ROUSING DEMOCRATIC

The District Court Room Jammed Like Sardines in a Box, and Many Turned Away That Could Not Find Standing Room.

For Three Hours People Stood to Listen to the Interesting Speeches of Keith Neville, Attorney General Reed and State Treasurer George E. Hall.

state was urged by Mr. Neville in the in the discharge of his duties.

The speech of Mr. Neville was re-

Attorney General Willis Reed in hi

of the things that had been accomplished during his term of office in the

The democratic rally held last even- | bill. Mr. Neville pointed out that the ing at the court house was one of the national republican platform called for most successful that has been enjoyed the federal control of railroads and by any political party in the city in took away from the state commission many months, and the crowd assem- the right to regulate rates, and this bled was so large that it could easily | would have the effect, if it was put in have filled the district court room sev- force, of doing away with the 2-cent eral times over, and the hall was railroad fare and the maximum crowded with those eager to hear the freight rates that had been made a message that the state candidates part of the law of the state. This were bringing and to see and hear was an important matter for the peo-Keith Neville, the democratic candi- ple of the state to consider if they date for governor, who is just bring- valued the beneficial legislation of the ing to a close a campaign tour of over last few years. He believed in the 14,000 miles, and which has brought creation of an advertising department him into touch with a great many for the resources of the state which of the people of the state. In the would give the people of the United party were, Attorney General Willis States the true understanding of the E. Reed, State Treasurer George E. value of the state. The aid of the Hall, and State Chairman L. F. Lang- various enterprises throughout horst.

The Burlington band gave a num- question of water rights for the people ber of selections in front of the court of the western portion of the state. house before the speaking, and long In touching on the prohibition quesbefore the hour for the opening of the tion Mr. Neville stated that this matmeeting the seats were taken and sev- ter was coming before the people of eral hundred were compelled to stand the state under the initiative law, around the edges of the room and in originated by the democratic party, the hallway. Colonel M. A. Bates and that under that law the people called the assemblage to order and in would express their will as to whether a few words introduced Mayor John P. or not there should be prohibition, and Sattler as the chairman of the meet- that any official who took the oath of ing, and the mayor in turn introduced office would be of duty bound to abide State Treasurer Hall, who occupied a by any law that was placed on the short time in the statement of the af- statute books, and if prohibition was fairs of his office since he has assumed passed he would see that it would be control, two years before. He told enforced, and if defeated, the present of the steps taken to secure the pay- | Slocumb law would be enforced, and ment of the funds from the county no one could do more or should do less treasurers to the state each month instead of twice a year as formerly. This had been the means of retiring a ceived in a very enthusiastic manner large number of registered warrants by the audience as they heard the and saving the state interest when clear-cut statement of facts from the they should be paid. In a few months gentleman who has been selected as after entering office he had been able the leader of a great party in the to retire the $800,000 state warrants state. Candid, sincere, and with the on which the state was compelled to idea of serving the people, Mr. Neville pay interest and in turn the state was certainly demonstrated this fact last able under this system, of paying all evening to the voters of Cass county. accounts in cash, and to purchase good 5 per cent bonds that brought into the address gave a brief outline of some state a handsome sum each year. He also touched on the state management, that had saved over $1,000,000 way of securing reforms that meant in four years to the taxpayers, and a saving to the taxpayers. In the the fact that under the democratic standardizing of all bridge construcboards in charge of the affairs of state | tion in the state a great deal had the levy on the taxpayers had been re- been saved. On each bridge contract duced in 1915 and in 1916 to a much that had been let for building since the lower rate, and a half-million dollars democratic party had assumed control in taxes saved to the people. To main- there had been ten thousand dollars tain this condition it was pointed out saved to the people. In the suit over Athat the state officers, comprising the alleged patents on reinforced concrete state boards, should be continued if construction, Mr. Reed had won a victhe people asked and wanted the best tory for the state that has saved alpossible service for themselves from ready, over $500,000 to the taxpayers.

