

Murray Department

Prepared in the Interest of the People of Murray and Surrounding Vicinity Especially for the Journal Readers

If any of the readers of the Journal know of any social event or item of interest in this vicinity, and will mail same to this office, it will appear under this heading. We want all new items.—Editor

Protect Yourself Against Illness!

You may be enjoying the best of health today. There may come a siege of illness. ARE YOU PREPARED FOR IT? Doctor's bills and enforced idleness are expensive. When you have a bank account you are prepared to combat illness. Can you conceive of anything more tragic than a long period of illness without any funds?

Therefore, if You Haven't a Bank Account, Start One Today

Four per cent interest on time deposits. Our deposits are protected by the State Guaranty Law.

MURRAY STATE BANK

For Insurance of all kinds see J. W. Holmes.

Mrs. Phil Lambert has been quite sick for the past few days.

Mrs. Grace Porter has been numbered with the sick this week.

Mrs. Ed. Ranard has been numbered with the sick for the past few days.

Offer $100.00 for your car if stolen, if you are insured by J. W. Holmes.

Col. Seybolt drove up to Fremont Wednesday where he attended the big tractor meeting.

Be sure and attend the Kensington at the Oldham home on Friday afternoon, August 18.

Lois Scotton was taken to Omaha Tuesday of this week, where she had her tonsils removed.

Ed. Kniss and Oliver Lloyd were looking after some business matters in Council Bluffs Tuesday morning.

A. L. Baker attended the wholesalers entertainment for the retailers at the Fontanelle Hotel in Omaha Tuesday.

Mrs. Lou Trimpie, of Omaha, is visiting in Murray this week, a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Brown.

Mrs. J. F. Brendel and little son went down to Weeping Water this week for a couple of days' visit with her parents.

Vance Burton, who for the past few years has been making his home in Bloomfield and northern Nebraska, arrived in Murray Tuesday.

Frank Lillie has been driving a fine new Overland car this week, that he purchased a few days ago from the Bauer agency in Plattsmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Barrows and Mr. and Mrs. Alf Gansemer went to Omaha Wednesday, where they spent the day. The trip was made in Mr. Barrow's car.

Frank Lilly is running a new Overland car this week.

J. A. Wilson has been sporting a new Ford car this week.

John Hobscheidt and family and mother were guests of Herman Rellie Sunday.

Lee Kniss was looking after some business matters in the county seat Wednesday afternoon.

A. L. Baker is another purchaser of a Ford car this week, going to Plattsmouth Thursday after it.

J. M. Holmes was looking after some business matters in the county seat Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Minford and daughter, Miss Olga, and Miss Clara Young visited with friends at Berlin last Sunday.

Misses Gertrude Long, Pauline Oldham, and Messrs. George Nickles and Albert Young attended the Nehawka picnic last Saturday.

Misses Opha Baker, Eva LaRue and Laura Puls went out to the Fritz Lutz home Wednesday evening to attend an ice cream social.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Pitman write to home folks that they are now located in Racine Wis., and are thinking of remaining there for some time.

Gus Hollenberg is building a fine new double corn crib on his farm south of Murray. The structure will be 36x48 with a center driveway. Albert Young is doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Barrows, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sans, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Boedecker and Miss Beulah Sans drove up to the State Fisheries last Sunday where they spent the day.

The Missionary Society will give a Kensington at the Oldham home on Friday afternoon, August 18. The public is generally invited to attend. The library will open Saturday afternoon and evening.

Raymond Cremer was an Omaha visitor Tuesday.

Albert Wilson is listed among the Ford owners this week.

G. E. Nickles was transacting business in Plattsmouth, Saturday.

T. H. Pollock was demonstrating a fine Buick Six around Murray Tuesday.

W. R. Good and wife and Miss Bertha Nickles attended the picnic at Nehawka, Saturday.

John Hendricks is building a fine new porch. Frank Lilly is assisting John with the work.

Mrs. Dove Asch is having the Lewiston church repaired this week. Roy Burton is doing the work.

Jesse Pell, of Union, was in Murray Tuesday of this week, making the trip in his fine new Studebaker car.

H. L. Claybaugh, of Des Moines, was in Murray this week in the interests of the Banker's Life Insurance Co.

George Shields is among those of this locality engaged in thrashing this week, also Doc Long, and numerous others.

