

THE MAN TO VOTE FOR FOR FLOAT REP-RESENTATIVE

L. G. Todd,
Democratic Candidate.

A CASS COUNTY PRODUCT
L. G. Todd, the subject of our sketch, is a product of Nebraska and of Cass county, where he has spent his lifetime and is well acquainted with the needs of the community he desires to represent in the legislature as float representative from the seventh district composed of Cass and Otoe counties. Mr. Todd, while comparatively a young man, has been engaged in the farming line almost all of his life and his training and general abilities are such as to make him a valuable representative of this great agricultural empire of the west. Coming from one of the pioneer families of Nebraska, who had such an important part in the development of this section of the state, Mr. Todd has the rugged traits of character that go to make up a man of the people and one who cannot be swayed from his convictions of right. Mr. Todd is the only democratic candidate for this office from Cass county and should without a doubt receive the nomination to the office and an election as he is fitted in every way to serve the district with honor and credit to the good people of Cass county. Remember, democrats, that when you cast your ballots on next Tuesday let them be for L. G. Todd for float representative—a man who will be found on the side of the people all the time. Mr. Todd, in addition to his farming interests, is at present the president of the Bank of Union and keenly alive to the business interests of his district.

QUARANTINE RELEASED HOME OF REV. DRULINER AND FAMILY

From Saturday's Daily.
Rev. F. M. Druliner and family, who for the past several weeks have been under quarantine at their home for scarlet fever, were released today and the pastor will be able to resume his duties as pastor of the First Methodist church tomorrow at both morning and evening services. The absence of Rev. Druliner from his post has been keenly felt by the members of the church as his enthusiastic and self-sacrificing work for the church has led to its advancement during his pastorate and his guiding hand has been felt in all departments of the church work. The children, who had the scarlet fever, have escaped without serious effects from the malady and the cases were in very light form. It is a pleasure to the friends of the family to welcome them back to the active life after their enforced absence.

MRS. JOHN SVOBODA
ENTERTAINS PAST CHIEFS

From Saturday's Daily.
The ladies of the Past Chiefs society of the Degree of Honor were entertained at the home of Mrs. John Svoboda on West Main street Thursday afternoon and the occasion was one of great pleasure to the ladies present. The pretty Svoboda home was filled with the members of the order and the time passed pleasantly in visiting and enjoying a fine social time together, which will be long very pleasantly remembered by everyone fortunate enough to be present. At a suitable hour a most delicious luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Joseph Hiber and Mrs. Tom Svoboda, which proved a delightful feature of the afternoon's entertainment and was thoroughly enjoyed by the ladies present. At a late hour they departed voting Mrs. Svoboda a most pleasing hostess and the occasion one of the greatest pleasure in every way.

Albert Fickler came in last evening from Stanton, Nebraska, called here by the death of his sister.

IN PLATTSMOUTH FORTY YEARS AGO.

Cal Moore is just the boss mushroom hunter; beats anybody.

Captain O'Rourke hurt his eye seriously last week by running a stick from a flower pot into the ball, as he was stooping to lift the same.

Mr. Chet Smith has gone east on business, to be gone several weeks.

The Herolds are having their buildings newly painted; also the drug store occupied by Mr. Johnson. It helps their appearance very much indeed.

Last Sunday night was about as dark as it usually gets, and the churchgoers had a hard time of it getting home. Mrs. Babbington in attempting to cross the street by Jones' livery stable stepped into the ditch and severely sprained her ankle.

Doctors are plenty about Eight Mile, we learn. Our old friend, Mr. McConkey, has gone into the business lately, at least that's what an Eight Miler told us last week.

Fred Dorrington has just got back from Denver, where he has been buying Quartz) o (mills) and things.

The Molly Magee.

is gone up the spout, or rather down the suction at last. She was driven from her moorings during the late rise, struck by the ice floating in the river on Friday night, and sunk just below the point out near the island.

She has long been the only ferryboat here and has done good service in her day. We are sorry for the loss to Mr. Sharp and Mr. Morgan and hope they are duly and fully insured.

A Sudden Death.

Late Thursday evening, the 3d, a report came up town that a man had been killed on the railroad track nearly opposite the house of Mike Osborn. The Herald reporter hurried down and found the sad report only too true. In the small, unused cigar shop of Fred Kroehler, the body of what was but a few moments before a hale, hearty man, lay crushed and bleeding. The wheels of the cars had passed completely over the man's body, crushing both arms and tearing the bowels open.

Injuries: Cut across body just above pelvis, cutting open abdomen and disemboweling him, the ribs on the right side were all fractured, and the pressure over thorax forced out the lower lobes of the lungs below the diaphragm; right arm and hand was comminuted and shoulder torn open; left forearm and hand comminuted. A mark about two inches wide extended along left side of face, injuring eye and fracturing jaw on that side. The spine was separated just above the sacrum and he had to be put together and secured with heavy stitches before he could be washed.

The coroner, Mr. Ed Battery, had been summoned and already a jury was empaneled. They were George Edgerton, Ben Hempel, William Bennett, Con Mahoney, A. Cunningham, William Knight.

