

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION HELD YESTERDAY

Besides the Selection of Delegates to the State Convention John L. Kennedy Addressed the Assemblage.

From Wednesday's Daily. The republicans of the county were the guests yesterday of the city of Weeping Water where their county convention assembled in the park and which was attended by a very enthusiastic crowd of the followers of the grand old party who were also given the privilege of hearing an address by John L. Kennedy of Omaha, candidate for United States senator on the republican ticket.

The convention was presided over by Hon. E. M. Pollard of Nehawka, one of the leaders of the party in the state and J. M. Teegarden of Weeping Water and E. G. Dovey of this city were selected as secretaries of the convention.

The convention proceeded to get down to business and took up the election of the delegates to the state convention at Lincoln on Tuesday next with the result that the following were selected to represent Cass county at the gathering:

Delegate at large, Dr. O. E. Liston, Elmwood.

Delegates—A. L. Tidd, H. A. Schneider, C. A. Rawls, E. G. Dovey, Dr. E. W. Cook, R. G. Rawls, J. J. Johnson, Plattsmouth; W. G. Boedeker, Murray; C. L. Graves, Union; E. M. Pollard, Nehawka; Cyrus Livingston, Nehawka; Orlando Tefft, Avoca; C. G. Mayfield, Louisville; C. D. Clapp, Elmwood; C. D. Wollen, Weeping Water; Rev. E. E. Ellidge, Clark Newton, I. N. Hunter, Weeping Water; Fred Munchau, Eagle.

The address of Mr. Kennedy was one filled with an arraignment of the democratic national administration on their conduct of the affairs of the nation and a denunciation of the war tax as well as a plea for preparedness by training in the public schools of the nation. The republican delegates as well as the democratic delegates speak in the highest terms of the treatment accorded them by the citizens of Weeping Water and all expressed well pleased with their work for the cause they are interested in.

BURGLARS VISIT THE PEOPLES' STORE ON SOUTH SIXTH STREET

From Wednesday's Daily. The Peoples' grocery and meat market on South Sixth street last night was visited by burglars and as a result of the visit the cash register was relieved of $6 in silver. The burglar secured entrance to the store by on the second story of the building and successfully made his getaway when he was discovered at his work by Frank Foreman, the owner of the store. Mr. Foreman sleeps in a room on the second story of the building and was awakened about 1:30 in the morning by the noise as if someone was moving around in the store and seemed to be tinkering with the cash register. He at once hastened down stairs and as he did the man ran from the cash register to the side of the ice box, which stands just between the store room and the rear room. The burglar ran around the store could reach the rear room, the man had leaped through the open window and made his escape. An investigation of the register showed that there was $6 in silver missing and a number of checks and coupons which had been in the register were scattered around over the counter where they had been dropped by the burglar in making his getaway. It is not the custom to leave much money in the register but last night the owner failed to remove as usual and this was the time selected by the robber to make a call. The window through which entrance was made had been left open several inches for ventilation and the party found it very easy in getting into the store, but evidently did not know that the owner was sleeping in the building.

OLD SETTLERS' DAY AT EPWORTH LEAGUE ASSEMBLY

Notice has been sent out from Lincoln as to the program for the Epworth assembly which is to be held in that city, announcing that Thursday, August 3, will be observed as Old Settlers' day and on this occasion Hon. R. B. Windham, of this city, president of the Territorial Pioneers association, will preside over the event. This is a well deserved honor for our distinguished fellow citizen who has taken a deep interest in the preservation of the history of the pioneer days in Nebraska and who has had so large a part in the formation of the state which he has for so many years made his home. This will be one of the big days at the Epworth assembly.

THE MATTER OF "PINCHING" SPEEDERS ON THE AVENUE

From Wednesday's Daily. To the public: I confess I was going faster than the law says I shall go on the avenue when I was stopped by the "cop" Saturday evening. I deny I was going as fast as he said I was, I stand flat footed and say he made a mistake whether intentionally or not, I can not say.

