F. G. EGENBERGER DOWN TOWN

This morning Fred G. Egenberger was down in the business portion of the city for the first time in five months, as since the first of November he has been confined to his home suffering from a general breakdown. Mr. Egenberger is feeling much improved and it is needless to say that the many friends of Mr. Egenberger were delighted to meet him and to note that he is once more able to be up and around. The absence of this genial gentleman has been greatly felt by friends during his illness and it is to be hoped that he may be able to be with them from now on.

CALF WITH TWO HEADS

Last Sunday afternoon there was born on the farm of Henry Thiele five miles north of Nehawka, a freak of nature in the bovine line. It had two heads and two spines, these additional appendages of nature being distinctly developed. Had the calf lived it would have certainly been in demand for exhibition purposes.—Union Leader.

Mrs. J. W. Yardley and daughter, Miss Vera, and Mrs. Jennie Rhoden of near Murray were among those going to Omaha this morning where they will spend the day with their brother-in-law Charles Wolfe at the hospital where he is taking treatment.

SITUATION IN REGARD TO THE COMING CITY ELECTION

The situation in regard to the political middle seems decidedly quiet in both democratic and republican camps, and but little is heard as the approach of election day draws near. The republican ticket is still without a candidate for mayor as a number of the leading party members have declined to make the race for the office under any condition. The democrats are short a candidate for councilman in the fourth ward, as John Leitz who was nominated by the convention has declined the proffered honor and unless a selection is made by the committee Councilman George Luschnisky will have clear sailing for the office. The candidates in general on both tickets are not showing any great desire for the offices and the campaign gives promise of being one of the quietest that the city has passed through. The shortness of the terms of office as well as the fact that the salaries are very small and the amount of grief attached to the offices very great makes it hard to draft anyone for service in the different positions.

ROBERT EDESON AT THE GEM THEATRE TONIGHT

"Big Jim Garrity" is the superintendent of a mine in Georgia. The owner of the mine, an old and infirm man, wills the property to Jim on his death, leaving living expenses for his nephew, who is a doctor and victim of a drug which he distributes. The doctor makes repeated requests to Jim for money, but they are turned down. Later Jim incurs the enmity of a mine foreman, and the latter, with the doctor attempts to blow up the mine. They are partially successful, and in a fight over the spoils, the cashier is killed, Jim being accused of the murder and sent to jail. He escapes and goes to a foreign country. Coming back several years later he meets socially the Craigen family, which is prominent in New York society. He falls in love with the daughter in the house and learns that she is a drug victim, and receives the drug from the doctor who is responsible for his incarceration. They meet later and the doctor, in mortal fear of "Big Jim" admits that he killed the man, who, it develops, was the only son of Mr. Craigen. Reconciliation follows and "Big Jim," after an uphill fight, weans his sweetheart from her unfortunate falling.

C. W. SHERMAN MARRIED

From the far off Pacific Coast comes the report of the wedding in Los Angeles a few days ago of C. W. Sherman, many years a resident of this city and a former publisher of the Journal. The information received here was quite a surprise to the many old friends of the former editor. The bride it is understood is a former resident of Connecticut and has been making her home of late at Santa Ana. The old friends will await with interest further news of the happy event.

"ONE GIRL'S MISTAKE" FARCEFUL AT THE PARMELE

"One Girl's Mistake," the newest white slave play, will be the attraction at the Parmele Theatre on Wednesday March 28. This is not a moving picture, but a real vital play produced by a Company of well known actors. The general tone of the people who have seen this play is to the effect that it will be a great power for good, and the opinion is expressed that the play will make thousands of girls think, and "look before they leap." The play is full of thrills and after the last act people are ready to vouch that it's the greatest white slave play yet produced. Seats on sale at Wyrick & Hadrabas.

COUNTY ASSESSOR TO CALL ASSESSORS TOGETHER

County Assessor George L. Farley has prepared for a meeting of the county assessors of Cass County to be held on Thursday and Friday, March 29th and 30th at the court house in this city. The assessors will discuss the plans for the assessing of the county and at the same time the board of county commissioners will meet with them to arrange for the taking of the census of the county at the same time that the work of assessing is carried out. The assessors will commence their work on April 1st and for the few weeks following will be about the busiest men in the county and Mr. Farley will also be kept closely at the office until the returns are in and the work of the assessors checked over.

