There was a very large attendance at the school picnic last Friday, and all seemed to have a genuine good time on the last day of school. The past year was a very successful one in the Cedar Creek schools, and the closing picnic could hardly be expected as nothing but a success in every particular.

The village trustees of Herman set aside a remonstrance by voting to issue a liquor license to George Paulson. Notice of appeal to the district court was filed by the remonstrators. Every effort is being made to settle the strike differences existing in Omaha and which have stopped construction work on Omaha's big buildings. So far no disturbances have marked the strike.

Fred Miller of Omaha pleaded guilty in federal court to a charge of attempting to rob the postoffice at Bradshaw and was sentenced to serve a year and a day in the federal prison at Leavenworth by Judge Munger.

Five hundred and forty-three men who wore the blue in the trying days of '61 have died in the last three years and the ranks of the veterans in this state have thus decreased in number to less than 7,500 at the present time.

Everything is in readiness for the "Seeing Nebraska" tour to be made over this state in a special train by eastern advertising experts during the week beginning June 5, under the auspices of the Nebraska publishers' bureau.

A motion to require State Treasurer Hall to pay into the court the $100,000 in oil inspection fees collected by him prior to April 1, 1915, has been filed in the supreme court by attorneys for the oil companies operating in the state.

A. G. Roberts of Lewellen, Neb., has filed complaint that a St. Louis liquor house is selling liquor to a minor of that city. Roberts asserts that the mails are being used to make delivery of liquor, which is forbidden by federal statutes.

Frank Gray of South Omaha had some throw lines in the Missouri river not far from his home and he went down to them to see if he had any fish. He found the body of a man apparently fifty years old, floating around in an eddy.

John W. Steinhart of Nebraska City was re-elected president of the Nebraska State Association of Commercial Clubs and W. D. Fisher of North Platte was re-elected secretary-treasurer. Alliance was selected as the next meeting place.

"THE WHOLE TRUTH"

Says Mrs. Eads, in Writing Her Praise For Cardui.

Circleville, Ohio.—"All I have said about Cardui, the woman's tonic, is the whole truth," says Mrs. Fannie Eads, of R. F. D. No. 6, this town.

"I suffered with womanly weakness, and pains in my back and limbs for two long years. I was so bad off, I could hardly walk at all.

My husband advised me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I concluded to follow his advice. After taking Cardui according to directions, I now feel like a new woman, and can do all of my work.

Before taking Cardui, I was a walking skeleton; now I weigh 150 pounds. I recommend Cardui to every suffering woman, for I know what it did for me. My dresser is never without a bottle of Cardui on it."

There is no reason why Cardui won't help you, just as it has Mrs. Eads, as well as hundreds of thousands of other women in the past 50 years. So if you suffer from any of the many ailments so common to women, or need a good strengthening tonic for that tired, nervous, worn-out feeling, get a bottle of Cardui today. At all druggists. NCB

LIVE STOCK PRICES AT SOUTH OMAHA

Heavy Cattle Stronger; Cow Stuff Mostly Firm

HOGS FROM 5-10c HIGHER

Lambs About 10c Higher; Ewes Sales Strong, Most Offerings Spring Lambs; Best California Springs Bring $11.35.

Union Stock Yards, South Omaha, Neb., June 1, 1916.—Cattle receipts for Wednesday were fair, 212 loads, or about 4,900 head. The demand for the weighty cattle was broad, and some new top prices were reached. Strictly choice 1,550 to 1,650 lb. beefs brought $10.60@10.65, the latter price being the highest paid here for cattle in May, and within a dime of the highest ever paid. Good heavy cattle sold at $10.10@10.50, and the fair to good 1,000 to 1,200 lb. beefs went at $9.50@10.00. Cow stuff about steady, and the desirable grades were active.

Quotations on cattle: Good to choice beefs, $10.00@10.50; fair to good beefs, $9.50@10.00; common to fair beefs, $8.25@9.25; good to choice heifers, $8.00@8.75; good to choice cows, $7.75@8.50; fair to good cows, $6.75@7.75; canners and cutters, $4.50@6.50; veal calves, $9.00@12.00; bulls, stag, etc., $6.50@8.50.