The appearance of Mr. Neville, the hibitory amendment, Mr. Reed said: splendid young man who is the nominee for governor, was greeted with ed governor of Nebraska or who is much applause as he arose to give in elected to the legislature as far as the the short time allowed him his views dry amendment is concerned. If the on the needs of the state in the way amendment carries at the coming elecof an economical and business-like ad- tion Nebraska will go dry May 1, and President Wilson, and among the will of the people and to make these the banking and currency meas- effective this and all other laws his ure, that will stand for all time as a pledge, so far as the dry amendment splendid piece of legislation. He told is concerned, was altogether unnec-Hitchcock to secure the desired amend- is a fact based on law. of the banking system, and as a result | plained Mr. Reed in his speech. of the work of Senator Hitchcock, the "It requires no act of the legislature story this week. western farmer was allowed to par- to make it effective, no city council or ticipate in the good features of the municipal commission, and no act of that if Keith Neville and I are elected the law will be rigidly enforced.' ANNOUNCEMENT OF COMING MARRIAGE

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Allen Beeson, sr., and Mrs. Allen J. Beeson entertained at "Clover Lodge," west of the city, a large number of friends in honor of Miss Gertrude Beeson, the event being in the nature of an announcement of the forthcoming marriage of Miss Beeson to Mr. Herbert H. Cotton, which will take place on the legislature can authorize, license, permit or allow the selling or giving away of liquor, and anyone found guilty of violating the law will be liable to prosecution and punishment.

"We have statutory prohibition now, and if the amendment carries, it will be beyond the power of anybody to suspend the statutory provision, as is now the custom. And I'll guarantee

Wednesday, November 22d. The rooms of the home were very prettily decorated in tiny red cupids intersperced with large red hearts in token of the forthcoming nuptials. These tiny cupids were strung from the chandeliers to the corners of the rooms and made a fitting touch to the scene. The rooms were darkened and the myrid red candles cast a soft glow over the happy gathering and proved a pleasing feature of the decorative scheme. At the tables the place cards were of red cupids, while each napkin bore two tiny hearts in keeping with the nature of the gathering.

The guests on their arrival enjoyed sewing on a large number of dainty articles of needlework for several hours, which, on their completion were presented to the bride-to-be with the best wishes of her friends for future years of happiness. During the afternoon the merry party were entertained by a most charming piano selection by Mrs. W. G. Brooks, and Mrs. E. H. Wescott favored the members of the party with one of her always delightful vocal selections, which was received with great delight by everyone and aided in the pleasure of the afternoon. At a suitable hour a most charming three-course luncheon was served by Mrs. A. J. Beeson, assisted by Mrs. William Baird, Mrs. Val Burkle, Mrs. John Beeson, Mrs. Jennings Seivers, Mrs. Stewart and Misses Elizabeth and Grace Beeson, that was most enjoyable. There were some forty present to enjoy the gracious hospitality of the Beeson home and to extend to the charming brideto-be their heartiest best wishes for many, many happy years to come.

CAR SHORTAGE WOR-RIES ELEVATOR MEN

The shortage of cars for shipment of grain all over thestate has been very noticable for the past few months and to such an extent has this condition prevailed that the state railway commission has taken a hand in the matter in order to try and remedy the difficulty. The Farmers' elevator at Murray in this countty is one of the concerns that has felt the car shortage very keenly and it has compelled them to carry insurance for $25,000 on the contents of the elevator In touching on the question of the proto protect their interests from the possibility of loss. This morning W. A. "It makes no difference who is elect-Wheeler, manager of the elevator, accompanied by W. D. Wheeler, departed for Lincoln where they will take up the matter before the state railway commission in the hopes of securing some adjustment of the matministration of the office, such as has 1917. No legislation is required to ter so that they can secure enough been the rule in the past two years make it effective. No legislature or cars at least to relieve the present friends who are going to vote for him. SUFFERING FROM INJURIES under Governor John H. Morehead. executive officer can prevent it from conditions. The officials of the ele-Mr. Neville called the attention of his becoming effective. The will of the vator state that this car shortage has audience to the program of construc- people in this case is absolute and existed since the first of May and has tive legislation that had been placed although Keith Neville, democratic not been improved in the least and dress that he had been against him, into laws for the benefit of the com- candidate for governor, has pledged they are hopeful that the commismon people by the democratic congress himself in every address to abide by sion can secure some relief for them.

STORY IS OMITTED.

A want ad will bring what you want.

BIG OVATION IN CASS COUNT

Hundreds of Voters Swear Allegiance and Support to Democratic Candidate.

