IRREVERSIBLE WORM Steering Gear for Ford Cars

Jack Mulford who represent Pickens & Co., traveling his territory in an automobile met with a peculiar and distressing accident about five miles east of Bradford. It seems that a sudden gust of wind blew off his hat and in attempting to catch it he let go of the steering wheel. Unfortunately at that moment the wheels struck a rut, the car turned turtle as it slid into the ditch burying Mulford beneath it, etc.

JOHN GALLIGER. From Cambridge, Neb., comes the news of the death of Mrs. John Galliger, which occurred February 8. She was the wife of Dr. John Galliger, a retired Methodist minister, well known here and in many places throughout the state, having held prominent charges for the last forty years. Mr. and Mrs. Galliger were married in Weeping Water on March 18, 1874. The deceased was 63 years of age, and besides the husband is survived by three children, Dr. George L. Galliger of Pocahontas, Ida; Mrs. Robert L. Smith of Omaha and Mrs. Arch Stines of Fairmont. The deceased was converted and joined the Methodist church in 1873, at the age of 19, under the pastorate of Rev. A. L. Folsen.—Weeping Water Republican.

MAKES CHANGE IN BUSINESS. From Saturday's Family. The firm of Wargal & Schuldie, which has been conducting an extensive business in the line of plumbing, electric fixtures and tin work, has been dissolved, as Mr. Wargal, the senior member of the firm, has purchased the interests of Mr. Schuldie in the business and will operate the establishment himself in the future. The change in the partnership has been made and Mr. Wargal is now conducting the affairs of the concern. Mr. Schuldie has not fully decided as to his future plans, but will enjoy a well deserved rest from his labors for a time at least, and expects to leave Sunday for Chicago for a short visit with his son in that city. Doing the Work. W. T. Nanney, Noel, Mo., writes, "Your B. A. Thomas' Hog Powder is doing the work down in this part of the world. It proved to be what we needed to prevent and cure hog cholera and expel worms." H. M. ### WEeping WATER REPUBLICAN.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Meier, a daughter, on Washington's birthday, February 22. C. E. Arche is moving this week to the Domingo farm. He will live in the tenant house and work for Oscar Domingo this summer. John Renner and family moved last week to the James Schwab farm southeast of Murray. Mr. Renner will work the farm for Mr. Schwab for two years. Night Watchman C. T. Noell informs the Republican that he has resigned his position to accept a job on the Tom Akeson farm and will move with his family soon. John Domingo, Lars Nelson and Mr. Domingo's cousin of Iowa, visited the South Omaha market Tuesday. Mr. Domingo and son, George, had a load of hogs and cattle on the market that day. Miss Bernice Wickersham was down town Tuesday for the first time since she came home from school sick soon after the first of the year. This has been a great disappointment to Miss Bernice as she had made great plans for the business course she had commenced at Lincoln. Ben Gibson returned Friday night from California, where he had been visiting his sister, Miss Kathryn. He reports a fine trip and enjoyed the coast country for a visit but had no desire to change the agricultural farming in Cass county for any occupation he saw in the land of roses. Nicholas Trook of Avon is the new clerk at the Russell Drug company store. Nicholas recently returned from Des Moines, Ia., where he took a course in pharmacy and he has just passed the examination for a registered druggist. Mr. Trook is a young man of fine personality and the Russell company is very fortunate to secure his services. Tom Akeson has bought the Joseph Haslam fine home in the northeast part of our city, the deal being made Saturday through the real estate agent, H. D. Reed. Mr. Akeson and family will move to town and leave the farm in charge of the oldest son, Clarence, and hired help. We presume Tom will hold his rank among the automobile farmers.