BASE BALL MEETING TO BE HELD AT REST ROOM

The approach of the springtime season has stirred the blood of the base ball fans and aroused the thoughts of the lovers of the great national sport to the fact that in a few short weeks the season will be in full blast and the sweat of the batter will be heard throughout the land. The Plattsmouth fans will meet on Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the Rest room in the Riley block to prepare for the opening of the season in this city.

It is desired that there be as large a number of the fans present as possible at this meeting in order to get the fullest expression from the followers of the game, as to the team that will represent the city on the base ball diamond during the coming year.

During the last few years this city has been well represented on the base ball field and should have a creditable team this season that will maintain the record made in the past. It is given to those who are followers of the game to have a part in the formation of the plans for the season and to see that the proper kind of team is selected to represent the city. Those who are interested in the formation of a team should be at the meeting Friday night and take part in the discussion of plans for the year.

FOUR MORE CONVERSIONS AT REVIVAL

People continue to accept Christ during the Gospel invitations that Evangelist Hill is pressing powerfully at the Christian Church. Last evening four more confessed Christ. Interest was intense. Professor Street sang "Some Day May be Too Late." The solo was a sermon in itself. In answer to the question, "Can a Living God Damn His Children?" the evangelist said, "God is love. He loves us better than an earthly parent, no earthly parent would burn his child for mere disobedience. Therefore God will not damn his children to eternal torment. Jesus said, 'God sent not His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world thru Him might be saved.' Peter wrote, 'God is not willing that any should perish.' It is our sins that bar us from heaven for no sin can enter there. God has done everything He came to save us from our sins. Salvation free. So is the air, but we must breathe it or die." "Life's Ladders," tonight's sermon will be illustrated with a pictorial chart. Streeter will sing. The revivalists will be at their best. Service begins at 7:45 P. M.

ANOTHER WRESTLING MATCH WEDNESDAY NIGHT, MARCH 28

The wrestling game in this city is to be given another boost on Wednesday, March 28th, when one of the best matches that has been witnessed in the city will be staged at the Crystal Star roller rink between Joe McVey, of Falls City, and Clarence Eckland, the undefeated light heavyweight of Canada. This match will be a real treat in the wrestling line as both men are the best in the west in the class in which they wrestle. McVey appeared in this city before going to a draw here with Rudy Warner of Howells, and is rated as one of the best young wrestlers in the state. Eckland has a very strong reputation as one of the best in the game, and his work has won him high rank in the northwest. Warner who has had several matches in this city has challenged the winner of the McVey-Eckland match and will hold the match in the city. The followers of the game are looking forward to a real interesting go at the forthcoming match and much interest is being aroused among the local followers of the game over the ultimate outcome of the affair. A good preliminary will be staged before the main event and which will assist in giving the fans their money's worth of entertainment.

MAYOR OF TREYNOR AND ARMED POSSE CAPTURE ROBBER

Omaha, Neb., March 21.—Quite an exciting man hunt near Treynor, in which a score of farmers, headed by Mayor Max Meyer of Treynor, participated, resulted in the capture Tuesday afternoon of two farm hands who are charged with robbing a farm house during the absence of the family. The men, guarded by the posse, were brought to Council Bluffs last night and lodged in the county jail. One of them, George Mikesell, employed on the Jim Harbor farm, admitted breaking into the house and stealing clothing and jewelry. The other man said his name was Harry Jones and said he was guiltless. Discovery of the robbery was made soon after it occurred. A posse was quickly organized. Mayor Meyer, in an automobile, spied the fugitives cutting across a field and they were surrounded. Mikesell was armed with a revolver, while Jones carried a rifle. Jones dropped to his knees and showed fight, but was awed into submission by the small army of farmers, who were armed with guns, clubs and pitchforks. Sheriff Groneweg this morning found that Mikesell had been indicted early in 1916 on a charge of stealing an automobile at Walnut, Ia. Mikesell eluded arrest and enlisted in the army. After serving for several months, he deserted, was captured and served time in the military prison at Fort Leavenworth. He has been at Liberty only a short time.

For Sale—Nearly new piano. Big cut in price; cash or on time. Write or phone at once. H. O. Friedrichs, 3115 Davenport St., Omaha, Neb. 3-19-wkly
