WOLFF & AULT

CEDAR CREEK, NEBRASKA

Miss Minnie Metzger was a Plattsmouth visitor Tuesday.

Pete Core and Hans Frank spent last Sunday in Cedar Creek.

Bad Worth and Lute Likewise were Sunday visitors in Louisville.

Paul Roberts was looking after some business matters in Omaha Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Davis and family, of Louisville, were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Wednesday evening.

J. F. Wolfe was looking after some business matters in Omaha this week, and also attending the three days gun shot in the city.

Don't forget S. J. Reames when you are in need of paper napkins, paper plates, ice cream dishes and all kinds of crepe paper.

The Ladies Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. Philip Schafer Wednesday afternoon. There was a large attendance and a most excellent social time was enjoyed by all the ladies present.

William H. Meisinger purchased a fine new Ford Touring car of J. F.
Foreman, agent for the Cedar Creek territory, this week. Mr. Meisinger handled this machine on his first trip as though he was an old hand at the business.

Henry Heebner made a trip down to Murray and Nehawka Sunday in his new car, also the same trip again on Monday evening, and he figured on the same trip for Tuesday. Didn't we tell you last week that he would be making this trip every few minutes now that he had a new car.

James Terryberry and his big new Twin-six Pathfinder car were in Cedar Creek this week. If you do not believe that this is about the finest car in the world just ask those that have been favored with a ride in it. Jim took some of the Cedar Creek boys a spin over to Louisville in that evening and they all say it is the finest ever.

Wolfe & Ault loaded a car of the newly sawed lumber here last Friday for Omaha. The saw mill people have returned to their homes in Omaha. A completed their work in this locality for the present and all hands have returned to their homes in Omaha. A great many thousand feet were sawed during their stay here, which will be loaded out as soon as ready and there is a demand for it.

in Omaha.

When you want some good reading don't forget Reames, Library.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Meisinger and family went down to Unadilla last Friday.

Mr. Norman, the Louisville garage man, was a Cedar Creek visitor last Friday.

J. F. Foreman and James Johnson drove down to Plattsouth last Friday evening.

First Security Bank pays 4 per cent on time certificates for six months and one year.

Robt. Newell, of Plattsouth, came out on No 93 last Friday to try his hand and luck at fishing.

George Sayles, of Plattsouth, was in Cedar Creek visiting at the home of his mother last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Streight of Plattsmouth, drove out last Friday for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm.
Schneider.

C. A. Gauer was an Omaha visitor last Friday, going up to see his daughter Mrs. Jeff Salsberg, who has been in the hospital for the past few weeks and to bring her home with him. The many friends of Mrs. Salsberg will be pleased to learn that she is gaining strength very rapidly, and will soon be restored to her former good health.

We are informed that A. O. Ault now has a rather hard time calling who! strong enough to his new Super-Six to compel it to stop at the moment he desires. His garage at home will stand as evidence of this fact for last Sunday he came very near passing out the opposite end from the one which he entered, and it was the closed-up portion of the garage also, but it did not seem to make any difference to Mr. Ault or the car either.

Do not fail to take notice of the First Security Bank quarterly statement in this issue of the Journal. If you are interested in the future of Cedar Creek you will be interested in this report made to the State Banking Board for the last quarter. It is indeed gratifying to the stockholders of the bank as well as the officers to note the excellent success that the bank is meeting with. This statement shows a gain in the total footings of something over $8000.00, which is certainly a substantial increase for the business in three months, this being the second report made to the board since the enterprise launched in this locality last fall. The genial cashier Mr. Foreman is to be congratulated on the success of the bank, as well as the other officers.

The regular annual meeting of the Cedar Creek School District was held on Monday evening of this week. The regular annual business of the board came before this meeting, a portion of which was the selection of a new member of the board, but owing to the appreciation of the good work done by the outgoing member Wm. Schneider, he was reelected, and still hold the position of treasurer. It was also decided to add another higher grade to the Cedar Creek schools for next year, the eleventh grade will be added, and the twelfth also if there is sufficient demand for it after the school year opens. There was no selection made for teachers for the coming term at this meeting but will be taken up in the near future.

Forest Baughman visited with Plattsouth friends last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Roberts were Plattsouth visitors last Friday evening.

G. P. Meisinger was looking after some matters of business in the county seat last Saturday.

The Thierolf Brothers drove to the county seat last Friday afternoon, making the trip in the car of George Thierolf.

Mrs. Ahl, of Louisville, came down last Saturday morning to attend the bazaar and ice cream social at the church.

Mrs. A. F. Seybert and daughters drove up from Plattsouth last Saturday and attended the dance at the Sayles hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Thomson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Seybert visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. C. Gregory last Sunday.

