

MARRIAGE KEPT A SECRET FOR SOME TIME

Mr. Will Smith of Rock Bluffs and Miss Bena Kopp of This City Were Married in Nebraska City Last January.

From Tuesday's Daily. It is said that the news of a wedding is pretty hard to keep quiet and from getting into the hands of the friends of the contracting parties, but two young Plattsmouth people have just demonstrated that this does not always hold good as they have succeeded in keeping their marriage a secret for the past six months and not even members of their families were aware of the fact until they were husband and wife. The young people who so successfully kept their wedding over without it becoming public are Will Smith, one of the young farmers near Rock Bluffs, and Miss Bena Kopp of this city. The young people were wedded on January 5 at Nebraska City, where they visited before the wedding ceremony was performed, and hastened back to their absence could not be known until Saturday, when Smith resigned her position at the Olson Photo company's office and to a few close friends gave information since last January. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home in the future near Rock Bluffs.

Both of the contracting parties are well and favorably known in this community, where they have made their home for their entire life time, and each has a large circle of friends who will learn of their wedding with much pleasure and extend to the young people their heartiest best wishes for a long and happy married life. Mrs. Smith is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kopp of this city, while the groom is a son of the late Thomas Smith and wife, pioneer residents of the vicinity of Rock Bluffs.

FRED DETIL MAY BE REPORTED BACK TO GERMANY

From Tuesday's Daily. This morning Fred Detil, who in the last year has become a familiar figure on the streets and in jail, where he has been the greater part of the time, as a ward of the city, was brought before the board of insanity to be examined as to his mental condition. The young man refuses to work and, although several farmers in this locality have tried him out, it is impossible to get him started to work as he positively refuses to do anything that looks like labor. Superintendent Tams of the county farm had the man out there for a short time, but he not only would not work but made a great deal of trouble by quarreling with the other residents of the farm until it was impossible to keep him there. It is stated that the young man was all right up to two years ago when he was injured in Kansas City in a mix-up in a resort there, and this he told to several parties, but on his examination the board could not get anything out of him as to the occurrence. He is a native of Germany and arrived in the United States in 1913, and it is thought that if possible to have the federal authorities deport him back to his former home to be handled by the authorities there as he is not a citizen of the United States.

RUNS DOWN A SMALL WOLF

From Tuesday's Daily. Arthur Troop, residing south of this city, had quite an experience a few days ago while he was driving in his car near his home. As he was spinning along the roadway he espied ahead of him one of the old-time prairie wolves which was hitting it up the road and Art, putting more speed on his machine, soon got in close range to the animal, which proceeded to take to the tall timber, with Mr. Troop in full pursuit, and in a few minutes he overhauled the animal and proceeded to put him out of his misery with a well-aimed blow from a club.

CALL TO THE GREAT BEYOND

Heart Trouble Takes An Old Pioneer From Among Our Midst On June 16.

We are called upon this week to announce the death of one of Cass county's old and respected pioneers, Mr. William Thomas Wilson. Mr. Wilson was born in Putnam county, Indiana, January 15, 1840, and died at his farm June 16, 1916, aged 76 years, 5 months and 1 day. Mr. Wilson awoke on the morning of the 16th feeling as well as usual. He ate a good breakfast and went to the field to work as farm hands could not be secured. He came in at noon and ate a good dinner, and went back to work without a complaint. Sometime during the afternoon he was found dead in his field, where he had fallen off the cultivator while plowing corn. The exact time of his death is not known as his body was cold when found. His son, aged about 16, gave the alarm as soon as he came upon his father and realized what had taken place.

Mr. Wilson was one of those kind of men in whom we saw the best that was in manhood. He was a loving husband, a kind father and an excellent neighbor, respected by all with whom he had acquaintance, and his removal from the neighborhood will be keenly missed by those who knew him best.

He came to Nebraska from Indiana, in the year 1859, and was engaged in freighting from Nebraska to Colorado. Later he engaged in farming and had resided on the present place for the past thirty-five years. He was married on June 12, 1889, to Miss May Wood of Lorton, Neb., and to this union were born two sons, one dying in infancy.

He is survived by his wife and one son, Paul. He is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. W. H. Banning, of near here, and Mrs. Richard Sloan, living elsewhere, and two brothers, James, of Union, and Robert, living in the northern part of the state.

The funeral services were held at the Wyoming church last Sunday at 2:30 p. m., by Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union, and the interment was made in the cemetery nearby.

The friends and relatives of the deceased have the sympathy of all in their sad hour of bereavement.—Union Ledger.
