

Murray Department

Prepared in the Interest of the People of Murray and Surrounding Vicinity Especially for the Journal Readers

If any of the readers of the Journal know of any social event or item of interest in this vicinity, and will mail same to this office, it will appear under this heading. We want all news items.—EDITOR

A Bank Account Is the Gibraltar of the Home!

If you are a man of family you must have a bank account. A BANK ACCOUNT IS THE BULWARK, THE GIBRALTAR, OF YOUR HOME.

It protects you in time of need.
It gives you a feeling of independence.
It strengthens you.

It Is a Consolation to Your Wife, to Your Children

Four per cent interest on time deposits.
Our deposits are protected by the State Guaranty Law.

MURRAY STATE BANK

For Insurance of all kinds see J. W. Holmes.

Offer $100.00 for your car if stolen, if you are insured by J. W. Holmes.

A. L. Baker and Bill Barker were Plattsmouth visitors last Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Gansemer and Louie Puls were Omaha visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. Schaffer and daughter, Miss Rosa, were visiting with Murray friends Wednesday.

Charles Carroll returned to Weeping Water Wednesday morning where he has some farm work to look after.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Engelkemeier are rejoicing this week over the arrival of a new baby girl at their home last Friday.

Mrs. Wm. Puls, who has been visiting with her parents near Coleridge, Neb., for the past few days, returned home Monday evening.

Chas Tucker and family departed Wednesday morning for Logan county where they will make a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dill.

J. L. Shrader made a business trip to Plattsmouth and South Omaha Wednesday. While in the county seat he paid the Journal office a pleasant call.

Mr. and Mrs. Ab. Slagle and family, from near Randolph, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hendricks and Mr. and Mrs. Jake Taylor and families, from near Plainview, are visiting with friends and relatives in and near Murray, coming in via the auto route.

Louie Puls has been doing a rushing business the past week with the famous Alamo Electric light plants. A complete plant was sold to August Engelkemeier, also one to Jacob Krueger. Both of these plants will be installed in the near future.

Green Piggott was a Plattsmouth visitor Sunday.

Mrs. Mira McDonald was a Plattsmouth visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. John Stones has been on the sick list for the past few days.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ruby has been on the sick list for the past few days.

Miss Leora Brown went to Bethany last Monday where she will attend Cotner University for the winter.

Ben Noll was called home from his work in the garage here this week owing to the serious illness of Mrs. Noll.

Frank Ronne unloaded a car load of feeders at Murray Wednesday morning, that were driven to his farm near Manley for winter feeding.

S. O. Pitman was up from Nebraska City Wednesday, making the drive on to Plattsmouth where he had some matters of business to look after.

Mrs. Engelkemeier and daughter, Miss Rose, of Plattsmouth, were Saturday and Sunday visitors at the home of August Engelkemeier, west of Murray.

Mrs. J. W. Berger has made several trips to Omaha during the past week, owing to the serious condition of one of her eyes. She has been receiving treatment from Dr. Gifford.

Ab. Slagle and family, Jake Taylor and family and Jess Hendricks and family drove down to Weeping Water last Sunday, where they spent the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll.

Pastor Davis was greatly pleased with the increased attendance at the Christian church last Sunday. He is anxious to meet and become acquainted with all the members, and hopes for even a larger attendance next Sunday. His sermon themes will be, "Charitable Judgment" and "The Sense of God's Abiding."

W. P. Cook was a Plattsmouth visitor Sunday.

Service at Lewiston Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m.

Roy Cline was a Plattsmouth visitor Tuesday evening.

Miss Grace Porter has been sick for the past few days.

W. D. Wheeler is building a new garage this week (Ford).

A. F. Nickles and family were Nebraska City visitors Friday.

Mrs. George Parks and family were Plattsmouth visitors Saturday.

Nick Friedrich and Ed Tutt were Plattsmouth visitors Wednesday.

Miss Grace Lintner has been on the sick list for the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Root were Plattsmouth visitors last Saturday.

Frank Campbell and family spent Sunday with L. M. McVey and family.

Mrs. Jno. Hendricks was looking after business in Plattsmouth Saturday.

Henry Creamer was looking after some business matters in Omaha Monday.

