The first foot ball game of the season was played Friday, with Wesleyan university at University Place. For the first time in many years Wesleyan did not carry off the honors. The game resulted in a 0 to 0 score, and Peru is justly proud of the way in which our men played the game.

The Dramatic club is trying a new plan by which to determine who shall be admitted to membership. Hereafter applicants were accepted or rejected by a vote of the society without any reference to their dramatic ability. This year, each applicant was required to appear in a short sketch before a committee from the club, and the new members chosen from those who showed ability in this line of work. The club membership is limited to sixty. There were only thirty-five vacancies and more than sixty people made application.

At the convocation period on Wednesday we were privileged to enjoy a delightful piano recital by Miss Rena Thomas, head of the pianoforte department. Miss Thomas returned this summer from her second year of graduate work in the University of Chicago School of Music. During her stay in Chicago she won special recognition as an accompanist, having played studio accompaniments throughout the year for noted singers. She has also had a varied experience in concert work and is well known in eastern Nebraska as one of the best pianists in the state.

Each year several members of the Peru faculty are found in our large colleges and universities studying along their lines. Those who are absent this year are Dean Mattie C. Ellis, who is doing graduate work in history in the University of Wisconsin; Prof. F. C. Jean, head of the department of biology, who is working toward his master's degree in the University of Nebraska; Mary V. Dick, who will do graduate work in home economics at Columbia university, and Meca McClellan, art critic, who is doing graduate work in an art school in Kansas City.