The hog receipts for Wednesday were fair, arrivals estimated at 135 cars or 9,500 head. The local shipper buyers had more orders than usual and started in early buying right and left on a strong to 10c higher basis, most of their purchases being a full nickel higher. The packers made their opening bids at figures that were mainly 5@10c lower than yesterday. However, after a few hogs had been sold on a slightly higher basis, they started to fill their orders, paying prices no less than steady and in most instances looked strong to 5c higher. Bulk of the hogs went at $9.25@9.40, and the top reached $9.50.

The run of sheep and lambs for Wednesday was moderate. There was not a clipped lamb on the market today, the bulk of the offerings being California spring lambs, along with a few natives. The packers took more kindly to the spring lambs today, and trade opened early, tops of the Californians sold readily at figures that were easily stronger, and quoted by some traders as 10c higher. The sales today included one bunch at $11.10, as against $11.00 for their mates yesterday. Some fair natives brought around $11.00. There were several small packages of ewes, and as was the case yesterday, no clipped ewes sold above $7.00.

Quotations on sheep and lambs: Lambs, spring, $8.50@11.35; lambs, good to choice, handy, $10.00@10.40; lambs, fair to good, handy, $9.25@10.00; lambs, fair to choice, heavy, $8.50@9.75; yearlings, fair to choice, handy, $8.00@8.75; yearlings, fair to choice, heavy, $7.25@8.25; wethers, fair to choice, $6.50@7.75; ewes, good to choice, $6.50@7.00; ewes, fair to good, $5.50@6.50.

For baby's croup, Willie's daily cuts and bruises, mamma's sore throat, grandma's lameness.—Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil—the household remedy. 25c and 50c.

Mrs. J. W. Kingsley and two children of Downers Grove, Ill., formerly Miss Susie Thomas, arrived last evening for a short visit here at the home of Mrs. Kingsley's brother, George Thomas, and family. They will visit at Murray and Union for a time before returning home.

IRISH QUESTION IS NEARING A SOLUTION

With the Exception of the Exclusion of Ulster, All Is Going Well Now.

London, May 31.—There is a hopeful feeling today in political circles regarding the outcome of the Irish negotiations. It is possible that Lloyd-George will make a statement in the house of commons before adjournment tomorrow to the effect that considerable progress has been made, although the main difficulty—the exclusion of Ulster—is not entirely removed. According to published reports the provincial Irish members of parliament believe that an agreement is practically certain and that the case of Ulster will be fully provided for.

The parliamentary correspondents of the provincial papers believe the Irish question is nearer solution than is suggested by the London papers. The Glasgow Herald understands that a settlement already has been reached on a basis of a parliament for nationalist Ireland with Ulster, or a greater part thereof, excluded.

Leaders of the two parties held a most harmonious meeting yesterday at which, according to the Herald, the chief point at issue was settled. The nationalists and the Ulster men shook hands across the table at the conclusion of the meeting. The Manchester Guardian agrees that the lines on which a compromise can be based have been found.

While there is no confirmation at Westminster that an agreement has been reached, it is believed an early settlement is possible. Sir Edward Carson has called a meeting of the Ulster members for today, at which he is expected to make a report on the negotiations.

George P. Meisinger, assessor of Eight Mile Grove precinct, was here today for a few hours, making his returns to the office of the county assessor and calling on relatives and friends.

Build It of WHITE PINE

Whether you're going to build a home, barn, garage, or henhouse, White Pine will give you longest service and greatest satisfaction.

No wood equals White Pine for all exposed surfaces. Three centuries of building experience in America prove this. It does not warp, sag, twist or split after years of exposure even in closest mortises and in delicate mouldings.

Its popularity has never waned since the Pilgrims used it, but many people who know the desirable qualities believe it is difficult to obtain. Such is not the case, as the ample stocks in our yards bear witness. And its longer service makes it most economical, even at a slightly higher first cost.

Get our prices on this kind of all structural woods—and if you don't already know its advantages—let us tell you more about them.

It costs no more to buy your lumber at home—often less—freight considered, and you can see what you get before you pay for it. Then, too, we are "on the ground" to serve you—always as near as your phone.