Mrs. Will Hutcheson and family were guests of Mrs. Will Oliver the past week.

W. W. Hamilton went to Omaha last Sunday to spend the day with his family.

Ed. Gansemer and August Engelkemeier delivered hogs to the Murray market this week.

Misses Marie Davis and Lydia Todd went to Peru this week where they will attend school for the winter.

For Sale—Three thoroughbred Duroc-Jersey males and one gilt. See Chester Shrader or H. C. Long.

Homer Schlichtemeir shipped in a car of feeders this week that were driven to his farm for winter feeding.

Morse Lloyd, who has been in the hospital for some time is improving rapidly, and is now able to be up and around.

Wm. Blanketer, who was injured by a falling hay fork some few days ago, has almost recovered from his injuries and has returned to his work.

Mr. and Mrs. George Meisinger and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Meisinger and son, Carl, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Puls, sr.

Walt Minnier and family made a fishing trip down to Weeping Water last Sunday. It is said that Walt came very near landing a nine-pound catfish, but it got away.

Frank Vallery, Frank Rhoden and Harry Wiles departed over the auto route for Perkins county, Nebraska, Sunday, where they will spend a few days looking after some land interests.

A. B. Slagle of Randolph, Neb., who is visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity, motored to Plattsmouth Wednesday afternoon to attend to some business matters and visit friends for a few hours. He was a pleasant caller at The Journal office and had his subscription extended for another year.

The Murray schools opened last Monday morning with the usual attendance and excellent feeling for a very successful year. The high school departments are in charge of Miss Thorpe and Miss Rachel Livingston. The primary department will be under the excellent care of Miss Beulah Sans, while Miss Elizabeth Hall will have charge of the grammar department.

Dr. Gilmore is in receipt of a letter from Sargent A. H. Bell of Company B, Fifth Nebraska, who is now stationed at Llando Grande, Tex. He writes a very interesting letter, and encloses a number of photos of scenes along the border, also samples of Mexican money. Mr. Bell formerly worked for Henry Thiele, and has a great many friends here who will be pleased to hear from him.

CELEBRATES 78TH BIRTHDAY.

Our excellent old friend, J. A. Walker, celebrated his seventy-eighth birthday last Sunday. All the home folks were present; also H. N. Dovey and family of Plattsmouth, to assist Mr. Walker in celebrating the occasion. We are also pleased to note that Mr. Walker is at the present time enjoying pretty good health for one of his years, and we trust that he may remain with us to enjoy many more such happy occasions.

The street leading to the school house has been graded up and now has the appearance of a city boulevard. The next move will be to get new concrete walks leading from town right to the entrance of the building. This will be done in a short time.

PLEASANT ENTERTAINMENT.

Miss Mary Parks celebrated her eleventh birthday by entertaining from 2 until 5 Thursday afternoon a company of young friends at a picnic party. The afternoon was spent in out door games and a delightful time was enjoyed by the little guests present. Miss Willa and Mary Parks served a dainty and delicious two-course luncheon. Those present were, Mary Creamer, Alice Nickles, Alice Creamer, Vitor Werbein, Dorothy Werbein, Will Creamer, Henry Reed, Jean Nickles, Rose Reed, Sarah and Elizabeth Wiley, Carl Parks, Margaret Wiley, Willa Parks and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wiley.

Miss Grace Lintner has been on the sick list for the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Root were Plattsmouth visitors last Saturday.

Frank Campbell and family spent Sunday with L. M. McVey and family.

Mrs. Jno. Hendricks was looking after business in Plattsmouth Saturday.

Henry Creamer was looking after some business matters in Omaha Monday.

Mrs. Will Hutcheson and family were guests of Mrs. Will Oliver the past week.

W. W. Hamilton went to Omaha last Sunday to spend the day with his family.

Ed. Gansemer and August Engelkemeier delivered hogs to the Murray market this week.

Misses Marie Davis and Lydia Todd went to Peru this week where they will attend school for the winter.

For Sale—Three thoroughbred Duroc-Jersey males and one gilt. See Chester Shrader or H. C. Long.

Homer Schlichtemeir shipped in a car of feeders this week that were driven to his farm for winter feeding.

Morse Lloyd, who has been in the hospital for some time is improving rapidly, and is now able to be up and around.

