

TO EQUIP THE GUARD WITH MACHINE GUNS

Rumors of Movements Stimulates Recruiting at Camp Morehead.

Lincoln, July 4.—Camp Morehead sweltered in the sun all day Sunday, and little happened at headquarters to shake off the peaceful Sabbath attitude of officers and men. The announcement made Saturday that the men will undoubtedly go to the border, but that they probably will spend five days more in camp, has quieted the fears and speculations of the soldiers, and they have settled down to endure the routine of camp life until the call comes. Headquarters, silenced by government censorship, has nothing to say about the general situation other than the previous announcement that the regiment would recruit up to full war strength and that the Spanish-American veterans of the proposed third regiment had agreed to co-operate with federal and state officers in their efforts to fill up the ranks of the Fourth and Fifth regiments within five days.

Machine Guns Coming.
According to information received at headquarters late Saturday, Nebraska is soon to have the machine gun companies she has waited for so long, and without which she is not really prepared for border service. Captain Tups has been notified, it is said, that four Lewis machine guns for each regiment will be given the Nebraska militia, with five Ford delivery wagons to carry the guns and their equipment. Mules and pack wagons have heretofore been used to carry them. The guns will be delivered to the regiments when they have reached the southern department. It is said. A company to man the guns will be selected for each regiment, and chauffeurs for the automobiles will probably be chosen before the regiments move south.

The machine gun which will be sent the Nebraska militia is the Lewis 1914 model, the latest Lewis model of rapid-fire gun, and according to regular army men, probably the most satisfactory all around gun made at the present time.

Visitors flocked to the camp early in the day, and some of them stayed with the boys until the hot sun had disappeared behind the Salt Creek bottoms. Bars were lowered at the camp gate a little, and large numbers of soldiers enjoyed the amusements of Electric park and Capital beach during the afternoon or evening.

Sunday Services.
Divine service, in charge of Captain Beecher, Fifth regiment chaplain, were held in the morning after a sacred concert by the Fifth regiment band. A chorus of fifty odd soldiers sang Sabbath songs they used to sing at home, and soon the chorus was swelled to include the voices of 700 soldiers and civilians. After prayer, Bishop Beecher delivered his first camp sermon, a stirring appeal for the American to lay aside petty differences and face south with a common purpose and with a common patriotism. He lay stress on personal as well as national preparedness.

Now that Camp Morehead knows its days are numbered, folks from home will come in greater numbers to bid the boys good-by and good luck. Yesterday the company row was full of visitors and those too far away to pay Sammy a visit, received a long letter from him which he wrote in the quiet of his tent.

Little remains to be done today to make the Fifth regiment as well as the Fourth, a part of the federal service. The regimental staff is scheduled to be mustered in some time today, probably early this afternoon. Lieutenant Parker, assistant mustering officer, who Saturday was appointed camp ordinance officer, is planning a special ceremony for this last muster.

Fourth at Camp.
Word passed along the company streets yesterday that people from the home town had planned to spend the Fourth at Camp Morehead. The day has been set aside as visitors' day and there will be no firecrackers to disturb the enjoyment of either soldiers or civilians.

Recruiting at the Fifth regiment headquarters picked up again yesterday following the definite announcement that the troops would shortly leave for Mexico, and the officers in charge of the station predict that enlistments will be heavy beginning today. Ten men were assigned to Fifth regiment companies yesterday.

ANOTHER GREAT SHOW AT THE AIR DOME LAST NIGHT

The performance given by the Mack-Mac stock company at the Airdome last evening was attended by a large crowd and from start to finish the members of the splendid company gave a most pleasing entertainment that was sparkling with very clever musical numbers and vaudeville turns that assisted materially in the entertainment of the audience. The play presented was "The Man on the Box" and in this the members of the company were seen at their best with the clever comedy giving them many pleasing opportunities of displaying their talents. Mr. Mack and Miss Mae who carried the leading roles were exceptionally clever and were supported by their company in an excellent manner, holding closely the attention of the audience. The "Ragtime Quartet" was one of the big hits of the evening and their selections embraced a number of the old time songs of tender sentiment as well as the up-to-date rags including "Loading Up the Mandy Lee" and they were called back several times by the delighted audience. A very clever comedy sketch was also presented by the team of Caylor and Jefferson, and this was one of the best turns of its kind that has ever been given in the city by any organization.

Those who have attended the shows at the Airdome are unanimous in their verdict that this is the cleverest organization of its kind that has ever appeared in the city and a great many shows have been given here at top prices that cannot be compared to this splendid organization for a bright and pleasing performance.

Tonight the Mack-Mac company will present "Damaged Souls" a problem play that is filled with striking object lessons of morality and the fruits of evildoing and it will be well worth the time of any man or woman to take this in. No one under 12 years of age will be admitted tonight unless accompanied with their parents.

THE ORIGIN OF DISEASES

HAVE 65,000 MEN ON THE BORDER NOW

More Troops Are Arriving Hooply Traffic Crowded Off.

San Antonio, Tex., July 4.—Uninterrupted progress in the mobilization of the national guard was made today and General Funston and his staff studied station maps that showed an army along the border line of more than sixty-five thousand. To augment this number troop trains were reported steadily moving from the north and east, while scores of freight trains bearing supplies and equipment were moving towards depots designated by the quartermaster's department.