(From the World-Herald.) Plattsmouth, Neb., Oct. 30 .- Keith Neville, candidate for governor, closed house. Between 500 and 600 people heard his address here and many seats at the gathering.

the accomplishments of the state ad- I am going to vote for Mr. Neville." ministration, devoting some time to a discussion of the measures which have MAN FALLS FROM TREE AND been in behalf of the people and which have resulted in the lowering of the taxes and the increased efficiency in the operation of the state de-

Mr. Neville was introduced by Mayor Sattler, who had been presented to the audience by Colonel M. A. Bates, long-time editor of the Journal cident while he was engaged in trimand one of the pioneers of this region.

and it was several moments before Mr Neville could proceed.

When he did get under way he made telling shots in his fusillade. He gave a clean-cut exposition of the problems which confront the state executive and declared that he would endeavor to b a business governor, if elected, rathe than a political governor.

Farmers, bankers and business me pledged their support to Keith Neville and wished him success at the coming election as the democratic nominee for governor. Accompanied by L. F Langhorst, state chairman; Attorney General Willis Reed, Treasurer George Hall and a large number of county and legislative candidates he sped over Cass county. The tour began at Greenwood and closed at Plattsmouth.

Fourteen automobiles and the rail road band of Plattsmouth fully uni formed, their hats decorated with Ne ville buttons, made the trip. The towns visited were: Greenwood, Murdock, Elmwood, Weeping Water, Manly, Louisville and Plattsmouth.

Want Business Man for Governor. "We want a business man for governor, we don't care what his politics are, that is why we are supporting the candidacy of Keith Neville." This is effect were the declarations made by scores of successful men of affairs the various towns visited today.

"We need a man of business ability who knows the business needs of the state," declared C. M. Stone, young banker of Elmwood. "It would be a serious mistake at this time to elect professional politicians."

Mr. Stone's father, J. M. Stone, who controls banks in Nebraska, Oklahoma and Colorado, assured Mr. Neville today that he was doing everything in his power to aid in his election.

"That was a fine, sound busines talk," declared C. E. Butler, cashier of the Citizens State bank at Weeping water. "It was refreshing to hear Mr Neville discuss these state issues in such a clean, frank manner."

W. L. Hobson, business man Weeping Water, approached Mr. Ne ville at the close of his meeting and told him of a number of republican

E. D. Carr of Eagle, who is strongly supporting the dry amendment, told Mr. Neville after the Elmwood adbut after hearing him talk and meeting him he had changed his mind and intended to work for his election.

Introduced by Dry Worker. Mr. Stander in his introduction.

Mr. Stander is a hardware mer- juries.

chant and is active in church affairs. "BEAT HITCHCOCK," IS day school convention of the world and above his convention pin today he wore a Neville button.

Dr. E. H. Worthman wore a Neville button and talked briefly with the nominee about old friends in North Platte. L. J. Mayfield, brother of Eu- L. Kennedy, republican candidate for gene Mayfield of Omaha, pledged his support to Mr. Neville.

Mr. Neville was introduced to Lee Lincoln postoffice 60,000 letters bear-G. Graham and William Eck, who for ing a 2-cent stamp, attacking Senator years have been on the road for Pax- Hitchcock. These letters were ton & Gallagher, Omaha. Both wore Neville buttons.

bank met Mr. Neville and attended Lincoln postoffice. his meeting at Weeping Water. "He a successful day in Cass county by a is good," enthusiastically declared Mr. work that is being done for Kennedy a successful day in Cass county by a lis good, children of the rousing meeting at the local court Murtey. "That is the first time I ever in New York. "Beat Hitchcock" are Woodmen Circle and a number of the heard him."

were turned away unable to abtain civil war veteran, living at Greenwood, ing spared to fulfill them. was so pelased with Mr. Neville's talk Other speakers of the evening in- that he jumped in his car and accom-Other speakers of the evening included State Treasurer Hall and At- panied the party on the trip. "I voted CONGRESSMAN REAVIS torney General Willis E. Reed. Both for Abe Lincoln when I was in the of these speakers gave an outline of army," explained Mr. Laughlin, "and

IS PAINFULLY INJURED

From Tuesday's Daffy.

Yesterday afternoon a man named Moore met with a very painful acost his footing and fell forward from the tree but in alling his right foot caught in the crotch of the tree and held him there and while it saved him from falling to the ground he was badly skinned and bruised from his head striking the side of the tree and removing a great deal of the skin from the side of his face. The end of one finger was badly bruised and his right leg below the knee was also badly bruised. He was rescued from his perilous position and taken to the office of a physician where the injures were dressed by Dr. E. W. Cook and the injured man allowed to go to his home. While the injuries were not very serious they were of a most painful nature and it will be some time before he is over the effects of the accident.