Ralph Holmes made a bicycle trip to Plattsmouth Tuesday, where he spent the day with relatives and friends.

Miss Margie Walker spent last Saturday and Sunday in Nehawka, a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vilas Sheldon.

Mrs. Minnie Woods and children, of Lincoln, arrived in Murray last Saturday for a week's visit with friends and relatives.

Alex Graves, one of the old time residents of this locality came up from Rock Bluffs Wednesday and spent the day with Murray friends.

C. H. Harris and J. W. Holmes attended the republican committee meeting in Louisville last Friday, the trip being made in Mr. Harris' car.

Mrs. Joe Sans entertained the Ladies of the K. N. K. Thursday afternoon. A nice crowd was present to enjoy the hospitality of Mrs. Sans.

Miss Lena Philpot and Miss Emma Engelkemeier departed last week for a month's visit in Colorado, visiting several points, including a several days' visit at Estes Park.

M. G. Churchill returned home from Laurell, Neb., last Friday, where he had been making a visit at the home of Bert Crawford. He also visited other points in northern Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Boedecker and son, Charles and Miss Beulah Sans departed this week for a few weeks' visit at various points in Colorado. They will visit in Denver, Colorado Springs and Estes Park.

Clarence, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Engelkemeier, met with a very painful accident last Sunday evening, when he collided with a wire fence. He cut quite a severe gash in his right cheek.

One of Jake Hild's teams took a rather lively spin around the streets of Murray one day last week. They broke from the hitching place and were not stopped in their flight until the wagon was a total wreck. No damage was done to the team.

Frank and Omar Schlichtemeier started for Omaha via the auto route Wednesday morning, getting a few miles north of Plattsmouth their auto was put out of commission by the cylinders sticking for the want of oil. The car was left in Plattsmouth, Omar took the train for Omaha and Frank returned home.

Uncle Sam Latta and son James, Mrs. W. S. Smith and Mrs. J. W. Holmes departed Wednesday afternoon for Lincoln to attend the Epworth Assembly. They will remain in the capital city a couple of days. Miss Neva Latta will accompany them home for a few days' visit with Murray friends and relatives.

There was a very exciting ball game pulled off here last Sunday afternoon, between the Half Sox and No Sox teams, and after the smoke of battle had cleared away the score stood 8 to 4 in favor of the No Sox. Umpire Holmes escaped without injury, although some of the close decisions, and in some instances he was compelled to tell the base runners just where the ball was "put on them."

United Presbyterian church services for Sunday, August 13, 1916: Sunday school at 10:00 a. m., preaching at 11:00; subject, "God's Trial of Abraham." Evening service outdoors at 7:30 instead of 8:00 p. m. Please note change of time. Subject, "The Goodness and Severity of God." Miss Neva Latta will be with us for these services. Miss Latta is well known in the community as a singer of great ability and we expect her to give us some special music at both services. Everybody invited.

THE MOVIES - AT MURRAY -

4 reels of the best pictures!

"Borrowed Plumes" —with Ben Wilson

Billie Ritchie in "Scars and Stripes" —a two reel comedy

"He Almost Eloped" —an excellent comedy

PULS & GANSEMER HALL!

Eugene Taylor was taken to St. Joseph hospital at Omaha Friday for an operation on his hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Minniear and children of Lafayette, Ind., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Minniear and also with Walter Minniear and family.

Walter Chase has been making some decided changes and improvements on his Pathfinder car during the past few days, and he will soon have it in proper condition for making "many" miles per hour.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wheatley with Mr. and Mrs. C. Owens of Howe, Ind., who were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Minniear and family, have resumed their journey to the Pacific coast. The trip is being made over the auto route.

ENTERTAINS FOR VISITOR.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Tigner west of Murray was the scene of a very pleasant gathering Friday evening when they entertained in honor of Miss Mathilde Brandt of Glenwood, Ia., and Miss Mary West and John West. Miss Brandt has been a guest at the Tigner home for the past few weeks. The occasion was also in the nature of a farewell as Miss Brandt will soon leave for her home at Glenwood to take up her work in the hospital there. The evening was spent in music and games and at the midnight hour very dainty and delicious refreshments of ice cream, cake, fruit and lemonade were served that added very much to the enjoyment of the members of the party and it was a late hour when they departed homeward voting Mr. and Mrs. Tigner most royal entertainers.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for their sympathy and kindness shown through the sickness and death of our beloved son and brother, Allen Davis. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver H. Davis and family.

