

fair-fair at least as I see it by my standards, and they are better standards than yours. You've come dictating to me, ordering me to slip a knife into their backs. Are you that kind of listen again, and listen well, for I

"I want that railroad if the man who is building it is too weak to keep me from taking it away from him. But if I don't get it on such a basis I'll know that there is a man at the head of it who is big enough to take care of my share of it. Have you got that?

melodrama if you want to. Steal his

"It is wonderful-wonderful-wonderful!"

come pear me again with a request that I-don't you ever let me kear you vited. "I'll be watching, don't doubt that. And I know how much you want to win. It's a bigger stake than

The same day that more than half of O'Mara's men went on strike and deserted to the reserve company's pay roll the news reached Allison that a trainload of laborers had been shot types of laborers which Steve himself had warned Elliott would not last an hour in the event of trouble. For men who believed that the river was i man merely by bidding him good morn-a look at his winter cut," Joe would in to take their places-those very threaten that you'- most folks realize!"

a sneak? Did you think I was? Now.

mean what I say!

CHAPTER XIX. Setting the Stage.

HERE are two interviews which should be mentioned here if for no other reason than merely because they were both so entirely the outcome of Miss Sarah's Christmas party. Neither of them was long. The last one which took place between Wickersham and the girl he was to marry was the briefr of the two. But her prettily serious argument that the 1st of May was too early a date for their wedding in view of the work which he had to do and her own state of unpreparedness left him so white of face that she felt | Very well. And now go back to your guiltly sorry for him for many days to follow-felt guiltier still at the relief she experienced when she had established that reprieve. The other interview was longer and took place days earlier, but it was no more of a delight to Archibald Wickersham. Dexter Allison had returned home almost a week in advance of his daughter, pleading stress of business, but in spite of the demands upon his time and attention he had found it impossible to forget the night of the dinner, when he had watched his daughter's eyes upon Stephen O'Mara's face.

He had been troubled more than a little since his Christmas trip to Morrison. The night Sefore New Year's Wickersham was announced at 9. He was thinking of Barbara's mother when he beckoned his guest to a chair, shook his head over his red cheeks and offered a cigar.

"Devilish cold weather," he grunted none too graciously, for he had not wanted to be disturbed just then.

The younger man admitted that it was. His mind plainly was not upon the weather, but he found difficulty in introducing a topic of his own choosing. Outspokenness had never been one of Archie Wickersham's boldest characteristics, so Allison assisted him now. Allison liked a man to be outspoken:

"Well," he demanded, "let's hear it, What's on your mind?"

There are times when hatred will betray almost any man. Hatred now led Wickersham to speak not wisely, but with venom.

"I want you to refuse to renew your name on the East Coast notes." he said. They are due on the second."

Few men had ever said "I want you to" to Dexter Allison and, as he put it "got away with it to any great extent." And of all nights this one in particular was the least likely to prove propitious for such an attempt. That was Wickersham's oversight.

"So!" said Dexter, "So! Well, now for your reason."

Wickersham had not learned until after Barbara's departure that she was spending the holidays in Morrison, for he had himself expected to be away. And it is only fair to the girl to say that she had honestly forgotten to apprise him of her plan, in her real excitement at going, but finding it out for himself had not made the fact any pleasanter to Wickersham.

"It should be clear enough without explanation"-he enunciated each word nicely-"if you want that road they are building."

Allison glanced up, surprised at the tone employed.

"Meaning of course I do," he mused.

