

ANOTHER ENTERPRISE OF GREAT IMPORTANCE

SOMETHING THAT IS GREATLY NEEDED AND AN IMPROVEMENT TO THE CITY.

From Saturday's Daily.

Yesterday afternoon was consummated a deal that will place in our city something it has long needed and which will be appreciated by the citizens—a modern, up-to-date apartment house provided with all the comforts and conveniences that modern life can demand or suggest.

The deal was closed by the Bankers' Realty company of Omaha with John V. Hatt and Fred Majors for the purchase of the quarter lying just east of the court house and on which the Realty company will erect a new apartment house costing in the neighborhood of from $25,000 to $30,000. The site is one that is ideal for this purpose and will, without doubt, find a ready demand from the citizens of Plattsburgh, who are facing a famine in suitable homes to house the rapidly increasing population of the city.

This new building will be made entirely of brick and be strictly up to the minute in its equipment, and the plans will be in the office of Mr. J. P. Falter, the local representative of the company, in a week in order that the public may see them and realize that at last we are progressing cityward, in the building line.

There will be fourteen or sixteen apartments in the new building, which will be two stories in height, and each apartment will contain from four to six strictly modern rooms as well as a bath, and each apartment will be entirely separate from the others, insuring the strictest privacy. The rooms will be finished in the best possible manner to insure beauty as well as comfort and will make ideal homes for the people desiring them. With first-class janitor service and strictly modern management of the building there is no doubt that they will be grabbed up at once as soon as completed.

The apartment house will be built in the form of an "L" facing both on Vine and Third streets, while in the courtyard in the rear will be prepared a playground for children as well as a neat tennis court for the use of the residents of the apartments and these will be kept up in perfect shape and add to the pleasure and comfort of those residing in the building.

This is one of the biggest building enterprises of the year and the recognition by outside capital of the value of the city as a place for the investment is a well deserved recognition of the spirit of progress that is dominating the life of the community and the confidence in the future development of the great advantages which Plattsburgh possesses over its neighbors.

The new building will be commenced as soon as possible and when the residents living in the houses on the building site can move and make way for the commencement of the good work of putting up the apartment house.

MOTHER'S DAY CELEBRATED THROUGHOUT THE ENTIRE LAND

From Saturday's Daily.

Tomorrow, throughout the length and breadth of the land will be celebrated Mother's day when young and old will pay their tribute of voice and deed to the mother, whether she may be with the children on this day, or called away from this life to await the coming of the loved ones in another world. The beautiful flowers which by their wearing, attest the respect felt for motherhood, are but a small part of the observance of the day as thousands of men and women will gather with mother to aid her in celebrating the day properly and giving her words and deeds of comfort. It is a rare pleasure to be able to observe the day with those nearest and dearest to you and to feel that mother is there to assist in the happiness of the day.

Plattsburgh will observe the day with appropriate services in the different churches while in the homes there will be many family reunions held that will be very pleasant to both mother and the children. Wear the carnation tomorrow, the emblem of mother's day, and share with her the spirit of love and affection which it teaches.

METHODIST CHURCH WILL OBSERVE MOTHER'S DAY

The Methodist church in this city is preparing to observe Mother's day on next Sunday with exercises appropriate to the occasion, which is one filled with the most tender significance to everyone. The pastor, Rev. F. M. Drulliner, will deliver a special sermon at the morning service appropriate to the day and which will bring home the message of the day of honor to the motherhood of the nation. The music for the day will be prepared in keeping with the spirit of the occasion and there will be several special numbers. The Bible class will observe the day in the usual manner of honoring the memory of mother.

FUNERAL OF MRS. A. BAKER ON THURSDAY AFTERNOON

From Friday's Daily.

The funeral services of Mrs. Arthur L. Baker were held yesterday afternoon at the Murray Christian church of which faith the departed lady had long been a member, and the body was laid to its long last rest in the Horning cemetery just south of this city.

