

WOODMEN CIR- CLE RESTRAINING ORDER MODIFIED

Mrs. Manchester May Not Discharge
Field Workers Supreme Court Says.

Lincoln, Neb., July 13.—After a hearing on the motion to dissolve the temporary restraining order entered in the suit brought by Attorney General Reed on behalf of Emma B. Manchester, supreme guardian of the Woodmen Circle, to place her again in complete charge of the society's affairs, the supreme court this afternoon entered an order slightly modifying the one it had previously granted.

In the former order the high court had restrained Dora Alexander and Mary La Rocca from interfering with Mrs. Manchester's management.

In its order today the high court modifies the restraining order to the effect that Mrs. Manchester shall not discharge any of the 650 field workers who were employed directly under the direction of Mrs. Manchester, Miss Alexander and Mrs. La Rocca until the final termination of the suit.

There was an imposing array of legal talent for the first hearing of the suit. Attorney General Reed, J. J. Sullivan, Arthur F. Mullen, H. F. Rose and W. B. Price appeared for Mrs. Manchester while A. W. Jeffries and F. H. Gaines represented the two defendants.

Attorney General Reed told the court that a great wrong was being done in taking out of Mrs. Manchester's hands power which belonged to her under the constitution and by-laws of the order. The action of last February, when the executive committee of three was named, did not have the ratification of the local groves and was therefore void, he said.

Attorney Mullen said the opposition to Mrs. Manchester was trying to usurp the powers which she exercised for seventeen years.

Attorney Gaines attacked Mrs. Manchester's management of affairs, asserting she resumed tyrannical policy and punished those who opposed her by cutting off their heads. He alluded to Mrs. Remington, formerly state manager for Nebraska, as having raised the membership in one year from 2,000 to 3,600, and who was subsequently dismissed by Mrs. Manchester. As a result the society dropped its membership in Nebraska, its home state, to the insignificant number of 124, he said.

Mr. Gaines contended that Mrs. Manchester once given full powers of management, would seek to make herself supreme again.

PLANNING BIG THINGS FOR STATE CONVENTION

From Friday's Daily.
Hastings, Neb., July 13.—Plans have been completed for an enthusiastic gathering of democrats for the county convention here Saturday afternoon. Delegates will be elected to the state convention here July 25. Walter Livingston, Hastings councilman, is being mentioned for chairman of the convention Saturday. An effort is to be made to instruct the delegates to the state convention against a uniform insurance rate plank in the Nebraska platform this year. Preparations are under way for the big meeting of loyal democrats here July 25. It is planned to meet all trains with the Hastings municipal band and the delegates and visitors will be transported to Prospect park where the convention will be held in the commodious pavilion.

J. E. THOMPSON IMPROVING

From Saturday's Daily.
The condition of J. E. Thompson of this city who is at the Mayo Brothers' hospital in Rochester, Minnesota, is reported as showing improvement and it is expected that he will be able to return to his home in this city in the next two weeks. He has received much benefit from his operation and treatment at the hospital in Rochester.

LIBRARY BUILDING GOING ALONG TO COMPLETION

From Friday's Daily.
The new $12,000 Caregie library building is being prepared for the final touches as Harry Johnson and his force of workmen are winding up on the plastering and getting things in shape for the finishing up of the carpenters on the interior. The floors and doors and window casings are yet to be installed and when these are in the library will begin to look like the real article and will prove a most commodious home for the library of the city. There will be plenty of room for the book shelves as well as a large bright reading room that will be very inviting to those who enjoy spending a pleasant hour or so there reading.

MR. AND MRS. H. C. VAN HORN ENTERTAIN THE PAST CHIEFS

From Saturday's Daily.
The past chiefs of the Degree of Honor were entertained most royally yesterday afternoon at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Van Horn south of the city and the day was one that will be very pleasantly remembered by the ladies present.

The ladies met at the corner of South and Vine streets where autos from the Amick garage were in waiting and these soon conveyed the members of the jolly party out to the beautiful Van Horn home where the fleeting hours were very pleasantly spent in a splendid business as well as a social meeting. The members of the organization held their annual election of officers at this time and the following were chosen: President, Mrs. J. C. Peterson; vice president, Mrs. William Hassler; secretary and press correspondent, Mrs. C. A. Rosenkrans; treasurer, Mrs. Fred H. Ramge; treasurer of penny fund, Mrs. Harry Johnson.