"And yet-and yet I don't know!" Fear burned in the tall, thin man's eyes that night-fear that made his hatred for the absent man who was a week Allison wondered that there teaching him fear anything but a pret- was no clash between the displaced ty thing to watch. "I've tried to buy off their men." He | theirs alone and this new corps which was holding himself with an effort that | Garry Devereau was handling at the ninde him tremble. "I've held up their lower end of construction, not by physsupplies on every track that we con-jical prowess, as Fat Joe had ruled.

trol, but they've had the luck with but just as surely and all because, as them. They've made up lost time by Joe himself put it, he could damn a working day and night. I've"-"You've set a drunken fool to steal ing. his plans," drawled the other with deadly sarcasm, "like a second rate one night stand villain. Don't forget observe to his chief at supper at to mention that too!" His lounging | Thirty Mile, and before the night was | Hardwick Elliott's fine face peered told you about that woods rat, as you called him once? Did I tell you that he would fight? Well, listen, and listen was missing no chances.

Hattan, would have learned by wire in month, had started toward them, stiffly bureau. Lewis was shot in the back chances.

The police will endeavor to have the left surviving her as her sole and month, had started toward them, stiffly bureau. Lewis was shot in the back chances. body shifted a little.

closely, while I repeat it for you. He hasn't even warmed to it yet." his icy self control held firm. He did trip. "They are turning their atten- chanically. Allison quizzient, Elliott not break into vituperation this night. I tion to their float dams now."

He smiled, though his voice was only a whisper.

fore now in those woods," he husked. been no violence when the rivermen ing greedily at the piles. And in the evening train. "I'll win or I'll see that he lies and rots in one of his own sink holes." A big voice is a wonderful weapon at times. Allison's booming bass made | years, but mile by mile that month the river. They were singing "Harrigan, Wickersham's threat seem only mean and hollow when the heavy man leap- | the north under the urgings of Garry's ed to his feet and shook a finger under smooth voice. The snowfall for Febthat high bridged nose.

"No, you won't!" he snapped. "No, period, but Steve, with his handful of you won't! And if I didn't know, after men at Thirty Mile, put his piling hearing you talk, that you haven't stuff down. And then it rained-it rained enough in you to be dangerous I'd fix until small brooks ran torrents and you so you'd be in no condition to the river tumbled white and thunderbushwhack anybody for the next six ous its entire length. months. I'm in a bad mood tonight. The snow went off the last of March F. Nickels.

that spring, and the gorges could not carry away the water. The sun turned summer hot. It burned the higher ridges dry while the valleys still lay hidden in flood. It was August tem perature the third Sunday in April, when Stephen O'Mara stood and watched beneath the giare of kerosene torches his bridge at Thirty Mile go into position between dark and dawn.

There was no man among them that day who did not show upon his face the strain they had been under. They were few, they were unshaven and dirty and lean as hungry hounds, but they were the men whom Steve had once bidden Hardwick Eiliott to watch, once they had begun to scent combat. Fat Joe was no longer plump. Steve was worn down to actual thinness. And it would have taken a caretheir ranks that Sunday. The huge timbers had dropped into place like bits of jig sawed puzzle. At 3 in the afternoon, too tired both in body and soul for elation, Steve watched them drive home the last spike and heard their hoarse effort at a cheer. He had turned to start toward his the end of a well nigh hopeless task is in sight, but like a beaten man. The 1st of May meant more to Steve than any clause of the East Coast companot had even one letter since he put her upon her train. Wickersham's appearance on horseback at the head of the valley, picking his way around the flooded meadow, halted him in his azain. "That bridge will have to go down!" Wickersham was breathing hard, for all that he had been riding. "I am going through with my drive to-

He had dismounted. Steve smiled at

"You're a whole week previous, Wickersham," he said wearily, "I'll be signaling for your first load of logs n less than sixty hours."

Archibald Wickersham wished that ne could have believed it impossible, for it would have given him courage day afternoon, from the amount of and lent conviction to his stand. But ammunition found in Murphy's room he knew just how fast those few te- the police believe their intention origmaining miles of open roadbed would be spanned. His eyes were furtive. There was no body to his voice.

"My men are on the banks," he blustered. "My first head of logs has started down. It's too late to argue lation to the dead bandit, said she die now-too late for your promises that not know the men were engaged in ing blanched his cheeks. "I cannot wait for a miracle to be performed. My timber must come out on this flood.

