A RARE TREAT TO MUSIC LOVERS

"The Rose Maiden," which is to be given by the choir and glee club of the Methodist church on next Friday evening, is one of the most beautiful musical entertainments that has ever been offered in this city and a great deal of care and preparation has been made for its presentation by these two talented organizations. It is a treat well worth while and there will be no admission charged to the entertainment, and the silver offering taken will be devoted to the purchase of new music for the use of the musical department of the church.

PURCHASES FINE HORSES.

William Hild, a former resident of Cass county and at present engaged in farming near Brady, Neb., has been here this week visiting, and while here purchased a fine thoroughbred Percheon stallion of James W. Sage, the horse man of this city. Mr. Hild desires to have the best possible stock for his farm and in securing this fine registered animal certainly has one that will be found to be one of the best animals that money can buy. The horse will be shipped tomorrow to Brady. The horses owned by Mr. Sage are among the best in the state.

There is nothing more enjoyable than a good cigar and the "Eagle" and "Exquisite" made by Herman Spies are among the best in the city.

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB MEETING TONIGHT INTERESTING ONE

This evening at the Commercial club meeting P. A. Wells, one of the prominent attorneys of Omaha, and president of the George Washington Highway association, together with P. H. Dermont, secretary of the association, will be in the city and meet with the club to lay before it a number of plans that are being made to aid in the construction of this great national highway from Savannah, Ga., to Seattle, Wash., and which will pass through this city. The Washington highway, stretching from the southern to the northern part of the country, lies through the heart of the United States and is really the most scenic and interesting route that has been planned as a part of the system of national highways. Both of the visitors are gentlemen who have made a close study of the proposition and are in a position to furnish some very valuable information to the citizens of Plattsmouth who are interested in the new route inasmuch as it will pass through this city from Kansas City to Omaha. Come out and hear something that will be of value in understanding the new national highway.

ORDER OF EASTERN STAR ENJOY A MOST SOCIAL TIME

Last evening the members of the order of Eastern Star enjoyed a most interesting and pleasant meeting at the rooms in the Masonic temple, which was attended by a large number of the members. At the session of the lodge initiation was conducted and some time spent in carrying out the ritualistic work of the order in conferring membership upon Miss Nettie Morgan. At the close of the lodge meeting the ladies adjourned to the banquet hall, where most tempting refreshments of ice cream, strawberries, cake and coffee were served, which added very much to the delights of the pleasant gathering. The ladies of the Eastern Star have a most prosperous and active chapter in this city and their meetings are always filled with the greatest interest to the membership, which is steadily growing in numbers.
