Journal Man Visits Cedar Creek.

The Journal man took a couple of hours off again this week and made another trip up to the flourishing little village of Cedar Creek, which we intend to do more frequently in the future, when the weather conditions will permit our making the drive. On this trip we found everybody as busy as usual, and all enjoying a good spring trade. The First Security Bank report their institution in a most prosperous condition, and gaining in business most every day. Mr. Foreman, the genial cashier, is making new friends all the time, and the new bank is gaining new customers. A prosperous and growing banking business speaks a great deal for the community in which they are located, and this bank is located in one of the most prosperous communities in the State of Nebraska. Why should it not be prosperous and growing.

Over at the Cedar Creek Lumber Co., we found the genial manager Paul H. Roberts in his usual good mood and enjoying just a trifle more than his usual good business at this season of the year. Here you will find the lumber line, as well as sorts of building material, and his prices are always right, the goods the very best, and with such conditions prevalent there is nothing left but to enjoy the business when it comes. He has been enjoying a good business on the celebrated white pine lumber that he has been advertising in the Journal so strongly for the past few weeks.

The saw mill turning out box lumber is again working full time with the usual number of men employed. They recently made shipment of two cars of this lumber, and have several more in the state of curing that will leave the yards as soon as in the proper condition for shipment.

The stone quarries are working a full force of men, which is in the neighborhood of seventy-five and are turning out great deal of material.

There is a movement on foot now to install a couple of street lights on the main street of Cedar Creek, which will prove a valuable improvement for the village. This movement should receive the liberal support of all.

Across the creek at the store of Mrs. Ruth Thompson, we found business moving right along, and all hands planning on a big summer business. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will always be found exerting every effort to the pleasing of their patrons. They are enjoying a good business, and are always looking for more.

Over at the big store of Wolff & Ault everybody was as happy as usual, and were enjoying their usual great big spring business that is always with them at this time of the year. We found both Mr. Wolff and Mr. Ault at home, and while our time was very much limited on this visit we enjoyed a few moments visit with them. They are doing a good business this spring.

Over at the genuine neat and tasty little tontorial parlor of S. J. Reames we found both Mr. and Mrs. Reames, who are without a doubt among the most pleasant people to meet in Cedar Creek. Here is not only a neat barber shop, but an ice cream parlor, candy and novelty store, on which lines they are enjoying a nice trade.

John P. Meisinger, who believes in having things about his farm home about so, is making some extensive improvements in the way of building on his farm east of Cedar Creek.

The Burlington are making some needed repairs on section house for Foreman Whittacker this week.

Philip Stoehr made a trip to Cullom Monday.

Henry Heil, jr., is making some extensive improvements in the way of new buildings on his farm.

Henry Thierolf made a trip to Papillion the latter part of last week, where he spent a few days with friends, returning home the fore part of the week, accompanied by Mrs. W. E. Meisinger, who will make a few days visit with Cass county friends and relatives.

George Thierolf and Clarence Ackley went out to the farm of James Robertson, south of Cedar Creek, the fore part of the week, where they will clear up some timber land for Mr. Robertson. We understand that the timber will be reduced to lumber for making various improvements on the place.

The many friends of Mrs. Jack McLean, who is at the Immanuel hospital in Omaha recovering from an operation, will be pleased to learn that she is getting along nicely and showing marked improvement, which has proved most pleasing to her family and friends, and with the same rate of improvement she will soon be on the highway to recovery.

18 YEARS OF LIVER TROUBLE

Finally Relieved by the Old Reliable Thedford's Black-Draught.

Traverse City, Mich.—Mrs. J. W. Edwards, of this town, says: "I suffered for about 18 years with liver trouble, and doctored with many different remedies. At last, I was told that an operation was the only thing that would help me, but I heard of Thedford's Black-Draught, and took six 25-cent packages and it cured me. I can recommend it to all who suffer from liver troubles."

I have influenced several of my neighbors to take Black-Draught Liver Medicine, and I give it to my grandchildren.

I can safely say that I owe my life to Black-Draught, as it put me on my feet after everything else had failed.

You know that you can depend upon Black-Draught Liver Medicine for quick and permanent relief in all disorders of the liver, stomach and bowels, such as indigestion, constipation, biliousness, headache, sour stomach, tired feeling, and many other common ailments, because, in the past 75 years, it has helped so many thousands of people, whose troubles were similar to these.

Safe, gentle in action, and without bad after-effects, Black-Draught is sure to benefit both young and old. Sold everywhere. 25c a package. Costs only one cent a dose. NCB 4

There's Solid Satisfaction in Using WHITE PINE

The soft, smooth grain work easily.

It's "responsive" to your tools and doesn't dull them.

You save time and effort in working with WHITE PINE and can be sure of workmanlike results—a job you're proud to call your own.

Then too, WHITE PINE means real economy even at a higher first cost because it does not warp, shrink, swell, sag, twist, or rot.

It stays put for years even in closest joints and takes paint perfectly.

Of all structural woods it's the most dependable for exposed surfaces.

Due to market conditions we have not carried WHITE PINE for some time. Now we have plenty of it. If all the items you need are not in stock, we can soon get them for you.
