

THREE ON STATE TICKET IN DOUBT

Railway and Land Commissioners and State Superintendent Uncertain.

With all of the democratic ticket safely elected save for three offices—railway commissioner, land commissioner and state superintendent—in interest in the count of Nebraska's election returns now centers on results in these three contests and on supreme judges and in the final pluralities of Wilson, Hitchcock and Neville.

Returns from more than one-third of the state indicate the probable election of Beckman, republican, for land commissioner, Thomas, republican, for state superintendent, and Wilson democrat, for railway commissioner, but the results are not certain.

The race between Morrissey and Fawcett for chief justice is very close. Cornish Sedgwick and Barnes are the likely winners for the three associate justiceships.

The legislature is safely democratic in both branches. With six senatorial and twenty-one representative districts unreported, the division stands: Senate, 17 democrats and 10 republicans; house, 53 democrats and 26 republicans.

Seventy-one counties complete and scattering precincts of fourteen other counties give Senator Hitchcock 124,128 votes and his opponent 112,293. His majority of 12,135 is expected to stretch into a majority of 14,000.

Custer county, where his opponent expected to take advantage of federal official disappointments—as compared to appointments—is safely tucked away in the senator's war-bag, and Morrill county, farther west is also in the same place.

Neville, democrat, has 100,780, and Sutton, republican, 97,133 for governor in forty-seven counties complete and partial returns from sixteen other counties. Neville's plurality is probably around 7,000.

In fifty-one complete counties President Wilson has 98,323 and Hughes 75,071, indicating a final plurality for Wilson of about 30,000.

CARRAHER, OF UNION, GETS IN BAD AGAIN

From Friday's Daily.

Charles Carraher of Union yesterday got himself in bad with the police department in the city for the second time within the last two months, and as a result rested in the city bastille until yesterday afternoon, when he was exiled from the boundary lines of the city under promise never to again set foot within the city limits under any condition. It seems that the man was under arrest by Chief of Police Barclay for "mooning" from several parties who complained to the chief, who soon located the gentleman and escorted him to the city prison. He was given a fine of $20 and costs by Judge M. Archer in police court and was remanded to the chief to work on the streets until the amount was satisfied. Mr. Carraher finally secured his release by a promise to go from the city and never return, and accordingly departed on the first train for Omaha, and from where he will return home or go to other points.

GETS HELD UP IN OMAHA.

From Friday's Daily.

From dispatches from Omaha, it would seem that Frank Schmarderer of Louisville met with a bunch of bad luck Wednesday night at Omaha, when he was "strong armed" near the Union station by two strangers who stopped and robbed him of $18 in cold cash. The robbers made their getaway before the alarm could be given by the victim, and the case was then reported to the police station, but no one has been apprehended for the robbery and Frank is still out $18.

Mrs. Lester Barkus departed Saturday evening for Casper, Wyo., where she will join her husband who is employed there in the Burlington store department. Mrs. Barkus will remain at Casper for a short visit before returning home to this city.

STATE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION IN OMAHA THIS WEEK

From Friday's Daily.

The State Teachers' association of Nebraska have been holding their meetings at the Hotel Rome in Omaha this week and the sessions have been largely attended by the teachers of the state. This morning the teaching force of the Plattsmouth schools departed for Omaha to attend the meetings both in the morning and afternoon. There has been great interest taken in the meetings as well as in the reunions of the classes of the different normal schools and colleges whose former members are enrolled in the ranks of the teachers of the state. Some very able teachers and lecturers have been present at the meetings and given very interesting talks along the lines of school work which have been of great value to the teachers in attendance. The Plattsmouth delegation included almost every teacher in the city schools in both the high school and grade schools.

This is the first time since 1912 that the Plattsmouth city teachers have been allowed to attend the meeting of the state association as it has been against the policy of the board of education to allow more than the one vacation during November but this year it was decided to allow one day for the teachers to take part in the state convention.

STUDENTS REJOICE OVER BOND ELECTION

From Friday's Daily.

Last night the students of the Plattsmouth High school indulged in a parade through the business section of the city as a preliminary to a big wiener roast on the campus of the high school, and several hundred of the young folks were in line to take part in the demonstration. The boys and girls gave a number of their yells and cheers as they marched through the streets, and indulged in a demonstration over the fact that the high school bonds had been carried at the general election, that insures the erection of the new school building. The merry party enjoyed a very pleasant time at the school grounds, when they gathered around camp fires and enjoyed the roasting of wieners and the general good time until a late hour. It was an occasion that the school boys and girls always enjoy, and they certainly had one of the times of their lives at the celebration last evening. A number of the members of the faculty were present to enjoy the occasion with the young folks.

ANOTHER SHOWER IN HONOR OF MISS BEESON

From Friday's Daily.

