CHANGE OUR DAY IN MURRAY.

For the past ten years or more we have been making Murray on Wednesday of each week for the purpose of soliciting such business as might be in our line. In order to print the Semi-Weekly Journal a few hours earlier than has been the custom in the past, we will be compelled to make our trip to Murray on Tuesday, and the paper will be printed Thursday morning in place of in the evening. We have a number of helpers who have been sending us news items in the past, and hope they will continue in the same old way, only get them to us one day earlier.

Mrs. Celthea Uhley will be at home next week.

Dr. J. B. Jackson was in Omaha Monday to meet with the interior commission by which he was retained as a member of the Omaha Presbytery of the United Presbyterian church. He also formally accepted the call from the Murray congregation and arrangements were made for his installation as pastor at a date to be fixed later.

Last week we made mention of Zack Shrader shipping 480 head of his sheep to the South Omaha market, and this week are able to state that Mr. Shrader topped the market with this shipment, receiving almost 12c for them. Mr. Shrader says this was a lucky bunch of feeders for him and he did well on them. He has placed an order for 1,000 more of the same kind.

The fine new farm residence of Glen Perry, north of Murray, on the Plattsmouth road, is moving right along at this time, and begins to show signs of early completion. When completed this will be one of the finest farm homes in Cass county, modern and up-to-date in every particular, well constructed and of the best material. It will be a home handsome, comfortable and commodious, and located on one of the finest farms in the county. There will be none better than the Glen Perry home.

The evangelistic services already announced to be held in the United Presbyterian church began yesterday evening and will continue each evening through next week. Rev. W. M. Jackson, of Topeka, Kas., will preach each evening, also next Sabbath morning. It is probable that he will also preach an appropriate sermon on Thanksgiving. All who can attend these services will be welcome.

MRS. MARGARET A. SHRYDER.

This estimable Christian woman was called to her final home November 14th, 1916, her death occurring about noon of that day at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. A. Young, about five miles west of Murray.

Margaret A. Parr was born in Ireland, October 1, 1833. Her parents came to America while she was a child, locating in Peoria County, Ill., where January 4, 1852 she was united in marriage to George F. Shryder. In 1856 they located near what was then known as Three Groves in this county. Six children were born to them, three dying in childhood. Those living are Mrs. L. H. Young and Mrs. R. A. Young, both residing near Murray, and George L. Shryder, residing in Portland, Ore.

"Grandma Shryder," as she was lovingly called by her relatives and friends, possessed a kindly, cheerful disposition, which combined with a trustful, childlike faith in her Saviors, helped her to bear the suffering during the months of illness previous to her death. On October 15, 1864 she united with the Rock Bluffs, now Murray, United Presbyterian congregation, and continued her membership and support of that congregation to the close of her life, although unable for several years to attend services at the church.

Besides her three children, eight grand-children, twelve great grand-children, one brother and many nieces and nephews are living to hold her in loving remembrance.

Thursday, November 16, 1916, the funeral services of Mrs. Shryder were held in the United Presbyterian church at Murray, and were conducted by Rev. J. B. Jackson, D. D., the pastor of that church. Her body was placed beside that of her husband in the Buck cemetery, near the farm where they resided when they first came to this state.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH NOTES.

Remember that the Bible school begins promptly at 10 a. m. Try to be present.

All church members are urged to attend the morning worship and hear the sermon on "Christian Growth."

The evening topic will be "Christ Manifesting His Glory."

The Ladies' Aid Society will give their annual bazaar on Saturday the 25th. Dinner will be served. Everybody come.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold their annual bazaar on December 9th. Many fancy articles will be offered for sale, and a market will be conducted in connection.

Owing to the present season being a very busy one for all interested parties, there will be no regular monthly meeting of the Library Association this month.

BIG SHOOTING MATCH.

A big shooting match for forty turkeys will be held on Monday, November 27th at 1:30 p. m. at the home of E. R. Queen, eight miles south of Plattsmouth and four miles east of Murray. A fine chance to secure a fine turkey. w2t d2t

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank all who so kindly assisted at the funeral of our dear mother, and especially the choir for their rendition of the twenty-third Psalm, as it was one of the favorites of my late father, Geo. L. Shryder, whose funeral occurred fourteen years ago, on the same date as that of our mother.

MR. AND MRS. L. H. YOUNG.

Miss Bertha Nickles was an Omaha visitor Wednesday.

Get your ready on, and hike for Lewiston for the Thanksgiving dinner.

Miss Pearl Dugay was taking examinations at Nebraska City Friday, and spent the week-end with relatives at Union.

Mrs. Frank Albin of Creighton, Neb., arrived for an extended visit with her father, Wm. Nickles and family.

H. C. Creamer and Mark White were passengers for South Omaha on Tuesday, where they had a car of stock on the market.

Mr. and Mrs. Rouse entertained at dinner Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Davis, Elton and Genevieve Davis, Miss Alton and Floyd Rouse.

John Hobschiedt, sr., moved his household effects to Plattsmouth Monday, where he and his family will make their home in the future.

Lloyd Gapen was looking after some matters of business in the county seat Tuesday afternoon. He was a pleasant caller at the Journal office, and we noticed that he was clad in one of the finest fur overcoats that we have seen in many a day, and Lloyd seemed more than proud and pleased with it, as it was a birthday present from his wife and children.

Turkey dinner at Lewiston November 30. The ladies of the K. N. K. are in readiness for their annual Thanksgiving dinner at Lewiston. Service at 11 a. m. by Rev. W. A. Taylor. Dinner will be served promptly at 12 o'clock; the Lewiston school children will give a short program in the afternoon; a nice line of needle work will be on display in the bazaar booth; also, home-made candies, pop corn, peanuts and ice cream. The ladies have left nothing undone for the pleasure and comfort of the large crowd which attends each year. An oyster supper will be served from 6:20 to 8 p. m. The community is cordially invited to come and take part in the Thanksgiving celebration. Any donation of food will be gratefully received.