The friends and neighbors for many miles around gathered at the church to tender their last tribute of respect and affection for the highly esteemed lady who had so suddenly been taken from their midst and from the bosom of her family. The services were in charge of Rev. Robb, pastor of the church, who spoke feelingly and tenderly of the departed lady whose taking had been so unexpected and tempered the bitter grief of the heartbroken husband and daughter with words of comfort from the teachings of the Master.

During the services at the church several of the old hymns were given by the choir of the church composed of R. A. Root, Albert Young, Mrs. Charles Carroll and Miss Viola Wiley, that brought to the hearts of the hearers a feeling of faith and of hopefulness of the meeting with their loved one in another land where the grief of parting would not come to them.

After the service the cortege wended its way to the cemetery where all that was mortal of this estimable lady was consigned to the silent tomb to rest. The pall bearers were selected from the old friends and neighbors and were W. B. Virgin, W. W. Hamilton, J. W. Holmes, Ran Minford, John Edmunds and T. S. Barrows. The funeral party was accompanied by a large number of the friends and neighbors to the grave.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH CHOIR IS ENTERTAINED

From Saturday's Daily.

Last evening the members of the Presbyterian church choir were very pleasantly entertained at the home of Miss Verna Cole. The early hours of the evening were devoted to their regular weekly rehearsal of the music for the morning service Sunday, after which the members of the choir indulged in various amusements which afforded them much pleasure and made this evening's entertainment a most delightful one. At a convenient time the hostess served some dainty and tempting refreshments, which added materially to the evening's pleasure. At a late hour the members of the choir dispersed, declaring Miss Cole to be a most excellent entertainer.

GIRLS ARE SOME SINGERS

From Saturday's Daily.

A few nights ago one of the residents in the west part of the city was aroused about 10 p. m. from his peaceful slumbers by the sound of feminine voices which came from the street and the parties seemed to have selected the corner near his home for their oratorical and vocal efforts and soon on the evening breeze the gentle notes of "How Dry I Am" floated, and from the vigor of the singing the girls must have felt that way. If the householder had been fortunate enough to have had a "cold one" at the house, he certainly would have broken the drought.

MRS. E. G. SHALLENBERGER ILL

From Saturday's Daily.

Mrs. E. G. Shallenberger is still quite ill at her home, having been suffering for the past several months with illness and for a short time was somewhat improved, but has suffered a relapse and is again confined to her home.

WEeping WATER NIGGER ARRESTED FOR STEALING CLOTHING

From Saturday's Daily.

Willie Darius, a gentleman of African descent and claiming Weeping Water as his residence, was brought in today and lodged in the county jail to answer to the charge of having stolen a suit case and a suit of clothes and overcoat belonging to Charles Jackson and William Alden, also gentlemen of color, from their boarding place in Weeping Water yesterday afternoon. Willie had progressed as far as Union on making his getaway with the "swag," but met his Waterloo there as he fell into the hands of Constable James Wilson, who arrested the man and held him until he could be brought to the county seat to be placed in jail. As Constable Wilson was searching the suit case at the Union depot, Willie made a sudden dash for liberty and running out of the depot door attempted to outrun the constable, who, however, was somewhat of a foot racer himself, and getting in range he called to the negro to halt or stand a bombardment, and the man wisely concluded that it was better to be a prisoner than to take chances of being made a target, and halted. He was brought to this city and turned over to Sheriff Quinton. From what can be learned of the affair it seems that Jackson and Alden had departed for their work when Darius got possession of the clothes and suit case by breaking the window in the room and pilfering the articles, making his getaway before the loss was discovered. Darius claims that he purchased the suit case and contents of a man named Ed Madison for $6, but his story does not seem to fit in well with the facts in the case. County Attorney A. G. Cole will file a complaint against the man this afternoon charging him with stealing the clothes and suit case.

FAREWELL PARTY TO MR. AND MRS. PHILIP RIHN

From Saturday's Daily.