Miss Beichel and cousin Miss Gilson, of Greenwood, came in last Saturday morning for an over Sunday visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm.
Schneider.

Owing the very threatening weather last Saturday evening there was not a very large attendance at the dance last Saturday evening, but those in attendance seemed to have a very enjoyable time.

The Bazaar and Ice Cream Social given by the Ladies Aid Society at the church was well attended and well patronized, and about $50.00 was taken in. There is no doubt but that the attendance would have been a great deal larger had the weather been more favorable.

Last week J. F. Foreman took the local agency for the Ford cars in this territory, and on Wednesday of the same week he sold a car to W. H.
Meisinger, and another one is on the way which has already been spoken for by a prospective purchaser. There seems to be only one trouble with the Ford car and Ford agencies, and that is they cannot get them for their customers fast enough. The state agencies now think that the 1915 model and manufacture will be completely exhausted by the first of August. So if you are figuring on a Ford car this season you had better be getting busy.

THE PRESIDENT MARCHES FOR PREPAREDNESS

President Carries Flag at Head of 75,000 in Washington—"America First" Subject of His Speech.

Washington, D. C., June 14.—Led by President Wilson, carrying the Stars and Stripes, nearly 75,000 men, women and children of Washington marched up broad Pennsylvania avenue today in a preparedness parade arranged to emphasize the national capital's demand for an adequate army and navy.

Besides marching himself and then reviewing the parade, the president prepared an address on "America First" to be delivered in the afternoon at an open-air meeting south of the White house.

Washington was brilliantly decorated for the occasion. It was a holiday for under an executive order issued by the president all government employes were excused from work and many stores were closed.

President Walks.

President Wilson decided to set a precedent by walking on foot during the entire length of the parade.
Former Presidents Roosevelt and Taft also had been invited, but found it impossible to participate.

Beginning at the peace monument near the capitol building, the line of march passed the postoffice and treasury department buildings and then reached the White house, where a reviewing stand draped with American flags had been erected. There the president left the head of the parade and entered the stand to watch the remainder of the line pass by.

No regular military organizations were permitted to march because Secretary Baker and Daniels thought it would be improper for professional soldiers or sailors to participate.

After marching in review the paraders were directed to proceed to the open space back of the White house, where a temporary stand was erected for the flag day exercises.
President Wilson planned to begin speaking at 3 p. m.

The president, attired in white trousers, blue coat and straw hat, and shouldering his flag like a musket, stepped briskly to martial airs played by the United States marine band. He smiled broadly and frequently raised his hat in response to cheers as he marched along between two district citizens, escorted by Secretary Tumulty, the White house employes and the White house newspaper correspondents.

Ideal weather favored the demonstration. There was hardly a cloud in the sky and it was as cool as late spring. Enthusiastic crowds thronged the avenue from peace monument to the White house.

As the line swung around the treasury building at Fifteenth street, the president was confronted by a huge banner bearing the legend "Being Prepared—If You Care About Ninety-one Electoral Votes, Consider Us—Woman's Party." It was the work of the congressional union for woman suffrage.

ARTILLERY POUNDS AWAY AT VERDUN

Infantry Actions Cease in Long Battle—French Take Prisoners and Russians Claim Progress.

Paris, June 14.—A violent artillery engagement took place last night in the vicinity of Vaux on the Verdun front. There were no infantry actions before Verdun, the official statement of today says. The French carried a small German post near Venizelo, east of Soissons. A raid by French troops at Songern in the Vosges resulted in the capture of a number of Germans.

Austrians Repulsed.

Rome, June 14.—(Via London.)— Austrian attacks along the line of the Posina in the southern Tyrol, made on Monday night, were everywhere repulsed by the Italians, the war office announced today.

COUNTRY CLUB ORGANIZED

"How shall we keep the boys on the farm?" is almost as popular as "Preparedness." One editor suggested having a neighbor with a good looking daughter as a possible solution. Girls —good looking and otherwise—are at a premium in the vicinity of Glendale, so the problem had to be solved by a different process. On Friday evening the young people of the neighborhood met at the home of J. O.
Ward and organized "The Country Club" with Dora Meisinger as President and Ferdinand Hennings as Treasurer. The first meeting will be at the Chas. Hennings home, on June 15th. The club intends to meet every two weeks during the summer vacation. The members are: Edwin Akeson, Clarence Akeson, Edith Akeson, Beulah Ward, Ruth Johnson, Elmer Schafer, Glen Meisinger, Eya Spence, Axel Johnson, Ferdinand Hennings, Emma Ward, Philip Hennings, Elmer Johnson, Albert Schafer, Phoebe Spence, Mabel Ward, Lawrence Meisinger, Sidney Spence, Thomas Akeson, George Hennings, Victor Lee, Hannah Ingram, Jno. Hennings, Dora Meisinger, Edwin Group, Grace Spence, Eddie Ingram, Paul Ingram, Roland Ward. We hope to be able to add more names to the list.