Stephen O'Mara had whipped him once, but men had interfered. This day chance or destiny or fate-whatever you may choose to call it-saved men if he will let you. Fight him him from destruction. The lean and every inch of his construction-that is | weary man who had not been out of your job-and I'll still insist that it is his clothes for three days and three his fault if he is tardy on the 1st of nights, save for a plunge in the ica May. But it's you and O'Mara from river, had taken his first step forward now on, Archie. I'll be a spectator when the whistle screamed a nearer warning. now. And, by gad, don't you ever She had told him that she would come to see the finish of his gave, but he had long since stopped believing Allison's face was suffused before he that. And now when she stood and finished, and Wickersham, astounded waved her hand at him from the brass past utterance, slid from his chair railed observation platform of Alliaway from that flourishing hand which son's private car which a switch enhad become a fist. It was no scene gine, out of patience with the grade, to take place between a man and his was shunting across the lower end of prospective son-in-law. Realizing that, the clearing he could only stand and

Allison tried to laugh deprecatingly at stare dully, no faith in his eyes. The loud plaid of her father's garb

"Honey crossed north today to have "Are you that kind of a sneak? Did you think I was?"

many hours older Allison, too, in Man- over his shoulder. And Wickersham,

"They have now finished hauling Steve said to her. "This is no place for their logs to the river," Joe told Steve you."

Wickersham went yellow at that, but one night after a prolonged scouting He shook hands with the men, meconcerned. He went back to his bridge. the big man who never ceased to the last few minutes some one-Pat intending, according to relatives, to of them, may be dispensed with, and watch he understood why there had loo perform told his pensed with.

north the ominous murmur had be-It was the bitterest January that come a rhythmic rear. the hill country had known in twenty | Wickersham's men were driving the twin line of steel crept steadily into That's Me!"

(To Be Continued.)

ruary broke all records for half that RED POLL REGISTERED STOCK.

Those who spoke for calves, please In the letter to her mother, Mrs. Court may enter a decre as asked. call at my home between now and De- Davis wrote that she had taken the By the court. ALLEN J. BEESON, cember 1st and get them. Some are trip by automobile at the last minute, Judge of County Court of Cass County, registered and some are grades. A. and after arriving at Kansas City had GERALD M. DREW.

Mrs. Anna-Doyle-Davis Held in St. Louis as Companion of John J. Davis.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 24 .- The beautiful dream of Mrs. Anna Doyle-Davis was killed, has nine brothers and sisful eye to have selected the chief from of 2729 Douglas street, Omaha, that ters living in Omaha, and his mother. she would regain her broken health by Mrs. Hannah Davis, 1512 North an open-air tour of eastern Kansas and Twenty-eighth street. Charles Kling-Missouri in an automobile, was shat- er, Dodge street saloonkeeper and tered today when she was arrested in brother-in-law of the slain man, has a room at 3141 Washington avenue, as gone to St. Louis to bring the body he companion of John Joseph Davis, here for burial. shack, not like a man who knows that | Omaha, and Charles English, alias | April on suspicion of being connected ny's contract could convey. He had death of the former and the serious tana. Neighbors of the Davis family wounding of his companion.

which she said had been occupied by Davis left. ter and English. In another room heavy footed climb. A whistle shrill-ed far to the south of them, down the the police found a satchel containing WORLD-HERALD IS completed track. And then, after ten a large coil of fuse, several dynamite years and more, they were face to face | caps, a bottle which had apparently contained nitroglycerin and sixteen artridges of 38 caliber.

> Murphy was shot down in his tracks luring the holdup by Sergeant John Flaharty of the Laclede station, and Although the bandits reached St. English and Mrs. Davis, only last Suninally was not to do any holdup work but devote their attention to safes.