Thursday evening, a surprise farewell party was tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Philip Rihn, who are soon to leave for their new home at Bartlettville, Oklahoma, where Mr. Rihn has accepted the proprietorship of a variety store in that place. Mr. Rihn departs Saturday, but Mrs. Rihn remains here until school is out, when she will join Mr. Rihn. Mr. and Mrs. Rihn have lived here since childhood and have always been active members in the work of the Church of Christ. Mr. Rihn has been president of the Christian Endeavor for a number of years and Mrs. Rihn has been the teacher of the Young Ladies' Sunday school class. Various games and amusements were engaged in until a late hour. Refreshments were served, after which the small gifts of love and remembrance from their friends were presented to them in a very pleasing manner by Rev. Per-Lee. After Mr. and Mrs. Rihn had expressed their appreciation and thanks for the gifts, the guests spoke their words of regret in having to lose this estimable couple from their midst and bid them farewell, wishing them success and happiness in their new home in the future.

Those in attendance were Messrs. and Mesdames PerLee, Whittaker, Hudson, Bunch, Rihn; Mesdames Crook, Wainscott, Tulene, Hansen and Mrs. Evans and two sons, who are guests at the Rihn home; Misses Ina and Fay Crook, Orpha and Bente Stone, Adele Fitzpatrick, Edna Tulene, Thelma Hudson, Viola Stander, Ruby Wainscott, Hazel Bunch, Florence Hensen, Marvel Whittaker, Una and Eva Crook, Doris Wainscott; and Messrs. John Russell and Hugh Stander, Harry, Leory and Paul Wainscott, Cassius Carey, Joe McCarthy, Gwendolyn Wampler, Clair and Wayne Hudson, Maurice Whittaker, Howard Bunch, Corporal Stone, Lawrence and Marion Evans.

GETTING READY FOR WORK.

From Friday's Daily.

The material that will be used in the construction of the new residence of W. A. Swatek on Main street, between Twelfth and Thirteenth street, is being hauled to the site of the new building and work will soon be commenced on the work of constructing the new residence. This will make a very pleasing addition to the handsome homes in that section of the city.

I have 40 acres of farm land 90 miles southeast of here. What have you to offer in exchange? Address Box 124, Plattsburgh, Neb. 5-10-d3t wkiyt

MRS. VAL BURKLE ENTERTAINS THE PAST CHIEFS

The Past Chiefs of the Degree of Honor were entertained in a most charming manner yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Val Burkle on lower Main street and the occasion was one of the greatest of pleasure to the large number of ladies present, and was one of the most delightful occasions that the ladies have enjoyed for some time. The rooms of the home were very prettily decorated with lilies and snowballs whose beauty added a pleasing touch to the occasion and made a fitting setting for the happy gathering. The afternoon was spent in a Kensington with the plying of the busy needle and social conversation passing the house most pleasantly. During the afternoon a delicious and tempting luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Teresa Droege, which served to further heighten the pleasures of the members of the party. Mrs. Virginia Allen of San Francisco, who is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McDaniel, was present as a guest of the ladies of the society.

COMMENDABLE PIECE OF WORK BY THE BURLINGTON

The Burlington is today engaged in a very commendable piece of work in putting a fence at either side of the subway near the depot, which will hereafter prevent the people going to and from the ball park from walking over the right-of-way of the railroad and crossing the tracks which is a dangerous practice and which often has been warned against by both the railroad company and the chief of police. The fence will extend back on either side of the subway for a sufficient distance to guarantee that the habit of trespassing on the railroad property will be cut out to a great extent.

FUNERAL OF MRS. CARL HOLMBERG SATURDAY AFTERNOON

The funeral services of Mrs. Carl Holmberg was held Saturday afternoon from the late home on Granite street and a large number of the friends and neighbors were present to tender their last tribute of respect and esteem to the departed, who while yet was in her first years of her young womanhood had been taken from their circle, and to share with the bereaved husband and parents the grief that the loss had brought to them. The services were in charge of Rev. Drulliner, of the Methodist church who gave a few brief remarks from the text, "Her Sun Has Gone Down While it is Yet Day," and paid a touching tribute to the departed lady who will be missed so greatly by her friends and the family. During the services Mr. C. S. Johnson and Mrs. Chas. Jelenik gave two numbers taken from the old familiar hymns which in their touching beauty brought comfort to the wounded hearts of the members of the family. The body was laid to rest in Oak Hill cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS.

