

ONE HUNDRED OF OMAHA COMMERCIAL CLUB IN TOWN

From Friday's Daily.
This morning the trade extension committee of the Omaha Commercial club, numbering in the neighborhood of 100 of the representatives of the large wholesale houses of the metropolis, arrived in this city on their one-day automobile trade trip through Cass and Otoe counties. The party, in some twenty-five automobiles, arrived in the city shortly before 9 o'clock and each car was gayly decorated with the famous Ak-Sar-Ben colors—red, green and yellow—making a handsome appearance as they came into the city, and while it had been expected to stop only twenty minutes it was nearly an hour before the Omaha wholesalers could get through with their visit here with their friends and patrons and be on their way. The officers of the local Commercial club assisted in showing the Omaha gentlemen as much of the city as was possible during their short stay, and on their way southward they drove past the Burlington shops to view this great institution of industry that is always a hive of activity. The members of the party seemed well pleased with their impression of the city and it is to be regretted that they could not see more of the residence section of the city.

The route of the party from this city south was through Murray, Nehawka, Union, Wyoming, Nebraska City (where luncheon was had), Dunbar, Berlin, Avoca, Weeping Water, Manley, Louisville, Springfield, Papillion, and thence back to Omaha. The fact that Plattsmouth is so near Omaha brings a feeling of common interest between the larger city and our's that the visit here further promoted.

DRILL TEAM OF K. & L. OF S. TENDER DEPUTY PATTON A PICNIC

From Friday's Daily.
Yesterday afternoon as the day was drawing to a close the young ladies comprising the drill team of the Knights and Ladies of Security lodge gathered at the beautiful William Hunter home on North Eighth street to enjoy the pleasures of a fine picnic supper. The picnic was arranged in honor of A. L. Patton, deputy of the order, who has been assisting in promoting the interests of the lodge in this city and who has been one of the chief organizers of the drill team, and the event was one that was thoroughly enjoyed by every one in the jolly party. The rooms of the spacious home were very prettily arranged with decorations of peonies which gave a pleasing touch to the scene. Owing to the coolness of the weather the picnic supper was enjoyed in the handsome dining room of the Hunter home, and here the sixteen members of the party soon made quick work of the dainties prepared for them. During the evening delightful music on the Grafonola served to assist to pass the time, while Miss Opal Fitzgerald gave several most pleasing vocal numbers. It was with much regret that the members of the party wended their way homeward, expressing their appreciation of the delightful time afforded them.

Bowel Complaints in India.

In a lecture at one of the Des Moines, Iowa, churches a missionary from India told of going into the interior of India, where he was taken sick, that he had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with him and believed that it saved his life. This remedy is used successfully in India both as a preventive and cure for cholera. You may know from this that it can be depended upon for the milder forms of bowel complaint that occur in this country. Obtainable everywhere.

DECIDES CASE OF MRS. MARY SULLIVAN VS. JOE WHEELER

From Saturday's Daily.
County Judge Allen J. Beeson has handed down his opinion in the case of Mrs. Mary Sullivan vs. Joseph C. Wheeler, in which the court finds for the defendant, and denies the prayer of the plaintiff for a judgment for $350, claimed to be due for rental of the farm of the plaintiff. The counter claim for $93.50 of the defendant for planting twenty-one acres of alfalfa is also denied and the costs of the case taxed to the plaintiff. The case will in all probability be appealed to a higher court.

PLENTY DOING AT FRED BUSH'S TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT

From Saturday's Daily.
One of the busiest places in the city right at the present time is the tailoring shop of Fred P. Bush in the Hotel Rieker block, as the work is stacked up on Mr. Bush and his force so as to keep them on the go all the time to fill the orders that they are daily receiving. A new tailor, Mr. Sunderland, of Kansas City, has been placed in the establishment to assist Mr. Bush and Mr. Gustine in caring for the orders for tailor-made clothes. The cleaning and pressing department is also rushed to its utmost capacity, and, although they have the advantage of the latest and best machinery to do the work, still it is hard to keep the needs of the patrons supplied as the excellent results of the Hoffman steam pressing machine in turning out the highest class of work is meeting the approval of the public in every way. Those who have visited the shop of Mr. Bush are at once impressed with the excellent facilities possessed there and it is a credit to a city much larger than Plattsmouth. In the ladies' read-to-wear garments Mr. Bush is making a great success and is disposing of a large amount of wash suits and skirts each week, and this new addition to his line of business is finding much favor with the ladies of the city.

