

OWEN DEFIES THE SUPREME COURT

Senator Owen Defies Judiciary to Question His Remarks About its Authority.

Washington, Jan. 7.—Declaring he would start a row that would shake the continent, Senator Owen of Oklahoma tonight defied the supreme court of the United States to summon him for contempt of court for his utterance before the national popular government league, that it was "unparalleled impudence" for the court to declare unconstitutional any act of congress.

"Let them dare to summon me," Senator Owen declared to a United Press representative, "and I will start a row that will shake this continent to its very foundation."

"The supreme court," Owen said, "is usurping the power it now arrogates to itself in overruling enactments of congress—the chosen representatives of the people. These nine men were never given this power under the constitution."

Owen will introduce a bill in the senate "soon" shearing the court of its power to overrule acts of congress, he said.

Urging that the court be short of its power to overrule the action of congress, Owen declared that at such action the courts should "ipso facto cease to exist."

Urging a "gateway amendment" to the constitution to facilitate its popular amendment, Justice R. M. Wainwright of the supreme court of Ohio, denounced "our traditional worship of the constitution."

"We have long worshipped at the shrine of the constitution. What is, is right—this is the creed of the obstructionists and reactionaries; what is, is all wrong—that is the creed of the revolutionists; whatever is, is right—or wrong, according as it squares with reason—this is the policy of the true progressive—with a call 'p' if you please."

Wainwright declared also in favor of releasing several judges from their benches three months in every year. "That they may keep in touch with the pulse of the common people."

The "gateway amendment" proposal would provide for an amendment of the constitution on a favorable vote of a majority of the electorate in a majority of the congressional districts. The amendment could be initiated by either house of congress, or any ten state legislatures.

TWO MORE TOWNS DOOMED TO FALL

Teuton Advance in Rumania Forces Russ Out of Galatz and Focsani.

London, Jan. 7.—Galatz and Focsani appeared tonight to be doomed to imminent occupation by Germany's forces from the south and west. The Rumanian Galatz apparently was under bombardment by Teutonic cannon.

Focsani is menaced by strong forces from the south and west. The Russian official statement gave some hint of the prodigious massing of men and desperate attacks which the Germans are exacting here.

Despite the German success on the front and Galatz and Focsani, it was pointed out by military experts that the official statement from both sides apparently indicated a successful resistance by the Russians to what is probably the most serious German menace to the allies' forces in Rumania—the attempt to flank the Russian-Rumanian armies by a thrust eastward from the Stenika Cituz and Traus valleys.

The Russian statement detailed a slight withdrawal, but a later stoppage of the enemy advance.

Some idea of the ferocity of the fighting over all this Rumanian and Dobrudjan territory is hinted at in the use twice in the Petrograd statement of the descriptive phrase, "bayoneted and prisonered."

Bloody Fighting.
Previous Berlin statements have been profuse in such terms as "storming in hand to hand battles."

The Petrograd statement declared the Russian forces, voluntarily abandoned Braila. The Berlin statement asserted that Russians destroyed "a majority of the Rumanian factory establishments" in that city—indicating that the Germans found the town of scant value to them.

Along the northern frontier of Dobrudja the advantage in the fighting will be distinctly with the Russian defenders. The terrain is broken into numberless rivers, ponds, lakes and swamps, capable of easy defense and offering the hardest sort of obstacles to the attackers. Presumably the Russian retirement from Braila was to long prepared defensive positions along this line—and this line, it was pointed out tonight, will probably be along Russian soil.

Apparently there has been fierce fighting along the northwestern front south of Riga. Here the Russians appear from the official statements to have achieved a considerable measure of success.

A BIG WOLF HUNT.

The residents of the territory in the vicinity of Eight Mile Grove held a wolf hunt this morning and were quite lucky in their efforts, as five of the animals were bagged by the boys. The attendance was not large, but the members of the party did some good work in rounding up the wolves. On Monday, January 15th, Jack Philpot has arranged to hold another hunt, and this will be held five miles south of the Eight Mile Grove precinct line. All the farmers are invited to get into the big hunt.

EXPECT ALLIES TO TELL PRECISE STATUS OF PEACE

Washington Hopes for Information as to Whether Door Yet Remains Open.

Reply to Wilson Note Scheduled This Week, Numerous Reports Indicate.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 7.—Indications increased in allied diplomatic circles here today that the allied reply to President Wilson's peace note, while following in the main the reply to the central powers, will have some additional features calculated to make it more clear whether a continuance of the negotiations is desired.