PLATTSMOUTH YOUNG PEOPLE ARE MARRIED IN OMAHA

from Tuesday's Daily. Two of the Plattsmouth young people have decided that they will take up life as one hereafter, as the dispatches from Omaha convey the information that Mr. Otto Pitts and Miss Lizzie Warstat of this city were united in marriage in the metropolis Saturday. Both of the contracting parties are well and favorably known to a large circle of friends in this city, who will learn of their marriage with much pleasure and extend to them their best wishes for a long and happy wedded life, and one free from care and sorrow. The groom is an employe of the Western Machine and Foundry company and a young man universally respected and esteemed by all those with whom he is associated. The bride is a young lady who is held in the highest regard by her many friends as one possessed of great charm of character. Mr. and Mrs. Pitts will continue to make their home here in the future.

RECEIVED IN A BAD FALL

Mrs. William Gilmour, residing several miles south of this city, for the James Stander, who has made a quite severe shaking up as well as ley will take up a number of other freshments, which were in keeping The story, "When I Come Back to strenuous campaign on the stump for bruises sustained a few days ago at cases that are pending. of the able work of Senator G. M. essary. This is not a speculation. It You," which has been running in the the dry amendment, introduced Mr. her home when she fell down stairs Journal for the past few weeks, is Neville at Louisville. "We in Nebraska and received the injuries. Mrs. Gilments to that bill, that gave the far- "In view of the Slocum law, now omitted from this issue on account of boast of the children we raise, the mour was descending a stairway when mers' and the small merchants' notes on our statute books, if the amend- lack of space to handle the same. The corn and alfalfa we grow, and the she suddenly became dizzy and fell, A box social will be held at the entertainers look the necessity of leaving out the manhood, and I take great pleasure in to be up and around, although it will teacher. introducing Keith Neville," declared be several days before she is entirely recovered from the effects of her in- CREAM, 34c, at Dawson's store, Victrolas $15 to $150. Records and

THE WORD FROM NEW YORK

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 30 .- New York has come directly to the aid of John

There are being mailed from the printed, sealed and stamped in New York and then shipped by express to Tom Murtey of the First National be mailed to Nebraska voters from the

This is only a small part of the the orders that went out from Wall B. F. Laughlin, retired farmer and street and no effort or expense is be-

From Tuesday's Daily. The republican rally in this city last point of attendance and a large crowd assembled to hear Congressman C. F. Reavis speak in behalf of his return to congress. The meeting was presided over by Matthew Gering, who made a very able introductory speech for

CASES TRANSFERRED TO THE U. S. DISTRICT COURT

From Tuesday's Daily.

This morning District Judge Begley held a short session of the district court to pass on a number of motions that were presented in several cases. In the cases of J. H. Foreman, special administrator, vs. the C. R. I. & P. R. R.; Charles Godbey, special administrator, vs. the C. R. I. & P. R. R., and the cozy home of Mrs. H. A. Schneider J. H. Foreman vs. the C. R. I. & P. R. R., suits aggregating damages to the Will Streight, Kate Minor and Mrs. amount of $95,000, the defendant rail- Schneider. This being their regular road company offered a motion asking | meeting the ladies held a very interthat the cases be transferred to the esting business session, at which time United States court for trial. Judge final plans were made for the Rum-Begley entered the order transferring mage Sale which they will hold the the cases, which will be heard in the 12th, 13th and 14th of this month. Va-United States district court at Lin- rious other plans and arrangements coln. These suits are all for damages for the coming year's work were disarising from the automobile accident cussed, after which the business sesat Alvo last January and in which sion was adjourned and the remainder Edith and Belle Foreman and Alma of the afternoon devoted to various Godbey met their death and Mr. Fore- amusements-such as very industri-man sustained serious injuries. past few days has been suffering from Thursday morning, when Judge Beg- esses served some most excellent re-

BOX SOCIAL AT MYNARD.

and paper held by the banks the same ment carries at the coming election, story will be resumed next week, how- splendid live stock we breed and ma- striking the stairs in her descent and Modern Woodmen Hall at Mynard, value as the short-time notes of larger no liquor can be sold or given away ever, and continued until it is com- ture on our farms. We also produce inflicting the injuries. She is feeling Saturday evening, November 4th. interests in the conduct of the business in this state after May 1, 1917," ex- pleted. The readers will please over- some of the very highest types of much better now, however, and is able Everybody invited. Doris Vallery, to spend a few hours looking after Plattsmouth.