UNION Ledger

Miss Clementine Roddy, who teaches at Avon, Neb., spent Sunday with her parents here. Joe Brandt shipped in a car of cattle from South Omaha last Wednesday which he will fatten for a late market. George W. Eaton returned home from Kentucky Tuesday morning, where he went on a business trip about two weeks ago. Several of the young folks from this place attended the invitation dance at the Nehawka Auditorium last Friday night. A fine team of horses belonging to Sherman Ausburn died last Wednesday, after gorging themselves from a wheat bin which had been left open. Charles Peck of Elmwood was in town a few hours Tuesday to call on his numerous friends. He had been to Omaha to visit his son, Sterling, and was returning home. Clarence Applegate and Dewey Lynde, two of Union's young soldiers of the Fifth regiment, were mustered out at Fort Crook last Wednesday, and have returned to their homes here. Wm. Craig left Wednesday morning for Rosalie, Neb., to see his son-in-law, William Watkins, who is sick. He hopes to bring Mr. Watkins to the Lincoln sanitarium for treatment. We were informed this week that the depot is to be provided with electric lights in the near future. We are sure the innovation will meet with the hearty approval of the night force there, besides giving the traveling public better service when meeting or departing on the night or early morning trains. Dr. D. F. Hudson had a runaway experience Tuesday, when he started out to drive into the country on a professional call. The runaway occurred about 12:30 p. m., when the doctor started out from in front of his office. The horse ran into a telephone pole on upper Main street, doing considerable damage to the rig and harness. The doctor luckily escaped being injured.

LOUISVILLE Courier

don, March 1, an eight and a half-pound girl. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Erwin are rejoicing over the birth of a ten-pound boy, who was left by the stork Sunday, February 25. A. J. Spooner has moved here from St. Louis. Mr. Spooner will be remembered as the first superintendent of the National quarries. John Raber, who is making his home with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Neuman, is seriously ill with inflammatory rheumatism and but little hopes are held out for him. Herman Dall, C. J. Gabel and Herman Mann drove to Omaha Tuesday, Mr. Gabel going up to consult another specialist about his wife, who is still in a serious condition. Levi A. Jackman, formerly of Louisville and brother of A. A. Jackman, has moved his family from Greenwood, where he has resided for several years, and has gone to Lincoln, where they will make their home in the future. Mr. and Mrs. John Group were receiving the congratulations of their friends last Saturday, February 24, the occasion being their thirty-second wedding anniversary. Here's hoping they may live to enjoy many happy returns of the day. Rev. C. B. Smith moved his family to Mt. Clair, Neb., this week, where he has accepted the pastorate of the Christian church. Rev. Smith is an earnest worker in the Master's cause and he and his family made many warm friends during their residence in Louisville, whose best wishes go with them in their new home. Word has reached us of the recent marriage of Henry Thompson, formerly of Louisville, but now with the M. E. Smith company of Omaha, to Miss Maxine Schaland of South Omaha. The bride is a stenographer with Byrne & Hammer Co. of Omaha. The Louisville friends of the former extend congratulations. John Sass, a well known farmer of Louisville precinct, was quite seriously injured by being struck on the head by a horse at H. A. Funke's scales last Saturday. The old gentleman led the horse on the scales to weigh it when it became frightened, knocking him down and striking him on the head with its feet. At first it was thought his skull had been fractured but this proved untrue and he is now on a fair way to recovery.

NEHAWKA NEWS.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Charley Bates Saturday, February 24th, a boy baby. Abe Griffith, who was taken to York, Nebraska, several weeks since on account of sickness, returned to Nehawka last Friday afternoon. Mrs. Tom Mason, came home last Thursday from Omaha where she had been a patient in the Immanuel hospital for the past two months.

