

MOTHER'S DAY OBSERVED AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

From Tuesday's Daily.

Mother's day was most appropriately observed at the Presbyterian church Sunday, both at the Sunday school and the morning services. The pastor has been devoting five minutes of the morning services to a sermon for the children and on this day read "A Boy's Poem to His Mother," which had been written by a boy of 14 years, which clearly denoted his love for his mother. The choir rendered a special and appropriate anthem, which was given in a most pleasing manner. Preceding the sermon Miss Mathilde Valley rendered a beautiful vocal solo. The pastor, Rev. McClusky, delivered an eloquent and pleasing sermon, his subject being "A Tribute to Our Mothers," and which was listened to with the closest of attention by the large number in attendance. The members of the congregation were presented with white rose buds.

ALLMAN BROTHERS BAND AND ORCHESTRA A GOOD ONE

From Tuesday's Daily.

The concert band of the Allman Brothers' show gave its opening concert yesterday afternoon on Main street, and called at the Journal office where two very pleasing selections were given which proved most enjoyable. This band is under the direction of Mr. Claude Meyers and is one of the best of its kind in the business and a musical attraction of more than usual merit, and the leader is able to secure some mighty good work from his assistants. A number of the band also assist in the fine orchestra which is an important part of the show.

VANDALS GET IN WORK ON HENRY WIEDEMAN'S VAULT

From Tuesday's Daily.

Sheriff C. D. Quinton and County Attorney A. G. Cole were out at Greenwood yesterday looking into a robbery which took place there last Saturday evening. It seems that some persons broke the lock on the beer vault of Henry Weidman sometime Saturday night or early Sunday morning, and took several kegs of beer therefrom. It has not been fully determined just how much of the wet good was taken, but an inventory is being taken to determine the value of the stolen property. So far it has been impossible to locate the burglars, but it is thought that it will be possible to run them down and bring them to justice.

COMMERCIAL CLUB TO TAKE UP HOME COMING WEEK

From Wednesday's Daily.

The Commercial club will meet tomorrow evening at the rooms in the Hotel Riley block to take up one of the most important questions of the year—that of the Home Coming week and fall festival that has been proposed to be given in this city. This is a matter in which everyone is interested and the active work of organizing for the event will be taken up at this meeting and a number of plans discussed for making it a most gala occasion in the history of the city. To make it the great success that it should be there must be a hearty cooperation of everyone in the city, and the Commercial club has started the ball rolling in the proper direction for assuring it a great success. Everyone who can should make it a point to be in attendance and take part in the suggestions that may be made for furthering the interests of the subject.

It has been some time since this city has held a celebration of any kind and it is appropriate that such an event be held this fall at the close of a most successful year for the city and county and to invite all the former Plattsmouth and Cass county residents here for a week of festivity that marks the wonderful progress of the last four years in the life of the city. Come out tomorrow evening and enjoy a few hours in the outlining of the plan and the things needful toward making the fall festival a great, booming success.

I have 40 acres of farm land 90 miles southeast of here. What have you to offer in exchange? Address Box 124, Plattsmouth, Neb.

MRS. GOBELMAN ENTERTAINS A NUMBER OF HER FRIENDS

From Wednesday's Daily.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. F. R. Gobelman entertained a few of her lady friends at a charming kensington at her cozy rooms over the Westcott store. Whenever invited to the Gobelman home, the guests always anticipate a genuine good time, and their anticipations were fully realized in the entertainment of yesterday afternoon. Various amusements, music, sitting on dainty fancy work and social chat were all thoroughly enjoyed, and the dainty and delicious two-course luncheon from the prettily decorated table in the dining room was not the least appreciated of the many delightful things provided by the thoughtful hostess for the entertainment of her guests. Each guest's place was marked with a handsome place card, bearing the letters of the guest's name somewhat jumbled up, and each guest found her particular place at the table when she got the letters untangled so that they spelled her name in the proper manner. Covers were laid for six: Mesdames E. H. Wescott, William Baird, Frank Morgan, C. S. Johnson, Charles Hiatt and Mrs. Gobelman.

THE W. C. T. U. HOLD A VERY INTERESTING BUSINESS SESSION

From Tuesday's Daily.

The members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union held a most interesting business session yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. P. Eastwood. There was a large number in attendance and considerable business matters were transacted, and many plans made for the future work of the society. The ladies made various plans for their Floral Mission day program, which will be held at the home of Mrs. P. E. Ruffner, June 5. They also decided to decorate the graves of their deceased members on Memorial day. The ladies are planning to hold a musical and essay contest, which will be held after the close of school, and various plans were discussed and arrangements made for this occasion. The entire afternoon was devoted to planning for various things and the hour for departure coming so soon, the ladies were unable to take up the program for the afternoon.

ELMWOOD FARMERS PROTEST AGAINST TRANSFER TO CITY

From Wednesday's Daily.

