Are You Wasting The Price Of a Titan Engine?

TITAN engines run on kerosene. Average cost of gasoline so far this year, 16.9 cents per gallon. Average cost of kerosene 7.7 cents per gallon. Gasoline costs over 100 per cent more than kerosene. Gasoline is going up steadily. Kerosene is not. At present fuel prices Titan engines, using kerosene, save their owners about 1.1 cents per horse power per hour.

Are you running a gasoline engine? What horse power is it? Figure what you'd be saving if you had a Titan kerosene engine. Rather surprising, isn't it? How long would it take that saving to pay for a Titan engine of the same size?

"THE FAMILY CUPBOARD"

CAST:

Charles Nelson Holbrook Blinn Kitty Claire Frances Nelson Dick Le Roy John Hines

World Film corporation presents the five part photoplay, "The Family Cupboard," based on the very successful Brady stage play of the same name.

Charles Nelson is a self-made man and has amassed a fortune. His family consists of his wife, son Kenneth, and daughter Alice. His wife has become absorbed in society, requiring all the money her husband can make to support the large establishment and entertain. The wife, son and daughter are out night after night, leaving Mr. Nelson much alone; while he pays the bills, he has little of the society of his family. He turns to Kitty Claire, a vaudeville performer, for consolation and companionship.

His son Kenneth gets into an argument with a friend at his club and hears that his father is keeping a woman in an establishment up town. Kenneth returns home under the influence of liquor and insults his mother's companion, Mary Burke. Mr. Nelson enters, sees the situation and asks him what it all means. Kenneth turns on him and tells him that every one knows he is keeping a woman in an apartment up town. This conversation is overheard by Mrs. Nelson, who asks Mr. Nelson if it is true. He replies "Yes." They agree to part. Kenneth clings to his mother. Alice, the daughter, sympathizes with her father. She realizes that it is their own fault; they have given him nothing in return for all his labor on their behalf.

Mr. Nelson is now living at the Alpine apartments, to which comes Kitty Claire. He tells her the end has come. Meanwhile Kenneth, the son, has come to see his father. Kitty, going out, hears him ask if his father is in, and seeks an acquaintance with Kenneth, who becomes infatuated with her and moves to the same hotel. Then Kenneth begins to live a Bohemian life with Kitty Claire and Dick LeRoy, another vaudeville performer.

He finally asks Kitty to become his wife. She replies that it is impossible, there was another man. The boy, crushed and broken-hearted, demands the name of the man. Mr. Nelson enters at the point when Kenneth demands the name of the man. Kitty points to Mr. Nelson.

Humiliated and ashamed, Kenneth decides to end his life. He is about to write a letter when his mother arrives. She sees the pistol and tries to keep him from carrying out his plan. They are interrupted by a knock at the door; Kenneth is called down to the office by the clerk; while he is gone Mrs. Nelson seizes the opportunity to telephone to Mr. Nelson. He arrives, with Alice, the sister. Kenneth and his father are reconciled, also Mrs. Nelson, and the husband and family are reunited.

This photoplay will be shown at the Gem theater next Tuesday, matinee and evening, May 2.

HER DEATH NEAR

So Everyone Thought, But Is Now Well And Stronger Than Ever.

Newton, Mo.—"I can certainly speak a good word for Cardui, the woman's tonic," says Mrs. Jay Rhoades, of this town. "I suffered for 12 years with my right side, and the last three years, I would have a bad spell with it about every three months. I would get so bad off, every one would think I could not live. The first of July, I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I haven't had a bad spell since soon after I began taking it. Before taking Cardui, I was so irregular, and, at times, I could hardly stand on my feet. Now, I can clean house, and do any kind of work without its hurting me in the least. Cardui will surely do for other women, what it did for me. I am telling all my neighbors about it."

Cardui is a mild and effective tonic for women, that has been found, by actual use, during more than 50 years, to relieve the ailments to which all women are peculiarly liable. Card-u-i has helped thousands. Why not you? Try it. NCB