ATHLETIC DOINGS AT K. S. HALL ON SUNDAY, JUNE 13

From Saturday's Daily.
The K. S. hall on West Locust street will be the scene of a splendid athletic gathering on Sunday, June 13, when representatives of the active turning classes of Omaha, South Omaha and Dodge will be here to stage an exhibition. These turners are among the best in the state and will include both the men and women classes, with their fancy drills and exercises. The event is being looked forward to with pleasure by the members of the local society as an occasion of great enjoyment as well as instruction for those who are interested in the athletic work, and this splendid organization of turners will furnish an exhibition of more than usual merit.

BIG GERMAN WEDDING NEAR AVOCA THURSDAY NIGHT

From Saturday's Daily.
One of the largest weddings that has been held in this section of the state was held Thursday evening at the John Rieker home, five miles south of Avoca, in North Branch precinct of Otoe county, when Mr. William Kepler and Miss Sophia Rieker were united in the bonds of wedlock. After the ceremony the guests were entertained at a feast that was laid along the most elaborate lines, and those attending state that there was enough of the good things provided to supply a regiment. A large tent had been erected over the dancing platform and here the guests, numbering several hundred, were entertained at dancing, the music being furnished by the Burlington band of this city, which was taken there in automobiles. Over 125 automobiles were parked at the home, as well as almost that many teams and carriages, and the residents of that section of Cass and Otoe counties were present at the wedding. The young people are members of two of the best known and wealthy families in that locality and their wedding was one of exceptional expenditure as well as being very enjoyable.

A RECENT BIG SALE OF MEAT TO JOHN HATT & SON OF THIS CITY

From Saturday's Daily.
The Morris Standard, the publication which is issued from the office in Chicago of the Morris Packing company, in its June issue has an item that is of interest to the residents of this city as it concerns one of our leading business firms, and in speaking of this the Standard says: "Mr. Thad. Whittier, one of the best known salesmen in Iowa and Nebraska, and, of course, a Morris enthusiast, traveling from South Omaha, is a real believer in selling the full line. A recent sale to John Hatt & Son of Plattsmouth, Neb., customers for twenty-eight years, shows how sincere Mr. Whittier is in the full line matter. His order shows twenty-seven items sold to a customer, the bill being in excess of $300. The first item was for a heifer and the last for Supreme hams."

SUFFERING FROM SMALLPOX

From Saturday's Daily.
The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Thompson, residents of this city for several years, will learn with great regret of the misfortune which has befallen them at their home in South Omaha. They are quarantined there with the smallpox and Mrs. Thompson and son, Roy, are in quite serious condition at the present time as the disease is at its height with them, while the little daughter is now recovering from the malady. Mr. Thompson is caring for the family during their illness, and, shut off from the world, they are having a very lonesome time of it.

JOHN MURTEY, CANDIDATE FOR REPRESENTATIVE IN TOWN

From Saturday's Daily.
John Murtey of Alvo, democratic candidate for state representative, was in the city for a few hours today, visiting with a number of his friends. Mr. Murtey is expecting to attend the national democratic convention at St. Louis next week and will view the great gathering of the national democracy in their task of choosing the man who will be the next president of the United States. Mr. Murtey is constantly making friends throughout the county and those who meet him are at once impressed with his ability and qualification for the office for which he is a candidate, and if he is elected will make a representative of which Cass county can feel proud and who will be found looking after the interests of the people all the time. A clever business man, he can deal with the problems of legislation in the best possible way to benefit the people of the county and state.

Dr. T. J. Todd, wife and little son arrived in the city yesterday, the doctor being a representative to the Elks' state convention at Omaha from the Kearney local lodge. Mrs. Todd and little son will visit a short time here, when, in company with her mother, she will depart for Los Angeles, Cal., and other coast cities, to visit for a couple of months.