Last evening the cozy home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hill on west Main street was the scene of a very pleasant gathering when Mrs. Hill entertained the members of the Queen Esther of the M. E. church at a linen towel shower in honor of Miss Gertrude Beeson, whose forthcoming marriage is soon to occur. The evening was one of the rarest enjoyment as the young ladies extended to their friend their best wishes for her future happiness and presented her with the many handsome gifts that will serve as lasting remembrances of the friends in the years to come. A very pleasant program was given during the evening which consisted of a vocal solo by Miss Leona Brady, a reading by Mrs. A. J. Beeson and a piano number by Miss Hiatt of Sidney, Ia., who is in the city visiting with friends. The occasion was one of the greatest enjoyment to every member of the party and the bride-to-be was showered with the many handsome towels that had been prepared for the occasion. At a suitable hour dainty and delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Hill, assisted by Mrs. F. A. Clويد, that added very much to the pleasure of the occasion.

L. G. Todd, representative-elect, and Editor Brown, of the Union Ledger, were in the city for a few hours last Saturday evening. Mr. Todd feels greatly complimented over the outcome of the recent election, and the big vote received in his home county.

A MAGNIFICENT ENTERTAINMENT LAST EVENING

Officers and Members of the Drill Team of Goldenrod Grove, Woodmen Circle, Enjoy a Fine Time.

From Saturday's Daily.

The officers and members of the drill team of Goldenrod grove, Woodmen circle, of this city, were the guests last evening in Omaha of Miss Dora Alexander, supreme clerk of the order, and of W. A. Fraser grove No. 1 of Omaha. The event was one of greatest enjoyment and the twenty ladies from this city who were present feel that the Omaha ladies are royal entertainers in every way and certainly showed the visitors the most gracious hospitality. During the celebration of Fraternal day of the Fall Festival in this city, the Omaha ladies with their drill team were here and were entertained by the Plattsmouth grove in a manner that made them feel that they were indebted to the ladies of this city, and they extended to them an invitation to visit the Omaha grove and spend a few hours with them, and as a result of the invitation the ladies last evening took advantage of having one of the best times the lodge members have enjoyed for some time.

The delegation from this city departed on the 4 o'clock Missouri Pacific train for the metropolis and on their arrival were met at the Union Station by Miss Alexander and the members of her office force with a large number of automobiles as it had been hoped to give the visitors a trip over the city, but owing to the weather conditions this was abandoned and the party were taken direct to the Woodmen of the World building, where they were shown the offices of the supreme lodge, and from there were conducted to the lodge rooms of Fraser grove, where a very enjoyable dinner had been prepared by the Omaha ladies and which proved an appreciated treat to the visitors from the several lodges present. The table decorations were in the colors of the order, green and lavender. After the conclusion of the dinner the members of the party from this city were entertained for a short time at one of the theaters until the lodge session was opened, when they returned to enjoy the evening of fraternal association with the sisters of the Omaha lodge. The beautiful ritualistic work of the order was put on by the members of the Fraser grove team, fifteen candidates being received into the order, and the ceremony was one filled with impressiveness to the guests from other lodges. A splendid entertainment was afforded during the evening by several addresses by guardians of the different groves as well as Mrs. Bunc, guardian of Fraser grove. The Seymour quartet was present at the meeting and gave a few selections, while Mrs. Eugene Setz of this city favored the gathering with several of her pleasing vocal and instrumental numbers, which were received with the greatest approval by the members of the Omaha lodge, and this talented lady was compelled to respond to several encores.

Following the lodge session the Plattsmouth ladies were entertained in a most delightful informal manner by the Omaha ladies until their train time, when they were driven to the station under the escort of Miss Alexander and Mrs. Hennings of the supreme council. There were seven lodges represented at the meeting and those in attendance from this city certainly enjoyed one of the times of their lives in the delightful hospitality afforded them by the Omaha organization, and it served to knit closer the ties of esteem and fraternity between the members present.

Olson, the driver for the Adams express company in this city, has secured the temporary contract from the United States government for the hauling of the mail from the postoffice to the Burlington depot and return. This has been in the hands of the railroad and express company heretofore, and until the contract for the year is let the hauling will be in the hands of "Ole."

PAST CHIEFS ENTERTAINED AT THE HOME OF MRS. JAMES BULIN

From Saturday's Daily.

The Past Chiefs of the Degree of Honor enjoyed a very pleasant meeting yesterday afternoon at the cozy home of Mrs. James Bulin, the first gathering of the order since July as the ladies had abandoned their meetings during the heated months. There were fifteen members present and all reported a most delightful time in every way, discussing the business affairs of their society as well as looking after the making of many articles of needlework and the participation in a social gathering that was most enjoyable and each one present felt it was a rare treat to be present and enjoy the gracious hospitality of the hostess. At 5 o'clock a very dainty and delicious two-course luncheon was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Fred Linderman and Misses Edith and Alice Bulin, which served to further add to the pleasure of the ladies who were present. The occasion was very pleasant in every way to the ladies and as a guest for the event, Mrs. J. G. Wunderlich of Nehawka was present to enjoy the afternoon.