Some Fine Cattle On the Market.

County Commissioner Heebner was in the city for few hours Wednesday evening enroute home from Omaha, where he had been looking after some business matters. While there he saw one cow and bull that he had on the market, both grass fed, sell for $175.
Some price. He shipped them in the car with Peter Johnson's load of steers that sold on the same market for $10.25, and the thirteen head bringing him the net sum of $1860.00. F. P.
Sheldon from Nehawka, also had 53 head on this market that brought $9.85, and they averaged 1200 pounds.
Mr. Heebner tells us that he also met an old Cass county resident on the same market with 62 head of cattle, in the person of F. W. Klopping, now living up near Coleridge, but some years ago a resident of this county, living west of Murray. The 62 head that Mr. Klopping had on the market brought him an average of $118.21 per head, at the average weight of 1200 pounds. He reports everything lovely in the northern part of the state and himself and family are well and enjoying life.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Hennings, of Eight Mile Grove precinct were in the city for a few hours yesterday afternoon visiting and trading with county seat friends.

W. O. Gillispie and I. G. Hornbeck, from Murdock, were in the city for a brief visit yesterday evening, coming down from their home in the auto.
The Journal acknowledges a very pleasant visit from them. They returned home yesterday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hansen and daughter Miss Charlotte, E. G. Hansen and Mrs. W. J. Philpot passed through this city, and stopped for a few hours visit yesterday afternoon while enroute to their home near Nehawka from Omaha. They were making the trip in the fine new automobile of Mr. F. A. Hansen.

Pete Schroeder and family and Jake Lohnes and family drove to Cullom last Sunday where they spent the afternoon and evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Keil.

HER DEATH NEAR

So Everyone Thought, But Is Now
Well And Stronger Than Ever.

Newton, Mo.—"I can certainly speak a good word for Cardui, the woman's tonic," says Mrs. Jay Rhoades, of this town. "I suffered for 12 years with my right side, and the last three years, I would have a bad spell with it about every three months.
I would get so bad off, every one would think I could not live.

The first of July, I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I haven't had a bad spell since soon after I began taking it.
Before taking Cardui, I was so irregular, and, at times, I could hardly stand on my feet. Now, I can clean house, and do any kind of work without its hurting me in the least.
Cardui will surely do for other women, what it did for me. I am telling all my neighbors about it."

Cardui is a mild and effective tonic for women, that has been found, by actual use, during more than 50 years, to relieve the ailments to which all women are peculiarly liable.
Card-u-i has helped thousands.
Why not you? Try it. NCB?

Everybody Likes to Work with White Pine

Men who make building their business and men who build only for themselves agree that "it's a pleasure to work with White Pine." The soft, smooth grain saves time and labor, doesn't dull your tools and assures a satisfying job every time.

But here's the best thing about White Pine: it's the most enduring of all structural woods and this longer wear means lower cost.
Even though you pay a little more for White Pine "in the rough," you save money in the end because you build "once and for all" when you build with White Pine.

We carry a large stock of this justly famous wood and are glad to recommend it.

If you want any items we haven't got, we will quickly get them for you.
It will pay you to see us on lumber.

FINE ENTERTAIN- MENT AT THE AIR DOME LAST NIGHT

From Tuesday's Daily.
The Moore-Eddings Stock company opened a week's engagement last evening at the Airdome, and their initial offering, "A Man to Trust," was witnessed by quite a large-sized audience and everyone present felt well repaid for their attendance as the different members of the company gave a most pleasing offering of this excellent drama of New York life, which gave the members of the company an opportunity to display their talents, and the result was a very realistic rendition of the play.

The Moore-Eddings company has a strong organization and every one composing the company are well qualified to give a most pleasing entertainment and one that will always be enjoyed. Interspersed with the dramatic offerings are a number of high class vaudeville acts which add greatly to the general delight of the audience, and last evening these members were received with marked approval. Miss Helen Victor, leading lady of the organization, has a most winsome personality and her splendid acting gives her different roles a rare charm. She is supported by a first class company, headed by Mr. Burleigh Cash as leading man, and all of these are fully as good as any stock company that has appeared in our city. The company is right up-to-date and will play "The Gulf Between," one of the finest plays on their list, tonight.