There was a great deal of interest at the court house this morning when a large number of the residents of near Elmwood motored down to appear before a meeting of the county commissioners, County Superintendent Eda Marquardt and County Clerk Frank Libersal, and to enter a protest against the transfer of their lands into the Elmwood school district No. 95. Among those in the party were Albert Wallinger, Dave Kunz, Jr., Richard Deles Dernier, H. L. Miller, J. N. Deles Dernier, J. W. Mendelhall, Henry Hayes, Frank Gustin; and D. O. Dwyer of this city appeared as attorney for the parties before the meeting. The residents of school district No. 95 have applied to the county to have their district given the six sections of land as provided by the law passed by the last legislature, and the protestants desire to remain in their respective districts and not be placed in the Elmwood district.

ERNEST WELLS NOW BOASTS OF A FULL HAND OF QUEENS

From Wednesday's Daily.

Cards have been received in this city announcing the arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wells in Red Oak, Ia., of a fine new daughter who tips the scales at nine and one-half pounds. The mother and little one are doing nicely and Ernest is feeling as only a proud father can under the circumstances when such a fine little daughter has been presented to him. He states that four queens beats a full house any time, and is mighty proud of the four daughters that brighten his home, and will in time learn the joys of possessing a son-in-law to cheer him in his declining years.

H. E. SCHNEIDER BUYS GEO. DOVEY BANK STOCK

From Wednesday's Daily.

One of the most important business changes that has been made in the city for some time was consummated today when Henry A. Schneider purchased the stock of George E. Dovey, president of the First National bank, in this city, and will become interested in the bank, the oldest financial institution in the city. This will be very pleasing news in that it is an assurance that Mr. Schneider, who is a live wire in every way, will again be a resident of Plattsmouth and have an active part in the business life of the city. Mr. Dovey retires from the bank after a connection covering some thirty-five years as the administrator of the estate of E. G. Dovey, his father, and during the greater part of which time he has served as president of the First National. He has made a splendid official, but with other business to engage his attention finds it best to lay down the interests in the bank and devote his time to his mercantile business.

Mr. Schneider will bring a store of energy and push into the banking business and with his ability and clear judgment will undoubtedly make a splendid success of his new business venture. He has been engaged for the past two years in the banking business in California and Oregon.

CHOIR AND GLEE CLUB CONCERT AT METHODIST CHURCH

The theme of "The Rose Maiden," which will be sung by the choir and glee club at the Methodist church Friday evening, is one of spring, and is especially appropriate at this time. The theme is as follows: The queen of the flower fairies prays of spring that he will bestow upon her the gift of love which he bestows upon man. After warning her of the dangers in store for her, he yields to her entreaties and changes her while she sleeps into the form of a lovely girl. Under the name of Roseblossom she wanders forth into the world, and is at length won in love by a forester, with whom she lives in such perfect happiness that she could not survive his death. The elves bewail the fate of their queen, and pronounce love as fatal to peace and happiness.

The solo parts will be carried by Messrs. York and Clويد, Mrs. Mae Morgan and Miss Hazel Tucey. Trios and quartets and the complete chorus of thirty-five voices will complete the song cycle.

Mrs. E. H. Wescott will direct, and the accompanists will be Mrs. A. O. Eggenberger and E. H. Wescott.

The music is offered without charge to the public. A silver offering will be received at the close, the proceeds of which will be used by the musical department in the purchase of new music.

Doors open at 7:30. Program will begin at 8:15. No one will be seated during rendition of any number.

MR. AND MRS. GORDER CELEBRATE TENTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Yesterday was the tenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Gorder, and in order that they might have this happy event commemorated in the proper manner a number of their most intimate friends very secretly planned a surprise. At 9 o'clock some forty neighbors and friends advanced on the Gorder home and invaded it and took Mr. and Mrs. Gorder by complete surprise, as their friends had not kept them posted on just what they were planning. However, Mr. and Mrs. Gorder somewhat recovered from their most awful shock and invited the invaders in and proceeded to entertain them in their usual most hospitable manner. This being their tenth wedding anniversary and the tenth being a tin one, Mr. and Mrs. Gorder were presented with beautiful bouquets, which were fastened in tin funnels. The invaders had come well armed with many good things to eat and these were placed in charge of Mrs. Mary Allison, who, with some able assistants, proceeded to prepare the luncheon. Mrs. John Hatt had charge of the entertainment of the guests and she distributed slips of paper bearing a verse or some song which proved to be some stunt, and which each guest was to perform. There were all sorts of stunts which afforded much merriment for this jolly company and made this occasion most enjoyable to the participants. At an appropriate time Mrs. Allison and her assistants served a most tempting luncheon, the "tin scheme" being carried out in the service—tin cups being used for the coffee, tin plates for sandwiches and the like. As tinware is a little out of date, the invaders presented their victims with beautiful pieces of aluminumware as a token of the love and esteem in which they are held by their friends and neighbors, and which will be cherished by them in years to come. The remainder of the evening was devoted to vocal and instrumental music, Miss McGregor, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Fred Majors, contributing a number of excellent piano selections, and little Miss Catherine McClusky rendering a little song entitled "Don't Forget Your Dad." At a late hour the invaders withdrew their forces, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Gorder's wedding anniversaries would come a little oftener.