I would like to explain how I came to driving as fast as I did. I with my family and two other people in the car with me were driving out the avenue about 10:30 Saturday evening at about the rate of twelve to fifteen miles per hour. Along about the Louisville road a motorcycle turned out as to pass. The motorcyclist would drive up far enough to throw dust in our faces then slack up to even with our back wheels or past, then take another spurt. Therefore, I began to speed up, and when I had gained enough speed to suit his evil desires I was told to stop. That was after we had gained the top of the hill by the Peterson orchard. I went back to town with the "gentleman" and put up my bond. I was told by the chief of police that no one driving at a rate of twenty-five miles per hour or less would be molested. Now I guess I know something about how fast I was going as I have driven a car before and do not have to depend on other people's speedometers as I have a Stewart speedometer of my own in good running order which is supposed to register correctly. But if the city of Plattsmouth upholds such conduct and wants my $5 worse than they want about $8,000 worth of trade from me this fall they are perfectly welcome to it. I can prove that I was not the only one the "cop" tried to trick into speeding the same as he did me. But they happened to have been put wise to his intentions or tricks. I have driven to Omaha and other such places a number of times and never was coaxed to exceed the speed limit before just to get a fine out of me. Perhaps other cities do not need this "fine" to pave their avenues as does Plattsmouth.

OVERWORK AND WORRY

Men do not break down from overwork, but from worry and irregular living. They are anxious to do more than they can accomplish and receive then the penalty. They are losing their appetite and sleep, and suffer from physical and mental exhaustion. To all such people we wish to recommend Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. This excellent remedy will help to rebuild the "run down" system, because it will keep the bowels open, will stimulate the appetite, will improve digestion and will strengthen the body. In constipation and its complications, as indigestion, distress after meals, wind-colic, bad complexion, headache, nervousness, it is to be recommended. Price $1.90. At drug stores. Jos. Triner, Manufacturing Chemist, 1333-1339 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.

In rheumatism, neuralgia and stiff joints, Triner's Liniment should be rubbed thoroughly over the painful area, or saturate a flannel with it, apply on the seat of pain and secure with a dry bandage. Price 25 and 50c. At drug stores. By mail 35c and 60c.

Feel languid, weak, run down? Headache? Stomach "off"? A good remedy is Burdock Blood Bitters, your druggist. Price $1.00.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION AT WEEPING WATER

The Principal Object of the Meeting Was to Select Delegates to the State Convention.

From Wednesday's Daily. The democratic county convention was held yesterday at Weeping Water and was attended by a large number of representatives from the different precincts of the county and throughout a very happy feeling for the success of the party was manifested by the delegates. L. F. Langhorst, chairman of the county committee called the meeting to order at 11 o'clock in the Phillipot opera house, and the organization was effected by the selection of D. O. Dwyer of Plattsmouth as chairman and Joseph Capwell of Elmwood as secretary and this organization was made permanent.

The convention adopted ringing resolution endorsing County Chairman L. F. Langhorst of Elmwood, for the position of state chairman, for which position Mr. Langhorst is so well fitted. The good work of this gentleman for the party in this county was spoken of by the many delegates who unanimously supported the resolution. As a practical political manager Mr. Langhorst has no equal in southeastern Nebraska and his ability has been responsible for a great deal of the success achieved in the last few years by the democrats of old Cass county.

It was decided to elect the delegates by commissioner districts, each to have six, and the remaining two to be elected at large. Under this plan a recess was held and the delegates selected their candidates and the following were chosen to represent Cass county at the state convention in Hastings, on Tuesday, July 25.

Delegates at large: Hon. W. B. Banning, Union; L. F. Langhorst, Elmwood.

First District—Mike Hill, Dr. J. S. Livingston, C. F. Vallery, G. H. Manners, Z. T. Sutley, Plattsmouth; W. H. Puls, Murray, Alternates, Frank M. Bestor, W. D. Wheeler and George W. Snyder.

