CELEBRATE THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. William Gilmour of the Event of Their Lives. In Presence of Large Number of Relatives and Friends.

From Thursday's News.

On September 17, Mr. and Mrs. William Gilmour of this city, celebrated the fiftieth year of their marriage with a great family gathering at their home, which was attended by a large number of relatives and friends.

The celebration was a remarkable one, and the guests from all parts of the city were entertained with refreshments and music.

MISS JESSIE MOORE AND PAUL WOHLFARTH MARRIED IN LINCOLN

From Thursday's News.

The marriage of Miss Jessie Moore and Paul Wohlfarth took place on October 2, 1905, at the Methodist Episcopal Church in Lincoln. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. C. Truesdell, and the bride and groom were both in the company of family and friends.

MARGARET DOLAN-MURPHY SELECTED AS ONE OF THE MAIDS OF HONOR

From Thursday's News.

Miss Margaret Dolan-Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dolan of this city, was selected as one of the maids of honor at the recent wedding of Miss Jessie Moore and Paul Wohlfarth.

UNDERGO AN OPERATION

DEATH OF LITTLE BABE

This morning the home near Pearl and 12th street was mourning the loss of one of its little members, who died of consumption. The little babe, who was only 2 years of age, was born on September 30th.

SLEEPS HIS GREENHOUSE

From Thursday's News.

Mr. Robert E. Riggs, who has been conducting the greenhouse on West 12th street, has been taken sick, and it is feared that he will not be able to continue his work.

OMAHA HAS ANOTHER DISASTROUS FIRE

The Morris Packing Company, located at 1235 and 1237 South 12th street, was destroyed by fire on October 10th, leaving a total loss of $100,000.

THE STORY OF ANOTHER MAN'S WIFE AT THE PARMELLE.

From Thursday's News.

The death of Mrs. Mabel M. Parmalee on November 5th, at the age of 77, has caused great sorrow to her many friends and acquaintances.

JACOB AND PHILIP FROMNEE FROM CEDAR CREEK.

From Thursday's News.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Fromnee and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Fromnee, who have been living in Cedar Creek, have returned home this week.

PLAIN VOICE GOOD GROTESK AT ROCK MACHINES SCHOOL.

A well-balanced company of English players played two good costs and the acting was excellent throughout.

Rev. W. F. Thompson will retire next month to attend to the business of his family, and will hold his meeting at thenewly-built church on the north side of the street.

Prize was awarded to Miss Mabel Evans for the best article on the subject of the play. She received $5.00 and a copy of the book "The Adventure of Sherlock Holmes."