I. W. W. MEMBERS ATTACK SHERIFF GUS HYERS

Men Concerned in Assault Would Send Telegrams but Sheriff
Objects.

From Friday's Daily.
Sheriff Gus Hyers of Lancaster county and his father, R. W. Hyers, one of the deputies, had a most exciting time at the Lancaster county jail yesterday afternoon in quelling a riot of seven members of the International Workers of the World, who had been lodged in the jail. The men had been working as harvest hands and by their conduct had gotten in bad with the authorities and were placed in jail. They desired to send out telegrams to Kansas City and Omaha for help and assistance and the refusal of Sheriff Hyers to send the messages was the cause of the outbreak.

The message to Kansas City signed by Philip Strambu, asked that 500 International Workers of the World members be sent to Lincoln to protect the seven men who were in jail. The telegram to Omaha was for financial aid.

The sheriff refused to send either message. Sheriff Hyers and his father were in the bull pen in the jail when the seven men attacked them and one of the party wielding a skillet knocked R. W. Hyers down, but the rioters were not able to carry their warfare further as the jail attendance came to the assistance of the sheriff and his father and overpowered the men.

After the main insurrection was put down and County Attorney Hager was drawing a complaint against Leo Landers, Harry Clifford, Philip Strambu, Ralph Bigelow and William Burns, charging them with assault, a second riot was pulled off. Jeff Fogelson, who had not been in the first scrap started trouble against the sheriff on the steps of the jail but Mr. Hyers soon calmed him down and he was lodged in jail.

Both Sheriff Gus Hyers and his father are former residents of this city and for several terms R. W. Hyers served as sheriff of Cass county with great success and his courage and bravery was often put to the test but was always able to handle the most dangerous criminals and crooks. Sheriff Hyers of Lancaster county has been one of the most able men who has ever filled the office of sheriff in that county and he is always on the job.

MR. AND MRS. HENRY KAUFMAN ENTERTAIN FRIENDS

From Friday's Daily.
Last evening a very pleasant time was enjoyed at the comfortable country home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kaufman south of this city when a large number of the friends and neighbors from this city were present to spend the evening with this estimable couple. Mr. Kaufman has just completed the erection of a fine new barn at his farm and the members of the party gave it an appropriate dedication. The evening was spent in visiting and playing cards and the event will be one long most pleasantly remembered by everyone present. A lunch, fit for a king was served during the evening with the most delicious refreshments and everyone present enjoyed to the utmost the pleasant event which had been provided for them and it was with the greatest of regret that the members of the party departed to their homes well pleased with the splendid hospitality afforded them.

AUTOMOBILE TURNS TURTLE WITH LITTLE IN- JURY TO OCCUPANTS

From Friday's Daily.
Last evening quite a little automobile mixup occurred just south of the city near the United Brethren church when the Ford car driven by W. W. Wasley, turned turtle and the occupants of the car had a close call from serious injury. The car striking a ditch, was overturned and the occupants were fortunate in getting out without having the weight of the car fall on them, as it certainly would have caused quite serious injury. The windshield of the machine was broken and several pieces of the glass cut the right leg of George Forbes in quite a painful manner, but aside from this the other members were not injured beyond being bruised and shaken up considerably. The car was damaged to quite an extent, the top being broken, as well as the windshield and the radiator was torn off of the car and the fender on the left side "jimmied up" quite a little.

The road is not very safe at the place where the accident occurred owing to the ditch that extends along the side of the roadway and in making the turn it is very hard to avoid accidents and especially at night. As Mr. Wasley made the turn into the north and south road the car ran into the ditch and in a few seconds had turned completely over and only the fact that the top of the machine was up saved the occupants from injury as this held the weight of the machine off the occupants until they could crawl out of the wreck. The car was finally righted and the journey resumed to this city.

This place is a very dangerous one both in coming from the east or west and turning into the Plattsmouth road and should be looked after in order to avoid other and more serious accidents.