M. G. Churchill was a Plattsmouth visitor Thursday.

Otto Schaefer is sporting a fine new Ford car this week.

Mrs. Wm. March has been numbered with the sick for the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lynde have moved into a portion of the residence of Mrs. W. E. Dull.

Bert Pollock and daughter and Jas. Pollock, of Plattsmouth, were Murray visitors Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. and Miss W. A. Brown are in Central City this week attending the Encampment of the G. A. R.

Charles Spangler and family, of Mt. Pleasant precinct, departed last Sunday for Custer county, on a combined business and pleasure trip.

James Brown and family went to Fremont this week to attend the big tractor meeting. The trip was made in their auto and they will make an over night stop at the home of Henry Ost, near Springfield.

Wm. LaRue went to Omaha Sunday morning to secure more help for the section work on the M. P. He came in contact with some of the I. W. W.'s but failed to hire any of them, as he was unable to locate one of the bunch that wanted work.

Mrs. J. W. Berger returned home from Rawlins, Wyoming, Monday evening, where she has been for the past two weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. M. Steiner. She reports a very pleasant trip and a most enjoyable visit.

In the interesting and very exciting ball game here last Sunday afternoon Fred Warner, one of the swift base runners met with quite a severe and painful accident, while making a sensational slide for second base. He was soon revived from the injuries and was able to continue the game.

There was quite a land deal took place in Murray this week at which time Elmer Boedecker sells his fine 100 acre farm south of Murray to S. A. Wiles, for the handsome sum of $27,000.00. This is one of the finest farms in this locality, and while the price is high it is no doubt worth it. The deal was made through the Murray Agency of J. W. Holmes. Jim is making a genuine real estate man and always has a number of good things in line.

James Brown and family went to Fremont this week to attend the big tractor meeting. The trip was made in their auto and they will make an over night stop at the home of Henry Ost, near Springfield.

Wm. LaRue went to Omaha Sunday morning to secure more help for the section work on the M. P. He came in contact with some of the I. W. W.'s but failed to hire any of them, as he was unable to locate one of the bunch that wanted work.

Mrs. J. W. Berger returned home from Rawlins, Wyoming, Monday evening, where she has been for the past two weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. M. Steiner. She reports a very pleasant trip and a most enjoyable visit.

In the interesting and very exciting ball game here last Sunday afternoon Fred Warner, one of the swift base runners met with quite a severe and painful accident, while making a sensational slide for second base. He was soon revived from the injuries and was able to continue the game.

There was quite a land deal took place in Murray this week at which time Elmer Boedecker sells his fine 100 acre farm south of Murray to S. A. Wiles, for the handsome sum of $27,000.00. This is one of the finest farms in this locality, and while the price is high it is no doubt worth it. The deal was made through the Murray Agency of J. W. Holmes. Jim is making a genuine real estate man and always has a number of good things in line.

James Brown and family went to Fremont this week to attend the big tractor meeting. The trip was made in their auto and they will make an over night stop at the home of Henry Ost, near Springfield.

Wm. LaRue went to Omaha Sunday morning to secure more help for the section work on the M. P. He came in contact with some of the I. W. W.'s but failed to hire any of them, as he was unable to locate one of the bunch that wanted work.

Mrs. J. W. Berger returned home from Rawlins, Wyoming, Monday evening, where she has been for the past two weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. M. Steiner. She reports a very pleasant trip and a most enjoyable visit.

In the interesting and very exciting ball game here last Sunday afternoon Fred Warner, one of the swift base runners met with quite a severe and painful accident, while making a sensational slide for second base. He was soon revived from the injuries and was able to continue the game.

There was quite a land deal took place in Murray this week at which time Elmer Boedecker sells his fine 100 acre farm south of Murray to S. A. Wiles, for the handsome sum of $27,000.00. This is one of the finest farms in this locality, and while the price is high it is no doubt worth it. The deal was made through the Murray Agency of J. W. Holmes. Jim is making a genuine real estate man and always has a number of good things in line.

James Brown and family went to Fremont this week to attend the big tractor meeting. The trip was made in their auto and they will make an over night stop at the home of Henry Ost, near Springfield.

