

MR. AND MRS. R. B. HAYES ENTERTAIN GLEE CLUB AND CHOIR

From Saturday's Daily.
Last evening the members of the Methodist glee club and choir were entertained in a very pleasing manner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hayes, and the event will be long and pleasantly remembered in the delightful time that was enjoyed by the thirty guests of the evening. The event was in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jennings, of Springfield, Massachusetts, who are spending a short time here with their relatives and friends, as Mrs. Jennings was for several years one of the leading members of the musical department of the church. The spacious lawn of the Hayes home was the scene of the pleasant gathering and here in the cool of the evening the members recounted the many old friends who had been with them in the choir and who have since drifted away to other localities, and a great many interesting stories of old times were brought forth during the evening. A number of the guests participated in a very pleasant informal program of music and solos, duets, and quartets were given which added very much to the pleasures of those who were in attendance at the event. At a suitable hour dainty refreshments of ice cream and cake were served that provided a most delightful part of the evening's entertainment. The hostess was assisted in serving and entertaining by Mrs. Mac Morgan and Miss Clara Mae Morgan.

INQUIRES FOR GEORGE MILLER, A BROTHER

From Saturday's Daily.
In a notice sent out from Washington, would seem that Ralph R. Miller, who claims that his brother George Miller is a resident of this city, is with the expeditionary force of the United States marines recently rushed to Santo Domingo for his protection of the American legation there during the current revolt against President Jimenez.
When insurrection breaks out anywhere to the south of Key West or north of Venezuela, the United States marines are always first on the spot. Preparedness is the motto of the marine—soldier and sailor, too—always. Preparedness is the motto of the marines prepared to move at a moment's notice without previous warning, and always prepared to efficiently hold the situation well in hand.
Young Miller enlisted in the United States Marine corps at its Portland, Ore., recruiting station on September 30, 1913, and is now a corporal.
Inquiries as to the identity of the brother of the young man has failed to discover whether he resides here or not and the young man is not known here as far as can be learned.

THE JUNE RISE IN THE BIG MUDDY IS NOW OVERDUE

From Saturday's Daily.
The June rise in the old Missouri which is some two weeks overdue seems to be on the job right now as the river is slowly coming up and a great deal of drift is to be seen floating down stream while the small channels which in dry weather are devoid of water are filling up with the overflow from the main river. It is not thought, however, that the rise will be anywhere as high as usual owing to its lateness, as a greater part of the water from the mountains has been carried down the river and the rains have not been so excessively heavy this year as to cause any great amount of flood water.
John Richardson who is operating the ferry below the Burlington bridge is also busy between trips on the ferry in the building of a new ferry boat that he will put in commission next season if everything continues favorable and replace the old boat that has been in service for a number of years.

A VERY NEAT SHOW WINDOW

From Saturday's Daily.
The east window of the Stanfield Book shop has been arranged in a very neat and attractive manner with a tobacco and cigar display which is the work of Fred Speck, the clerk of that establishment and the tasty manner in which the window has been fitted up is very pleasing to the eye. This is Fred's first experience in window dressing and it is certainly a most flattering showing.

W. Hamburg. In honor of the occasion the children all gathered at the parental home and for the day as well as the evening was spent in visiting and having a general good time such as is only possible under the hospitable Budig roof. Those who were present to join in the happy event were Mr. and Mrs. O. W. The Journal joins the many friends in this city in extending their best wishes for many more such happy events to our worthy friends.

WILL SOON BE IN RUNNING ORDER

C. D. St. John, who recently purchased the Nehawka Mill is putting it in running condition as fast as possible. At present he has two men at work besides himself.
Joseph Malcum, formerly of this place, but of late residing at Dellingham, Colo., is the head man on the job. Mr. Malcum is a miller of many years experience. He has had charge of the mill at Weeping Water, Nebraska City and others in this vicinity besides the Nehawka mill.
This concern which was formerly at Factorville was in his charge there and it was he who rebuilt it when it moved to Nehawka after which he ran it for several years. He is in it up to his neck, cleaning and preparing it for first class work.
There is no reason why this concern can not manufacture as good a grade of flour as can be found and when it does we hope to see the merchants and citizens of this place boost to the full extent.—Nehawka News.

