

FEATURE OF GREAT INTEREST TO RURAL SCHOOLS NEXT WEEK

One of the features of the teachers' institute to meet in this city next week that will be of especial interest to the rural schools and patrons will be Prof. George W. Brown, newly elected head of the department of rural education of the state normal school at Peru. Prof. Brown will take up rural sociology and allied subjects and these will be of the greatest importance to the common schools of the country. As county superintendent of schools of Edgar county, Ill., he was successful in acquiring a national-wide reputation for bringing his schools to a high standard of efficiency. The members of the county school board as well as the teachers should make it a point to hear the lectures of Prof. Brown on Rural Sociology. He will talk each afternoon at the period beginning at 2:50 and this should be largely attended.

County Superintendent Miss Marquardt is also desirous of having the teachers desiring boarding places to notify her at once as the demand will be very great during the week.

INFORMATION BUREAU AND CHECK STAND FOR VISITORS

For the convenience of the visitors to the city during the Home Coming week there will be an information bureau, as well as check stand maintained at the barber shop of Jesse Perry on Main street between Sixth and Seventh streets. Here the visitors can secure information as to the features of the Home Coming and also for the sum of 10c have their packages checked and cared for in the proper manner and with the assurance that they will be in the most reliable hands and safe from loss. This will be a feature that will be very much appreciated by everyone who comes here to attend the carnival as well as the Home Coming days. The small fee will be used to pay for the help that is necessary to look after the proper handling of the check stand.

Mrs. Henry J. Miller of Alvo is in the city, called here by the serious condition of her sister, Mrs. John H. Becker, whose recovery is considered very doubtful.

Good music and a good time is assured at the social dance which the K. S. Turner Girls will hold at the K. S. hall on next Saturday evening, August 26th. Everybody invited.

Looking After Details

It's just as necessary to be careful about shirts, neckties and socks as a suit or a top-coat.

We buy our stock of haberdashery with one big idea in mind, to offer the public a wide variety of high class merchandise at the most reasonable prices possible.

Moreover, we don't stop at this. With us a customer is a customer, whether he wants a pair of socks or a twenty-five dollar suit. And all our customers are treated alike.

Don't overlook the little things—they help to make the big ones.

ALBERT GODWIN GETS A DOSE OF HIS OWN MEDICINE

From Wednesday's Daily. Yesterday afternoon Albert Godwin, who has been officiating as the motorcycle cop for the city, was given a dose of his own medicine when Chief of Police Barclay pulled him for exceeding the speed limit while riding on Vine street and while he was not in the discharge of his duties, but merely riding for his own amusement. The young man was located by the chief out on Chicago avenue and brought in for trial before Judge Archer, who after learning the facts in the case fined him $10 and costs, which he paid and was then released from the custody of the officers. This is another example of the fair-minded way in which the speeding question is handled in this city, and the authorities are seeing that everyone who violates the law is compelled to toe the mark and answer if they are guilty.

SILAS LONG VISITING HERE FROM THE STATE OF FLORIDA

From Wednesday's Daily. Silas Long, formerly one of the leading residents of this county, but who for the past few years has been making his home at Vero, Fla., was in the city yesterday calling on his old time friends. Mr. Long reports his family as enjoying life very much in their new southern home. Where the plantation of the Long family is located it is only four miles to the Atlantic ocean and the sea breezes keep the temperature nice and cool at all times while vegetation there is of the tropic nature and the orange groves thrive very nicely. They are located seventy miles from Palm Beach, the great winter resort of the south and which is in great favor with the colony of the rich from New York and the large eastern cities who winter there. Mr. Long reports that since the family has moved to Florida, his daughter, Fern has married and resides near their home in the southern state. Mr. Long has been out at Lexington, Neb., on a visit with relatives and will visit in Cass county for a short time before returning home. While in the city Mr. Long made the Journal a pleasant visit and renewed his subscription to the paper.

Mrs. Pease will not have the formal opening of the new season until September, but the new and attractive hats for the ladies will be prepared at once for the display and inspection of the discriminating ladies of the city. When it comes to securing the best on the market for her patrons Mrs. Pease does not spare time or money and the result has been very satisfactory to those who have purchased their hats at this store.