To our friends and neighbors, who so kindly assisted us with their aid and sympathy during the illness and death of our beloved wife, daughter and sister, we desire to return our most sincere thanks and assure them their kindness will never be forgotten. We also desire to thank the employees of the B. & M. shops, paint shops, blacksmith shops and store department; the many organizations as well as friends, for their beautiful floral remembrances at the funeral.

RIGHT OF TAXATION FOR THE PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS

From Saturday's Daily.

The Commercial club and a number of the citizens are becoming interested in the proposition of having the city council under the law of the state covering the right of municipalities to make a levy for public amusements, to create a levy this year for the purpose of aiding the band in this city and assist not only in maintaining the band during the summer but also allow them to maintain their organization during the winter months. While the subscriptions from the public spirited citizens have been very liberal, still there is quite an amount to raise and the sum that could be secured from the city would put the band in nice shape and permit of paying the members something for their services at the concerts. A number of the other cities of the state of this size have adopted the plan of having a small levy to assist in the good work, and it seems as though this city ought to be able to raise at least $600 in addition to the public subscription to provide for public concerts and to allow the members of the band a fair allowance, as well as the instructor. The Burlington band will be under the direction of Richard Avard this season.

PORTRAITS OF ALICE DOVEY IN COSMOPOLITAN MAGAZINE

The June Cosmopolitan magazine in their dramatic section devoted to the art photographs of a large number of leading stars on the American stage, appears a very handsome series of portraits of Miss Alice Dovey, one of the most brilliant of the musical comedy stars, and who has created a most favorable impression in the metropolis of the world by her clever work in "Good Enough Eddie" which has scored a distinct hit. Miss Dovey being a Plattsburgh young lady is watched with interest by the residents of this section of Nebraska and her continued success is a tribute to her ability in this line.

SHI'S SOME FINE HOGS.

From Friday's Daily.

A. S. Will and son, Grover, yesterday had 350 head of their fine hogs on the market at South Omaha and the animals had the distinction of topping the market in price, bringing $9.75 a hundred, which is a good price. The hogs were shipped from Mynard and the trip from the farm to the stock yards was made without a single loss.

CROP CONDITIONS IN NEBRASKA ARE REPORTED GOOD

From Saturday's Daily.

The May crop report of the United States department of agriculture forecasts a 59,300,000 bushel winter wheat crop for Nebraska, compared with 66,618,000 a year ago. The price this year, however, is $1.37 a bushel compared with 93 cents a year ago. The forecast for the crop in the United States is 449,000,000, more than 44,000,000 more than last year.

The meadow condition in Nebraska is represented by 92, compared with a ten-year average of 89. Pastures are 90 compared with the same average of 86. Seventy-three per cent of the spring plowing was finished on May 1, while last year at the same time only 52 per cent of the work was done. Forty-five per cent of the planting, compared with 48 per cent a year ago, is done.

There are 815,000 tons of hay on the farms, worth $8.10 a ton, compared with 279,000 tons a year ago, worth $5.70 a ton.

SUFFER FROM SMALL CYCLONE.

ENJOYS VISIT IN COUNTRY.

Uncle Jacob Meisinger returned home Saturday afternoon from a week's visit out in the country, where he has been spending a few days at the home of his sons, C. J., John and George P. Meisinger, Jr. Mr. Meisinger enjoyed the outing very much, but reports that the rain was badly needed by the small grain, which had been suffering from the dry weather, and since the rain of yesterday he is of the opinion that it did a great deal of good to wheat throughout this section of the county.

DAVE AMICK SOMEWHAT BETTER

Dave Amick, who has been quite sick for the past few days, suffering from an attack of pneumonia, is reported as being a little improved, although still quite ill, but the improved condition has given his family and the attending physician hopes for his recovery. Saturday afternoon Mr. Amick was very low, but has since shown a little more strength, which has been most pleasing.