A CHICKEN SCARES A FAMILY BY TOOTING AUTO HORN

From Saturday's Daily.
Martin Friedrich relates a very good story on one of the families residing in this locality who a few nights ago stood a very severe shock and for a few minutes thought that "spooks" had invaded their locality. The parties own an automobile which is kept in the barn and when near time for them to retire for the night they were greatly surprised to hear the horn of the car sounded. An investigation was urged but it was thought surely that they had been mistaken in where the noise had come from, but in a few minutes it was repeated and caused a great deal of excitement. This was kept up for some time when a closer investigation revealed that one of the chickens belonging on the place had selected the bulb horn of the car as a fit roosting place and every time she had settled down nicely on the horn it had "honked" and roused her up and this was repeated for some time until she was taken off her perch.

PUTTING UP A NEW HOUSE

From Saturday's Daily.
John Cory, who is in possession of the land on the river bottom which has been in controversy between him and the city for some time, is putting up a neat little residence just east of the base ball park and will establish a residence there for the purpose of strengthening his claim to the title to the land. The house will be completed in a very few days and ready to occupy. Since the dissolution of the restraining order secured by the city Mr. Cory has been in possession of the land pending the next move in the litigation.

HE HAD A LOT OF SENSE

There was an old geezer and he had a lot of sense. He started up a business on a dollar-eighty cents. The dollar for stock, and the eighty for an add brought him three lovely dollars in a day, by dad! Well, he bought more goods and a little more space, and he played that system with a smile on his face. The customers flocked to his two-by-four and soon he had to hustle for a regular store. Up on the square, where the people pass, he gobbled up a corner that was all plate glass. He fixed up the windows with the best that he had and told them all about it in a half-page ad. He soon had 'em coming and he never, never quit, and he wouldn't cut down on his ads, one jit. And he's kept things humming in the town ever since, and everybody calls him the Merchant Prince. Some say it's luck, but that's all bunk—why he was doing business when times were punk! People have to purchase and Geezer was wise—for he knew the way to get 'em was to advertise.—Associated Advertising.

From Saturday's Daily.
The firm of Peters & Richards of this city have secured a nice contract from the state of Iowa, for a building to be erected at the feeble minded institution in Glenwood and which will cost in the neighborhood of $10,000. The work on the new building will be gotten under way as soon as possible.

A COMPLAINT THAT SHOULD BE LOOKED INTO AT ONCE

From Saturday's Daily.
The residents along Chicago avenue are complaining very much of the habit of the automobile drivers of madly racing up and down that thoroughfare, and making it very dusty as well as dangerous for anyone attempting to cross the avenue and especially at night, when those residing there state it becomes a regular race course, with the more conservative drivers of machines forced to keep a close eye on the roadway to keep from being run down. While it is generally conceded that a fair rate of speed along the avenues is all right the residents in that part of the city feel that there should be some regard shown for their rights in the matter and the joy riders tame down the rate of speed maintained there. The cars also cause a great deal of dust, but this would be stirred up anyway by slow driving, but perhaps not to such a great extent. There has been considerable complaint made to the police committee of the council as well as the other authorities and while they are desirous of allowing all possible license in running the automobile still there seems to be a limit that has about been reached.

AN ABSOLUTE FALSE RUMOR, SAYS CORY

From Friday's Daily.
Some party with a great deal more talk than sense yesterday started a rumor as to John Cory intending to lock up the base ball grounds and prevent the game being played there yesterday afternoon. This story was an absolute falsehood in every way as Mr. Cory had at no time entertained any intention of locking up the grounds and the story has done him a great injustice and placed him in the wrong light before the public. Before anyone starts such stories they should be sure of what they are talking about and not try and injure people by their base and unfounded reports.

The work has required a great deal of material and it has required a great many teams to haul the material to the scene of action. The paving has also given employment to a great many men and Mr. McMaken has supplied as many as possible of the idle men of the city with work.

FORMER PLATTSMOUTH CITIZEN PASSES AWAY IN DENVER TUESDAY

From Friday's Daily.
The information comes from Denver of the death in that city on Tuesday last of Frank Otto, a former resident of this city where he made his home for a number of years. Mr. Otto has been in very poor health for the last two years and has gradually been failing until death came to his relief and he was called Home to rest. Mr. Otto was associated with Mr. John Hatt in the meat market in this city from 1890 to 1895, and later after closing out his connection with the business removed to the farm on the Platte bottom north of the city where he remained until twelve years ago when he removed to Denver and has resided there since.
