DR. BERT MORROW HERE

Dr. B. E. Morrow and wife and twin babies and mother, Mrs. William Morrow, motored down from Seward yesterday afternoon to enjoy a few days' visit among the old friends in Cass county. Dr. Morrow, together with his brother, is in charge of the hospital in Seward and has been very successful in his profession, which will be most pleasing to his host of friends in this section of Cass county. Mrs. William Morrow, who is one of the early residents of the county, will enjoy the pleasures of meeting and visiting the many old friends of the years gone by when she resided in this county.

ENJOY ICE CREAM SOCIAL

The young ladies of the St. Agnes society yesterday afternoon and last evening enjoyed a most delightful ice cream social at the K. S. hall on West Locust street, which was quite largely attended and the ice cream and cake served proved most enjoyable to all those in attendance. During the afternoon and evening dancing was enjoyed by the members of the jolly party and a large number of young people of the city were participants in the event.

PRE-NUPTIAL BREAK-FAST IN HONOR OF MISS JANET CLEMENT

This morning Mrs. W. S. Leete and Madame Leete entertained in a most charming manner at a pre-nuptial breakfast in honor of Miss Janet Clement, one of the June brides. The breakfast was given for Miss Clement, the members of her bridal party and the St. Luke's choir, and was one filled with much pleasure to the members of the party. The tables were arranged in the dining and living rooms and decorated most artistically in a color scheme of yellow and white, yellow sweet clover blooms and white daisies forming the floral decorations, and in the bouquets tiny yellow birds made a very pleasing touch to the general decorative scheme. The chair of the bride at the head of the table was decorated in a very pretty manner with white syringa and yellow ribbon. At each place were tiny bouquets of white syringa as well as the favors, which were very much enjoyed as each guest discovered the treasures concealed in them. The place cards were of white with yellow daisies as decorations, which added to the general beauty of the tables. The breakfast was served in four courses, Mrs. Leete being assisted in serving by Mrs. J. A. Donelan, Miss Dora Fricke and Miss Verna Leonard, while little Miss Ursula Herold met the guests at the door on their arrival. At the place of the bride were numbered cards which contained a rhyme and on following out the directions on the card the bride-to-be found a number of very handsome gifts from Father Leete and family. The last course of the breakfast was one thoroughly enjoyed as on each plate were tiny yellow candles and marshmallows and each guest was given the privilege of toasting them in the flame of the candles, providing much enjoyment and pleasure.

Following the breakfast, at 11 o'clock, the ladies spent the afternoon in the making of dainty articles of needlework which, when completed, were presented to the guest of honor as remembrances of the happy event. There were covers laid for twenty at the breakfast, and the occasion will long be remembered as one of the most delightful of the pre-nuptial affairs of the season by those who were in attendance.

P. E. O. LADIES ENJOY A PICNIC LAST FRIDAY AFTERNOON

"There was a sound of revelry" by day upon the lawn of Mrs. William Baird on the afternoon of June 9, and hungry passers-by looked with longing eyes upon the well-filled tables and the happy throng of ladies, who belong to Chapter F, Plattsmouth P. E. O. The occasion was the culmination of the year's work, and the result of a compact that the half with the best yearly attendance should be entertained by the other half. Accordingly a business session was called at the home of Mrs. E. H. Wescott at the usual hour for meeting. After a short session and adjournment, the chapter was invited to the home of Mrs. C. C. Wescott for refreshments. Disappointment was registered on every face when a paper plate containing a cracker and a glass of water was placed before each guest. However, an original song (sung to the tune of "Beulah Land") requested more as follows:

"We've waited long for this great day, When this your debt you'll have to pay;
Our faithfulness you can't deny,
So do your best without a sigh.
We'd like some salad and some meat,
And everything else that's good to eat;
Coffee and cake and ice cream, too,
If that's the best thing that you can do.

So give us to eat, pray give us to eat
Our appetites they can't be beat."

This so touched the hearts of the servers that disappointment changed to joy when they were informed that there was a "progressive" party and a program which would be given at Mrs. William Baird's. Thither all repaired, and oh my!—the appetite created by the crackers and water was most fully appeased by all the good things one could desire at a picnic. The promised program consisted of a song composed by the servers and sung to the tune of "I Want to Be an Angel," in which they assured the lucky one in the following classic (?) chorus:

"Right here we stand so mournful,
With a tear-drop in each eye;
Each time we'll be there next year,
We'll be there, or we'll die."

RUSSIANS CAPTURE A GREAT MANY FOES

One Army Alone Overwhelms the Austro-Hungarians, Taking 18,000 of Enemy.

Petrograd, June 11.—In the fighting yesterday on the front of Galicia and Volhynia, says the official statement issued here today, the Russians took 409 officers and 35,000 men. They also captured thirty guns and enormous quantity of booty. The statement adds that the army of General Tehtitskyn, alone, operating in the direction of Czernowitz, Bukovina, overwhelmed the Austro-Hungarians and took 18,000 prisoners.

Since the present Russian offensive was started, the emperors' troops have taken about 118,000 prisoners. The text of the official statement follows:

"Our offensive on Volhynia, Galicia and Bukovina obtained fresh successes yesterday. The enemy's armies continue to suffer enormous losses in prisoners alone.

"The fierce attacks of our troops are throwing into our hands thousands upon thousands of prisoners and booty of all kinds, the exact estimation of which is as yet impossible.

"For instance, in a single sector on the enemy's front we captured twenty-one searchlights, twenty-nine field kitchens, forty-seven trains of barbed wire, 1,000 concrete planks, 7,000,000 cubes of concrete, 10,000 pounds of coal, enormous depots of ammunitions and large quantities of other material.

"In another sector we captured 30,000 rifle cartridges, 300 boxes of machine gun cartridges, 200 boxes of hand grenades, 1,000 rifles, four machine guns, two range finders and a Norden portable pump for the extraction of drinking water.

"The capture of such enormous war materials prepared by the enemy for various operations affords proof of how opportune was our coup.

"During yesterday's fighting we took as prisoners one general, 409 officers and 35,100 soldiers. We also captured thirty guns, thirteen machine guns and five bomb throwers. This makes the total trophies in the recent operations one general, 1,649 officers and more than 106,000 soldiers, and 124 guns, 180 machine guns and fifty-eight bomb throwers."

BESTOR & SWATEK

IN FAVOR OF HOLDING TWO PARADES HOME COMING WEEK

The committee on arrangements for the fall festival, which is to be held in this city from August 31 to September 4, are arranging for holding two parades during the event; one the automobile and floral parade on Saturday, September 2, in which the automobiles will be used exclusively, and the cars will be decorated with a floral display in keeping with the gala festivities; the other on Monday, September 4, the big Labor day parade, will be held, in which the various lines of labor in the city will be asked to co-operate by marching in the parade, while the floats will be prepared by the various business houses as well as societies and other organizations to make the parade one of the largest and best that has ever been held in the city. Liberal prizes will be given to the best appearing automobiles in the parade as well as for the floats and turnouts in the Labor day parade. The amounts and number of prizes will be announced later by the committee in charge of this feature of the entertainment.

RETURNS FROM HONEYMOON

Bruce A. Rosencrans and bride returned home last evening from their honeymoon and will at once start to housekeeping in their new home, "The Acres," in the south part of the city, where the cozy home has been awaiting their coming.
