—that's the remarkable record of this quaint house built in 1636 by first settlers at Dedham, Massachusetts.

Exposed to all sorts of weather for nearly three centuries, the wood is still good. That is because it's the most economical wood for home building—the one wood that does not shrink, warp, swell, crack, twist or rot—that “stays put,” even in closest-fitting mitres and in delicate mouldings—the wood that takes paint perfectly.

WHITE PINE

We always carry a large stock, and are glad to recommend it because it never fails to satisfy. It is a credit to us to sell, a saving to you to buy White Pine.

And, remember, when you buy lumber here you know what you are getting. See us before you buy.

LIVE STOCK PRICES AT SOUTH OMAHA

Cattle Market Steady to Strong; Receipts Moderate

HOG TRADE ABOUT 10c LOWER

Woolled Lambs Lower, Ewes About Steady. Good Supply of Sheep and Lambs.

Union Stock Yards, South Omaha, May 18, 1916.—The cattle run for Wednesday was moderate, 193 loads, or about 4,500 head. Most of the receipts were fat cattle of fair quality. The best of them sold readily at steady to stronger prices, while the common grades, especially yearlings, brought barely steady prices. The demand was strong for both shipping and local account. While some of the dealers were slow at the start, most of the offerings were cleaned up in short order at stronger prices. Both heavy cattle and yearlings brought up to $9.70, the highest figures paid so far this year, and the good to choice heaves brought $9.35@9.65. The bulk of the fair to good 1,000 to 1,200-lb. heaves sold around $9.10@9.30. Good to choice heifers of very scarce and brought as high as $9.00. Quotations on cattle: Good to choice heaves, $9.35@9.70; fair to good heaves, $9.10@9.30; common to fair heaves, $8.00@9.00; good to choice feeders, $8.00@8.50; good to choice stockers, $7.80@8.40; fair to good feeders, $7.50@7.90; common to fair feeders, $6.75@7.50; stock heifers, $6.75@8.25; stock cows, $5.75@7.50; stock calves, $7.25@8.75. The hog market for Wednesday was still on the decline, prices being about 10c lower than early market Tuesday. The offerings were large and when the buyers offered prices no more than 10c below yesterday's best price the sellers got busy, as the declines seemed greater at other points. The trade today had a great deal better tone, and the market was active throughout, the closing prices being strong with the opening. Most of the sales were made at $9.45@9.55, many selling at $9.55, the top reaching $9.75. The sheep and lamb run for Wednesday was large, 28 cars, or about 7,000 head. Most of the light and handy clippers went at steady prices, sometimes even stronger, while the heavy lambs went at about 10c lower. Three cars of woolled Colorado Mexicans were on sale, but the packers refused to pay steady prices, and they were not sold by noon. Spring lambs sold at about steady figures. Woolled ewes reached $9.50, a new record for the yards. Quotations on sheep and lambs: Lambs, good to choice, heavy, $12.10@12.35; lambs, fair to good, handy, $11.75@12.10; lambs, fair to choice, heavy, $11.00@11.75; lambs, clipped, heavy, $9.75@10.55; lambs, clipped, heavy, $9.25@10.15; lambs, spring, $11.00@12.00; yearlings, fair to choice, light, $10.00@11.00; yearlings, fair to choice, heavy, $9.00@10.00; wethers, fair to choice, $8.25@9.75; ewes, good to choice, $8.75@9.50; ewes, fair to good, $8.00@8.75; ewes, clipped, $6.75@8.35.

NURSE RELIEVES MUCH SUFFERING

The Patient She Helped Makes Interesting Statement.

Madison, Wis.—Mrs. Oscar Day of 1608 Irons Ave., Fair Oaks, this town, says: "Before my baby was born, I suffered terribly with womanly troubles and nervousness, and was living in a state of fear all the time. One day, an old friend of mine, who, by the way, is a nurse, and goes around to all cases, brought me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and told me to keep on taking it right along. I did, and felt much better after the first bottle. I kept on taking it, and had as little trouble as anybody could wish for. Feeling very good now."

There never was a better medicine for women than Cardui, and I will recommend it to any one who is in need of it. This nurse uses Cardui with her patients, so it is well known all around here.

I am never without a bottle of Cardui in my home. We urge you to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, for your troubles. It will help you over the hard places, just as it has thousands of other women. Don't delay. Begin taking Cardui today. You won't regret it.

The driveway leads up to his garage in the rear of his lot, and will prove a great convenience in reaching the same with his fine new Willys Knight car. The work was done by A. H. Rinker and is a fine piece of work, one that should certainly prove satisfactory to the owner.