No Relation to Dead Bandit. Mrs. Davis, who claims to be no re had met English about two months ago in a chop-sucy resort in Omaha and had seen him two or three times

"We left Omaha a week ago last ime English asked me if I would like trip would do me good.

left Omaha, and we spent four days list. in Kansas City. I did not have any reason to believe that the men were anything like crime before me.

"We obtained rooms at 3241 Wash- a short visit with the publisher. ngton avenue.

"When I reached here I decided that had made a mistake, and English old me to go home. I had packed up my clothes and was ready to depart Wednesday night, when he induced me to remain with him a while longer. I did remain over last night, but had fully made up my mind that I would go today or tomorrow."

Mrs. Davis said she was married, but estranged from her husband for the last two years, during which time she and her 4-year-old child lived with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Blanche Northcutt, Bertha L. Crabill and Charles H. Kennedy, all now of Doyle. She declared that she had not the faintest idea of the profession of her companions, believing English to be the son of a wealthy father, who had promised to "set him up" in business, as he put it to her.

English remained at the city hospital today, a prisoner. The body of Murphy was unclaimen at the morgue.

Left Omaha Three Weeks Ago. Mrs. Anna Doyle-Davis left Omaha three weeks ago. She packed her

The next the relatives heard of her was last Saturday, when her mother, o Mrs. Edward Doyle, received a registered letter from Kanzas City. In the 11-20-2twkly decided not to go on to Hot Springs. W. Bldg., Omaha.

She wrote that she would be home in few days.

Mrs. Davis has been ill forseveral years. Only last September she underwent an operation at the Lister hospital, arrording to her father.

Davis Was Neighbor. "I am sure my daughter did not know that the automobile was stolen," said her father last night. She did not know John Davis, who was killed, although he lived only a block from here. She has not been able to climb up the hill from the car line for a long time, and I have not seen her here for more than a year."

John Joseph Davis, the man who lation, but if you loose it is called 1512 North Twenty-eighth street, Davis was arrested in Omaha last John Alfred Lewis, whose attempt to with a gang of horse and automobile ob a drug store at 3201 Olive street thieves, but was released because of vesterday morning resulted in the lack of evidence. He went to Monsay that they saw him in Omaha three Mrs. Davis was arrested in a room | weeks ago, the day that Mrs. Anna

IN ANOTHER LAUD-ABLE MOVEMENT

The famous old "tow line" of the English, alias Lewis, was seriously Omaha World-Herald that has so often wounded by Francis J. Curran, 20 served to aid many good movements years old, night clerk at the drug is now extended in an effort to secure a Christmas treat for the boys of the Fourth and Fifth regiments doing Louis, according to the admission of patrol duty on the Mexican border and already is meeting with a very generous response. In order that the Plattsmouth people may have an opportunity to get in on the good work, Mr. M. S. Briggs, the local representative of the World-Herald is authorized to take care of all contributions that may be made in the aid of the Christmas fund. The boys on the border should have a big Christmas dinner as a gift from the great state of Nebraska and its citiens from their abundance can well afford to contribute a small sum to push the good work along. These 1,700 young men have given up their IN THE COLNTY OF CASS, NEBRASKA. home life, their business as bread Friday," said Mrs. Davis. "At the winners and their comforts to go to the front to defend their country and o take an automobile ride to Kansas protect those at home and it is fitting ity. I had been in poor health, hav- that they should be given this little ng gotten out of the hospital only a tribute of affection and good cheer. hort time before, and I thought the If you have any sum that you may desire to add to the fund that the World-"We arrived in Kansas City Sunday Harald is preparing, call on Mr. evening. English had $30 when we Briggs and add your amount to the and testament of said deseased, and admitted to probate and that Letters Henry Kehne, one of the old resirobbers. English was with me most dents of the vicinity of Manley, came of the time and they never talked in this morning on No. 4 to spend the day here visiting with his many "After remaining in Kansas City friends in the county seat and to look for four days it was suggested that after some matters at the court house. we go to St. Louis, and we took the While here Mr. Kline found time to overland trip here, arriving last Sun- call at the Journal office and renew his subscription, as well as to enjoy re estates of Ezekial W. Kennedy, Order for Hearing.

