SUIT AGAINST THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF GREENWOOD

A suit has been filed in the district court entitled Libbie M. Walling and George W. Walling vs. The First National Bank of Greenwood, N. H. Meeker and George Meeker. In their petition the plaintiffs state that they were the owners of lots 12, 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17, in West Greenwood; that the defendants and bank held a mortgage executed by the plaintiffs to N. H. Meeker and George Meeker on January 4, 1915, for the sum of $1,500, and that on February 7, 1916, they had the plaintiffs make and execute in blank a warranty deed and leave it in the care of the bank, to be used in a sale of the property to be held on February 26, 1916; that such sale was advertised in all sections of the country, but that no sale of the property was made on the date named to any persons and particularly to the defendant.

It is further claimed that the defendants later filed in the blank deed and had it recorded in the office of the county recorder in Plattsmouth on March 7, 1916, without the knowledge or consent of the plaintiffs and without any sum being paid in consideration. The plaintiffs further claim that the property is worth $2,500 and that they pray that the deed may be set aside and the property restored free of all cloud to the plaintiffs.

A Tale of Two Cities

Little chap with the shining eyes,
Stretching a slender hand Toward the shadowy hills and the smiling
skies
Of faraway Grownup Land.
It is all a wonderful world to you,
And boyhood is hard to bear
As you dream of the things you are going to do
When the years shall have borne you there.

The long, long years, how they drag today!
How dreary their cycle seems
When one is eager to be away
To the land of his morning dreams,
To do the deeds that the great have done,
And, with courage proud and high,
To win the battles that must be won
In the City of By and By!

Worn old man, with the wistful eyes,
Bending a weary gaze
Toward the ghostly woods and the misty
skies
Of the country of other days—
A wonderful world it used to be,
But youth was beside you then,
And now he has fled you shall never see
Its blossoming woods again.

The short, short years, how they pass today!
Like the shadows of clouds in flight,
Over a head that is bent and gray,
Furrying toward the night!
Yet in the depths of the weary eyes
There still is a gentle glow
As they gaze afar toward the distant
skies
Of the City of Long Ago!