Second District—M. G. Kime, Nehawka; Zack Shrader, Nehawka; Herman Pankonin, Louisville; John Wunderlich, Nehawka; B. C. Marquardt, Avoca; L. G. Todd, Union, Alternates, G. F. Barton, Union; Joseph Zimmerman, Avoca.

Third District—G. P. Foreman, Avoca; Ed Carr, Eagle; S. C. Boyles, Alvo; E. T. Comer, Elmwood; C. S. Stone, Elmwood; Ed Pentamer, Elmwood, Alternates, J. P. Rouse, Alvo; C. S. Aldrich, Elmwood; Thomas Murty, Weeping Water; C. G. Bailey, Elmwood; Harry Williams, Elmwood; P. F. Venner, Eagle.

After the selection of the delegates the convention then adjourned and everyone present felt that it was a most pleasing gathering of the hosts of the democracy of the county with nothing to mar the serenity of the occasion. The citizens of Weeping Water were very pleasing in their entertainment and the delegates were tendered free tickets to attend the chautauqua and a number availed themselves of this opportunity.

A PLEASANT EVENING AT THE GEORGE KAFFENBERGER HOME

The pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Kaffenberger on High School hill was the scene of a very pleasant gathering Tuesday evening, when the eighteenth birthday anniversary of their daughter, Miss Mina, was celebrated by a number of the friends of this popular little lady. The lawn was very prettily arranged with chairs and tables and here the members of the jolly party enjoyed the fleeting hours in a most delightful manner. During the evening a number of very pleasing musical numbers were given by Misses Helen Livingston and Blanche Sayles which added greatly to the delight of everyone present. Games of all kinds were played on the lawn by the merry young people at which they derived great pleasure. A sumptuous luncheon served at a suitable hour came as a fitting climax of a most pleasant evening and the guests departed homeward wishing Miss Mina many more such happy occasions.

Poultry Wanted

A carload of live poultry, to be delivered at car, near Burlington freight depot, Plattsmouth, Neb., on Tuesday, July 25th, one day only, for which we will pay in cash:
Hens 15c

WALTER SEBATKA PROGRESSING NICELY AT THE HOSPITAL

Walter Sebarka, who was taken to Omaha yesterday afternoon to undergo an operation at the Immanuel hospital to locate the torn ligaments of his hand which he injured Tuesday evening by cutting them with a hand ax, is progressing nicely, and the operation was entirely successful and the severed tendons were placed back in position and it is thought that the patient will soon be on the highway to recovery. The tendons when severed by the blow of the ax had drawn up in the arm for some distance and it was only after a great deal of difficulty that they were located and joined together. The young man will be off duty for some time but it is thought that he will get along nicely. This will be very pleasing news to his friends and they trust that he may continue to show improvement.

"HOME COMING" COMMITTEES GETTING THINGS IN SHAPE

The literature secured for the use of the "Home Coming" celebration has been prepared and will now be placed in the hands of the citizens in order that it may reach all the former residents of the city and assist them in remembering the date for this very important event.

One the letter head advertising the "Home Coming" appears a very handsome cut of the business part of the city and one that gives a very fair idea of the improvements and changes that have been made here in the last few years. A very cordial invitation has been printed in the short letter that will be sent out and which gives a good idea of the spirit of the occasion that has been originated with the view of gathering as many of the old residents in Plattsmouth as possible during this week. There has been nothing that has anywhere attracted the same amount of attention in this city and vicinity as has the "Home Coming" week and everyone enters into the spirit of the occasion with the greatest of enthusiasm to make it a great and glorious success in every way and the hard working committees are busy all the time in perfecting details that may add interest to the event or make its success even greater than has been anticipated.

With the greater part of the old residents of Plattsmouth and Cass county, who will be present at the festival time, the opportunity to visit the old scenes of interest and renew old acquaintances will be sufficient to give them the greatest enjoyment and for those who desire to have amusement the committee is providing a most pleasing program of attractions that will assure the public of something doing every minute of the day and give them a well assorted array at amusement and attractions. The special days as arranged for will add interest to the event and everything is lined up to have these special events the biggest thing that was ever given in the history of the city. Commencing on Thursday, August 31, and continuing until September 4, there will be something doing all the time.

