WHAT THEY THINK OF MR. WUNDERLICH AT HOME

THOUGHT FOR TODAY.

Virtue is in a manner contagious; more especially the bright virtue known as patriotism, or love of country.—Dickens.

Soon the agony will be over.

The wise man not only pays as he goes, but buys a return ticket.

It took a huge war to make the lion and bear lie down together and forget to growl.

The girl who marries to get a home seldom gets one of the "Home, Sweet Home" kind.

Any man who itches for fame will have to do a lot of scratching before he gets there.

An army mule is better than an automobile if his chauffeur knows how to crank him up.

Wilson has stood up for the people, while Hughes stands for Wall street and the money power.

Within the heel of recently patented shoes for women is contained a complete vanity case. Where next will women carry their powder?

Probably there is nothing so meaningless as the kiss one woman bestows upon another—unless it is the large, expressive smile of a hotel clerk.

Speak up, Mr. Sutton! How about the little matter of being chief of a fraternal order that maintained a bar for the dispensing of liquors, with your knowledge and seeming consent?

R. L. Metcalfe is a stem-winder on the stump and is doing a great work for the democratic ticket in Nebraska, and has also been helping the democrats down in Missouri.

The democrats and lots of republicans are talking loud and long for Keith Neville for governor, but you hear very few that have the courage to get out and talk for Sutton.

Paper rain coats are now being made. Wonder if the paper trust will say that the manufacture of paper coats has something to do with the high cost of news print paper?

As cold weather approaches the matrimonial market will probably look up somewhat, and by Thanksgiving there will no doubt be several weddings announced. It's in the air.

The betting is greatly in favor of Wilson all over the country. The republicans are publishing all manner of false reports to try to save New York. Many republicans in the east do not think they can even do that. The democrats in New York are claiming the state by 100,000.

There is no cause to vote against a single man on the democratic ticket. They are all good men, and you know this as well as we do. You know that they are good, honorable, well qualified people, and not a single charge can be brought against the ticket as a whole. It is a clean-cut ticket in every way.

The Chicago Herald, for many years one of the greatest republican newspapers in the west, or the United States for that matter, and supported Hughes up to ten days ago, has come out flat-footed for the re-election of President Wilson. The Herald wields more influence than any newspaper in the great metropolis of the west.

The Nehawka News has taken no active part in the coming election, either editorially or personally. There are two reasons why we have not—neither of which would interest our readers. But we feel that we cannot let the election go by without having said something concerning the candidacy of John Wunderlich, who is making the race on the democratic ticket for sheriff in this county.

John G. Wunderlich was born in Germany. At the age of fifteen he landed in America, coming forthwith to Cass County, locating in Nehawka township. He has lived in this township ever since, at first working as a farm hand. Later on he was married to a noble and patient woman who with him fought life's battles and raised a fine family of boys and girls, all of whom are residents of this county also, and highly respected.

It may truthfully be said of Mr. Wunderlich that he is a good farmer, keen of foresight in all affairs of his neighborhood, county and state. That he and his family are beloved by his neighbors and friends no one will deny. He is as true a citizen as ever breathed the air of Cass County. In the capacity of an officer of the law like that of sheriff, he could certainly be depended upon to do his duty, and his best efforts would be put forth to protect the interests of the county and state. There is not a single reason why he should not be as capable, could not or would not give as good service in the office to which he aspires as any man in the county.

Mr. Wunderlich made the race two years ago for the same office and was defeated. But the large vote he received that year, both in his own township and throughout the county, has always been a source of pride and great satisfaction to him. He often speaks of the loyal support in his home township and how thankful he feels to his friends in both parties who gave him their undivided support. In making the race again this year we will vouch for him that he will greatly appreciate your support, and if elected will do everything in his power to merit the trust placed in him.—Nehawka News.

The Deutschland has demonstrated beyond a question of doubt that it can come back.

The car shortage continued to be a problem that is keeping the grain men guessing some.

The ties of wedlock—the neckwear a man's wife buys for him, along about Christmas time.

Every time we see a man with a marriage license, we can't help but think he's courting trouble.

The easiest thing in the world to make is a promise. Also, the easiest thing broken at election time.

THE STAGE IS NOW SET FOR THE BIGGEST ELECTION IN THE HISTORY OF OUR COUNTRY

President, Vice President, Thirty-four Governors and Thirty-three United States Senators About to Be Chosen.

Presidential Candidates to Wing Up Campaign In Eleventh Hour Tour of New York, Chief Among Doubtful States.

THE artillery preparation for the present campaign, the speech-making and rallies and other political demonstrations are almost over, and all that remains now is for the infantry, the voters of the nation, to storm the political strongholds with the most effective, if blood-exception of the United States senatorships for Maine. This state held its senatorial elections on Sept. 11 and filled the vacancies by the election of Frederick Hale and Bert M. Fernald, both Republicans. The presidential election is, of course, the overshadowing feature of the campaign.