Geo. Marks reports that he has lost five or six head of cattle the past week, presumably from cornstalk disease. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Alford and Mr. and Mrs. Chas Stone, of Elmwood, visited friends and relatives in Nehawka last Sunday. John C. Daly who has been working in the Nehawka bank the past five months has accepted a position with the Farmers bank of Stapleton, and will leave for that place next Saturday. Robert Dore purchased two desirable lots of Nick Klaurens in East Nehawka this week. Also the house known as the Kalberg property. This house will be moved onto the lots and fixed up for a dwelling by Mr. Dore. Mrs. Guy Munsell has been enjoying a pleasant visit from her brother and sister, who arrived on the night train Sunday. Mr. Mayhew lives at Wadena, Minnesota, and her sister, Mrs. Schumacher is a resident of De Witt, Nebraska. Her brother, Mr. Mayhew left Monday for a trip to Kansas City, Mo. Miss Isadore Sheldon enjoyed the company of two of her lady friends, the Misses Doris Clark of Papillion and Hildegard Clinton of North Platte, Saturday and Sunday forenoon. Miss Sheldon drove to Omaha Sunday afternoon where her friends took trains for their homes. While in Omaha, Miss Sheldon visited her mother who is in a hospital there. An item we failed to mention last week for lack of space, was that of the school board meeting, at which time teachers were selected for the coming year. Let it be known, however, even at this late hour, that the corps of teachers in Nehawka schools have given excellent satisfaction, and the re-election of the entire force was only a matter of form devolving upon the board at this time. ARE YOU EFFICIENT? Try These Tests, but Do Not Yield to Despair if You Fail. Are you efficient? The awful query refuses to down. The clocks tick it, the flat wheels in the subway thump it, the ungraced curves of the elevated screech it. If you are an old business fog the question burns in the eye of every pitying employee. You find your wife measuring the distance from the range to the kitchen cabinet and your son computing the power necessary to propel a football in the lowest arc. The telephone company advises you to give your name instead of saying "Hello." Blessed be the concrete of thought if not of deed. Concreteness enables you to see just what the efficiency masters mean. One of them, William Fretz Kemble, tells in Industrial Management "How to Test Your Employees." Of course every man who reads it will first test his most important employee, his father's son. Watch and pad and pencil are all that are needed to acquaint yourself with your virtues and faults. In thirty seconds answer as many of these questions as you can: Give the name of a vegetable, a metal, an insect, a reptile, a fish, a man, a woman, an ocean, a lake, a town. If at the end of the half minute you have written only "beet, gold, flea, adobe, put down 'trout, Edison, Addams, Atlantic," you are up to human average of eight answers. If you feel that you can go beyond ten answers you may describe the color of water, tea, beer, ivory, the sky, grass, milk, chalk, coal and skin. But men who go beyond fifteen answers in thirty seconds are rare. They should have secretaries, limousines and big black cigars. Next try to answer five "difficult" questions in twenty seconds: First.—Who is the greatest living general? Quick, now, and pick a short name that doesn't take a long time to write. Second.—What is the most powerful force in the world? Perhaps love isn't, but it's a shorter word than militarism. Third.—What is the greatest modern discovery? Quick, now, and Radium will do. Fourth.—What is the greatest necessity of commerce? Our secretary of commerce probably would not answer that in less than 11,840 words. You perhaps will write "ships" or "railroads" and pass on to the last. Fifth.—What is the cheapest food for the human race? Bread, unless you are a fiend for lentils or employed by the makers of fluted cut corn. But you ought to answer three of the questions in twenty seconds, says Mr. Kemble. If you answer fewer it indicates "slowness or deliberation in thought."—New York Sun. DR. BLEICK. Dr. Bleick, 532 World-Herald building, Omaha, specialist in eye, ear, nose and throat diseases, will be at Plattsmouth every Tuesday, at B. A. McElwain jewelry store. Eye glasses scientifically fitted. HOMES TO RENT. We will rent you a home of any size from a single room to an 8-room home. Call on us at corner of Locust and Fifth street, or Phone No. 575. F. Mr. John Meisinger was a pleasant caller at this office. Mrs. A. C. Bartlett and children departed this afternoon for Winterset, Ia., where they will make their home in the future. Mr. Bartlett will leave as soon as it is possible to have a car ready to load his household goods. Hugh Allison and wife of Superior, Nebraska, who were here visiting for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Pitz, departed Saturday afternoon for their home. Mr. Allison is a former resident of Cass county and is at present one of the county commissioners of Nuckolls county.

