

For Your Thanksgiving Table!

"How to make my Thanksgiving dinner look good as well as taste good," is a problem you have to meet once a year, and one which deserves a little time and consideration since we have this year so many things for which to be thankful.

If you have postponed the purchase of your table linen, now is the time to get it before the selections become less complete and, if you will pardon us for mentioning it, before prices get higher; for as you know, linens are very scarce.

VILLA UPRISING PLOT CHECKED

Former Soldiers With Bandit Leader Are Arrested in Juarez.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 12.—A plot hatched among members of the Mexican defacto garrison at Juarez to overthrow the Carranza military control of the border town and turn it over to Villistas, was checked Saturday when sixty soldiers of the customs guard were taken into custody and disarmed. Carranza officials announced that all were formerly under Pancho Villa, but were granted amnesty when his power waned. Residents were warned to leave the streets by 10 o'clock. Early in the day a Carranza cavalry detachment marched to the river and took the guards at the Mexican end of the international bridge to the customs house, where they are being held. Alberto Chavez, commandant of the fiscal division, is reported also in custody.

Several volleys of shots across the Rio Grande river were plainly heard, but the cause of the disturbance is as yet unknown. Carranza officials do not admit any knowledge of the firing.

TUMULTY SENDS WILSON NEW FIGURES ON ELECTION

Washington, D. C., Nov. 11.—Secretary Tumulty today sent the following telegram to President Wilson at Williamstown, Mass.: "More complete returns show that you have received the largest vote ever cast for a candidate for the presidency. You have received nearly a million more votes than were cast for both Taft and Roosevelt in 1912. Your gain over 1912 is three times as much as was ever gained by a president running for re-election."

REV. HALSEY AT THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH SUNDAY

Yesterday morning the pulpit at the Presbyterian church was occupied by the Rev. W. N. Halsey of Omaha in the absence of the pastor, Rev. H. G. McClusky, who was called to New York by the death of his father last Thursday. The sermon given was a very able one and at the conclusion of the services a congregational meeting was held and at which it was voted unanimously to raise the salary of the rector to $100 per month. This act was a little surprise on the part of the members of the congregation for their minister and he will be notified of the action of the congregation on his return from the east. Rev. H. G. McClusky has been a great aid in the rebuilding of the church and his efforts have shown a devotion to the best interests of the faith of his congregation and the recognition given him has been well deserved.

APPRECIATION OF SUPPORT.

I desire to express my deepest appreciation to my friends in Cass county for their splendid support at the election on November 7th for my candidacy for 60th representative. Their aid and assistance will be long remembered and it will be my most earnest desire to represent them in a satisfactory manner in the legislature.

Steger of the St. Paul's church who performed the ceremony in a very impressive manner and at its conclusion the newly weds returned to their home in the metropolis.

"HEARTS OF MEN," AT THE GEM TUESDAY

A picture that makes a strong appeal to women and children who, after all, supply the greater part of patrons of motion picture theaters is "Hearts of Men," based upon a story written by the world-famous music composer and author, Charles K. Harris. This picture was originally entitled "School Bells," but it was found expedient to abandon the title and substitute the one which it now bears. Although there is a great deal of grown-up drama in this picture, interest will chiefly be seen, we think, in the juvenile part of the feature. The producer has called upon the services of a great many very pretty children—not merely pretty, but clever actors and actresses. In the school scenes, the loves and hatreds, the jealousies and the flatteries and the other incidents of juvenile life, which we look back upon with a smile, gave Mr. Peckroth the opportunity of making some very pretty and thrilling scenes. You get all the comedy, drama and pathos of a mixed school of pretty children.

The principal part of the photoplay concerns itself with a feud of a couple of German immigrants, one of whom robbed the other across the Atlantic. It is by the agency of a small child of one of them that they are brought together again, to fight their battles over again; but in the end the two long-sundered friends are brought together again by the kindly offices of the little children who show themselves potent enough to touch the "Hearts of Men."

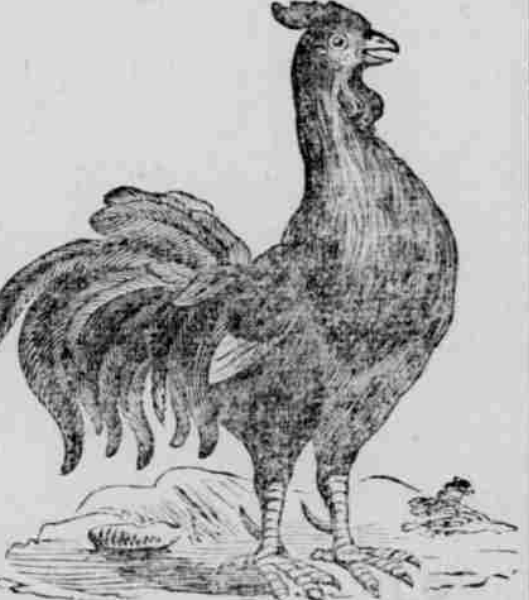

It is a very gracefully directed picture and a whole lot of natural action that goes straight to the heart. Arthur Donaldson and Beulah Poynter are the hero and heroine of this picture, and there are some very clever little children, who, as time goes on, are probably destined to achieve stellar ranks in motion picture dramatic work.

"Hearts of Men" will be shown at the Gem next Tuesday night.
