

Slip a few Prince Albert smokes into your system!

You've heard many an earful about the Prince Albert patented process that cuts out bite and parch and lets you smoke your fill without a comeback! Stake your bank roll that it proves out every hour of the day. Prince Albert has always been sold without coupons or premiums. We prefer to give quality!

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

You'll feel like your smoke past has been wasted and will be sorry you cannot back up for a fresh start.

You swing on this say-so like it was a tip to a thousand-dollar bill! It's worth that in happiness and contentment to you, to every man who knows what can be gotten out of a chummy jimmy pipe or a makin's cigarette with Prince Albert for "packing"!

THE Prince Albert red tin, and in fact every Prince Albert package, has a real message-to-you on its reverse side. You'll read—"Process Patented July 30th, 1907." That means that the United States Government has granted a patent on the process by which Prince Albert is made. And by which tongue bite and throat parch are cut out! Everywhere tobacco is sold you'll find Prince Albert awaiting you in tippy red bags. See tippy red tins, tin, handsome pound and half-pound tin humidors and in that clever crystal-glass humidior, with sponge-moistener top, that keeps the tobacco in such fine condition—always!

UNION Ledger

Ed Young left Monday morning for Buffalo county, on a little land business.

Mrs. Eisler and children of Lincoln are the guests of her sister, Mrs. Cogdill.

Elsie and Vady Davidson, who were thrown from a buggy during a run-away last week, are recovering nicely.

C. H. Stebbins and C. F. Robinson, oil drillers, were in Omaha Sunday looking over the beauty spots in the big city.

Private R. A. Bramblet, a former Union boy, who was stationed at Ft. Mills, Corregidor, Manila, P. I., has recently been transferred, and now orders the Ledger sent to him at Ft. Warden, Port Townsend, Washington.

J. C. McIntyre and family came down from Lincoln Saturday for a short visit with relatives. Mr. McIntyre went back to his work on Sunday, but his wife will remain with her mother, Mrs. Myron Lynde, for a week.

Miss Jean Andrews, who teaches near Union, closed her school Friday with a picnic. Miss Andrews taught a successful term and was elected to teach the same school next fall. She returned to her home in Nebraska City Saturday.

Miss Daisy Barton, who attended school in Falls City the past year, graduated with honors from the eighth grade last Thursday evening. Miss Daisy arrived home on Friday morning and will spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Barton.

There was a meeting of the Union Oil company last Saturday night. Talk along the lines of progress thus far made was discussed to some length. The financial committee made a report of all monies spent, and the report was accepted by all present. A new auditing committee, consisting of F. H. McCarthy, W. B. Banning and L. R. Upton, was appointed to take the place of the old committee, who were Jake Falter, C. C. Parmele and Frank Slater, all of Plattsmouth. It was agreed upon by those present to make an earnest endeavor to raise $2,500 more so that the well could be sunk down to a depth of some 2,000 feet, and it is the general impression that the well will produce oil at about that depth, or at least it should.

NEHAWKA News

Frank Boedeker is driving a new wagon since the latter part of last week. It is a light six-cylinder Buick.

Mrs. Charles Chriswiler and children were passengers to Auburn on Monday to visit for a short time with friends.

Miss Edwards left Saturday for her home in Hamilton after teaching and closing a successful school year of our intermediate room.

Miss Linnea Lundberg, who had been teaching school in Chappell, Neb., returned home on the morning train Tuesday to spend her vacation.

Miss Flint, who taught the primary room, gave her pupils a picnic at the Robert Caldwell home last Thursday afternoon. She left Saturday morning for Lincoln.

Miss Lillian Sutherland, superintendent of the high school, departed for her home in Grand Island Saturday after closing a very successful school year at this place.

Miss Clara Rutherford left for Parkston, S. D., Monday afternoon, where she will attend summer school. She was joined at Union by her cousin, Miss Dovey Barkhurst, who will also attend the same school.

Wright Cook, who graduated from the high school here last year, came in from Tecumseh last Thursday to be present at the graduating exercises and attend the alumni banquet given the same evening. He visited his old friends and returned home on Saturday afternoon.

From now on Nehawka will have a better mail service in the mornings. The early train which carried second-class mail only will now carry first-class matter coming from Kansas City to Omaha. As it was, this mail had to go to Lincoln and then down on the morning passenger. This will not take any mail at this place, but it will improve the service wonderfully.

Mrs. Cora Badgley came in from Genoa Monday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Davis. She was accompanied by her niece, Miss Alma Davis, daughter of Greg Davis, of Genoa.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Cappen May 25 and left a fine young son. Mother and son are getting along nicely and Amos was able to come downtown Saturday night.

Mrs. Patrick Murphy and son, Nicholas, of Greeley, were over-Sunday visitors with Mrs. Murphy's sisters, Mrs. John C. Murphy and Mrs. Louise Bourke, of Manley. It was a farewell visit for Mrs. Murphy as she leaves next week with her family to join her husband at their new home in Montana.

DEATH OF BENJAMIN BETTS

Benjamin Betts, one of the oldest residents of Cass county, died last week at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Jesse Hudkins, at Valparaiso.

Mr. Betts had been visiting his daughter and was sick but a short time. The body was brought to his home here Saturday and the funeral was held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Christian church, Rev. Barkley of Burr officiating.

Mr. Betts was an old soldier, having served nearly four years in the union army, and died at the age of 89 years. It seemed peculiarly appropriate that the funeral of this aged veteran should be held on Memorial Sunday. He was the father of a large family, nine of whom are living. Mr. Betts came to Nebraska at an early day, locating on a farm east of town, but the last ten years had resided in Avoca. He is survived by his wife, who was also ill at the time of his death and funeral. A number of out-of-town relatives were in attendance at the funeral.

H. A. SCHOEMANN, M. L. WILLIAMS, Applicants. May 29, 1916.

SOME FINE STRAWBERRIES

From Friday's Daily. The Journal publisher last evening received a crate of the biggest and best Nebraska strawberries we have seen this year and which came as a remembrance from our friends, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Everett, of Nebraska City, and were ever at their farm, "Sunny Slope," near that place. The berries are delicious and it is needless to say were well appreciated by the Journal family.

David H. Merner and wife of Cedar Falls, Ia., who have been spending some time in California and the Pacific coast points, were here Saturday, visiting at the home of Mrs. Paul Gering and family, departing Saturday afternoon on No. 2 for St. Louis, where they will visit for a time before returning home.