Wm. LaRue went to Omaha Sunday morning to secure more help for the section work on the M. P. He came in contact with some of the I. W. W.'s but failed to hire any of them, as he was unable to locate one of the bunch that wanted work.

Mrs. J. W. Berger returned home from Rawlins, Wyoming, Monday evening, where she has been for the past two weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. M. Steiner. She reports a very pleasant trip and a most enjoyable visit.

M. G. Churchill was a Plattsmouth visitor Thursday.

Otto Schaefer is sporting a fine new Ford car this week.

Mrs. Wm. March has been numbered with the sick for the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lynde have moved into a portion of the residence of Mrs. W. E. Dull.

Bert Pollock and daughter and Jas. Pollock, of Plattsmouth, were Murray visitors Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. and Miss W. A. Brown are in Central City this week attending the Encampment of the G. A. R.

Charles Spangler and family, of Mt. Pleasant precinct, departed last Sunday for Custer county, on a combined business and pleasure trip.

James Brown and family went to Fremont this week to attend the big tractor meeting. The trip was made in their auto and they will make an over night stop at the home of Henry Ost, near Springfield.

Wm. LaRue went to Omaha Sunday morning to secure more help for the section work on the M. P. He came in contact with some of the I. W. W.'s but failed to hire any of them, as he was unable to locate one of the bunch that wanted work.

Mrs. J. W. Berger returned home from Rawlins, Wyoming, Monday evening, where she has been for the past two weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. M. Steiner. She reports a very pleasant trip and a most enjoyable visit.

In the interesting and very exciting ball game here last Sunday afternoon Fred Warner, one of the swift base runners met with quite a severe and painful accident, while making a sensational slide for second base. He was soon revived from the injuries and was able to continue the game.

There was quite a land deal took place in Murray this week at which time Elmer Boedecker sells his fine 100 acre farm south of Murray to S. A. Wiles, for the handsome sum of $27,000.00. This is one of the finest farms in this locality, and while the price is high it is no doubt worth it. The deal was made through the Murray Agency of J. W. Holmes. Jim is making a genuine real estate man and always has a number of good things in line.

James Brown and family went to Fremont this week to attend the big tractor meeting. The trip was made in their auto and they will make an over night stop at the home of Henry Ost, near Springfield.

Wm. LaRue went to Omaha Sunday morning to secure more help for the section work on the M. P. He came in contact with some of the I. W. W.'s but failed to hire any of them, as he was unable to locate one of the bunch that wanted work.

Mrs. J. W. Berger returned home from Rawlins, Wyoming, Monday evening, where she has been for the past two weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. M. Steiner. She reports a very pleasant trip and a most enjoyable visit.

In the interesting and very exciting ball game here last Sunday afternoon Fred Warner, one of the swift base runners met with quite a severe and painful accident, while making a sensational slide for second base. He was soon revived from the injuries and was able to continue the game.

There was quite a land deal took place in Murray this week at which time Elmer Boedecker sells his fine 100 acre farm south of Murray to S. A. Wiles, for the handsome sum of $27,000.00. This is one of the finest farms in this locality, and while the price is high it is no doubt worth it. The deal was made through the Murray Agency of J. W. Holmes. Jim is making a genuine real estate man and always has a number of good things in line.

James Brown and family went to Fremont this week to attend the big tractor meeting. The trip was made in their auto and they will make an over night stop at the home of Henry Ost, near Springfield.

Wm. LaRue went to Omaha Sunday morning to secure more help for the section work on the M. P. He came in contact with some of the I. W. W.'s but failed to hire any of them, as he was unable to locate one of the bunch that wanted work.

Mrs. J. W. Berger returned home from Rawlins, Wyoming, Monday evening, where she has been for the past two weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. M. Steiner. She reports a very pleasant trip and a most enjoyable visit.

In the interesting and very exciting ball game here last Sunday afternoon Fred Warner, one of the swift base runners met with quite a severe and painful accident, while making a sensational slide for second base. He was soon revived from the injuries and was able to continue the game.

There was quite a land deal took place in Murray this week at which time Elmer Boedecker sells his fine 100 acre farm south of Murray to S. A. Wiles, for the handsome sum of $27,000.00. This is one of the finest farms in this locality, and while the price is high it is no doubt worth it. The deal was made through the Murray Agency of J. W. Holmes. Jim is making a genuine real estate man and always has a number of good things in line.