ALL FUR ANIMALS PROTECTED SAYS GAME WARDEN

From Saturday's Daily.
Chief Game Warden Ruttenbeck announces that beaver is not the only fur-bearing animal protected by the Nebraska game laws. Concealed in Mr. Ruttenbeck's compilation of the state game laws and attached without heading to a summary of federal regulation governing the killing of water fowl and migratory birds, is that portion of the state law protecting muskrats, mink and others between the fifteenth day of April and the fifteenth day of February following on the lands of another. These animals may be killed or trapped by one on one's own land at any time, and the protection does not apply to such animals where there is danger of their doing injury to property, either public or private. The original game law of Nebraska provided that beaver should not be killed any time during the year, but later it was amended so as to authorize the chief game warden to issue a permit for one to kill beaver on one's own land when the animals are destroying trees and otherwise damaging property.—Lincoln News.

Miss Mary E. Foster came up this morning from Union for a few hours' visit and departed on the early Burlington train for Omaha, where she will look after her work in educational lines.

Everybody Likes to Work with White Pine

Men who make building their business and men who build only for themselves agree that "it's a pleasure to work with White Pine." The soft, smooth grain saves time and labor, doesn't dull your tools and assures a satisfying job every time.

But here's the best thing about White Pine: it's the most enduring of all structural woods and this longer wear means lower cost. Even though you pay a little more for White Pine "in the rough," you save money in the end because you build "once and for all" when you build with White Pine.

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY GUESTS ENTERTAINED AT PROPT HOME

From Saturday's Daily.
Last evening the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Probst at Mynard was the scene of a most delightful gathering, when they entertained some 150 of their friends and neighbors, and the event was one most pleasurable in every way to the members of the jolly party. These gatherings are held once each week at the homes of the residents throughout the precinct and each occasion has proven most enjoyable, but none more so than that held at the Probst home, and in their visits and social gatherings the members of the party have found a great deal of pleasure. The lawn of the Probst home was very prettily decorated with colored lanterns and made a scene of beauty as the young people as well as the older ones passed the hours in visiting and listening to the delightful musical program furnished by a number of the talented members of the party on the piano, as well as several very charming violin numbers by Mrs. Arthur Troop. At a suitable hour a dainty and delicious luncheon was served that added greatly to the pleasures of the evening and was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone fortunate enough to be present. It was a late hour when the guests departed homeward, expressing their gratitude for the royal hospitality that had been shown them by Mr. and Mrs. Probst in preparing the enjoyable occasion.

Forethought.
People are learning that a little forethought often saves them a big expense. Here is an instance: E. W. When we go on an extended visit we take it with us." Obtainable everywhere.

QUITE A BLAZE AT PACIFIC JUNCTION TODAY

Four of the Main Buildings Destroyed By Fire About 11:30 This Morning.

Our neighboring town of Pacific Junction was visited by a very serious fire this morning that laid in waste four of the main buildings in the town and for a few minutes threatened the entire business section with destruction from the onrushing flames as there is no fire protection in the town and the efforts of the volunteer bucket brigade was unable to cope with the fire. The fire started in the general merchandise store of Anderson's on the north side of Main street and is supposed to have started from a match being dropped on the floor, near the kerosene tank, and the floor, being well soaked with oil, soon blazed up and rapidly increased in volume, despite the efforts of those who were in the store and who endeavored to check the blaze by throwing on fresh dirt, but this did not do the work and soon the whole building was filled with the roaring flames that swept all before them, and in a few minutes had spread to the adjoining buildings occupied by the post-office, the Johnson restaurant and the offices of Dr. Bacon, and for a few minutes it seemed as though the bank building near the scene of the fire was doomed, but the strong north wind kept the flames from spreading to the bank and other buildings nearby. The officials of the bank had their books and valuables moved out of the building for fear that it would be claimed by the onrushing flames, but fortunately this structure escaped the fate of the other four frame buildings. A part of the contents of the burned buildings were removed before the fire became too fierce to stand, and this will cause the loss to be a little less, but it will mount into several thousand dollars as the Anderson store was the largest in the town and carried quite an extensive stock of groceries and dry goods. The smoke in huge clouds was plainly visible from this city shortly after the starting of the fire, which was close to 11:30. The buildings were all totally destroyed.
