Puls, Lee Nickels, Dr. Long and Louie Friedrich took in the tractor show in Fremont last Thursday, making the trip in Mr. Minford's car, and Lee fell in love at the first ride in this beauty, and returning via Omaha, he came home in it from Omaha.

There will be a meeting of the congregation of the Christian church Sunday morning, August 20 to decide the matter of hiring a pastor for the coming year. There have been several applications for the work here and the church board desires to get an expression from the congregation before deciding definitely. All members of the congregation are urgently requested to be present. Bible school at 10:00 o'clock as usual, business meeting at 11:00. There will be no preaching service in the evening. B. A. Root, chairman of the board.

VISITING OLD NEIGHBORS.

Joe Ellington, of Wausa, Neb., has been making a visit with old Murray friends this week. Mr. Ellington moved from this locality to northern Nebraska thirteen years ago, where he has since made his home. He has done well and grown to be one of the strong and influential farmers and stock raisers of northern Nebraska. He is the same jovial, wholesaled fellow of his early Cass county days, where he has a great many friends who are always glad to see him. On Wednesday afternoon of this week, in company with Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Young, he made a trip over in the Old Rock Bluffs locality, to renew for a few hours the scenes of early years and visit with old time friends.

WILL CELEBRATE ELEVENTH ANNIVERSARY.

With the coming of the eleventh day of September will note the fourth anniversary of the Murray Public Library. Today is has all indebtedness paid and has $100.00 in the treasury and 342 books. A committee has been selected to purchase new books that will be here as near the first of September as possible. Great plans are being made for the coming year, and it is hoped that all old friends and members and all citizens of the town and community will do what they can to make it a still greater success. Mrs. Minford as president; Mrs. H. C. Long, as vice president; and O. A. Davis, as treasurer, has made 1916 a red letter year for the association. You will find the library open Saturday afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Leach and Mrs. E. S. Tutt were visiting with county seat friends Thursday of this week.

A MODEL HOG HOUSE.

The Oldham farm hog house, just now nearing completion, under the supervision and carpenter work of Albert Young and assistance of carpenters, is to be one of the most complete and modern in this locality. It will be amply large to accommodate the rapidly growing needs of the Oldham herd for some time, containing fifteen separate pens, all sunlighted and ventilated with the new Johnson "Chief" sunshine windows and ventilators. The structure is being well built, on a concrete foundation, and of heavy frame material, and will stand the test for years to come. The Oldham herd of Durce-Jersey's is becoming so popular over the country that they have been compelled to prepare larger and more modern quarters.

CHURCH SERVICES.

United Presbyterian church services for Sunday, August 20, are as follows: Sunday school at 10:00 a. m. Preaching at 11:00 a. m., subject of sermon, "The Model Prayer." Evening service on lawn if weather is warm and pleasant, otherwise it will be in the church. This service is at 7:30 p. m., instead of 8:00 o'clock. Subject of the evening service: "Noah, A Type of Christ." Our communion service will be held Sunday morning, September 3rd. Let all interested bear this in mind and make plans to be present.

Misses Mattie Nutzman and Judith Straub of Avoca spent Sunday and Monday at the home of Lloyd Gopen.

Miss Gertrude Robinson of University Place arrived Tuesday to be the guest of Miss Villa Gopen, for several days.

CERTAINLY TURN OUT CORN.

From Tuesday's Daily. Those who have thought that the corn crop might be a failure should view one of the stalks taken from the place of W. A. Nord, north of the city. On this one stalk there are seven good sized ears, and they certainly would indicate that the corn crop this year is going to turn out mighty well. Mr. Nord is quite proud of the yield of his corn, and will take the stalk to the state fair at Lincoln.

DEATH OF MRS. PHILIP LAMBERT, OF NEAR MURRAY

The death of Mrs. Philip Lambert occurred on Wednesday, August 9, 1916, at her home in east Murray after an illness of some years duration and during which time she has borne with patience her suffering and misfortune. Mrs. Lambert has for the past thirteen years been totally blind and shut out from the joys of life has borne with patience the unseeing days. The husband is the well known painter of Murray and the family one held in the highest esteem by all those who knew them.

Mrs. Lambert whose maiden name was Pauline Freedly, was born in Stevenson county, Illinois, July 25, 1850. In 1866 she was united in marriage to Frank Schlotman of Harrisburg Penn., to which union were born four children, all survive her. In 1888 she was married to Philip Lambert at Freeport, Ill., who survives her and who has tenderly cared for her in all these years and during her last illness.

The deceased was always known as a kind and loving friend and mother to all who knew her, and although a great sufferer she bore her trials with much patience. Two daughters and two sons, three sisters and numerous friends survive her and mourn their loss.

Funeral services were held at the home on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. W. Greer McCrory of the Murray United Presbyterian church conducting them and interment was then made in the Young cemetery near Murray.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish in this public way to thank our many friends and neighbors for the beautiful floral offerings and for their sympathy and kindness shown through the sickness and death of our beloved wife and mother, Mrs. Philip Lambert.

Mr. Philip Lambert.
Mr. and Mrs. John Schlotman.

BARNEY MILLER IMPROVING.

Reports from the Immanuel hospital in Omaha indicate that Henry C. Miller, who is at that institution recovering from the effects of an operation for an abscess in the left side, is getting along nicely and showing signs of improvement. Those who have visited him at the hospital report him as getting along as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

Don't use harsh physics. The reaction weakens the bowels, leads to chronic constipation. Get Doan's regulators. They operate easily. 25c at all stores.

AIR RAIDERS BARELY MISS

THE U. S. CONSULATE
Rome, Aug. 16.—Austrian airmen nearly hit the United States consulate at Venice in their recent raid, it was learned today. Bombs exploded within thirty yards of the building, showering it with fragments, United States Consul E. Harvey Carroll and his staff were badly frightened.