SIX OF THE THIRTY-FOUR GOVERNORS WHOSE TERMS EXPIRE JAN. 1. THE ABOVE ARE AMONG THOSE WHO ARE CANDIDATES TO SUCCEED THEMSELVES. THEY ARE: 1, CHARLES S. WHITMAN, NEW YORK, REPUBLICAN; 2, ARTHUR GAPPER, KANSAS, REPUBLICAN; 3, EDWARD F. DUNNE, ILLINOIS, DEMOCRAT; 4, MARCUS HOLCOMB, CONNECTICUT, REPUBLICAN; 5, FRANK B. WILLIS, OHIO, REPUBLICAN; 6, RICHARD J. MANNING, SOUTH CAROLINA, DEMOCRAT.

less, weapon that mankind has ever invented—the ballot. A few days hence and the attack will begin. It will be a short, sharp action, fought by a greater army than any European ruler ever could muster.

The preliminary campaign, the fight for votes, will practically terminate throughout the entire country on Saturday night, Nov. 4, when there will be torchlight parades, processions, rallies and a general hullabaloo everywhere.

With the election so close at hand the political leaders in both the Republican and Democratic camps are claiming victory, but are working hard nevertheless up to the very last minute in order that nothing may be left undone to make success doubly sure. Charles E. Hughes will end up the Republican campaign at a great rally in Madison Square Garden on the night of Nov. 4, while President Wilson will make his final pre-election addresses at Shadow Lawn on Nov. 4, which has been designated an "Old Home day" for the people of New Jersey who are neighbors of the president.

Biggest Election Ever Held.

This election is the biggest all around event of the kind in the history of our country. Besides electing a president and vice president, thirty-three United States senators will be chosen, the terms of the present incumbents expiring on March 4, 1917. Furthermore, the terms of thirty-four governors of states come to an end on Jan. 1, 1917, and these offices will be filled when the voters in the various states go to the polling booths on Nov. 7. Then there are the members of the house of representatives to be voted for. The terms of all congressmen expire on March 4. Of the thirty-three senators who go out of office on March 4 next eighteen are Democratic and fifteen Republican. All of the above mentioned senate vacancies must yet be filled with the paen, and both parties have concentrated their principal efforts to win the highest office in the gift of the people. Besides the general campaign throughout the country, political leaders in both camps have given special attention to New York, New Jersey, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio, considered the doubtful states. In these the campaign goes against their party.

tical battle has been hottest so far as the presidency is concerned. There is another element that enters to lend additional interest to the fight. This is the doubt about the way in which the women will vote. They will undoubtedly affect the result in the western states where women will go to the polls.

Thirty-four Governors to Be Chosen.

In addition to the senatorial fights in the states, thirty-four governors have to be elected this year. Seventeen of these states now have Democratic executives and a like number Republican. The Republicans concede that they have not a chance in the states of Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee to elect governors, while the Democrats do not consider their chances very good in the states of Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, North Dakota, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Utah and Vermont. As far as the gubernatorial elections are concerned, the fights in those

A USEFUL PAIN AUSTRIANS HAVE HEAVY LOSSES

Plattsmouth People Should Heed its Warning.

E. M. Buttery, stationary engineer, Tenth and Walnut streets, Plattsmouth, says: "Pains caught me in my hips so that I could hardly raise a shovel of coal. At times, there was lameness across my loins I had reason to believe that the trouble was caused by a disordered condition of my kidneys and began using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from the Crescent Pharmacy. I got quick relief." (Statement given June 11, 1906.) On February 22, 1916, Mr. Buttery said: "It has been two years since I have had any trouble with my kidneys and I have enjoyed good health in every way. I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills at every opportunity." Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Buttery has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props. Buffalo, N. Y.

Thirty-five Thousand Said to Have Been Lost in New Drive On Trieste.

Rome, Nov. 5.—Austrian casualties in General Cadorna's new drive on Trieste now number 25,000 said unofficial dispatches from the Carso front tonight. Of this number 10,000 are prisoners.

The correspondent of the Messenger, the front, telegraphed today that several Austrian battalions have been almost wiped out. Others have lost 70 per cent of their effectiveness and a large number of guns.

In no offensive since the Austro-Italian war have Cadorna's men captured so many machine guns. The Austrian general staff apparently shifted a large number of men from the Isonzo front, counting upon a machine gun defense to check Italian attacks. In several instances the Italian victors turned captured machine guns on the fleeing enemy, inflicting severe slaughter.

The attack now centers on Dossofutziti and Hill 239, commanding the Comen-Adussina road. Long range artillery is constantly bombarding the Comen and Dornberg railway stations, where the Austrians are hastily dumping reinforcements.

The Italian newspapers are displaying bulletins of the new Isonzo victories with the greatest elation. They assert that General Cadorna's advance has forced the Austrians to shift troops from the Transylvanian front and has lifted the pressure on Rumania.

PARMELE THEATRE TO RECEIVE ELECTION RETURNS

Tomorrow evening at the Parmele theater Manager Charles Peterson has arranged to receive the election returns and will, in addition to this, have four reels of pictures for the entertainment of the patrons while the returns are being received. This will be an unusual opportunity for the citizens to keep in touch with the returns from all over the country and to spend a few hours very pleasantly. As fast as the returns are received they will be flashed on the screen and will keep the audience informed as to the outcome of the battle of the ballots.
