IN PLATTSMOUTH FORTY YEARS AGO.

Thomas Evans of St. Joe, once of this place, is visiting us and can laugh as heartily and tell as good a story as ever.

Mrs. Cox of Kansas City, a relative of Mrs. C. H. Parmele and Miss Baker, and a former resident of this city, is visiting her relatives here.

Charley Clapp of Stove Creek was in town Monday and Tuesday. Charley is said to be a candidate for county clerk, and will have Stove Creek solid in the convention.

Mr. T. J. Todd and wife have returned from their long visit east, both looking very much better for their trip and it seems natural and good to see the old gentleman around again.

Miss Emma Herold returned from Glenwood last week, where she had been visiting friends, in company with Miss Lulu Austin, who is still stopping at that place.

Miss Ola Barnes left Sunday afternoon for Mount Pleasant, Ia., where she will attend the Musical college the coming winter.

On our road to Weeping Water the other day, we observed that our old friend, James Hall, is building himself a very cozy, substantial farm house and home. With a nice avenue of trees, by and by leading to the house, James will have one of the prettiest places in Cass county.

Tuesday morning Peter Bates and his partner, Chris Kohhke, made up their minds they were not satisfied with their shop room down town—they wanted more room and further up town. In ten minutes after this conclusion the lumber was hauled onto a lot on Seventh and Main street, belonging to Dr. Schildknecht, which they had rented, and before night the outskirts of a very respectable carpenter shop were completed, and yesterday they finished it. That's pretty lively work.

The Liederkrantz. At their hall on Monday evening, there assembled a very large crowd, among whom were seen the members of the Omaha Männerchor, consisting of the following: Bolkhoff, president;

John Baumer, vice president; Simon Hoffmann, leader; B. Orkhoff, H. Krasburg, Charles Krell, W. Mack, Ed Wirth, William Wechbach, John Lutz. The hall was handsomely decorated with evergreens, and with mottoes (printed in German) encircled with green leaves and sprigs of cedar. At the rear of the hall, was the greeting, "Willkommen!" While on either side were three more, as follows:

"Wer nicht liebt Wein, Weib und Gesang, Der bleibt ein Narr sein Lebtag."
 "Eintracht und Liebe!"
 "Froh Sinn und Scherz!"
 "Wo man singt, da lasz dich ruhig nieder;

Boese Menschen haben keine Lieder!"
 "Einigkeit macht stark!"
 "Eintracht, Friede, Freude und Cessang."
 Begleite dich dein Lebtag!"

The band discoursed sweet music, after which the Plattsouth class gave a glorious song, followed by the Omaha class. Mr. Oswald Guthmann delivered a little speech, don't know what about, something about "Gesang" and "Lebelang," for which he received cheers. Then our "Boys" sang another song, which was followed by a laughable declamation by Mr. Gabriel Rasgersheck, and though we couldn't understand it, we laughed, because all the rest of the Germans did. It was something about a boot-black, whose master offered him "zwei Thaler" ($2) if he would shine his boots without drinking a glass of "Schnaps," which stood on the table.

After smelling of it several times, he couldn't control his appetite, and down went the "Schnaps."
 Then followed song, music and tripping of the light fantastic, till the "wee sma' hours."

GREAT SPECIAL SALE AT DOVEY'S STORE

Elsewhere in this issue of the Journal will be found the announcement of the great automobile contest sale that is to be held at the store of E. G. Dovey & Son for nineteen days, commencing on Saturday, February 3d, and closing on Saturday, February 24. The stock of $35,000 worth of the best goods on the market will be offered to the public at very low prices during this time and will afford a splendid opportunity to the shoppers to secure bargains at this sale. A beautiful Ford touring car will be given away absolutely free during the contest sale to the man or woman, church or society, boy or girl, receiving the largest number of votes. These votes will be given with each cash purchase and on all sums paid on account, and gives someone a splendid chance to secure a fine automobile in a very easy manner with only a small amount of rustling on the part of the contestant. This old-established firm carries one of the finest lines of goods of any store in this section of the state and at the prices offered they certainly should be taken advantage of by the shopper who is seeking to save money and reduce the high cost of living, and at the same time affords someone an opportunity of securing a fine Ford car.

INTEREST IN COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT GROWING

Community development and interest is one of the questions that at present is being taken up all over the country, in both city and rural communities and one of the bright young teachers of this county has given the following very able article on this subject of community development:

"A community, like an individual, must grow better by a closer and more intimate knowledge of the things immediately surrounding it. It must grow through a bigger, broader view of the obligations of life.

"A community fails to grow when the average of its citizens fail to grasp the spirit of progress, so a community is not bettered by better conditions envioning a few homes, but by the better conditions envioning the many—the average homes.

"And even when a community has better homes it hasn't all—it must have better churches, better schools and the extension of the educational thought in many directions before it reaches the high point of community development and efficient community spirit. It must have lectures, libraries, sermons, amusements, sports and all of the things in an educational way that make men and women bigger and better and help to throw off the cares of life and enjoy its blessings.

"The individual in a community who fails to encourage better schools, who is opposed to better roads, who refuses to support the Chautauqua, who takes no interest in the demonstrations on the farm, who fails to attend church and support the preacher, who neglects to encourage the teacher, who forgets to subscribe and pay for the home paper, who fails to show his appreciation of the better cattle, hogs and horses—he who knocks the home town and the local merchant—be who does any or all of these things lacks community spirit.

"Community spirit is the nation's best asset when applied in the practical way, and like religion it becomes better the more one works at it. It is for seven day living, and not for day living alone."
