. 277, fronting on Second

> C. E. CALFEE. Village Cierk

A. O. Ramge,

April 8, 1916,

For Sale. Single Comb Rhode Island Red eggs. $1,00 per 15; $5.00 per 100. Baby chicks, 15c each.

Platts. Phone 3513.

> Lawyer. East of Riley Hotel. Coates' Block,

> W. A. ROBERTSON,

Second Floor.

COL. WM. DUNN, AUCTIONEER

WEEPING WATER, NEBRASKA

have property for sale. Satisfaction Guaranteed

I am always after the High Dollar for Your Goods.