MR. KAUBLE, A RESIDENT OF PLATTS-MOUTH SINCE 1854

From Wednesday's Daily. One of the early pioneers of Nebraska, is Frank N. Kauble. He crossed the Missouri river at Nebraska City, where he located in 1853. He came to Plattsburgh in 1854, crossing the river in a flat boat. The Omaha and Pawnee tribes of Indians were still here. But the white people had commenced to settle in the country. In the year 1856, Mr. Kauble located in Rock Bluffs. At that time it was a thriving river town, and was looked upon as the future county seat of Cass county, and where the Burlington railroad would cross the river. There was a steam ferry boat plying the river, run by James Spratlin, Sam Latta being the engineer. Steamboats were loading and unloading, and much grain and meat was shipped down the river from Rock Bluffs, Mr. Kauble having seen as many as five steamboats at the landing at one time. At this time Rock Bluffs was larger than Plattsburgh. The leading merchants were Eithel and Doom and L. R. Boxley; later on, Johnson and Spratlin. George L. Seybold ran a drug store. Mr. Kauble had the usual experiences of the early pioneer.

Mr. Kauble is one of the many old residents of this locality who will be able to take part in the "Home Coming" during the coming week and add his store of experiences of pioneer days to the many stories of early days that will be made the order of the day on Friday, September 1. There are a great many of the oldest residents of the state here in Cass county and they will all be present if possible on this notable occasion.

TAX LEVY IS ONE MILL LESS THAN LAST YEAR

The County Board of Equalization, composed of County Commissioners Pitz, Heebner and Snook, County Clerk Libershal and County Assessor Bryan, yesterday made the levy for the taxes for the year of 1916 on the property owners of the county. The levy for this year totals nineteen mills, a reduction of one mill over last year. The county valuation this year shows $9,550,428.00, against $8,498,411 last year, and this, too, in view of the reduction of 3 per cent made by the State Board of Equalization in the assessed valuation of the county. The amounts levied for the different funds of the county are as follows:

- County general, including soldiers' relief and mothers' pensions, 5 and 9-10 mills.
- County bridge, 4 mills.
- County road, 3 mills.
- State levy, 6 1-10 mills.

THRASHING OUT IN STATE.

From Wednesday's Daily. Will Propst accompanied by Clarence Mason has departed for McLean, Neb., where Mr. Propst has a contract for the threshing of 2,000 acres of oats. The threshing outfit was shipped over the Burlington to the scene of action and the boys will soon be busy taking care of the crop in that section of the state.

EAT A LITTLE OF EVERYTHING.

Perhaps the best system of living is to take a little of everything—not too little or yet too much—omitting all those foods which experience has shown to be harmful. Besides selecting the proper food it is also necessary to prevent the accumulation in the body of poisonous matter. This cleaning out process Trainer's American Elixir of Bitter Wine will do in a thorough manner. This remedy will not tolerate any waste matter in the body. It will relieve constipation, weakness, nervousness, poverty of blood, and will increase your appetite. It will also strengthen the digestive organs and make them able to accept and digest enough nutritious food. At druggists. Price $1.00. Jos. Triner, Manufacturing Chemist, 1333-1339 South Ashland avenue, Chicago, Ill.

Stiff neck or stiff back should be rubbed with Triner's Liniment, and the stiffness will soon disappear. This liniment is very good in rheumatism and neuralgia. At drug stores, 25c and 50c; postpaid, 35c and 60c.

PLATTSMOUTH IS TO HOLD A BIG JOY WEEK

From Monday, August 28th, to Monday, September 4th, promises to be the biggest and most elaborate affair ever held in this county, as the Commercial Club committee have spared neither time or expense in providing every well known form of amusement toward entertaining the immense crowds that will be on hand each day to partake of the festivities. As a special attraction, the committee has engaged the S. W. Brundage shows to furnish for the entire week of August 28th to September 4th, all of their fifteen attractions and handsome riding devices, and to those who are looking for clean and entertaining shows, we refer them to the Brundage Midway, where, housed behind the massive carved gold and silver leafed wagon fronts, will be found a varied form of clean and entertaining shows, and through the center of the Midway will be found the Carry Us All, Ferris Wheel, Auto and Motor-drome. These shows travel in their own special train of twenty-five cars and have with them some 300 people, and are conceded to be one of the biggest and best shows ever seen in this line. Among other features to be seen with this caravan is McIntosh's Military Concert band, that will give daily concerts, and at each of these concerts Billy Kern, a sweet-voiced baritone singer, late of Dockstaders minstrels, will delight his hearers with the latest popular songs. Don't forget to come to Plattsburgh early and stay late, and you will be welcome if you come with old Dobbins or come in a Ford. The hotels and cafes are making special arrangements to care for all crowds, and to those who have ever witnessed the Madi Gras, Priests of Pallas or the Veiled Prophets, maybe you seen something, but don't think so till you have paid the Plattsburgh "Home Coming" and Fall Festival a visit. Base ball games, free acts, parades and other offerings will be given daily.