St. Paul, Minn., July 28.—At the conclusion of last night's session of the executive committee of the prohibition national committee, a telegram was sent to John M. Parker of New Orleans by Robert Patton, national committeeman from Illinois and H. H. Faris of Clinton, Mo., treasurer of the national committee.

The message follows: "Will you accept the nomination for vice president on the prohibition ticket? Some of our delegates are favorable to your nomination if you will accept and believe your acceptance will be a great step toward unity. Please wire fully where you stand."

New Orleans, La., July 18.—"There is not a chance on earth of my accepting any nomination at the hands of the prohibition party," said John M. Parker, progressive candidate for vice president, in reply to a telegram received from prohibition leaders at St. Paul.

Mr. Parker also said his attitude on prohibition apparently was misunderstood by Virgil G. Hinshaw, prohibition national chairman. "I stated to Mr. Hinshaw verbally," said Mr. Parker, "that national prohibition was the only way in which prohibition could be accomplished but I also stated that I stood for local option."

Mr. Hinshaw was quoted as saying Mr. Parker "wrote repeatedly saying he wanted to become a member of a party standing for national prohibition."

PARKER WILL NOT ACCEPT THE NOMINATION

Eugene Fess Says He Would Not Be the Candidate of Prohibition Party.

A "Get Together" Conference Is the Forerunner of the National Convention.

St. Paul, Minn., July 28.—Delegates to the national prohibition convention today learned that the contest for the presidential nomination had narrowed overnight to a race between former Governors J. Frank Hanly of Indiana and William Sulzer of New York by reason of the statement by Eugene N. Foss, former governor of Massachusetts, that he would not be a candidate, should the nomination be tendered him.

Henry Ford of Detroit, failed to arrive on any of the early trains, although he has been expected to attend the "get together" conference which will be held today. His absence and silence lends color to National Chairman Hinshaw's belief that the Detroit manufacturer will not permit his name to be placed before the convention.

A GREAT PLAY AT AIR DOME ON NEXT TUESDAY EVENING

A brief synopsis of "The City," Clyde Fitch's masterwork filmed by the World Film corporation, will be seen at the Airdome on Tuesday night, fails to do justice to this melodrama of life.

The ambitious family of a country town, eager for the wider horizon of the city, are the characters of this play. How they attain their end, through what an awful crucible they pass, these are the things that make the drama. A mere recital of them would give no idea of the grim power with which the dramatist unfolded his theme. The scumming up is put by the dramatist in the lips of his leading character, who cries:

"Do not blame the city. It's not her fault; it's your own! What the city does is to bring out what's strongest in us. If at heart we are good, the good in us will win; if bad God help us! Do not blame the city! She gives man his opportunity; it is up to him what he makes of it!"

"A man may live in a small place all his life—deceive the whole place and himself into thinking he has got all the virtues, when at heart he's a hypocrite; but the village gives him no chance to find out—to prove it to his fellows—the small town is too easy! But the city! A man comes to the gate of it and knocks! New York or Chicago, Boston or San Francisco; no matter what city, so long as it's big and busy and selfish and self-centered; and she opens her gates and takes him in, and she stands him in the middle of her market place—where Wall street and Herald Square and Harlem and Forty-second street all meet—and there she strips him naked of his disguises and of all his hypocrisies and she paints his ambition on her fences and lights up her skyscrapers with it—what he wants to do and what he thinks he is! And then she says to him: 'Make good if you can, or to hell with you!' And what is in him comes out to clothe his nakedness, and to the city he can't lie! I know because I tried."

RAIN IN THE COUNTY

From Wednesday's Daily. The delegates going to Weeping Water yesterday report that the rain in that section of the county has been quite heavy and that in places the automobiles had considerable difficulty in getting through the mud and water which was quite heavy on the roadway. This rainfall occurred on Monday night and while only a faint sprinkle was evident in this city and immediate vicinity farther south and west there was plenty of the much needed rain.