If the allied governments are determined to press the war to a military solution, it is expected that they will leave no doubt that further exchanges at this time will not be welcomed; if not, the reply is expected to leave the door open for additional correspondence.

The meeting of the allied premiers in Rome today was regarded here as of great importance because the entente governments were expected to take the opportunity to discuss their whole fundamental attitude toward peace and particularly America's part in securing peace.

The decision reached is expected to be final so long as the military situation remains unchanged.

Whether the entente reply to the American note will be forwarded to the central powers is an open question still.

It is said such action would be entirely permissible diplomatically. The reply is expected by the end of next week, reports to both the state department and the allied embassies being indefinite as to the exact time, but indicating its imminence.

There has been no indication whether Spain's unfavorable reply to the president's note favoring the present movement is deemed inopportune for peace efforts would be made public by the state department. It was received here shortly after its publication in Madrid. Officials say the text is substantially the same as that contained in cabled reports.

REWARD FOR POISONER.

Some person or persons in the south part of the city has in the past few days been busy distributing poison around in that section of the city, with the result that several valuable dogs, including the one belonging to Ed Mason, and the latest victim is the fine thoroughbred spaniel of Dr. Sandin, which was poisoned last night. The animal was a very valuable one and Dr. Sandin is offering a reward of $10 for the arrest and conviction of the person administering the poison. This is a very grave offense in the eyes of the law and makes one liable to imprisonment and in addition, is just about as contemptible a piece of work as human being can possibly carry out.

A GOOD FRIEND

A good friend stands by you when in need. Plattsmouth people tell how Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test. Mr. Tower endorsed Doan's over three years ago and again confirms the story. Could you ask for more convincing testimony?

O. H. Tower, carpenter, Vine street, Plattsmouth, says: I suffered from a dull, heavy pain in the small of my back. It got so bad I had to get on my knees and straighten myself up gradually after I once got down. There was also difficulty with the action of my kidneys. The kidney secretions were much retarded in passage. Doctors told me I was troubled by stone in my bladder and gave me only temporary relief. After taking one box of Doan's Kidney Pills, I noticed the trouble was beginning to disappear, and in a short time my health began to improve in every way." (Statement given April 10, 1912.)

On February 23, 1916, Mr. Tower said: "You can continue using my name as you have in the past when it comes to recommending Doan's Kidney Pills. I am a strong believer in this old, reliable kidney medicine."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Tower has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

While the family of Oliver Kuker was seated about a table in the living room of their farm house, near Shubert, an unknown person shot at them from a distance of about eighty yards. The load of shot smashed the glass of the window and embedded itself in the opposite wall of the room just over the heads of the family. Bloodhounds were put on the trail and three times the dogs went to the home of a neighbor. The man was found in possession of a shotgun which had been recently fired. He explained that he had been hunting rabbits. There has been considerable trouble in the neighborhood.

Government food inspectors and deputies from the United States marshal's office are wondering what became of 725 cases of baked beans consigned by the United Packing company of Omaha to a Kansas City wholesale grocery house and ordered confiscated under the pure food act. A deputy marshal went to the grocery house to seize the beans. The firm denied all knowledge of the food inspectors' act and said they had been sold to different retail stores. The beans were not ordered confiscated because of being unfit to eat. The government inspectors say the beans were branded baked when they were prepared in a different way.

The Habit of Taking Cold.

With many people taking cold is a habit, but fortunately one that is easily broken. Take a cold sponge bath every morning when you first get out of bed—not ice cold, but a temperature of about 90 degrees F. Also sleep with your window up. Do this and you will seldom take cold. When you do take cold take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and get rid of it as quickly as possible. Obtainable everywhere.

SOCIALISTS FAIL FOR THIRD TIME TO UNITE FACTIONS

New York, Jan. 7.—Leaders of the socialist party and the socialist labor party failed tonight for the third time to restore unity between the two parties.

A deadlock arose over the question of industrial unionism and how it should be treated by the united party. The socialist labor party delegates were strongly in favor of having the united party support industrial unionism, but they desired condemnation of craft unionism.

The socialist delegates, while not opposed to industrial unionism, contended that the socialist party ought not to interfere with labor unions. The split between the two parties occurred about sixteen years ago.