The ladies found much pleasure on the spacious lawn where hammocks, swings and chairs had been placed for their convenience and here the time was spent in a most pleasing manner. At 5 o'clock a big picnic dinner was served to which everyone did ample justice and proved one of the big hits of the occasion with the members of the jolly party of ladies. During the afternoon Mr. Van Horn gave several selections on the Grafola which were most enjoyable to the merry party. As evening began to draw near the members of the party wended their way homeward and reached their homes shortly after 7 o'clock, feeling that all had a fine time and that as an entertainer, Mrs. Van Horn was without an equal.

A STRANGER, WEARY AND HEAVILY LOAD- ED FINDS REST

From Saturday's Daily.
Yesterday a stranger hit the city, who while he was suffering from physical infirmities, was nothing loth to woo the flowing bowl and as a result he was taken in custody yesterday afternoon by Chief of Police Barclay and taken to the city jail to repose and rest from his overindulgence. The man had acquired a very fine "skate" and was "mooching" the passers by near Fifth and Main streets when the chief came by and soon spoiled the man's game by taking him to jail. The stranger was full of corn juice and quite abusive to those who failed to come across with a little coin and when arrested by Chief of Police Barclay a large surplus supply of whiskey was taken from his person. The man refused to try and walk to the jail and it was necessary for the chief to call on a bystander to assist in carrying the "skate" over to the bastille where he was lodged.

FUNERAL OF WASH BEVERAGE

From Friday's Daily.
The body of the late Wash Beverage arrived in the city this afternoon at 1:15 from Omaha where his death occurred Wednesday evening. The casket was met at the Burlington station by the members of the family who accompanied it to the United Brethren church south of the city where services were held by Rev. F. M. Druliner. The pall bearers were selected from among the members of the Woodmen of the World of which Mr. Beverage has been a member for several years.

Mrs. E. A. Kirkpatrick of Nehavka is here for a short visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. P. E. Ruffner.

CELEBRATE FOR- TIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

One of the Most Pleasant Events of the Age at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. George Dodge.

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. George Dodge was the scene of a most delightful reception on Saturday afternoon and evening when their friends gathered with them to assist in the appropriate observance of the fortieth wedding anniversary.

The home and the handsome lawn was very prettily arranged for the event and filled with the many friends and neighbors was the scene of the rarest pleasure that marked the passing of this most happy event. The dining room was decorated very prettily in a color scheme of red and white carrying out the observance of the Ruby anniversary. The centerpiece of the dining table was a large bouquet of red roses while streamers of tulle was used in the table decorations and red candles with the beautiful candlesticks added their touch of beauty to the scene. On the buffet large bouquets of Chester daisies were used to add to the general beauty of the room. The ice cream was also arranged in red and white carrying out the general idea of the anniversary. At the head and foot of the table several of the friends of the estimable couple presided in the handling of the refreshments. In the afternoon the table was presided over by Miss Barbara Gering, Miss Dora Fricke, Mrs. C. W. Baylor and Mrs. Roy Dodge while the serving was looked after by Mrs. Henry McMaken, Miss Pheme Richardson, Miss Madeline Minor and Miss Edith Ramge. In the evening the refreshment table was presided over by Mrs. R. F. Patterson, Mrs. R. A. Bates, Mrs. G. H. Falter and Miss Marie Donnelly and Misses Gretchen Donnelly, Verna Hatt, Barbara Clement, Edith Dovey and Harriett Clement did the serving in a most charming manner. The guests on their arrival were met on the lawn, which had been very prettily arranged with tables and chairs and the pleasing Japanese lanterns, by Miss Violet Dodge and the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Dodge.

A very pleasing program was given during the hours of the reception both in the afternoon and evening. In the afternoon two very beautiful piano numbers were given by Misses Ellen Belle McDaniel and a very pleasing reading by Miss Bernese Newell added greatly to the pleasures of the members of the party.

In the evening the program was quite lengthy and was composed of offerings from a large number of the most talented ladies and gentlemen in the city and was very pleasing in every way. Mrs. E. H. Wescott and John W. Falter each gave a vocal solo in their usual gifted manner and which was received with marked approval by the large number present. Mr. B. A. McElwain also contributed a vocal number to the program that was very enjoyable. Misses Gretchen and Marie Donnelly gave a most pleasing duet in a very charming manner. Mrs. G. H. Falter and Miss Verna Cole each gave a piano solo and the offering of these gifted ladies was much appreciated by everyone present, as was the reading of Mrs. William Baird and this talented lady won the hearts of all by her exceptionally pleasing selections.