"IN OLD KENTUCKY," AT PARMELE TUESDAY

The scholarly dean on New England critics, the late Mr. H. A. Clapp, in reviewing the first presentation of "In Old Kentucky" in Boston, as long ago as 1894, said, in the course of his review in the Boston Daily Advertiser:

Twenty years after these words were written, "In Old Kentucky" went back to the same Boston playhouse, in which it scored its original success—the historic Boston theater—and demonstrated its wonderful drawing powers by crowding this capacious theater to the doors for many weeks during its stay last March and April. Mr. Clapp's words, in the light of "In Old Kentucky's" successful stage career, were truly prophetic, for all America has been entertained for more than a decade by this wonderful drama of the blue-grass country.

"In Old Kentucky" will be seen at the Parmele theater next Tuesday night.

A veteran manager commenting on the success and long life of "In Old Kentucky," now in its twenty-third year, gave an interesting explanation thereof, which is largely true.

"The play," he said, "made a tremendous impression and pleased all classes from the beginning. After about fifteen years, another generation has sprung up, and the fathers and mothers who had seen 'In Old Kentucky' in its earlier years wanted their children to see it, so they went again and took their families with them. Naturally this gave two distinct classes to draw from, and it no doubt explains why 'In Old Kentucky' goes steadily on, year after year, hardly a season passing without its breaking a record in some theater where it has often played."

JOHN WUNDERLICH MADE GOOD RUN FOR SHERIFF

From Saturday's Daily.

Yesterday afternoon John G. Wunderlich of Nehawka was in the city for a short time visiting with his relatives and friends and for the first time since the election. Mr. Wunderlich made a clean and able campaign for the office of sheriff of the county and while he was defeated by a small majority, made the best race that any democratic candidate has made for the past few years and succeeded in pulling down a majority of from 450 to 500 down to 270. Mr. Wunderlich is one of the best and most whole-souled men in the county and one who is highly esteemed by all who know him regardless of politics, and his candidacy has given him an opportunity of making a great many more friends. He feels that his real friends have been faithful to him in the battle and that it is worth a great deal to anyone, to know that he has so many good loyal friends.

YOUNG MAN TAKEN BACK TO KEARNEY

From Friday's Daily.

Superintendent Clark of the Kearney Industrial school, was in the city today, coming down to look after a young boy named Towers from this city who had been out on parole from the Kearney reform school and who has not been doing as he should in the way of attending school or obeying his parents. The superintendent expects to escort the young man back to the state institution, where he will be compelled to go to school whether he wants to or not. The school authorities have had trouble in keeping this lad as well as several others in school and have frequently had to secure the services of the police to round them up as the boys refuse to obey their parents, and this has gone so far in this case that it was thought best to have the boy placed where he could be looked after better. The others who have the habit of skipping school should look out, before they get into a similar mess of it.

ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF WIFE DESERTION

From Saturday's Daily.

Sheriff C. D. Quinton was at Weeping Water yesterday to look after Allen Capton, who is wanted at Concordia, Kas., charged with wife desertion, and brought the man back with him to this city where he will remain until the authorities from Kansas can come up and secure him. The case seems quite mixed up from the statements of Mr. Capton who claims that after his wife departed for Kansas last spring, he later joined her there and that the wife refused to live with him and that after remaining there a short time he left his wages with her and returned to Nebraska where he has since been employed near Weeping Water. Just what the outcome of the matter will be it is hard to state but if the facts as stated are true it seems as though Mr. Capton was not to blame in the matter. The family resided at Weeping Water prior to going to Kansas and are well known in that section of the country.

A CARD OF THANKS.

I thank the people of Nebraska for the splendid vote of confidence given me at the polls on Tuesday.

My re-election to the United States senate in the face of a very desperate fight against me by powerful leaders, comes as a welcome vindication.

I thank, first of all, the democratic and independent newspapers of Nebraska which have given me most generous and effective support, including several published in foreign languages.

I thank particularly the representative democrats of every county in the state who supported me so generally and so ably. I thank the great rank and file of democrats all over the state who supported me as a matter of principle. I thank my friends of other parties who on personal grounds gave me their support. I thank the people of Omaha and Douglas county who have again given me the strong proof of the good will and approval of the folks at home. Indeed from the bottom of my grateful heart, after a hard fight, I thank everyone who has helped me and I only regret that I cannot do it personally in each case.

GILBERT M. HITCHCOCK.