DRILL TEAM ENTERTAINED LAST EVENING

One of the Most Delightful Gatherings of Holiday Season, and All Participants Go Home Happy.

From Wednesday's Datiy. Last evening the pleasant home of Mrs. M. E. Manspeaker was the scene of a most delightful gathering when the officers and the drill team of the former members of the team entertained at a Hellowe'en party as a farewell to Mrs. Gail Connors, one of the members of the team, who is soon to leave for Magna, Utah, to make her future home. The home had been decorated in the colors of the season, SPEAKS AT PARMELE decorated in the colors of the season, orange and black, while the black cats and pumpkins of the Hallowe'en season added a touch of beauty to the decorative scheme and made the scene a most witching one for this very evening, held at the Parmele theater, pleasant gathering. As the guests was a very successful one from the entered they were met at the door by a witch garbed in all the mystic finery that has long made this character famed in fairy lore, while a ghost in sweeping white robe assisted her with receiving the guests of the jolly party. When all had assembled a number of ming the tops of a tree at the resi- the orator of the evening and touched interesting games were enjoyed, When the mayor referred to Keith dence of Mrs. A. B. Swartout on on the issues of the day briefly and among them being a contest between Neville as "the next governor," a wave Pearl street. The man was up in the made answer to the claims of the the guests, who were divided into two of applause swept over the audience tree busy at work cutting off the democrats as to the national administratory teams, for the purpose of discovering imbs and as he was so engaged he tration achievements in the past four the missing pieces of a large snake years, and answered the statements of made of the Hallowe'en colors, and Senator Hitchcock, made for the Wil- much merriment was derived as the members of the party searched the Mr. Reavis, who is always a pleas- house for the missing portions. Small ing speaker, was in good voice, and in prizes were given for this that were his address took up some time in the much enjoyed. In the contest to pin discussion of the tariff from the repub- the paper pumpkins on a witch Miss lican standpoint, and attacked the Un- | Marie Kaufmann proved the most sucderwood tariff as ineffective, and held | cessful, and Mrs. Eugene Setz carried up the republican tariff as the only off the consolation prize. Another of relief for the country from the con- the interesting features of the evenditions that he had pictured were in ing was when the witch, slowly unstore in the future. He also claimed | winding a thread of fate, produced that the present prosperous conditions | different stunts for the guests to carry which were the best in the history of out, and a great many pleasing numthe country, were due to the war in bers were derived through this means. Europe and of a temporary nature, Mrs. Setz added to the pleasure of the and that through a return of the re- evening by a number of instrumental publicans to power could alone come numbers, as well as a few of her dea stable prosperity. He also touched lightful vocal numbers, which were reon the old soldiers and paid them a ceived with marked pleasure by the very pleasing tribute, and addressed a guests. As the evening was drawing considerable portion of the address to to a close Mrs. James Marasek, guarthe soldiers who were present on the dian of the local grove, in a very able speech presented Mrs. Connors with a Before the speaking Mr. Reavis vis- handsome cut glass celery dish as a ited a number of the business houses remembrance of the kind friends and and met the business men and his which will long be treasured by the friends whom he had not had the lady in her new home. In preparing pleasure of seeing since his election and entertaining, Mrs. Manspeaker was assisted by Mrs. N. W. Chrisinger and Mrs. Frank Ohm. Mrs. Kate Remington of Omaha was present to enjoy the happy occasion with her friends in the order.

LADIES' AUXILIARY MEET AT THE H. E. SCHNEIDER HOME

From Wednesday's Daily.
The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church were very pleasantly entertained yesterday afternoon at on North Sixth street, by Mesdames ously plying the busy needle, social The district court will meet again conversation and the like. The hostwith the Hallowe'en season. At the close of the beautiful autumnal day the ladies wended their way homeward, declaring the hostesses splendid

> Lafe Scott came over the afternoon 10-31-3tdltwwly. some matters of business in this city.

9-19-d&wtf needles. J. W. Crabill. 10-17-d&w.