The guest book where the friends registered their well wishes to the bride and groom of forty years ago was in charge of Madame Leete while the program was in charge of Mrs. W. S. Leete.

This was a most happy occasion for this estimable couple and one in which their friends joined in wishing them many more anniversaries in the years to come that would renew the memory of the happiest day in their lives when they were joined as one. It was also the thirty-ninth birthday anniversary of Dr. Roy Dodge, the son of the guests of honor, who took part in the happy occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Dodge during their long residence in this city have made many warm friends and as tokens of the kindly feeling felt for them were made the recipients of a great many handsome gifts that they will cherish in the years to come as remembrances of the many kind friends.

The out of town guests present to assist in the pleasant occasion were Dr. and Mrs. Roy Dodge of Omaha, Miss Belle Hatch of Omaha, Fred Stringfellow of Des Moines, Ia., and Mrs. E. A. Kirkpatrick of Nehavka.

D. G. Frank and wife of Medford, Minnesota, are here called by the death of their little granddaughter, Jane Seivers, the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Jennings Seivers.

FOUND SLEEPING IN ALLEY- WAY LAST NIGHT

From Saturday's Daily.

Last evening shortly after 8 o'clock a stranger in our peaceful little city was found sleeping near the alleyway on South Fourth street, where he had fell, too deeply wrapped in the arms of Morpheus to continue his journey farther and here he was when shortly afterwards Chief of Police Barclay in his rounds came on the man who was dead to the world and reposing peacefully on the cold hard earth. The chief soon made short work of the gentleman by having him conveyed to the city jail where he might repose undisturbed and not get injured or do any damage. The man claims to be a tailor and gave his residence as Omaha. He arrived in the city yesterday morning and had been noticed several times in the vicinity of the Burlington tracks with a companion but the whereabouts of the second member of the party was not discovered. When the chief arrested the man it was found that he was too far gone to walk and the victim was given a ride in "the wagon."

AUTO SPEEDERS PAY PENALTY FOR FAST DRIVING

The special automobile policeman employed by the city for service on the avenues in order to check the speeders made a good haul Saturday and several of those driving at a rate of speed far in excess of the limits of the law were picked up and compelled to put up a cash bond for their appearance in court and these were forfeited this morning in Judge Archer's court. The parties who were stopped by the police were all running in excess of twenty-five miles an hour according to the statement of the officer and one had reached thirty-seven and a half miles when he was picked up. Those who were stopped for their fast driving were: M. Peterson, Millard; L. W. Shubert, Nebraska City; O. E. Ireland, Berlin and Glen Perry of this city.

The city authorities desire to give as much liberty, in running automobiles as is possible, but the privileges has been pushed to the limit by the automobile drivers and the complaints from the residents along the avenues have become most strenuous in regard to the fast driving and the city has determined that there must be a more reasonable regard for the law shown by the drivers of machines on the streets. The law will be enforced regardless of who the parties may be as a matter of public safety and welfare. The auto drivers should co-operate with the city in seeing that the rate of speed on the streets is kept in the limits of the law and not try and turn them into speedways without regard to the safety of others traveling along the streets.

CALLED TO PEKIN, ILLINOIS, ON THE DEATH OF BROTHER

This morning Mrs. J. H. Meisinger accompanied by her son, Adam Meisinger of near Cedar Creek, departed for Pekin, Ill., in response to a message announcing the death of Adam Saal, a brother of Mrs. Meisinger and they will attend the last sad rites there on Wednesday. Mr. Saal was 62 years of age at the time of his death and one of the prominent and successful men of that portion of Illinois. He died yesterday morning at his home in Peoria. He has visited in this county several times with his sister and family and a great many of the residents of the county were acquainted with him and will extend to his family their most sincere sympathy in their loss.

Biliousness and Stomach Trouble

"Two years ago I suffered from frequent attacks of stomach trouble and biliousness," writes Miss Emma Verbrake, Lima, Ohio. "I could eat very little food that agreed with me and I became so dizzy and sick at my stomach at times that I had to take hold of something to keep from falling. Seeing Chamberlain's Tablets advertised I decided to try them. I improved rapidly." Obtainable everywhere.

A VERY SERIOUS AUTO ACCIDENT NEAR MYNARD

Auto Driven by Ray Towle Runs Into
Wagon Loaded With Corn
Near Mynard.

From Saturday's Daily.