Wm. Blanketer, who was injured by a falling hay fork some few days ago, has almost recovered from his injuries and has returned to his work.

Mr. and Mrs. George Meisinger and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Meisinger and son, Carl, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Puls, sr.

Walt Minnier and family made a fishing trip down to Weeping Water last Sunday. It is said that Walt came very near landing a nine-pound catfish, but it got away.

Frank Vallery, Frank Rhoden and Harry Wiles departed over the auto route for Perkins county, Nebraska, Sunday, where they will spend a few days looking after some land interests.

A. B. Slagle of Randolph, Neb., who is visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity, motored to Plattsmouth Wednesday afternoon to attend to some business matters and visit friends for a few hours. He was a pleasant caller at The Journal office and had his subscription extended for another year.

The Murray schools opened last Monday morning with the usual attendance and excellent feeling for a very successful year. The high school departments are in charge of Miss Thorpe and Miss Rachel Livingston. The primary department will be under the excellent care of Miss Beulah Sans, while Miss Elizabeth Hall will have charge of the grammar department.

Dr. Gilmore is in receipt of a letter from Sargent A. H. Bell of Company B, Fifth Nebraska, who is now stationed at Llando Grande, Tex. He writes a very interesting letter, and encloses a number of photos of scenes along the border, also samples of Mexican money. Mr. Bell formerly worked for Henry Thiele, and has a great many friends here who will be pleased to hear from him.

If you have anything for sale advertise in the Journal.

THE MOVIES - AT MURRAY -

-4-
BIG REELS!

PULS & GANSEMER HALL!

Saturday Evening, September 16
Show Starts at 8:30 Sharp

WEeping WATER Republican

B. L. Philpot is in Chase county this week looking after his farm interests and the sowing of a hundred acres of wheat.

The Misses Nora Thomas and Jennie Wachner of Nebraska City spent several days the first of the week with Miss Maude McNamee.

Mrs. Helen Wallick who had been spending her two weeks, vacation here returned to her telephone duties at Seward Sunday evening.

Lon Cone and daughter, Florence, of Blackfoot, Ida., visited over Sunday at the home of Mr. Cone's aunts, the Misses Ellen and Lillian Bates.

The Misses Ellen and Lillian Bates received the sad news on Wednesday morning of the death of their brother, F. A. Bates, of Takoma, Wash.

Miss Mary Rose of Kansas City arrived Sunday evening to visit her sister, Mrs. A. Houts and other relatives. Mrs. Rose is past 80 years of age but is very spry for her age.

W. E. Countryman of Mt. Pleasant was a business visitor in town Wednesday morning. He had just been to the Omaha market and bought 600 sheep to feed on the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Winger and daughter, Elnora, of Wayland, Ia., spent several days last week at the Martin Rich home. They were returning home from a trip to California.

Riley Rector returned Saturday evening from ever where he had spent a month with his son, Frank and family. The prospect of the strike brought him home sooner than he had planned.

At high noon on Wednesday, Sept. 6th the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Jameson was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when their daughter, Miss Mary, was given in marriage to Mr. John Bates of Rising City. The young couple will make their home in Rising City where Mr. Bates is assistant cashier in the State bank.

LOUISVILLE Courier

Misses Mary and Catherine Ash left last week for Jackson, Neb., where they will attend St. Catherine's academy this coming year.

Miss Ida Nichols, of near Greenwood, will teach the College Hill school the ensuing year, and will make her home with Mr. and Mrs. William Schwalm.

Miss Ruth Jacobson opened her school in Oak Grove district Monday. Miss Dorothy Group will teach the Glendale school, which starts next Monday.

Mrs. L. F. Polk and daughter, Mrs. Henry Shockey, and the latter's son, left last week for a trip to Colorado, expecting to be gone several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Thompson and their friend, Miss Alma Droeger of Fort Collins, arrived last week to visit over Sunday with their relatives, P. Petersen and family.

Mrs. Louise Ahl, who conducts a dressmaking establishment in the Rose building in Omaha, came down Saturday to visit over Sunday with her father, P. Peterson and other relatives.

D. E. Smith, the barber, returned from the western part of the state Tuesday, where he had been for the past week at the bedside of his mother. He reports her much improved when he left for home.