> COUNTY COURT OF CASS COUNTY, NEBRASKA.

Now on this 18th day of November D. 1916, comes Charles R. Kennedy I files his petition in this court all ing that Ezekini W. Kennedy, a rest unty. Nebraska, died intestate simple title to lot three (3) City of Plattsmonth value of $1,800.00 which was the mily, and that the said deceased left irs of law his widow, Almeda Kenand three children known as L egal age, and that no application has wor been made in the State of Neoraska, or elsewhere, for the appoint-nent of an administrator of said esgive claused since the death of said Ezekial W. Kennedy: that on the 15th ay of September, 1999, for a valuable obsideration, the three children above centioned quit-claimed all their right state to Almeda Kennedy; that on the fith day of April, 1916, Almeda Kenedy died intestate, seized in fee simple the above described real estate, and the said real estate above described in wholly exempt from attachment, execution or other mesne process, and is not liable for the payment of the debts of said decedents, or either of them. He prays the court for an order fixng time and place for a hearing upo-gid petition; that the regular ad Men have dropped out of sight be- watch he understood why there had Joe, perhaps—told him. It was suck- leave for Hot Springs, Ark., on an extens in said petition contained, and RDER Whereupon it is ordered and adjudged Platismouth, Cass County, Nebraska, letter were the trunk check and some estates may be notified of such hearing money to pay storage charges on the trunk. The mother had the trunk legal newspaper published for the successive weeks prior to said day of hearing in the Plattsmouth Journal, a county and State, and that if they fall feed.

Attorney for Petitioner, 1021 W. O.

NOTICE OF PROBATE OF WILL.

In the County Court of Cass County, State of Nebraska. In the Matter of the Estate of Hans Nielsen, deceased.
O William Nielsen, Sophia Nielsen, and il other persons interested in the estate of Harmon Bestor, deceased.
You are hereby notified that a petition of said deceased that hearings will not not be really said. To William Nielsen, Sophia Nielsen, and all other persons interested in the estate of Hans C. Nielsen, deceased.

You are hereby notified that a petition has been filed in the County Court of Cass county. Nebraska, praying for the allowance, and admission to probate, of a certain written instrument, now on file in said Court, purporting to be the last will and testament fo said deceased; that a hearing will be had upon said petition, before said Court, in the County Court Room, at Plattsmouth, in said County, on the 26th day of December, 1916, and or the 26th day of June, 1917, at 10 o'clock a. m., each das for examination, adjustment and allowance.

All claims must be filed in said court on or lock in the forenoon, and if you fail to appear at said time and place, and show cause, if any there be, why said how cause, if any there be, why said astrument should not be proved, alowed and admitted to probate, as the First publication-11-27-1916-4 wks. ast will and testament of said de-cased, and to show cause, if any there aid estate County Judge 11-6-3 wks weekly why the execution of said will, and ereof, the Court may allow and admit estamentary thereon, to said William e administration of said estate should REFEREE'S SALE.

In the District Court of Cass County. Nebraska.

Adolph Wesch, Plaintiff, vs. Katherine Teipel, et al., defendante, Notice of Sale.

Notice of Sale.

Notice is hereby given, that by virtue of an order entered on the 18th day of October, 1916, by the District Court of Cass County, Nebraska, in the foregoing entitled cause, I, the undersigned, sole referee appointed by said Court, will on the 27th day of November, 1916, at 10 o'clock, A. M. at the South door the Court House in the City of the Court House in the City of Plattsmouth, in Cass County, Nebraska, offer for sale, to the highest bidder for eash, all of Lots One (1) and Two (2) in block Eighteen (18) in Young & lays' Addition to Plattsmouth, Cass Nebraska.

Dated: Plattsmouth, October 21, 1916. Wm. A. ROBERTSON Referee.

