RECENT statistics show that the number of women bank depositors is steadily increasing. It is a healthy sign of business conditions. There was a time when the number of women depositors was practically nil. With the advent in the business world of so many women it was assured that the number of female depositors would show an increase.

Women are inclined to be more thrifty than men. Thrift and banking go hand in hand. Many women in this community have bank accounts. To those who have not this appeal is made. Open a bank account today. Once having opened it, add to it. Watch it grow. You'll like the experience.

WE'LL BE GLAD TO EXPLAIN OUR BANKING SYSTEM.

Four per cent interest on time deposits.

Married.

Vivian C., oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Fitzpatrick, was married at her parents home three miles southeast of Imperial, Thursday, April 27, 1916, at 8 p. m. to Edward J. Boedecker of Nehawka, Cass county, Nebraska, Rev. H. H. Miles of the M. E. church of Imperial, officiating.

Both the contracting parties are strangers to this community, except the bride who has been here only since March, moving here with her parents from Cass county. In so short a time she has made many friends who are sorry to see her go away so soon, but are confident she will make a comfortable home for the one who has chosen her to be his home maker. A year prior to her coming here she had been employed as a stenographer in Omaha. She was born in Virginia, but has spent the last twelve years in Cass county, and is now returning to continue her stay there. Her christian graces speak much for her future vocation.

The groom was born and raised in Cass county, near Nehawka. He comes from a stock of "industrious" parentage and is himself well equipped to take unto himself a wife. Being a successful farmer, a good provider, a man of clean habits, we anticipate for them success and happiness. Mr. and Mrs. Boedecker will begin house-keeping and farming near Nehawka, Nebraska.—Imperial Republican.

The Journal joins with the Republican and the many friends of these excellent young people in wishing them much joy and happiness and a long and prosperous married life. We have been personally acquainted with the Fitzpatrick and Boedecker families for a great many years, and we know we speak the truth when we say they are among the very best in this great land of ours.

DEATH COMES VERY SUDDEN TO MRS. A. L. BAKER OF MURRAY

From Wednesday's Daily.

It was a profound shock to the community last evening when it was learned that Mrs. Arthur L. Baker of Murray had been taken by death almost without warning, and to many it seemed almost impossible that this lady, who but a few days ago they had in their midst had been suddenly called from her earthly life by the Master's touch.

Mrs. Baker motored to Omaha yesterday morning and entered the Presbyterian hospital there for an operation, but as the anesthetic was being administered the heart of the lady was not strong enough for the ordeal and death came to her without the slightest warning shortly after 10 o'clock. The death comes as a great shock to the bereaved husband and daughter, who are left to mourn the departure of this estimable lady. The unexpectedness of the blow has made itself most stunning to the relatives and friends and only time can soften the intensity of the sting of death.

Miss Ida Parr was born on a farm near Sheridan, Indiana, February 13, 1872, and there grew to womanhood and receiving her education in that community where her family was among the most prominent in that portion of the state. In 1890 she came to Murray, Nebraska, where her sister, Mrs. B. F. Brendel, was living, and for a number of years made her home with her sister and family until her marriage on June 13, 1897, to Arthur L. Baker. To this union there was born one daughter, Miss Opha, who is left behind with the father and husband to share his grief. One sister, Mrs. B. F. Brendel, resides at Murray, while two sister, one half-sister, four brothers, one half-brother and the aged mother of the deceased reside near the old home in Indiana.

The funeral of Mrs. Baker will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Christian church in Murray, of which she was a member for several years, and the body will be laid to rest in the Horning cemetery, just south of Plattsmouth.

To the husband and daughter the deepest sympathy of the entire community will be extended in their hour of grief and separation from their wife and mother.

Mrs. Henry Engelkemeier and babe, Misses Sophia Krueger and Emma Eikenbary were among those going to Omaha this morning where they will visit for the day, going on the early Burlington train.

Glen Boedecker, cashier of the Murray State bank, was in the city last evening for a few hours looking after some matters of business and visiting with his friends.

C. F. Harris of near Union was in the city today for a few hours looking after some matters of business at the court house as well as calling on his friends.

Mrs. Bennett Chriswiser was an Omaha passenger this morning to spend a few hours in that city looking after some matters of business.

Now She Feels Well.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jakob was quite ill; stomach weak, digestion very poor, stool once in 4-5 days and with hemorrhage at that. Not knowing what to do any more, she ordered Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine and now she says: "So I am writing to you to let you know that I am feeling well, that it is an excellent remedy. I felt better as soon as I began to use it. Elizabeth Jakob, Box 58, Alicia, Mich." Most of our ailments have their origin in the stomach not working properly. As soon as some irregularity appears, headache, dizziness, depression, nervousness, loss of appetite follow. Do not wait any longer when any of these signs are apparent, but take Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. It will set you right again, improve the functions of the digestive apparatus, remove the cause of your trouble and you will feel again like a new being. At drug stores. Price, $1.00. Jos.