If success of this school year should depend upon enrollment, the outlook would be very flattering. High school grades show a marked per cent of increase. Total enrollment, 242, of whom sixty-two are high school pupils.

W. F. Diers and family left Sunday by auto for Greeley, where they took a train for Greeley, Neb., where they expect to spend a week with County Treasurer W. D. Towner and family. They will probably hunt prairie chickens in the sand hills during their absence.

NEHAWKA News

Miss Matilda Heebner left for Harvard, Neb., Saturday, where she went to teach school.

Miss Clara Hotz, who had been visiting at the home of Henry Du Clos, returned to her home in Omaha Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hilborn of Lincoln are visiting at the home of R. C. Pollard and family this week. Mrs. Hilborn is a sister of Mrs. Pollard's.

Miss Ethel Rough left Saturday afternoon for Falls City, Neb., where she will teach in the public schools of that place the coming year.

Miss Belle Bouch returned to her duties at the Sheldon store Monday, after a week's visit with friends and relatives in Nebraska City and Palmyra.

Misses Myrtle Rough and Ferra Sturm returned home Monday from Estes Park, Colo. They had been there for about two weeks enjoying a very delightful time.

Mrs. F. L. Burdick returned home Sunday evening after a week's auto trip in various places in Iowa. The trip was made with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hendricks and son of Wyoming.

Miss Lennea Lumberg left for Chappelle, Neb., Saturday afternoon. She taught school there last year and is returning to resume her old position. Her father, O. Lumberg, accompanied her as far as Omaha.

M. P. Wemming and three children of Coleridge, Neb., left Saturday for their home after a short visit with his daughter, Mrs. Charles Heebner and family. While here he attended the Home Coming in Plattsmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Nutzmon returned home from their expected northwestern trip the latter part of last week. Owing to the expected strike they went to Minneapolis instead of Buffalo, and as it was a little too cool for comfort on the lakes they returned and will make the trip some other time.

PROPERTY FOR SALE.

Seven-room house, two big lots, well located. About five and one-half blocks from main part of city. Cement cellar, electric lights, city water. For sale cheap. McKnight & Haney, Glenwood, Ia.

WANTED—Married man for farm work. Apply to Nick Friedrich, Murray, Neb. d&wtf.

We have added school supplies in our big cut price sale. It will pay you to see them before buying. Crescent Pharmacy.

Stewart's Phonographs, only $5.00, at Dawson's, Plattsmouth, Neb.

FOR SALE—A good, gentle driving horse, harness and top buggy, at a reasonable price. Address Box 514, Plattsmouth, Neb. 3td 2tw

WANTED

WANTED—Lady or gentleman, to make house to house demonstration and take orders for a necessary article that everyone uses; can easily make $3 to $6. Want three or four parties with car or rig to work in country. Address Journal, Plattsmouth, Neb. 9-9-d&wtf

Sales bills done quickly at the Journal.

Drs. Mach & Mach, The Dentists

The largest and best equipped dental offices in Omaha. Specialists in charge of all work. Lady attendant. Moderate Prices. Porcelain fillings, just like tooth. Instruments carefully sterilized after using. Send for FREE sample of Sant-Pyorrhea Treatment.

3rd Floor Paxton Block, OMAHA

PILES No Money Till Cured
Piles and All Rectal Diseases cured without the knife. Permanent cures guaranteed. Write for Free Illustrated Book on Rectal Diseases and Testimonials of hundreds of cured patients in Nebraska and Iowa.
DR. E. R. TARRY - 240 Bee Bldg., Omaha, Neb.

School Shoes!

Our "Hard Knocker" Brand Shoe Special for hard wear for Boys and Misses.

Also a complete line of School Supplies can be found at our store!

The Home of Puritan Flour!

Puls & Gansemer, Murray, Nebraska.

A Big Success

is the word for the big Watch and Jewelry sale now on at this store. Many people are taking advantage of the on jewelry prices for Christmas. It will pay YOU. Remember its one-third off on jewelry. A $7.50 bracelet would only cost you $5.00. Watches one-fourth off. Buy now and make your Xmas money go farther.

1/3 OFF

Hiatt & Tutt,

MURRAY, : : : NEBRASKA