JNO. M. LEYDA, Atty. for Plaintiff. 10-23-5 weeks.

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF THE COUNTY OF CASS, NEBRASKA.

In the matter of the estate of James H. Cassity, deceased.

Notice is hereby given to all per-ons interested in the above entitled state that the administratrix of said state filed her petition asking the court enter its order ascertaining who all f the heirs of said estate are, and also nter its order allowing and approv-ng her final account filed with said petition, and for the distribution of the esidue of the estate in her hands to persons as are by law entitled

A hearing on said petition and account will be had at the office of the County Judge, Plattsmouth, Cass County, Nebraska, on the 27th day of

ALLEN J. BEESON.

County Judge. A. RAWLS. Attorney. First publication, Monday, November 29, 1916, I week.

In Re Estate of John Kelly, deceased. Notice. To Mary Kelly, widow, Maggi- Shee-an, John Kelly, Edward Kelly, Nellie ily, William Kelly and to all persons lition has been filed in the above court alleging that John Kelly, a resident and I requesting that an instrument filed rewith be allowed as the last will estamentary issue to Mary Kelly and William Sheehan, respectively names executrix and executor thereof: that a bearing will be had upon said petition at the office of the County Judge, Cour House, Plattsmouth, Cass County, Nebraska, on December 11th, 1916, at ections thereto must be filed and at which time orders will be entered in a cordance with the findings of the cour By the court this 10th day of November, A. D., 1916, ALLEN J. BEESON, W. A. Robertsoon, First publication, Nov. 20, 1916. 2 wks

> LEGAL NOTICE. In the County Court.

State of Nebraska,

In the Matter of the Estate of Adam Kurtz, deceased.

All persons interested in said estat re hereby notified that on the 14t praying that his final administration account filed herein be settled and al lowed, that he be discharged from hi trust as administrator, and that th real estate and the residue of the per-sonal property be assigned to the persons entitled thereto by law. That a hearing will be had upon said report and petition before this Court in the Court House, at Plattsmouth, in said County, on the 11th day of December, 1916, and that if you fail to appear before said Court on said 11th day of December, 1916, at ten o'clock A. M. and contest said petition, the Court may grant the prayer of said petition and make such other and further orders, illowances and decrees as to this allowances and decrees as to this Court may seem proper, to the end that all matters pertaining to said estate may be finally settled and determined.

Witness my hand and the seal of the County Court of said County this 16th day of November, A. D., 1916.

ALLEN J. BEESON.

County Ludge.

County Judge. First publication November 29, 1916.

Milk in Winter.

Why do your cows give less milk in winter than they do in summer? Just because nature does not supply them with grasses and green food. But we have come to the assistance of Dame Nature with B. A. Thomas' Stock Remedy which contains the very ingredients that the green feed supplies in season, only, of course, in a more highly concentrated form. We guarantee that this ment of said sum and no suit at law has remedy will make your cows give more been instituted to recover said dentitherefore I will sell the property

H. M. Soennichsen. Puls & Gansemer.

CREAM, 37c, at Dawson's store, Plattsmouth.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

ALLEN J. BEESON.

LEGAL NOTICE. at be granted, and letters testa-entary issued to William Nielsen, who nominated in said will, as executor widewer, hove Johnson and Myrtle will to probate, and issue letters mentary thereon, to said William son, widover, Emma Coleman and Wilsen, and proceed to a said William son, widover, Emma Coleman and Wilsen, and proceed to a said William son, widover, Emma Coleman and Wilsen. telsen, and proceed to a settlement of aid estate.

Dated this 4th day of November, 1916.