Those in attendance were Messrs. and Mesdames H. G. McClusky, John Wehrlein, Will Wehrlein, J. M. Roberts, Will Schmidtman, Henry Zuckeweller, G. L. Farley, C. W. Baylor, T. M. Patterson, C. D. Quinton, Fred Majors, John Hatt, August Bach, R. W. Knorr, D. C. Morgan, Mesdames Allison, C. Wehlfarth, W. C. Tippens, J. W. Johnson, Olga Corscary, P. Goos; Miss Louise Gorder and Miss McGregor.

A SISTER OF MRS. E. C. HILL DIES AT BEEMER

The friends here of Mrs. E. C. Hill will regret greatly to learn of the death of her sister, Miss Elizabeth Spencer, which occurred yesterday morning at her home at Beemer, Neb., as the result of a paralytic stroke. Mrs. Hill was at the bedside when death came and was able to spend the last few days tenderly caring for the beloved sister as she slowly sank into the dreamless sleep of death. Miss Spencer was well known here, where she had been a visitor several times at the home of her sister, and was a very talented and charming lady, and to those who had the pleasure of knowing her the news of her death will bring deep regret.

EARL STANFIELD'S FATHER DIES SUDDENLy IN KANSAS

In the Belleville (Kas.) Telescope of May 17 appears a sketch of the life of R. T. Stanfield, father of Earl A. Stanfield of this city, and whose death occurred quite suddenly at his home in Belleville on Monday morning. Mr. Stanfield had not been feeling well for several days previous, but it was not thought that his condition was serious until he was stricken with a severe attack of heart trouble about 5 o'clock Monday morning and died a few minutes later, before his son was able to reach his bedside.

Mr. Stanfield was born in Jackson county, Indiana, January 11, 1845, and spent his boyhood there, enlisting when only 19 years of age in Company K, One Hundred and Twentieth Indiana volunteer infantry, and served during the civil war in Georgia and Tennessee, being present at the fall of Atlanta. He was discharged from the army January 8, 1866, at Raleigh, N. C. He moved to Kansas in 1868 and took up a homestead in Republic county, where he had since made his home. He took part in a number of the campaigns against the Indians in the west and was commissioned as a captain of militia by Governor Harvey of Kansas. He had been very active in the public life of his county and took an active interest in politics, being a staunch republican, and served as county treasurer of Republic county for four years and county trustee, as well as mayor of Republic, and later as mayor of Belleville. He was one of the delegates to the republican national convention in 1908 and assisted in the nomination of W. H. Taft for president.

In his last moments a kind and loving father Mr. Stanfield will receive the deepest sympathy of his friends in this city.

A VERY BEAUTIFUL WEDDING AT MYNARD

Miss Robbin Richardson United in Wedlock With Mr. L. G. Todd of Nehawka.

A most charming home wedding occurred last evening at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Richardson at Mynard when their daughter, Miss Robbin, was united in marriage to Mr. L. G. Todd of Nehawka. The Richardson home was arranged in a very pleasing manner for the happy event with artistic decorations of flowers, the hall and staircase being arranged with the stately Columbine, while the colonnades between the rooms were hidden beneath a mass of Bride's wreath. The dining room was arranged in a color scheme of pink and white, with pink snappers and bride's roses predominating.

Promptly at 8 o'clock the wedding ceremony was performed, the marriage lines being read by Rev. A. E. Wachtel of Louisville, former pastor of the Methodist church at Mynard and an old friend of the Richardson family, in a most impressive manner. The bridal party was preceded by little Anna Mae Richardson of Omaha, cousin of the bride, who bore the wedding ring concealed in a large white rose, and as the bride and groom advanced to their stations before the minister, Miss Pheme Richardson, sister of the bride, sang very sweetly "I Love You Truly," Miss Porter presiding at the piano.

The wedding was a very simple one, with only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties being present to witness the nuptials. Following the wedding ceremony the bridal party and guests were treated to a most delicious buffet luncheon in the dining room, while the two happy young people received the best wishes of their relatives for their future happiness and success as they journeyed on their way.

down life's highway as one. Among those in attendance at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Todd of Lincoln, parents of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. George C. Sheldon, Nehawka; Miss Julia Todd, Manley; Mr. Harold Todd, Nehawka; Frank S. Richardson and family of South Omaha, and Rev. A. E. Wachtel and family of Louisville.

After a few hours spent in receiving the congratulations and best wishes of their friends, the newlyweds motored to their future home on the Todd homestead, near Nehawka, and were escorted there by several auto loads of friends, who proceeded to give them a rousing home-coming and spent several hours in a most pleasant way in congratulating the young people.

MRS. RUFFNER FALLS AND SPRAINS HER ANKLE

Mrs. P. E. Ruffner met with a rather painful accident Tuesday evening which occurred when she fell while descending the steps at her home, and sprained her right ankle in a very severe manner. Mrs. Ruffner, with one of her neighbors, was en route to attend the meeting of the Knights and Ladies of Security lodge and had just started down the steps leading from the terrace to the sidewalk when her foot slipped in some way and she was thrown several feet to the brick walk below, turning her ankle and suffering a few small cuts on the face from particles of her eye glasses, where were broken in the fall. The accident will confine Mrs. Ruffner to her home for several days.