MAJOR HALL FALLS AND FRACTURES SHOULDER

From Friday's Daily.
Major A. Hall, the republican candidate for county treasurer, is taking an enforced vacation from his farm work, due to an accident which befell him a few days ago and which resulted in the fracturing of his left shoulder. Mr. Hall was engaged in moving a binder from one field to another, and while he was doing this the chain holding the binder broke, and this frightened the horses who started forward, and while Mr. Hall was quieting them he lost his balance and fell to the roadway, striking on the head and fracturing the shoulder. The injury is very annoying and will keep the patient from his work for some time at least, but not injuring his campaigning and he expects to be at the republican county convention Tuesday at Weeping Water.

George W. Shrader of near Murray was in the city today for a few hours visiting with his old friends and looking after some matters of business.

A DOPE FIEND IS SENT TO THE ASYLUM

Stranger Steals Surgical Instruments
From Dr. Livingston's Office
And is Caught.

From Friday's Daily.
This morning shortly after 8 o'clock considerable excitement was created on upper Main street when a stranger was found ransacking the office of Dr. Livingston, and when discovered he started to run from the office down the alley, carrying with him several surgical instruments which he had picked up from the consulting room. The fact of the stranger being in the office was discovered by Father W. S. Leece, who called to see Dr. Livingston, and as soon as the man discovered that there was anyone in the office he attempted to make his escape. As he dashed down the alleyway several parties on the street joined in the chase and the man was overhauled near the Air-dome, where he turned and attempted show fight to his pursuers. The fellow was handled by Jack Brittain in short order and taken back up to the office of the doctor, where he was held, pending the arrival of Chief of Police Barclay and placed under arrest, and later was turned over to Sheriff Quinton and the county board of insanity, as he was evidently a dope fiend and a fit patient for the state hospital.

He was taken to the jail and the county board of insanity summoned to take up the case and examine the man as to his condition. He stated that his name was George Dougherty, and that his last residence had been at 1028 South Twenty-fifth street, Omaha. He has been a victim of the drug habit for the past nine years, and his favorite dope is morphine, taking as he stated from ten to fifteen grains a day. He is a young man 25 years of age and when interviewed by the board was in a very nervous state, suffering evidently from the lack of his usual "dope." He had hoped to find some of the morphine in the office of the physician, as it was impossible for him to secure the drug at any drug store, and in his desperate condition the only resource was to try and steal it from the office of some physician.

The man will be committed to the state hospital for treatment for his unfortunate condition, and he will be taken there as soon as it is possible to secure admission for him.

THE REPUBLICAN CENTRAL COMMITTEE MEETS

From Friday's Daily.
The republican county central committee met yesterday afternoon at Weeping Water and the gathering was largely attended by the members of the committee. The main business of the occasion was the selection of a candidate for the nomination for float representative to take the place of Edwin Zimmerman, who as a member of Company B, Fifth Nebraska National Guard is at the border and will not be able to make the race. The members of the committee finally selected Marshall T. Harrison of Dunbar as the candidate for the office and he will go on the ballot next fall as the republican candidate against L. G. Todd, who has the democratic nomination. Mr. Harrison served in the legislature from 1906 to 1907, but was defeated in 1908, for re-election by Col. M. A. Bates. He has not been active since that time in politics.

SEVENTY-TWO YEARS OLD

From Friday's Daily.
Our old friend Adam Hild was in the city for a few hours today and in conversation informs us that the Journal is trying to advance his age some two years as in the account of his birthday last week it was stated he had reached 74 years of age when he is only 72 and we regret greatly to have added any more to the years that our friend is carrying so well. He is a gentleman well preserved for his years and still as active as in his younger days.

HARRY KRUGER AND WIFE RETURN HOME

From Saturday's Daily.
Harry Kruger and wife, who returned Thursday from Tampa, Fla., are very well pleased with the conditions they found in that state and particularly in the locality where their land interests are located. While in Florida Mr. and Mrs. Kruger were visitors at the plantation of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Moore where they found our former townpeople in the best of health and enjoying life very much. Their fruit has begun to yield in fine shape and pineapples and grapefruit are grown in profusion there in the fertile and productive soil of that portion of Florida. The friends of the Moore family here will be well pleased to learn of their good luck in their new home and trust that they may find continued success.

