APPLY FOR PATENT ON TOY AUTOMO-BILE FOR CHILDREN

J. W. Peters and Charles M. Parker, the contractors of this city, have applied for a patent on what seems like a great success in its way—and that is a toy automobile that can be used for the amusement of children from two to four years of age. The toy is constructed of wood throughout and the seat for the tots is broad enough so that there is no danger of their falling off, and as the device is small, it will make a safe toy for the younger children. On the tiny car a wooden steering wheel has been placed which gives it a very realistic appearance indeed. The child furnishes the motive power for the vehicle by pushing with its feet, and in this way provides a healthy exercise as well as amusement for the little ones. The device is one that the makers are hopeful will find a ready demand among the public who are seeking some toy for their little ones, and already the firm has received several orders for these auto-carts from residents of this city and they will be turned out as rapidly as possible. If the demand for the toys grow as strong as the firm expects it will furnish employment for quite a number of skilled wood workers in turning them out. Messrs. Peters and Parker have applied to the patent office for a patent on the device.

PETER CLAUS BUYS
ATTORNEY TIDD'S
OLD RESIDENCE

Peter Claus has just had the old residence of Attorney A. L. Tidd removed from its former location on Oak street to the lot west of the German Home, where Mr. Claus will have it refitted and placed in condition for use as a residence and store building. Mr. Claus expects to use the first floor of the building for his second-hand store, and will use the upper floor for living apartments. This house has had a rather checkered career in the moving line, as it was built a great many years ago by George Pronger, a carpenter and contractor, on the lots where the Parmele theater now stands. When the theater was built the house was moved to a lot on Oak street, where it remained until the erection of the new residence of Mr. Tidd made it necessary to once more move the old house. J. H. McMaken, who did the job of moving, states the old house is in fine shape despite its numerous moves.

WILL SERVE LUNCHES.

A want ad will bring you a buyer.

LYMAN H.
HOWE'S FESTI-VAL IS COMING

The Date, Friday Night, February 16, and the Place, Parmele Theater, the Attraction, Lyman H. Howe's Travel Festival.

One of the big features reveals Sir Douglas Mawson's Expedition into the heart of Antarctica. The theme is as illimitable as the expanse of this seventh continent—2900 miles from the nearest habitation.

The actors are 66 university graduates—not posing—but engaged in a more heroic conflict and with more terrific elements than any pen could describe.

The scenario was not arranged or written by any dramatist, but in this film more tense moments, more inspiring heroism and more sublime human endeavor are lived and enacted than was ever recorded on any film hitherto, and under the most appalling conditions.

The scenery is unlike any other for this film unfolds wondrous great, new vistas and strange sights of a polar world which the most vivid imagination could not conjure up.

Comedy? Yes, by hundreds penguins and baby seals, the quaintest comedians on earth, and more wholesome, refreshing and delightful than any of the posed variety.

Diversity? Of course, because this is a typical excellent Lyman H. Howe program, containing a great variety of subjects, among which are thrilling automobile races up the steep inclines and around the sharp curves of Giant's Despair, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., the wonders of Yosemite National Park, etc., and a liberal measure of the exclusive "comedies" for which this entertainment is famous.

John P. Meisinger and sons, Edgar, Lester, Victor and Verzer, motored to this city from their country home west of the city Saturday afternoon for a short visit with relatives and friends, and to attend to some important business matters. While here Mr. Meisinger took time to call at this office and have his subscription to the Daily Journal extended for another year.

DRAWS 30 DAYS IN JAIL.

This morning County Attorney A. G. Cole filed a complaint in the court of Justice M. Archer against Henry Perry, in which he was charged with being in a state of intoxication, contrary to the peace and dignity of the law. The complaint is the result of an altercation that the defendant and his wife had on the street yesterday, and while this was going on Chief Barclay placed Mr. Perry under arrest and removed him to the county jail. Judge Archer, after hearing the evidence in the case, decided that it would be necessary for the defendant to remain for thirty days as a guest of Sheriff Quinton.

