

Bryan or Wilson Which?

What Wilson Has Done for His Country

Woodrow Wilson is generally credited by well-informed citizens with being one of the greatest presidents the United States has ever had.

The income tax to make up for the loss of revenue due to a lower tariff. The establishment of a trade commission.

President Wilson has established a condition of trust and confidence in the relations of this country with the South American republics.

BUT GREATER THAN ALL THESE, HE HAS KEPT THIS COUNTRY OUT OF WAR DURING ONE OF THE MOST TRYING TIMES IN ITS HISTORY.

What Bryan Has Done His Country For

W. J. Bryan accepted the office of secretary of state in Woodrow Wilson's cabinet—the highest position the president could bestow.

Mr. Bryan lowered the dignity of the office and embarrassed the president by accepting platform engagements at so much per lecture.

He used his political prestige to attach to the federal pay-roll a long list of relatives, some of whom had practically no training or experience in the duties assigned them.

HIS SON, W. J. BRYAN, JR., as an assistant district attorney in Arizona.

HIS BROTHER-IN-LAW, T. S. ALLEN, as district attorney in Nebraska.

HIS SON-IN-LAW, RICHARD HARGREAVES, as a bank examiner in the east.

HIS SON'S WIFE'S BROTHER, MR. BERGER, as a secretary.

HIS SON-IN-LAW'S BROTHER-IN-LAW, WM. STEIN, in the department of commerce.

Another relative in Illinois was provided with a postoffice, etc. STILL WE ALL UNDERSTOOD DEMOCRACY WAS OPPOSED TO NEPOTISM.

After taking care of these numerous relatives, Mr. Bryan RESIGNED FROM THE CABINET AND DESERTED THE PRESIDENT AT A MOST CRITICAL TIME.

Not content with merely resigning, he soon began his campaign of criticism and condemnation of the president's policies. He did this openly and publicly and in his own paper.

Bryan took his fight to the halls of congress and sponsored resolutions that if passed would seriously embarrass the president and destroy the ground-work of his negotiations with foreign powers.

After all these selfish and hostile acts Mr. Bryan is appealing to the voters of Nebraska to send him as a delegate-at-large to the St. Louis convention AS A FRIEND OF THE PRESIDENT

Woodrow Wilson's record is a successful one. Mr. Bryan's record during this administration has been a failure.

IS IT CONSISTENT THAT THE MAN WHO AS A PUBLIC OFFICIAL HAS PROVED A FAILURE SHOULD DICTATE TO THE MAN WHO HAS PROVED A SUCCESS?

Mr. Bryan should not be sent to St. Louis. It is not fair to President Wilson or the democratic party.

The Nebraska delegation to St. Louis should be supporters of Mr. Wilson and all of his policies—not supporters of Mr. Bryan.

The candidates for delegates-at-large who are standing squarely behind President Wilson and not controlled by Mr. Bryan are: W. D. OLDHAM of Kearney.

W. B. PRICE of Lincoln. DOUGLAS CONES of Pierce.

LOUIS PIATTI of Omaha.

The candidates for district delegates from the First district who stand on the same platform are:

H. E. GOOCH of Lincoln. W. F. MORAN of Nebraska City.

ARTHUR L. BAKER, CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY TREASURER

For the benefit of those that are not personally acquainted with me, I will give a short sketch of my life and business career.

I was born in western Iowa, July 22, 1875, and reared and schooled in the same state. At about the age of fourteen, while attending school, I worked evenings and Saturdays in a general store counting eggs, weighing butter and waiting on customers as best I could.

In 1893, after my schooling was finished, I emigrated to Murray, Cass county, Nebraska, to work for a brother-in-law, Mr. A. E. Burton, who was engaged in the hardware and implement business. In June, 1901, with a partner, Mr. James Root, we bought the business and ran it successfully for a number of years.