Last evening quite a serious accident occurred on the Mynard road near the residence of W. H. Verner, when the automobile driven by Ray Towle, ran into the heavy farm wagon loaded with corn, and which was being taken to Mynard by Dewey Reed. The accident resulted in the almost destruction of the car of Mr. Towle, and it was reduced to a bunch of junk. The wagon was not damaged to any great extent two spokes being knocked out of the wheel. Young Reed, who is engaged in working for B. W. Livingston, was helping at the farm of Elbert Wiles where they were shelling corn for delivery at the Mynard elevator, and securing a load Reed started for Mynard. He was proceeding westward on the road toward the Verner farm and when some distance west of the bridge saw the automobile coming down the hill toward him at a high rate of speed. The young man stated that he pulled to one side of the road as far as possible to allow the car to pass, but instead it crashed into his wagon, and in a second it was turned completely over with the driver pinned beneath the wrecked car that was completely smashed up. The two front wheels were completely ruined, and both the front and rear of the car which had been cut down to a racer, was torn and battered up into a mess of wreckage. Reed alighted from his wagon uninjured and attempted to extricate Towle from beneath his wrecked machine but without success until another farmer driving by came to his assistance and turned the machine so that the imprisoned man could crawl out. Mr. Towle suffered no serious injuries as far as could be ascertained although bruised and shaken up badly as the result of the accident. It seems almost a miracle from the condition of the wrecked automobile that Towle was not killed as he struck the wagon with great force and had it been a light vehicle it certainly would have been reduced to kindling wood, but being a heavy farm wagon and filled with corn it was able to withstand the wreck a great deal better than the automobile.

ANOTHER ATTRACTION IS ADDED FOR LABOR DAY

The committee in charge of the fall festival, have arranged for an added attraction for Labor day, September 4, in a shape of a turning exhibition that will be staged by a number of the leading turners of Omaha belonging to the T. J. Sokol society, who are just returning from their national meeting. This should prove a fine feature for the day and add greatly to the interesting program that has been arranged for the day. It is expected to hold this exhibition in the afternoon of Labor day as it will permit a much larger number to attend than would otherwise be possible and it goes without saying that this feature will be one of the biggest attractions that could possibly be secured to add to the already interesting program for this big day.

MR. JAMES RISHEL MISS ELIZABETH KERR MARRIED SATURDAY

The cozy home of Mrs. Sarah E. Kerr on West Pearl street, was the scene of a quiet, but very pretty home wedding Saturday afternoon, at 3 o'clock. Miss Elizabeth Kerr and Mr. James Rishel were united in the holy bonds of wedlock by Rev. F. M. Druliner, pastor of M. E. church. For the happy event the rooms of the Kerr home had been prettily decorated in a color scheme of pink and white and the ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate relatives and a few most intimate friends of the contracting parties. As the appointed time drew near, Miss Esther Larsen took her place at the piano and sounded the familiar and beautiful strains of "Lohengrin's Wedding Chorus" to which the bridal party entered the living room, taking their places in front of a bower of green, which had been arranged in the southeast corner of the room. The bride and groom were accompanied by Miss Mattie Larson as bridesmaid and Mr. Frank L. Barkus as best man. After the ceremony, dainty refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Rishel departed on No. 2 over the Burlington for Buffalo, N. Y., where they will visit for a few days. The bride and bridesmaid were attired in dainty white, the bride carrying a snapper bouquet of white roses and snapdragons while the bridesmaid carried a bouquet of pink roses and ferns.

On Wednesday afternoon, Miss Edna Morrison entertained a few friends for the bride-to-be, at a most delightful linen shower, at which time she was made the happy recipient of many beautiful linen pieces, which will be cherished by her in years to come.

On Friday afternoon Misses Esther and Mattie Larson, very pleasantly entertained a few friends for the bride-to-be at a kitchen shower. The various kitchen utensils had been hidden about the spacious lawn at the Larson home and the bride was required to search for the various articles.

Constipation and Indigestion.

"I have used Chamberlain's Tablets and must say they are the best I have ever used for constipation and indigestion. My wife also used them for indigestion and they did her good," writes Eugene S. Knight, Wilmington, N. C. Chamberlain's Tablets are mild and gentle in their action. Give them a trial. You are certain to be pleased with the agreeable laxative effect which they produce. Obtainable everywhere.

Sales bills done quickly at the Journal.

Dr. Roy Dodge and wife of Omaha who were here visiting with their relatives and friends, departed last evening for Kansas City where they will enjoy a visit for a week or ten days in the Missouri city and vicinity.
