The elevators received a couple of cars the first of the week and were able to take in a little more of the high priced corn.

The coffee given by Mesdames D. A. Young, Warren Wiley, L. L. Alix, Pauline and Fay Oldham and Elizabeth Hall was well attended and netted the library the largest fund of any given thus far this season.

Oldham's shipped hogs into three states Thursday of last week. The shipment comprised eight head of pure bred Durocs. They have resold all but three customers of last year which is evidence that their hogs have pleased. They have enlarged their foundation herd almost one-half, adding some of the best blood in the state and are planning on a large increase in their sales next year.

The recent car shortage on the M. P. has certainly placed the farmers of this community to a great disadvantage in the way of disposing of their grain. The elevators have been full, and at the present rate of receiving cars, about one per week, they will remain in this condition for some time. The farmers, who want to deliver their corn while the weather and roads were good have been delayed and now in the disagreeable weather they will be compelled to market their grain to a great disadvantage. Our railroads are certainly badly in need of more efficient equipment.

UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH ITEMS.

The Sabbath school will meet at the usual hour, and be followed by an appropriate sermon from the pastor. He will also preach at 7:30 in the evening.

The Sabbath school will have an entertainment Christmas evening and the children will receive a treat of candies, nuts, etc. Mrs. Dr. Jackson who was called to Waterloo, Ia., last week by the illness of a daughter, expects to return home by Friday morning at the latest. Her daughter goes this week to a sanatorium at Albuquerque, N. M. The daughter's husband, Rev. M. G. Munn, who is pastor of the First United Presbyterian church of Waterloo, will accompany his wife to Albuquerque, and see that she is comfortably located in the sanatorium where she will remain for several months.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH NOTES.

The Christmas exercises by the children will take place on Saturday evening at 7:30.

The pastor will preach the Christmas sermon Sunday morning. The topic will be "The Sky Anthem." We will try to make this a helpful and inspiring service.

The evening subject will be, "Solomon, a Magnificent Failure." This subject will be of peculiar interest to young men. All are invited to attend. E. C. DAVIS, Pastor.

MRS. MORFORD FALLS AND IS SERIOUSLY HURT

Mrs. John Morford Fell When Starting to School This Morning, Fracturing Both Limbs.

From Tuesday's Daily.

This morning Mrs. John Morford, who is teaching school in the Amick district west of Mynard, was the victim of a serious accident that occurred as she was starting from the home of Mrs. Dave Amick where she was boarding for her school some distance away. As Mrs. Morford stepped from the door she slipped on the stone step which was covered with snow and fell with considerable force onto the hard surface of the step and in so doing broke both bones of the left leg.

Medical aid was at once summoned and Dr. G. H. Gilmore, of Murray, who was called to the scene reduced the fracture and made the patient as comfortable as possible under the circumstances. It seems that the step upon which she fell was made from the top of a billiard table and was worn very smooth and slick and with the coating of snow made a dangerous object to step upon. The injured lady remained at the Amick home until this afternoon when her husband, accompanied by Dr. O. E. Liston of Elmwood, motored over and took her back home to Elmwood, where she will remain until the injured limbs are so that she can be up and around again. The accident will be greatly regretted by the friends of this estimable lady in the locality where she has been teaching as she has been having great success in the school and the accident will force her to abandon the work for some time at least.

WILL STOKES IS HERE FROM ALBERTA, CANADA

From Tuesday's Daily.

Will Stokes, for a number of years a resident of the vicinity of Murray, and a brother of Thomas and A. R. Stokes of this city, arrived last night from his home in Alberta, Canada, to spend a short time in this county with his relatives and friends. Mr. Stokes has been very successful since his removal to Canada and has a fine farm near Calgary, in Alberta, which is one of the best in that section of the great northwest. He finds that farming in that country while different from that of Nebraska and the United States is one that is very successful and the yield of the crops has been quite heavy. He has been residing in Canada for the past five years. Mr. Stokes will visit in this city and at Murray over the holidays.

FUNERAL OF MRS. ARMILDA MINFORD

Funeral services for Mrs. Armilda Minford will be held at the family residence, 1621 Sycamore street, at 3 p. m. today. Interment will take place Monday at Eight Mile Grove cemetery, near Plattsmouth. Mrs. Minford survived her husband, Robert J. Minford, four years. Both lived to the age of eighty years. Seven years ago they celebrated their golden wedding. Robert J. Minford and Armilda Searl were married in 1859 at Webster, O., and went at once to Portsmouth, where they made their home. During the civil war Mr. Minford went to the front and served two years in the Twenty-second Ohio volunteers; at home Mrs. Minford was bearing uncomplainingly the burden of managing a home and caring for two small children. In 1870 Mr. and Mrs. Minford moved to Nebraska and located on a farm in Cass county. There they endured the many vicissitudes of pioneer life and kept open a friendly door for the stranger and the few neighbors who were also battling for an existence. Cheerful and optimistic, they fought thru the many difficulties and succeeded in acquiring sufficient land to take care of them in their declining years. In 1895 they moved to Lincoln, where they spent their last days. Six children survive them: W. N. Minford, of Elmwood; Mrs. Mary M. Davis and W. H. Minford of Lincoln; G. M. Minford of Murray; Mrs. Iva Ireland of Berlin and I. L. Minford of Los Angeles.—Lincoln State Journal.

Ben Noel has received his draft this week in payment of the policy Mrs. Noel held in the Royal Neighbor's lodge for which he is very thankful to the company for prompt settlement.