Trains bearing guardsmen and supplies began crowding regular traffic onto sidings at some places today, but railway men were confident that the mobilization would be completed without serious congestion of ordinary freight and passenger trains. The guardsmen's camp here was not increased today, but reports of the arrival of more men at other points were received. Additional Missouri troops reached Laredo, and the First Illinois cavalry was due at Brownsville sometime before night.

THIRTY FRIENDS SURPRISE REV. AND MRS. MCCLUSKY

Monday evening Rev. Mrs. H. G. McClusky were given a very pleasant surprise at their home on Eleventh street when some thirty of their friends gathered to assist them in celebrating their ninth wedding anniversary. The occasion proved a most complete surprise to the host and hostess as they had been kept unaware of the intentions of their friends and it was not until the members of the party gathered at the McClusky home that they were aware of the designs of the friends to gather with them on this pleasant occasion. The members had come prepared with dainty delicious refreshments and these proved a very pleasing feature of the event. The evening was spent in visiting and the enjoyment of a most pleasant time. As remembrances of the anniversary Rev. and Mrs. McClusky were presented with several pieces of aluminum ware by the members of the party.

The Q. Z. society of the Presbyterian church also remembered the anniversary by presenting Rev. and Mrs. McClusky with a beautiful silver jar which was certainly appreciated to the utmost by the recipients of the gift and the ninth wedding anniversary will long be pleasantly remembered by Rev. and Mrs. McClusky with much pleasure.

HAS WINDOW REPLACED

Some time ago that large plate glass window on the west side of the entrance to the store of C. E. Wescott's Sons was damaged when some one threw a small marble at the glass and made a large disfiguring mark in the glass that made it necessary to have it replaced and the work was carried out yesterday by Frank R. Gobelman and the window is now boasting a new glass.

C. S. Stone, the Elmwood banker, and Ted Jeary of that place were here last evening for a few hours enroute home from Omaha where they were yesterday for a few hours looking after some business matters.

FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION IN 1876 IN PLATTSMOUTH

One of the older residents of the city relates one of the interesting features of the monster Fourth of July celebration that was held in this city in 1876. In that year the nation was celebrating the 100th year of freedom and all over the country the demonstrations were very extensive and plattsmouth was not behind. The citizens had three large cottonwood trees cut down and made into a monster flag pole 100 feet in height and this was erected on high school hill just east of the present Central building and here the festivities reigned for the day. The cannon stationed there at that time and which was later captured by our neighboring town of Nehawka was used in firing the salutes and from the midnight hour on July 3, to the close of the Fourth the artillery poured forth its noisy message. The crowd was very large and the orations both numerous and eloquent and filled with old time vim and vigor. The occasion was remembered for years as the greatest celebration of its kind held in this part of the state.

CARRANZA SEEKS TO AVERT BREAK

Note Delivered State Department Designed to Open Negotiations.

Washington, July 5.—The reply of the de facto government of Mexico to the demands of the United States, conciliatory in terms and giving assurances of a desire to reach a friendly adjustment of the difficulties between the two countries was delivered at the state department today by a Mexican ambassador attaché.

Translators were set to work at once on the Spanish text of the document. It has been unofficially described by persons close to the embassy as conciliatory and designed to pave the way for an amicable adjustment of differences between the two countries.

The Text.
By Eliseo Arredondo, the Mexican ambassador-designate follows:
Washington, D. C., July 4, 1916.
Mr. Secretary:

I have the honor to transmit in continuation the text of a note I have just received from my government with instructions to present it to your excellency:

"Referring to the notes of June 20, and 25, last, I have the honor to say to your excellency that the immediate release of the Carrizal prisoners was a further proof of the sincerity of the desires of the government to reach a pacific and satisfactory arrangement of present difficulties. This government is anxious to solve the present conflict and it would be unjust if its attitude were misinterpreted.

"It was also the Mexican government that earnestly suggested a plan of cantonments along the boundary line during the conference of Ciudad Juarez and El Paso. This government is disposed now, as it has always been, to seek an immediate solution of the two points which constitute the true cause of the conflict between the two countries to wit: the American government thinks reasonably that the insecurity of its frontier is a source of difficulty, and the Mexican government on its part believes that the stay of American troops on Mexican territory aside from being a trespass on the sovereignty of Mexico is the immediate cause of the conflicts. Therefore the withdrawal of American troops on one hand and the protection of the frontier on the other, are the two essential problems, the solution of which must be the directing object of the efforts of both governments.

"The Mexican government is willing to consider a quick and practical way and prompted by a spirit of concord the remedies which should be applied to the present situation.
"Several latin American countries have offered their friendly mediation to the Mexican government and the latter has accepted it in principle. Therefore the Mexican government only awaits information that the government of the United States would be disposed to accept this mediation for the purpose mentioned above or whether it is still of the belief that the same results may be attained by means of direct negotiations between both governments.

"In the meantime this government proposes to employ all efforts that may be at its disposal to avoid the more complicated and aggregate the situation. At the same time it hopes that the American government on its part may make use of all efforts to prevent also new acts of its military and civil authorities of the frontier that might cause new complications.

"I avail myself of this opportunity to reiterate to your excellency the assurance of my most distinguished consideration."
(Signed) C. AGUILAR.
"Having thus complied with higher instructions of my government, it offers me pleasure to reiterate to your excellency the assurances of my highest consideration.
(Signed) "ARREDONDO."
