MURRAY STATE BANK

Frank Allen, of Nehawka, was visiting with Murray friends last Sunday.

L. G. Todd, Jr., and Cameron Cathey were in Omaha Monday attending the auto show.

Frank Valley made a trip to the western part of the state last Saturday evening, where he had some land matters to look after.

George Jenkins, who has been in Omaha for the past few months attending the auto school, was visiting with Murray friends and relatives last Sunday.

Mrs. Clara Engelkemeier, residing six miles west of Murray, was taken to the Presbyterian hospital in Omaha Monday of this week, where she was operated upon for gall stones.

Hershey Petty, who has been working for Walt Vallery, was taken with a sudden attack of appendicitis last Friday. With careful medical attention he is getting along very well, and will probably escape the ordeal of a surgical operation for the present at least.

Alex Rhoden met with a severe accident last Saturday, after returning home from a visit to Murray. He was unhitching his team when one of the horses kicked him, breaking his left leg just below the knee. The injury was a very painful one and he will be laid up for several weeks.

While in Murray Tuesday of this week, we were indeed pleased to meet our old friend J. A. Walker, who has been numbered with the sick a portion of the past winter, and has made very few trips to Murray, even though he resides but a few rods south. The severe winter weather has kept him housed up most of the time, but with the coming of spring he is gaining some and was able to visit with his many friends in Murray Tuesday.

Wm. Oliver is sporting a new Ford this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Smith were Plattsmouth visitors Monday evening.

Dr. Gilmore was called to near Ashland Tuesday of this week on county business.

H. G. Todd shipped sixty head of cattle to the South Omaha market Tuesday of this week.

Elmer Boedecker and family have moved to Murray, and have taken up their residence at the home of Chas. Boedecker.

For sale—A lot of block cottonwood at 75c per load at my farm. James Brown, Murray.

Ed. Noell, who is now in the employ of L. H. Puls at the Murray Garage, has moved his family to Murray, and has taken up their residence in a portion of the Dull home.

The Murray School Board, composed of Dr. G. H. Gilmore, G. M. Minford and W. G. Boedecker, were called to Plattsmouth Monday of this week on school business.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brown drove to Lincoln last Sunday, where they spent the day with their daughter, Miss Leora, who is attending school in that city, and who had been sick for the past few days.

James Delesdernier, who has been suffering for the past few weeks with an infected leg, caused from an injury received while cutting hedge, is able to be up and around again, and almost entirely recovered from the injury.

L. H. Puls received another car of those fine little Six Velie cars this week, that were unloaded here Tuesday afternoon and placed in his garage for sale. The car load received last week have been sold. F. J. Hild took one of them home this week and will be one of the well pleased Velie owners in the future.

Miss Ruth Cline spent Sunday with home folks.

Charley Creamer was a county seat visitor Saturday.

Frank Lillie was calling on Murray friends Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hild were Murray visitors Tuesday of this week.

Miss Laura Puls and Miss Henrietta Creamer were Omaha visitors Tuesday.

The little son of Dr. and Mrs. Jake Brendel has been quite sick for the past few days.

A. W. Wheeler attended a public sale down near Avoca last Tuesday.

Miss Vera Yardley and Miss Morrison were Plattsmouth visitors last Saturday.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Spangler is quite sick with chickenpox.

Mrs. S. O. Cole and son Roy visited with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cook last Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Schwab motored up to Plattsmouth Monday to have some work done on their car.

Mrs. John Stones is among the first in this locality to report a fine hatch of young chickens.

Joe Dietl is erecting a new garage in which to house the new Chevrolet which he recently purchased.

Charley Schwab and Bobt. Shrader are among the busy families this week. It is moving time for them.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baxter of Murray, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Graves last Sunday.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Shrader are quite sick this week, suffering with throat trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gopen and family visited with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cook and family last Sunday.

Joe Hathaway spent Sunday afternoon with Charley Wolf. Charley is improving very slowly at this time.

For sale—A lot of block cottonwood at 75c per load at my farm. James Brown, Murray.

The school children did some very good advertising for the dinner and supper at the Library Tuesday. They showed some very artistic traits which should be cultivated.

C. D. Spangler was on the Omaha market Friday with a carload of fine porkers which brought the top price of $12.70. When it comes to raising fine hogs Charles knows the trick that it takes to do it.

Recent word from Mrs. Morford of Elmwood, who suffered a broken limb, about the middle of December, states that within a couple of weeks she will be able to resume her duties as teacher at the Amick school.

A large number of the members of the Women's Missionary Society of this place enjoyed Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Oscar Gopen, where they met with the Aid Society of that neighborhood.

Moving seems to be the order of the day. Carl Lyuge and family have moved to the Schlichtemeier farm, and Ed Noll and family have moved into Mrs. Dull's house recently vacated by Mr. Lyuge. Elmer Boedecker has moved into the John Young property and Garland Tilson onto the Boedecker farm.

The dinner and supper given by the Library Association and the schools Tuesday of this week was well attended, and a neat sum will be netted both organizations. The publisher of the Journal and wife were fortunate in being in Murray on this date, and took dinner with the ladies, and we believe we know whereof we speak when we say that this noonday meal was first class in every particular.

For baby's group, Willie's daily cuts and bruises, mamma's sore throat, grandma's lameness—Dr. Thomas' Eucletic Oil—the household remedy. 25c and 50c.

We have just received our Spring shipment of John Deere Farm Implements, consisting of the famous Model B three-lever disk, harrows, stag gang plows, No. 999 corn planters, two wheel listers. In fact everything that goes to make up the well known John Deere line. We also have in stock the Moline disk, harrows and Western Bell listers. We invite you to look our line over before buying. While prices have advanced rapidly in the last year, we were fortunate enough in buying early and for this reason can quote you prices on our goods that are right.