SOLDIERS' RELIEF COMMISSION MET
THIS MORNING

The Soldiers' Relief commission of Cass county met this morning at their rooms in the court house to check up their expenditures for the year and to prepare the report to be submitted to the board of county commissioners. Thomas Wiles of this city and E. C. Coleman of Greenwood were present at the meeting, but E. A. Kirkpatrick of Nehawka, the third member of the commission, was unable to be present. The commission last year expended the sum of $956 for the relief of old soldiers and the widows of the boys of '61, and will recommend to the county commissioners the estimate of $1,000 for the ensuing year to care for the needs of the commission. The Soldiers' Relief commission has been enabled to do a great deal in the way of helping the needs of the sick and helpless old soldiers and their families, and have been fortunate in having men of high type of character on the commission since its creation, who have carefully looked after the work.

VISITING IN THE CITY.

A. G. Mast, one of the prominent young farmers of the vicinity of Nehawka, was in the city for a few hours today, motoring up from his home, and while here was a visitor at the Journal office. Mr. Mast has at his farm one of the finest Belgian horses and one which has become famous throughout the county. Mr. Mast secured this horse some time ago from James Sage of this city and the animal is one of the finest in this part of the country.

ENTERTAINS FOR FRIENDS.

Saturday evening Guy H. Reese entertained the members of the "Michigan" club at a very pleasant 6 o'clock dinner party that was much enjoyed by the members of the party. The dinner was in four courses and covers were laid for twelve. The table was very prettily arranged with decorations of sweet peas, which added a pleasing touch to the scene of the delightful gathering.

Louis Born was in the city Saturday for a few hours looking after some trading with the merchant.

Frank Finkle and J. C. Nilay of near Union, came up this morning from their home to attend the session of the district court, being members of the jury panel.

Theodore Davis of Weeping Water and R. O. Hutchins of Avoca were among the jurors arriving in this city to take up their work on the jury panel in district court.

Mrs. J. D. McBride of Omaha was a visitor in the city Saturday, spending a few hours with his sister, Mrs. Oscar Larson of Scranton, Kan., who is visiting in this city.

L. G. Larson and daughter, Miss Alma, and Mrs. Oscar Larson were passengers to Union yesterday morning, where they spent the day with Mrs. R. E. Foster and family.

County Commissioner Julius Pitz and Joe Stenik were among those going to Omaha this morning to make arrangements for the placing of Frank Burian in a hospital in that city.

D. B. Porter of near Union came up this morning on the early Missouri Pacific train to attend the opening of the jury term of the district court as a member of the jury panel.

WILHELM CALLS
MEET OF CHIEFS
ON U-BOAT WAR

Emperor Summons Chancellor and High Army and Navy Officials to Conference at Headquarters.

London, Feb. 11.—An important conference at headquarters has been called by Emperor William presumably to discuss the submarine question says the Exchange Telegraph company's Amsterdam correspondent today.

Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the imperial chancellor, and high army and navy officials will attend and it is reported, adds the correspondent, that the possibility of negotiations with neutrals for modifying the terms of the recent German memorandum will be discussed.

Washington, Feb. 11.—The German proposal delivered to the state department yesterday that means he discussed of preventing the break in relations from resulting in war apparently has struck no responsive chord here. No official would indicate today whether a reply already had been given, but there was no disposition to deny that the proposal had been made or that the American government regarded it as an effort on the part of Germany to beg for the issue. It was made clear everywhere in government circles that there was nothing to discuss unless Germany desires to stop abridging American rights and illegally menacing American life.

GOVERNMENT WON'T ARM SHIPS BUT WILL MAKE IT POSSIBLE

Washington, Feb. 11.—American snipowners who have been holding their vessels in port because of inability to obtain guns for defense against submarines, probably will have their difficulty solved in a few days. Strong intimations were given in official quarters tonight that while the government will not actually arm merchant craft or even formally advise arming, a way will be found to put weapons at the disposal of owners who desire to prepare for defense against illegal attack.

