MR. AND MRS. W. A. ROBERTSON CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Yesterday was the fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Robertson, and in honor of the occasion they entertained in a most charming manner at their home on North Sixth street a number of their friends at a 6 o'clock dinner. The anniversary being the wooden wedding, this feature entered into the plans of the evening and was carried out in the decorative scheme of the dinner. The beautiful home was tastefully arranged with decorations of the handsome wildflowers of the fall season, in which the Goldenrod predominated, and in the dining room the beautiful Goldenrod was used in the table decorations. The knives and forks were of wood, while the place cards consisted of tiny clothes pins, which were tied with yellow ribbon, making a most pleasing and novel feature of the dinner. The dinner was served in four courses by Misses Lillian Cole, Hazel Dovey, Jessie Robertson and Mrs. M. H. Gray of Santa Rosa, Cal., mother of the hostess. Those present to enjoy this pleasant event were: Messrs. and Mesdames F. L. Cummins, C. G. Fricke, C. W. Baylor, A. J. Beeson, E. J. Richey, W. A. Robertson. The evening was spent most delightfully in visiting and enjoying a real jolly occasion, and at the close the guests departed homeward wishing Mr. and Mrs. Robinson many more such happy anniversaries of happy wedded life.

GASOLINE THIEVES ARE NOW TRYING OUT THEIR HAND

Last evening sometime, someone made a raid on a large tank of gasoline that was setting in the vicinity of the elevator at Mynard, and as a result of the visit W. F. Gillespie, the manager of the elevator, is shy several gallons of the fluid that furnished the power for the joy rider. Mr. Gillespie as well as Sheriff Quinton have a pretty good line on the parties who took the gasoline, and they would do well to come across with the money for the gasoline before it causes them more grief. It would have been just as easy for the parties to have called and asked for the gasoline as to have taken it in the manner they did and with the result that it is likely to land them in trouble unless it is settled for at once.

NEW LIFE IN THE OIL INDUSTRY

The Carter Oil Company Leasing New Land and Paying Cash for Five-year Leases.

The matter of oil in Cass county seems to have been given new life by the appearance in the locality of Murray by representatives of the Carter Oil company, who are securing leases on land in all the localities possible, and who will continue the work of seeking for oil. This company seems to mean business as they are paying the farmers 50c an acre for the oil rights on their land for a period of five years and will undertake the work as they state without asking a cent from the land owners or anyone else and either locate oil or know the reason why. The new company offers to the farmers in addition to the price for the lease on the oil rights, the proposition that if oil is found on any of the farms the owner is to receive a royalty, on the oil taken from his land. They will drill and undertake all the work necessary to carry out the search for oil without asking the farmers or anyone else to contribute to the cost of the same and this makes the prospects for oil look rather rosy despite the fact of the failure of the recent operations at Union to locate a paying oil well. The activity of the representatives of the Carter company have been in the vicinity of Murray and Nehawka and the residents of these localities have been very much pleased with the fact that this company has come in on their own responsibility to undertake the work of searching for oil and have not asked the citizens to donate towards carrying on the work.

It would certainly seem that there is some good indications of the fact that Cass county has all the favorable indications of having oil concealed beneath the surface of the soil or these representatives of the large oil interests would not be in the county offering the farmers the inducements they are to secure the land on which to make their experiments. The residents of the county will be glad to give them the opportunity of investigating the oil question and with the hope that the fact of oil in paying quantities may be found in the county. The lands in the eastern section of the county are all being leased as rapidly as possible and it would seem that work was to be commenced as soon as possible.

A SPLENDID RECORD FOR CORN PRODUCED DURING THIS SEASON

Frank Schlichtemeier, one of the leading farmers in the vicinity of Nehawka has made a record for corn this year that is going to be hard to beat for good corn and the yield is exceptionally heavy. This season Mr. Schlichtemeier plowed eighteen acres of alfalfa ground that had been liberally treated with fertilizer. The land was plowed twice, listed, cultivated twice and harrowed. He has just husked two rows of the corn and the result has greatly surprised him for the splendid yield shown, weighing it contained eighty pounds to the bushel, it weighed out 41 bushels and thirty pounds on the two rows, 157 rods long. The owner expects to get 1,800 bushels from the eighteen acres. A good many of the ears measures ten to twelve inches. This is a splendid showing on the eighteen acres and demonstrates what can be done in the way of scientific farming which will increase the crops and give the land better treatment and the process of Mr. Schlichtemeier in treating his land had a great effect on the splendid results secured. This is the best showing made as yet in the 1916 corn crop and it is going to make anyone get up and go some to beat the yield secured on the Schlichtemeier farm and it speaks well for the possibilities of farming in Cass county.

The P. E. O. society will meet at Mrs. Robert Hayes, Friday afternoon at 2:30.

A STRANGE PARTY PASSING THROUGH COUNTY ON FOOT

Yesterday a very strange looking party passed through the neighborhood four miles southwest of this city headed from Omaha to northern Missouri. The party consisted of a woman and two boys apparently about fifteen or sixteen years of age and a number of children who were racing along the road and apparently enjoying themselves very much. A push cart served to carry the equipment of the expedition and all of the party were on foot with the exception of the youngest tot which perched in the cart and enjoyed being pushed along. The party stopped out near the Four Mile Creek on the Louisville road where they had dinner and it consisted of a few vegetables that had been accumulated along the road. The party informed several of the people living along the way that they had been several days on the way from Omaha and certainly were in tough luck in making their way along in this manner.

The event was one of the rarest pleasure to every one present and will long be pleasantly remembered.