GEORGE H. FALTER BUYS CLOTHING STORE AT FALLS CITY

From Saturday's Daily.
George H. Falter, who for the past year has been employed as manager at the big department store of E. G. Dovey & Son, in this city has decided to locate elsewhere and accordingly has purchased the clothing store of Bert Reavis at Falls City, one of the largest and best business houses in that city, and one that is rated as one of the best in this section of the state. Mr. Falter was for a number of years interested in the clothing business here in the firm of Falter & Thierolf, one of the principal business houses of the city and his ability as a business man was demonstrated in the success attained by this firm. Mr. Falter has been very successful in handling the business of the Dovey Store, and his worth as a salesman as well as buyer has made him a very valuable man in a store of this kind. It is with great regret that the friends of Mr. Falter will see him leave this city but he will take with him their best wishes for continued success in his chosen field of business.

The citizens of Falls City can rest assured that they are securing a clean cut, able energetic business man who will give them an establishment they can well be proud of and who will deliver the goods on whatever line he engages in. Mr. Falter may not find it possible to leave for another week to take up his new field of work as the special sale at the Dovey store has proven such a great success, but as soon as he can get away he will on the job at the Falls City store and give the people there a first class business house in every way.

SUDDEN PASSING OF ROBERT SHER- WOOD TODAY

For Forty-four Years Identified With the Business Interests of Plattsmouth.

From Saturday's Daily.
The community was profoundly shocked this morning to learn of the death at his home in Nebraska City of Robert Sherwood, for forty-four years a resident of Plattsmouth and a gentleman long identified with the business interests of the city. The death of Mr. Sherwood was very sudden and came as the result of a stroke of apoplexy with which he was stricken early this morning, and died at seven o'clock, before medical assistance could reach his side. Mr. Sherwood has been in rather poor health for the past few years but it was not thought that his death was so near at hand until the message came suddenly to call him to his last long rest.

Robert Sherwood was a native of England and was seventy years of age at the time of his death, and has always led an active and energetic life, and one devoted to the interests of his business. He was born in London, and at the age of thirteen began to learn the trade of shoemaker in his father's shop, and becoming a thorough master of the trade. He continued to reside in London until 1870 when he came to America and located in Plattsmouth, taking up his trade in one of the business houses in this city and continued there as a journeyman for four months, when he was promoted to the position of foreman of the shop. Continuing for four years at the trade he decided to embark in business for himself and accordingly he launched forth in a business career that was to terminate only in his death. In 1883 Mr. Sherwood suffered the loss of his building and the contents of his store, but this did not check the wonderful energy and force and he purchased the lot at the corner of Fifth and Main streets and erected there a fine brick building, that is still one of the finest buildings in the city. In later years Mr. Sherwood erected the building that is at present occupied by the Dunbar pool hall, and here the firm of Sherwood & Son continued in business until three years ago when the business was closed out. For several months Mr. Sherwood made his home on the farm south of the city, but the longing for the active life of the shoeshop was too strong and he purchased a shop in Nebraska City, which he has since continued, and during the past few months has been assisted by his son John Sherwood, in conducting the business. The departed gentleman was a most devout member of the Masonic fraternity, and occupied a high place in the councils of the order, and was a member of Plattsmouth lodge No. 6 of this city, as well as the high degrees of the order. He was also a lifelong member of the Episcopal church and has been identified with St. Luke's church of this city since coming here to live. He was married December 25th, 1857 to Amelia Hitchcock, and leaves to mourn his death the following children: Robert W. Sherwood, Thomas H. Sherwood, of Omaha; Herbert Sherwood, of Plattsmouth; George Sherwood, St. Louis; John Sherwood, Nebraska City; Mrs. Will Hoover, Louisville; Mrs. Arthur Troop, Victor Sherwood, Plattsmouth; Ralph Sherwood and Miss Carrie Sherwood, Omaha.