The enforced idleness of the American merchant fleet is being viewed with growing disquiet, and the general view here is that not only the export trade, but the nation's standing before the world demands that American vessels continue to ply the high seas without regard to the German proclamation, which the government has repudiated with the most severe means in its power short of war.

HAVE YOU A BAD BACK

If you have, the Statement of This Plattsmouth Resident Will Interest you.

Does your back ache, night and day? Hinders work; destroy your rest? Does it stab you through and through?

When you stoop or lift or bend? Then your kidneys may be weak. Often backache is the clue. Just to give you further proof, The kidney action may be wrong. IN PLATTSMOUTH
FORTY YEARS AGO.

The lower rooms of Fitzgerald block have undergone various repairs, and look fresh and nobby therefrom.

Eugene Mayfield, of Greenwood, came down yesterday, to see the sights and help sort up the Chronicle outfit.

Our merchants had plenty of corn to load the "Carrier" that landed here Monday p. m. but no sacks to put it into.

Among those who returned from Lincoln on the "excursion" last night, we noticed, Capt. Marshall, C. H. Parmele, Mrs. Agnew, Mr. and Mrs. Latham Miss Dakin, Mr. and Mrs. D. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gorder, Lou Moore, Jos. Leesley, and a host of others, and not on of the accused the other of having a dirty face(?)

And there is not a man, woman, or child in town who will not wish Mr. Schlegel a happy and prosperous voyage, a pleasant visit and a safe return home to America and Plattsmouth. The Stadelmanns also left for Germany Tuesday, that is Mrs. Stadelman and Miss Josephine. The Herald wishes them bon voyage and safe return to home and friends.

As we go to press, we learn that Charley Gyger met with quite a severe accident yesterday. He was riding on a load of corn that was going to the levee, and as his feet were dangling over the side of the wagon, as they turned down the grade the calf of his leg was caught between the wheel and the side of the box, causing a very severe contusion, but happily no bones were broken.

Prof. Love narrowly escaped a serious accident on Saturday last. As he was driving out from Jones' stable one of the hold back straps broke, and when he would hold on the ribbons it would run the buggy against the horse, and he was compelled to keep a tight rein to dodge the many teams on the street, till he got down opposite Buttery's Drug Store, the street was comparatively empty, when he loosened his hold and called out "whoa!" and the little mare stopped. Nothing else was broken and 'twas lucky he was not spilled out.

COURT NOTES

Besides our largely increased bar there were present from abroad, Hon. T. M. Marquette, Messrs. Harwood & Foxworthy and Wolfe, of the Lincoln Bar; District Attorney Watson, and lawyers Covell, Stevenson, Hayward, J. D. Schofield, of Nebraska City; B. S. Ramsey, of Louisville; Stewart, of Greenwood; Broady, of Brownville; Hart, of Council Bluffs, and Kennedy of Omaha.

M. A. Hartigan was admitted to the bar to practice in all courts of the state. Messrs. J. D. Strode, E. H. Woolley and M. O'Donohoe will be examined for admission this term.

The Grand Jury, David Miller, Foreman, sit in the Council Chamber where ye Editor accidentally strayed Tuesday when David said there was a "true bill" found "agin" us and we left before District Attorney Watson could write out an indictment.

When Pottenger rises on his toes, shuts both eyes and says "hoemahew, Gentlemen of the Jury," then look out for breakers ahead.

LESLIE DARROW.

Age about 14, wandered away from the home of his uncle, John Breckenridge, one and one-half mile south of Manley, where he has been making his home, and has not been found up to Saturday. He was last seen on the street about 10 a. m., and again, was seen by farmers three miles north of Manley, making his way north on foot. 2-12-wkly
