A PLEASANT PARTY AT THE HOME OF D. J. LAIR

The home of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Lair was the scene of a most delightful social event Saturday evening when a number of young people were very pleasantly entertained in honor of their son, Ralph Lair. For the occasion the rooms of the Lair home had been made very attractive with decorations of autumn leaves. Various games and amusements were indulged in by the young people which afforded them much pleasure and made the hours pass quite rapidly. At a suitable hour the jolly company were treated to a delicious luncheon, which was served by Mrs. Lair and to which all did ample justice. Those in attendance were: Misses Elsie Tiekoter, Gladys Lowe, Gladys Cotner, Gertrude Newton, Alma Hoffman, Frieda Sattler, Esther Fight, Clara Rinker, Fern Lair; Messrs. Elwood Buttery, Ernest Buttery, Albert Miller, Charles Lowe, Clyde Craig, Dewey Duffield.

THE DRY MEETING AT COURT HOUSE SATURDAY EVENING

The meeting held at the court house Saturday evening under the auspices of the Cass County Dry Federation was attended by quite a large number of the residents of the city to hear the able address given by Rev. Samuel Z. Batton, of Lincoln, one of the leading orators in the dry cause in the state. It had been intended to have the meeting in the nature of a great open air demonstration with the members of the team from Union participating, but the weather not permitting it was found necessary to hold the session in the court room. The address was one that was straight from the shoulder and was very pleasing to the adherents of the cause of prohibition.

TEACHERS READY FOR CONVENTION

State Association Will Meet in Omaha On November 8, 9 and 10.

The Nebraska State Teachers' association will hold its fifty-first annual session at Omaha, November 8, 9 and 10. The plans for the reception of the teachers at that time are about completed and the preliminary programs have been printed.

The headquarters for the association while the meetings continue will be at the Rome hotel, Sixteenth and Jackson streets. The general sessions will be held in the city Auditorium, and the doors will be closed at the scheduled time of opening a meeting to all who come late. Only members will be allowed to attend the meetings and membership is governed by the payment of registration fees. Ballots for the offices to be filled are to be given with the registration slips and the high five candidates for each office will be the candidates for the final election. All enrollments will be held at the Rome hotel. Information bureaus will be opened at the Rome hotel, the Auditorium, the high school and at the Y. M. C. A.

Resolutions to be presented must be approved by the executive committee before offering them to the association and there will be no business sessions in the evenings. Section presidents have been notified that they must make all requests for equipment and details at least ten days before the session opens. For a program Friday night the bureau of publicity of the Omaha Commercial club has arranged to have Miss Helen Stanley, prima donna soprano and Francis Macmillen, a famous violinist for a concert for the members only.

Practically every Nebraska school and college will maintain headquarters in Omaha to welcome old students from among their alumni. Chicago university is the only school outside of the state scheduled to maintain headquarters. Among the speakers brought to Omaha from colleges and universities all over the country for this meeting is Chancellor Samuel Avery of Lincoln, who speaks Friday morning on "Educational Tendencies." The general sessions begin Wednesday evening. They will be held Thursday evening Friday morning and Friday evening for the concert. The rest of the time is taken up with departmental work and programs, a complete temporary program of which is already made up.

G. W. A. Luckey of Lincoln is president of the association, A. P. Hillyer of Beatrice is vice president; John F. Matthews of Grand Island is treasurer and E. U. Graff of Omaha is secretary. Mr. Graff is also on the local committee. A large number of sub-committees have been appointed to attend to the detail work under the general supervision of the executive committee.

VISIT PARENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Steinhaus and two little sons of Gordon, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Haynie of Northboro, Ia.; Mrs. Ed Fox of Waterloo, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Steinhaus and two little daughters of Omaha, and Miss Viola Haynie of Louisville spent the day at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Haynie, in this city yesterday. This is the first time the children and parents have been together for eight years and the occasion was most delightful to all of them.

EXCURSION TO CHASE COUNTY.

W. E. Rosengrans will depart this evening at 7:40 over the Missouri Pacific for Omaha with a party of land-seekers and they will go from that city to Imperial, Neb., where they will enjoy an auto trip over the fine land of Chase county. Mr. Rosengrans is also expecting to conduct another excursion to Chase county on next Monday evening, October 30th.

YOUR WIFE CAN USE IT.

If you are away from home and one of your horses takes the colic your wife can treat him if she has Farris' Colic Remedy in the house. It is easy to use. Just drop it on the horse's tongue and in thirty minutes he is relieved. Get it today. You may need it tomorrow.

H. M. Soennichsen,
Puls & Gansemer.

J. P. Falter and wife were over Sunday visitors at Falls City, where they spent the day with their son, George H. Falter and family.

B. W. Livingston and wife and daughter, Miss Helen, were among those going to Omaha this afternoon, where they will spend a few hours consulting a specialist in regard to the health of Miss Livingston.

Dr. G. H. Gilmore was in the city today enroute to Murray from Omaha, where he had accompanied the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Farris, residing south of Murray, and who was operated on there for an affliction of the tonsils.

GREEN FEED IN WINTER.

Why don't your hens lay when eggs are high? They do not get the chemical ingredients that the grasses and green feed supply in season. B. A. Thomas' Poultry Remedy supplies these very ingredients, only in a more concentrated form. We sell it and guarantee you to get eggs. H. M. Soennichsen, Puls & Gansemer.

THE EPISCOPALS ARE NOT TO CHANGE NAME

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 22.—Efforts to change the name of the Protestant Episcopal church have been abandoned in the convention in session here, leaders of the wing of the church advocating the change announced today. This follows the action of the house of deputies of the convention yesterday adopting, without debate, a title page for a new hymnal which reaffirmed the present name of the church. A change of name has been advocated by some upon the ground that the word "protestant" in the title apparently allies it with those denominations having their origin with the reformation. The Protestant Episcopal church traces its history to the time of Christ, they assert.

Tens of thousands of unchurched people in the United States today, persons of excellent character and religious parentage, are to be won back to the church by fair play, a sense of justice and a life of willing sacrifice on the part of the clergy, the Rt. Rev. William Lawrence, bishop of Massachusetts, said in the official sermon of the general convention here today.

Speaking of social justice the bishop has urged a larger consideration for a man touched with "the spirit of socialism." When such a man rises up, the church, or Christian people, may not condemn without hearing," he continued.

MRS. JENNINGS TO BE OPERATED ON TODAY

Mrs. Thomas E. Jennings, who has been at the Presbyterian hospital in Omaha for the past few weeks, recovering from an operation was operated on for the second time today at the hospital. Mrs. Jennings' improvement has not been as rapid as it should have been and it was thought necessary to perform the second operation in order to assist her recovery. It is to be hoped that this operation will prove successful and that Mrs. Jennings will soon be restored to her family and in her usual good health. Mr. Jennings and Mrs. B. C. Hyde, a sister of Mrs. Jennings, were at the hospital today during the operation.

VISITING RELATIVES HERE.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Olmstead of Carroll, Neb., who have been visiting at Lincoln in attendance at the grand lodge of the I. O. O. F. and the Rebekahs, departed today for their home. While here they spent a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Manners, and also with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Young. Mrs. Olmstead is a sister of Mr. Young and an aunt of Mrs. Manners. They made the trip by automobile and enjoyed to the utmost the outing and the opportunity of meeting the old friends and the relatives in this section of the state.

F. G. Dawson was a business visitor in Omaha today, going to that city on the afternoon Burlington train.
