LINES ON THE DEATH OF LITTLE SOPHRONIA ALENE STUECKLIN

"This lovely bud, so young and fair,
Called hence to early doom,
Just came to show how sweet a flower
In paradise could bloom."

Sophronia Cordelia Stuecklin was born in Watson, Mo., August 8, 1908, and died at her home in Plattsmouth, after an illness of only a few days, May 16, 1916. Everything that loving hands could do was done, but God knew best, and called the little sufferer home. She was very patient and her last hours were of thoughts of her schoolmates, often mentioning names of those dear to her. She will be greatly missed by the teacher and schoolmates from the little school which she attended so faithfully, as well as in the home circle. This is ever sad for the parents, whose home has been visited by the death angel three times in less than six months. The community extends its deepest sympathy to the wounded hearts in their hour of affliction.

Earth has lost its look of gladness,
Heaven seems to us more bright,
Since the spirit of our dear one
Took its happy homeward flight;
And we long to cross the river,
Long to rest upon that shore,
There to know and see and love them
With the Savior ever more.

Call not back the dear departed,
Anchored safe where storms are o'er.
On the border land we left her,
Soon to meet and part no more.
When our life of toil is ended,
When we leave this world of care,
We shall find our missing loved one
In our Father's mansion fair.

'Tis hard to break the tender cord
When love has bound the heart;
'Tis hard, so hard, to speak the words,
"We must forever part."
Dearest Frona, we must lay thee
In the peaceful grave's embrace,
But the memory will be cherished
Till we see thy heavenly face.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the many kind friends and neighbors who helped us during the sickness and death of our loved one. We also wish to thank the teachers and scholars and the Loyal Mystic Legion and the many friends for the beautiful flowers.

MR. AND MRS. T. A. STUECKLIN.

Chris Parkening was among the visitors in the city last Saturday attending to some trading with the merchants and visiting with friends.

Mrs. William Higgins, of Manley, arrived in the city Saturday afternoon to enjoy a visit here at the home of Mrs. F. R. Guthmann and family.

Will Tritsch was among the visitors from the country Saturday who braved the wet and disagreeable weather and came in to look after the week-end shopping.

Mrs. W. T. Adams, who has been visiting near St. Paul, Neb., at the home of her son, Max Adams, and family, returned home this afternoon on No. 24.

Mrs. and Mrs. Will Seybert, from near Cullom, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Honor, were in the city a few hours last Saturday, coming down on the Schuyler.

Mr. Warwick Saunders of Saunders company, Omaha, visited over Sunday at the home of W. T. Richardson at Mynard.

Frank Rhoden, who is engaged in the insurance business in the county, was in the city for a few hours today, looking after the interests of his company.

W. J. Vallery, wife and little son came down from Havelock Saturday evening and spent Sunday here with relatives and friends, returning to their home yesterday afternoon.

Carter Albin and son, Harry, and daughter, Versa, drove in this morning from their home, northeast of Union, and spent a few hours here looking after some trading. While in the city Mr. Albin paid the Journal a pleasant call and renewed his subscription for another year.

J. H. Bachelor of Thurman, Ia., who has been visiting for several days at Ashland with his sister, Mrs. May Derleth, came in this morning and will visit here until tomorrow with his friends in this city before returning to his home. While here Mr. Bachelor was a very pleasant caller at the Journal editorial rooms.

TAKING TREATMENT AT OMAHA HOSPITAL

From Saturday's Daily.
Mrs. H. Bestor of this city is spending a short time at the Immanuel hospital in Omaha, where she is taking treatment for an old complaint from which she has been suffering for the past few years. Mrs. Bestor has not been feeling the best, and on advice of her physician decided to spend a short time at the hospital, and is reported as doing nicely. Her many friends will trust that the treatment may be found successful and soon restore her to health.

J. E. SPENCER, FATHER OF MRS. E. C. HILL, DIED SUNDAY

Yesterday morning at his home, near Beemer, Neb., Mr. J. E. Spencer passed away after an illness of some months, suffering from cancer. His daughter, Mrs. E. C. Hill, of this city, was present at the bedside when the father passed to the great beyond, and she has been there for some time looking after him as well as her sister, who passed away last Tuesday.

Mr. Spencer was an old resident of Cuming county, having moved there in 1867, and taken up a homestead on which he had since lived. He was a veteran of the civil war and a member for many years of Wisner post, Grand Army of the Republic. The funeral will be held Tuesday and the body laid to rest in the Wisner cemetery. The services will be in charge of the Grand Army post.

The death of Mr. Spencer comes as a severe blow to Mrs. Hill, following in a few days that of her sister, Miss Elizabeth Spencer, who was buried only last Friday, and in her grief this estimable lady will receive the deepest sympathy of the friends in this city, who will share with her the deep affliction over the loss of two most dear to her.

SUIT FILED AGAINST THE MILLING COMPANY BY BANK OF NEHAWKA

A suit has been filed in the office of Clerk of the District Court James Robertson by the Bank of Nehawka against the Nehawka Milling company, a corporation, engaged in the milling business in that place, in which the bank seeks to recover the sum of $11,029, together with interest of 7 per cent, on eight promissory notes held by the bank against the company and covering a period from October 21, 1913. The notes are of different dates and amounts, totaling the sum noted above, and for which the Bank of Nehawka desires to recover a judgment.

JUDGE MORRISSEY AT ELMWOOD

From Saturday's Daily.
Chief Justice Andrew M. Morrissey of Lincoln will be the orator at the Decoration day services at Elmwood, and the residents of our neighboring town are to be congratulated on securing the distinguished jurist as their speaker for this occasion. Judge Morrissey has demonstrated that he is one of the ablest men that has sat on the state supreme court bench, and each day the people of Nebraska realize his worth to them. Judge Morrissey is also a brilliant orator and will give a fine address on this day, set apart to honor the memory of the dead of the nation.

FLOYD D. M'CART AND MISS FRANCES KOUBEK UNITED IN MARRIAGE

Saturday evening at the home of the bride's mother, in the south part of the city, occurred the marriage of Mr. Floyd D. McCart and Miss Frances Koubek, two of the popular young people of this locality. The wedding was attended by a number of the relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The marriage lines were read by the Rev. P. Reynolds in a most impressive manner as the two young people were joined for life as one. Following the ceremony the newlyweds were showered with the well wishes of their friends, while a dainty luncheon was served to the members of the bridal party and friends.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Joseph Koubek and a young lady held in the highest esteem in this community, where she has been reared to womanhood, and possesses a large circle of warm friends who will extend to her their best wishes for many years of happiness. The groom is a young man of industry, who has made his home in this portion of the county for the last few years, where he has been engaged in farm work, and is well worthy of the charming young lady he has secured as a helpmate.