The death of Mr. Sherwood brings a profound regret as there are few men held in a higher respect than this splendid gentleman, and during his long years of life in this city he made many friends who will share with his children the grief at the death which has come so suddenly to rob them of a loving father and a kind and gentle friend.

Yesterday was the birthday of Mrs. Robert Troop of this city, and in honor of the event some thirty of the neighbors and friends of this estimable lady gathered to assist her in observing the anniversary in proper shape. The event was in the nature of a handkerchief shower and as remembrances of the occasion the guest of honor received many handsome presents of dainty handkerchiefs as tokens of esteem from the kind friends. The afternoon was spent very enjoyable in singing as well as in the making of articles of fancy needle work that served to pass the time very pleasantly. At a suitable hour the members of the party produced well laden baskets of good things to eat which they proceeded to enjoy to the utmost and which added to the pleasures of the event.

A FORMER PLATTS- MOUTH BOY GAINS FAME IN OREGON

From Saturday's Daily.
A former Plattsmouth boy, Fred Heithausen, has just completed for the University of Oregon, at which institution he is a student, a series of statistics which have long been desired by the Oregon school but, which they have never been able to secure until Mr. Heithausen took up the work and carried it to a successful conclusion, despite the long and arduous work that it involved, in addition to the other school work which he was carrying. The friends of the young man in this city will be pleased to learn of his success and the great service he has been able to give to his school and state. The Heithausen family have resided in Portland for a number of years and Fred was for one term a student at the Nebraska state university. In speaking of the work of this talented young man the Portland Oregonian has the following:

"A Portland boy with a taste for statistics has just completed for the University of Oregon a series of tables of data concerning the institution, which the authorities were glad to have, but which they have never felt able to have worked up by regular statisticians. Fred Heithausen of 999 Williams avenue, Portland, a junior in the school of commerce, has labored all spring added up long columns of figures and computing averages, and he has done it for the love of the work and to satisfy his own intellectual curiosity. He is taking no work in statistics nor in any other course in which he could expect university credit for his efforts."

LIEUTENANT G. R. GUILD PRO- MOTED TO CAPTANCY

His old friends in this city will be pleased to learn of his advancement along the lines of military service.

H. E. Pankonin and son Charles and Taylor Wilson of Louisville motored to this city this morning to attend to some business matters and visit friends, for a short time. Mr. H. E. Pankonin was a pleasant caller at this office and while here has his subscription extended for another year.

A VERY CLEVER BASE BALL GAME YESTERDAY

The Hollis of Omaha Trim the Red Sox to the Tune of 5 to 3, in Good Game.

The Red Sox yesterday ran into something when they went up against the Hollis of Omaha and as the result of their experience were trimmed to the score of 5 to 3 after the locals had apparently had the game on ice up to the ninth inning.

The Sox proceeded to take the lead in the game in the first inning when they secured two runs on the apparently easy marks from the big city and the ease with which they secured their first runs made the Sox slow up in their playing and as a result they were compelled to take the 40 per cent of the gate receipts for their part of the division of the spoils of the conflict. Beal and Parriott registered in the opening session of the game on a hit and an error and scored on the hitting of Huff, Rockwell and Connors. The locals again tallied in the third inning on the lads from Omaha when Fahenstock was able to register at the plate and after this the game dragged along until the ninth inning when the Hollis proceeded to unload a bunch of surprises on the Sox that brought them under the wire winners of the freak conflict. The visitors were able to secure five hits in this inning that proved good for that many scores. With the lead in their advantage the Omaha lads played a good game in the Sox half of the inning and held the locals scoreless and cinched the battle.

One of the features of the game was the catching of John Shields, for the Hollis and this former Plattsmouth lad has certainly developed into a real ball player and is the mainstay of the fast little Omaha team and his friends here were greatly pleased to see him in such rare form in the game.