IN PLATTSMOUTH FORTY YEARS AGO.

Miss Eunice Sage, of Iowa, niece of Elias Sage, is teaching in Mrs. Love's place. Miss Ida Goodell of Glenwood has been engaged as a teacher in our city school. C. Schluntz, the Cedar Creek miller and merchant was in yesterday and gave the Herald a call. Billy Ruffner and wife, formerly of Crete and now of Kearney, have been spending the week with us, the guest of his brother Ed Ruffner. James E. Morrison has traded off his nice new house on the Avenue, for Uncle Thomas Jefferson Todd's farm. Now what? "Jim" turns granger, and Uncle Todd lawyer in the spring, we suppose. Plattsmouth has one institution, and a mighty good one, too, that isn't full and running over yet. We allude to the Dovey's Pork-packing house. Boss Dovey says he can accommodate a few more hogs any day though after the farmers sell their cattle, the hogs running with them will come in and fill her up we guess. Sunday before last Bro. Burgess gave the "men-folks" his blessing and said Religion was meant for Males, as well as Females, and the masculines ought to come to church better. Last Sunday evening there were twenty-eight men and twenty-five women at St. Luke's. Wasn't a good Sunday for church either. Moonlight too fine. Dr. Livingston informs us that Dr. John Black has recently purchased the North half of Lots 1 and 2 in Block 36, from the M. E. church for about $1,000; also that C. H. Parmele and Mrs. W. E. Donelan delivered on Tuesday a bond for a deed to Wm. Wettoncamp, to lot 3, block 36, at a consideration of about $1,000. I. O. Philippi, well known in this town, becomes one of the Ass't Superintendents of the B. & M. R. R. Alex Campbell is also promoted to Ass't Superintendent on the western division. Boss Holderidge and Super Boss Touzalin still keep things going lively and have faith in the B. & M. tasting salt water yet, before they die or get bald-headed. Louisville, Neb.—Editor Herald: Business is brisk, and Louisville boometh: That U. P. R. R. branch (on paper) will run from Papillion through here; thence to W. W., and then to—we don't care where. Three or four dwellings and two or three business rooms have already been put up this season. The extensive stone quarries, Pottery and two brick yards will require several men this summer. Leap year parties are all the rage here with the young ladies, the boys to "take a hand" when an opportunity is offered. One of the happiest events of the season was the College Hill exhibition held in Glover's hall on the evening of the 25th. It was indeed one of the most entertaining exhibitions Louisville has had the pleasure of attending. The pieces played were evidently selected with great taste, for which we must thank the worthy manager, H. W. Zink. If the Herald would allow, we should like to make mention of some of the most prominent actors, but suffice it to say that all did well. R. L. Foe as "Handy Andy," in the comedy of same name, was simply immense. Miss Carrie Schlater in "Refinement," was also highly appreciated. Others, equally worthy of mention were T. E. Williams, James Stander, Flora Davis, Thaddeus Adams, Mary Heim, Helen Stander, Minnie Lenhoff, Frank and Willie Schlater, and Mr. Pottenger, C. Schlater, Esq., manager the musical department to the satisfaction of all concerned. Just before the closing piece Mr. Zink was called upon the stage and presented with a copy of Tennyson's poems by his former pupils, as a token of the high regard in which he was held by them. At a late hour we were dismissed, feeling that we had spent a pleasant evening. May College Hill prosper in the future as she has in the past, is the wish of your correspondent. ABOUT ALL SOLD. But still have a Gas Range, sewing machine, oak sideboard, phonon, complete with shafts and pole, 1 lawn mower. Inquire of J. W. Holmes or call Phone 541, or can be seen at the late Dora Moore home. 2-27-17d. W. A. ROBERTSON, Lawyer. East of Riley Hotel, Coates' Block, Second Floor.