ALLEN J. BEESON. Carter and Peter Carter, for hisband, William S. Bethel and Hattie Bettel, his wife, Estey Paul, widow, Roy Paul and Mrs. Roy Paul, treal name unknown) his wife, Itoy Bowman and Mrs. Roy Bowman (real name unknown) his wife, Kate Zeigler and Alva Zeigler, her husband, Amelia B. lark, widow, Margaret Clark, single, ulu Clark Cook and F. M. Cook, ker usband, Bertin Clark Lyon and T. L. on, ber husband, Francis H. Loomis, in Loomis, widower, Frank Bethel d Mrs. Frank Bethel (real name un-Charles Bethel and his helps evisces, legatees, personal representa-ves and all persons interested to his state, D. C. Peakson, also known as-stan C. Pearson, D. Mattida Fearson, dalasky, P. Pearson, elaska B. Pearson, Rosa B. Pearson

ortheast n tounship claiming to bave a terest therein, Le

You, and each of thed that Otto F. P. as filed an action again f you, with others. ulet and confirm in the tescribed real estate, to in the southwest quarter of the Cass east quarter of section 20; County, Nebraska, on the 27th day of east quarter of the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter of the southeast quar clock A. M.

Dated this 17th day of November, east quarter of the southeast quarter of section 20; the southwest quarter section 21; the southwest quarter of north east quarter of section 21, and be northwest quarter of se township 12, range 9, Cass County Nebraska; to correct certain irregularities in the record title to said real title to said real estate, and to perand anyone claiming by, through or inder you, or any of you, from every laiming or asserting any right to or nterest in said real estate, or any part percof, or the possession thereof, and or general equitable relief. That service upon you, and each of ou, was authorized by an order of the District Court for Cass County, No-You are required to answer said no tition on or before Monday, December 25, 1916, or said title will be quieted and the relief granted as prayed.

OTTO F. PETERS, B. E. HENDRICKS, Atty.,

First publication 11-13-1916, 4 Weeks,

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

In the matter of the estate of Laura-

In the County Court. Notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased that hearings will be rad upon claims filed against said es-ate, before me, County Judge of Cass County, Nebraska, at the County Court oom in Plattsmouth, in said County, on the 11th day of December, 1916 and on the 12th day of June, 1917 at 10 yelock A. M., each day for examination.

djustment and allowance.
All claims must be filed in said court. n or before said last hour of hearing. Witness my hand and seal of said County Court, at Plattemouth, Nebraska this 10th day of November, 1316, ALLEN J. BEESSON, (Sea1.) First publication 11-13-1916.

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF THE COUNTY OF CASS, MEBRASKA

n the matter of the extate of William M. Standley, deceased. ate, creditors, and heirs, take nor hat Ulysses G. Standley, has filed etition, alleging that William M Standley, died intestate in Cass County Nebraska, on or about the 11th day of Detober, 1885, being a resident and in abitant of Cass County, Nebraska, and the owner of the following described Southwest quarter of section thirty (30) township ten (19) range nine (2) east 6th P. M. Cass county, Nebraska; following named children; Standley Florence H. Standle aw, daughter; Dick R. Standley, sor are now of lawful age, and prying for a decree barring claims; That said decedent died intestate;

That no application for administration as been made, and the estate of sale e State of Nebraska, and that the sirs at law of said decedent as herein set forth should be decreed to be the owners in fee simple of the above described real estate, which has been set for hearing on the 4th day of December,

By the Court: ALLEN J. BEESON, First publication, 11-13-1916, 2 suc-

CHATTEL MORTGAGE SALE.

Notice is given that by virtue of a Thattel Mortgage, dated August 25th, 1915, and filed in office of County Merk of Cass County, Nebraska, on the same date, executed by George W. Olsen and wife and now due thereon $52.55: Default has been made in paymilk, and better milk with the same therein described, viz: 1 bay mare, age 10 years, weight 900 pounds, named "Nellie." 1 Express wagen and single "Nellie." I Express wagon and single harness, at public auction at 5th and Main streets in Plattsmouth on the 5th day of December, 1916, at 1 o'clock p.

D. O. DWYER,

9-19-d&wtf Dated November 15, 1916. Mortgages. First publication, Nov. 16, 1916. 3 wks.