James Brown and family went to Fremont this week to attend the big tractor meeting. The trip was made in their auto and they will make an over night stop at the home of Henry Ost, near Springfield.

Wm. LaRue went to Omaha Sunday morning to secure more help for the section work on the M. P. He came in contact with some of the I. W. W.'s but failed to hire any of them, as he was unable to locate one of the bunch that wanted work.

Mrs. J. W. Berger returned home from Rawlins, Wyoming, Monday evening, where she has been for the past two weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. M. Steiner. She reports a very pleasant trip and a most enjoyable visit.

We Would Like

TO CALL THE ATTENTION

of our customers and friends to the fact that we can sell you the Old Reliable Stag Gang Plows as long as they last at the old prices, but will be compelled to advance the price as soon as our present stock is sold out. We can still show you some bargains in Wagons, Gas Engines, Power Washers, Oil Stoves and Ranges. Come in and let us convince you.

Yours for business,
MURRAY
Hardware AND Implement Co.,
MURRAY, NEBRASKA

FORMER PLATTSMOUTH LADY VISITS HER OLD HOME TOWN

This morning, an automobile party composed of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Noble and three sons of Canton, O., arrived in the city for a few hours' visit while on an automobile tour of the west. Mrs. Noble was formerly Miss Carrie Greusel, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Greusel, who were for a number of years residents of this city, and where Mr. Greusel served as head of the Burlington shops and later, was transferred to Havelock, where they made their home until the death of the father. Mrs. Noble spent several hours here and was much pleased with the apparent improvement in the city since her residence here, almost twenty-five years ago.

The Stanfield Book Shop has a most complete line of hammocks and croquet sets that has been brought to this city and at the lowest of prices.

Drs. Mach & Mach, The Dentists

The largest and best equipped dental offices in Omaha. Specialists in charge of all work. Moderate Prices. Porcelain fillings, just like tooth. Instruments carefully sterilized after using. Send for FREE sample of Sani-Pyorrhea Treatment.

3rd Floor Paxton Block, OMAHA

Piles FISTULA—Pay After You Are Cured

A mild system of treatment, that cures Piles, Fistula and other Rectal Diseases in a short time, without a surgical operation. No Chloroform Ether or other general anesthetic used. A cure guaranteed in every case accepted for treatment, and no money to be paid until cured. Write for book on Rectal diseases, with testimonials of prominent people who have been permanently cured.

DR. TARRY—Bee Building—Omaha.

NEBRASKA STATE FAIR

LINCOLN, SEPT. 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 1916

World's best Live Stock, Agriculture, Horticulture and Domestic Exhibits. Boys Camp Better Babies

Automobile Racing—Monday Sept. 4
Horse Racing on 5, 6, 7, & 8

RUTH LAW AVIATRIX
DAY AND NIGHT FLIGHTS

SEVEN BANDS
Grand Opera Company
VAUDEVILLE

Johnnie Jones Exposition Shows

—FEED YOUR STOCK AND POULTRY—

B. A. THOMAS' Stock and Poultry Powder

Every Package Sold Under a Positive Guarantee!

TRY OUR "WEAR" BRAND

Overall at $1.15

Genuine German Dyed.

Puls & Gansemer,
Murray, Nebraska.

Standard Watches

AT UNHEARD OF PRICES!

Hampden	15-jewel	20-year gold case	$ 9.50
Illinois	21- " 25- " " "	18.38
Rockford	17- " 25- " " "	21.38
	15- " silverine case	7.50
Waltham	17- " 20-year gold case	12.57
Elgin	7- " 20- " " "	8.82
	17- " silverine " "	9.94

This is your chance to get a watch at factory prices. All Jewelry will be sold at 1/3 off the regular price. Buy now for Xmas and save money.

Hiatt & Tutt,

MURRAY, : : : NEBRASKA

Barber Shop

HOTEL RILEY

Plattsmouth, Nebraska

First-Class Service

Only Public Bath

—IN THE CITY—

Shoe Shining and Porter Service.

Tel. 200—three rings

Shellenbarger & Atkinson,
—PROPRIETORS—

Remember the Journal carries the finest line of stationery in town, and can please all in this line of goods.