MANY REPUBLICANS NOW ARE BACKING WILSON

Commoner Will Start the Campaign For President September 18th.

Lincoln, Sept. 6.—W. J. Bryan's campaign activities on behalf of President Wilson will start September 18, according to announcement made by him while visiting here yesterday. Mr. Bryan leaves today for Alliance, where he will spend two days hunting prairie chicken. From there he goes to Arizona to spend two weeks with his son, W. J. Bryan, jr., to rest preparatory to a strenuous speaking tour.

Mr. Bryan said he had not determined upon his attitude relative to Nebraska. He said he had asked the national committee to leave the last week before the election open should he conclude to make a tour of this state.

"Trend Toward Democrats."

Discussing the national situation, Mr. Bryan said:

"There is a general impression that Mr. Hughes' speeches have injured his own campaign. The trend seems to be quite strong toward the democratic ticket. On my rounds I heard everywhere of many republicans, who were supporting President Wilson.

"Two important factors have been working for the democrats. First, Mr. Hughes seems to have no constructive program to offer as against a remarkable record of democratic achievements since they took control of the government. Second, the success of President Wilson in keeping the country out of war is strongly indorsed by the people. I believe that Mr. Hughes has found this out, for his later utterances are much more mild than those he delivered shortly after he took the stump. He has felt the pulse of the people and found they were not in favor of war or violence in the dealings with their neighbors."

The Albert Brothers lost four of their cattle last Thursday, by being killed by a train. It is supposed the cattle, which were in the pasture, got upon the track by passing down the river bed, a portion of which was dry, and got upon the track, and train No. 34 hit them. This is quite a loss to the boys as the stock was very valuable.

MARRIED IN CALIFORNIA.

Cards were received in Cedar Creek last Thursday announcing the marriage of Mr. Harry Medlar and Miss Rose Jungaermann of Los Angeles, Calif. Mr. Medlar was quite well and favorably known in this locality, coming to Cedar Creek when only 10 years of age, and made his home with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Schneider up to the time Mr. Schneider retired from the farm, about five years ago. After leaving the Schneider home Mr. Medlar held several positions in and near here, and claimed Cedar Creek as his home up to about three years ago, when he went to California. He returned to Cedar Creek last fall, and after the death of Mr. Schneider, he worked for Mrs. Schneider until last spring, when he returned to California. Mr. Medlar was a gentleman well liked by all who knew him, and has many friends here, who although somewhat surprised, will join in extending hearty congratulations and wishing that the new Mr. and Mrs. Medlar may live a long, happy and prosperous life. They will make their future home in California.

"THE WHOLE TRUTH"

Says Mrs. Eads, in Writing Her Praise For Cardui.

Circleville, Ohio.—"All I have said about Cardui, the woman's tonic, is the whole truth," says Mrs. Fannie Eads, of R. F. D. No. 6, this town.

"I suffered with womanly weakness, and pains in my back and limbs for two long years. I was so bad off, I could hardly walk at all.

My husband advised me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I concluded to follow his advice. After taking Cardui according to directions, I now feel like a new woman, and can do all of my work.

Before taking Cardui, I was a walking skeleton; now I weigh 150 pounds. I recommend Cardui to every suffering woman, for I know what it did for me. My dresser is never without a bottle of Cardui on it."

There is no reason why Cardui won't help you, just as it has Mrs. Eads, as well as hundreds of thousands of other women in the past 50 years. So if you suffer from any of the many ailments so common to women, or need a good strengthening tonic for that tired, nervous, worn-out feeling, get a bottle of Cardui today. At all druggists. NCB

A GOOD YIELD OF OATS.

From Wednesday's Daily.

C. E. Babbitt has just threshed out his oats, and has a yield of seventy-one bushels to the acre, machine measure. This is a yield that will come close to being as heavy as any in this locality and the quality of the oats is excellent. This is the heaviest oat yield reported in this section of the county.

OLD RESIDENT SPENDS HOME COMING WEEK HERE

From Wednesday's Daily.

W. R. Wilson, one of the old residents of this city, but now residing in the metropolis, has been with the Home Comers here, and declares that he has never had a better time in his life than here with the old friends. Mr. Wilson is better known here by the name of "Tug" Wilson, as he was a man of splendid size and weight while living here, but during the years of service as a member of the police department of Omaha he has lost a great deal of this weight. Mr. Wilson is desk sergeant at the police station in Omaha, and very popular with his associates. He resided here some twenty-six years ago, and was employed in the Burlington shops for a time, and later, with the Mayer Bros. clothing store. He speaks very highly of the city and states that never in his recollection has the conditions been so favorable as at present, and he appearance of the homes and buildings of the city speak well for the town. While here Mr. Wilson was a caller at the Journal office for a short chat with the editor.

MRS. SAMUEL WAUGH FRACTURES COLLARBONE

From Wednesday's Daily.

Mrs. Samuel Waugh of Lincoln, who was here to attend the Home Coming festivities and has been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Herold, met with a very painful accident Monday evening, which resulted in the breaking of the right shoulder. Mrs. Waugh had been calling at the home of Mrs. C. H. Parmele during the afternoon, and was preparing to leave for the Herold home in the evening, and as she stepped from the porch at the Parmele home fell to the sidewalk and alighted with her full weight on the shoulder, which caused the fracture. Mrs. Waugh did not consider the accident serious at the time and walked on up the hill to the Herold home, several blocks away, but by that time the pain was quite intense and medical assistance was summoned, and Drs. E. W. Cook and J. S. Livingston set the fractured shoulder and made the unfortunate lady as comfortable as possible. Bryan Waugh came down from Lincoln this morning to visit his mother.

HAPPINESS REACHED SUCCESSFULLY.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Yesterday at the court house occurred the marriage of Mr. George F. Warner and Miss Ruby Ellen Shaw, both of Hancock, Ia. The wedding was performed by County Judge Beeson in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shaw, relatives of the bride. After the wedding ceremony, the young couple departed for their home in Iowa, rejoicing in their new found happiness.

Judge Beeson also issued a marriage license to John F. Bates of Eising City, Neb., and Miss Mary G. Jamison, of Weeping Water. These young people will be married at Weeping Water this week.

John T. Wehrbein departed this morning for Gothenberg, Neb., where he will look over some land interests in that locality for a few days.

He Was Worried and Hopeless.

"For ten years I was bothered with kidney trouble," writes T. F. Hutchinson, Little Rock, Ark. "I was worried and had almost given up all hopes. I used five boxes of Foley Kidney Pills and am now a well man." Foley Kidney Pills drive out the aches, pains, rheumatism and all kidney trouble symptoms. Sold Everywhere.

There's a Lot of Truth in what Prof. McIntosh, V. S., says: "There has not been the same attention paid to the treatment of the hogs as there has been to that of other domestic animals. Medicine has usually been given in the food, but this can not be done satisfactory where a number of hogs are running together. Usually where medicine is given by the mouth, the hog struggles so much that more harm than good is done.

Where STANDARD HOG REGULATOR is kept before the hogs in a Self Feeder, medicine is not needed, because the twelve ingredients of Hog Regulator keep the bowels healthy, the stomach sweet, and the herd up and coming all the time.