The name of the man killed was Charles Brooks, he was about 22 years old, and has a brother working for Mr. Fitzgerald on the farm, and a sister at Glenwood.

After viewing the body carefully, and examining the wounds, the coroner, jury and witnesses adjourned to the city council chamber. Mr. Holdrege, of the B. & M., took charge of the body and assured the coroner that the railroad company would see to all expenses of burial and do all that was needed at present for deceased.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

The undersigned, having added new machinery equipment, begs to advise machine users of the community that we now have one of the best equipped machine shops in the state. We shall continue to manufacture the "Honest John" gasoline engine with added improvements, making it the most economical engine on the market. We will also be in the market soon with our "Iron Horse," the new Universal Tractor at a moderate price. Farmers and others will also find our Machine Shop of service to them. We employ only competent workmen and can overhaul and rebuild any kind of machinery equal to new. We are also owners of the Omaha Machine Works, Fourteenth and Jackson streets, Omaha. Both plants are in communication and tender their combined efforts to the satisfaction of our patrons.

For Croup -- Mothers-- Always Keep this Handy

The day of the Croup scare is over for those parents who wisely keep Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in the home ready for instant use.

W. C. Allen, Boseley, Mo., writes: "I have raised a family of four children, and have used Foley's Honey and Tar Compound with all of them. I find it the best croup and cough medicine I have ever used and I have used it for eight or ten years, and can recommend it for croup."

If toward nightfall the little ones grow hoarse or croupy, if their breathing becomes wheezy and stuffy, give them Foley's Honey and Tar Compound promptly and it will ward off an attack of croup.

If you are awakened by the hoarse brassy cough that means croup, give Foley's Honey and Tar Compound at once. It will ease the little sufferers quickly, cut the thick choking phlegm, and soon they will have easy breathing and peaceful quiet sleep.

A Strong Candidate.

The democrats have every reason to feel proud of the fact that they have a candidate for sheriff who is amply able to fill the office and one whom they can rely upon. This is none other than J. G. Wunderlich. Mr. Wunderlich has lived in the county a good many years, made the campaign at the last election and is well known to all. You know that he will make good, that he is the man for the office of sheriff and the democrats owe it to themselves to make him their choice of candidates before the fall election. Support Wunderlich for sheriff. — Eagle Beacon.

RENEWED TESTIMONY

No one in Plattsmouth who suffers backaches, headaches, or distressing urinary ills can afford to ignore this Plattsmouth man's twice-told story. It is confirmed testimony that no Plattsmouth resident can doubt.

C. L. Bates, farmer, Ninth and Walnut streets, Plattsmouth, says: "Kidney complaint seemed to come over me all of a sudden. I attributed the trouble to a heavy cold which settled on my kidneys and made them weak, causing the secretions to pass too frequently. I suffered considerably from pain across the small of my back. To stoop or stand erect sent sharp twinges darting through my loins. I was languid and had but little ambition. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Edward Rynott & Co.'s drug store, soon greatly benefited me and two boxes made a permanent cure." (Statement given April 9, 1912.)

On February 22, 1916, Mr. Bates said: "My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills is just the same today as it was when I gave my first recommendation. I have never had Doan's Kidney Pills fail to do me good whenever my kidneys have caused me trouble."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Bates has twice publicly recommended and found the drill and reamers at Buffalo, N. Y.

Stylenus Clothes $17

For proud men and intelligent spenders!

Most men are practical on the Clothes subject. They want style of course! They want satisfactory wear.

That's why we make so many friends by selling

Styleplus $17
Clothes

"The same price the nation over."

They have style to spare—if you want a peppery model. But the big variety spreads out to include the man who doesn't care for a pronounced "cut." Even dress suits and tuxedos at $17. Also Norfolk suits.

It takes ability, capital and big business to produce a superior article at an average price.

The makers of Styleplus focus the effort of their great organization on this suit of one price.

Hence all wool fabrics, exceptional tailoring—and the style of a great designer. Always $17.

Everybody's Store

Bitten By a Rat.

Tom, the sixteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Fisher, who was bitten by a rat about two weeks ago and who was so seriously ill from Saturday until Tuesday, is reported as much better this, Thursday, morning.

Some ten days prior to the boy's severe illness he was sawing wood and discovered two rats in the woodpile. He succeeded in killing one and by this time the neighbor's dog came to his assistance and the rat, while getting away from the dog, ran up the boy's leg and when he brushed it off it bit him on the hand. After that the dog grabbed the rat and killed it.

Many wild stories have gone out and been told regarding the boy having hydrophobia and the dog being mad, and similar stories that had no foundation to them, although the boy was critically ill for several days with a temperature of from 104½ to 105. There was great concern that the rat might have been infected with rabies, but the dog had nothing to do with the case, as the rat bit the boy before the dog came in contact with it, and we are glad to note that the boy is getting along all right.—Weeping Water Republican.

Mrs. Oswald Guthmann Very Low.

The condition of Mrs. Oswald Guthmann, who is making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Gus Olson, is reported as very serious today and her family has but little hopes of her recovery as she has been suffering from hemorrhages for the entire day and is very weak as a result.
