

Women Know

Not so very long ago much less attention was given to the corset than is given today.

Now women know that, in a way, all depends upon the corset.

If the corset is not correct in design, perfect in fit, right in every respect, the dress cannot be smart.

The corset tells the story.

Secure the right model and the right make of corsets, and you put yourself in the class of smart dressers.

We might go further and say, choose the right model of American Lady Corsets and you are known for your smart style.

American Lady Corsets produce perfect style and carriage for thousands of women. They will for you!

NEW CAPITOL BILL PASSES THE HOUSE

Vote of 72 to 18 Puts Over the Extensive Good Roads Plan

Lincoln, Neb., March 21.—Three bills were passed in the lower legislative house today.

The first was the passage by a vote of 67 to 28, of the Richmond capitol bill, a measure providing for wing-by-wing construction of a new state house.

The second act was the passage, also, by a vote of 72 to 18, of the measure providing for an extensive plan of good road building and acceptance of federal aid therefor.

The Richmond bill provides for a levy of 67-100 of a mill to defray the expense of erecting the first wing and of footing the actual expense bills incurred by the special commission of five members which will have charge of the work.

The good roads bill carries an appropriation of 65-100 of a mill and will raise approximately $640,000 in the next two years, which amount will be combined with over $3,000,000 of federal money to be expended over the state for better highways.

The latter appropriation meets the federal governmental requirements for the years 1916, 1917 and 1918. A levy of about the same size will be required of the 1919 legislature to complete the work and meet the last appropriation from the federal government.

A third appropriation bill, providing a fund of $20,000 to pay the expenses of civil war veterans from Nebraska attending the Vicksburg celebration next summer, went through by 85 to 1. The lone vote against it was cast by Chairman Reichick of the finance committee, who also opposed the capitol and federal aid bills.

The promised attempt to have the Richmond measure reconsidered and changed back in part to its original form, providing for a complete new capitol and a continuing levy of 1 mill, but with a clause inserted postponing any construction failed to materialize.

This was known to be in the interest of the capitol removal. A partial canvass of the house membership had shown that it would receive no support outside the little coterie which has been trying all through the session to work up sentiment for that proposition.

Mr. Taylor, the brains and moving force behind the removal idea, had gone home to Nerna, but even with their leader gone, the members from Grand Island and Kearney insisted on getting right in front of the steam roller, which flattened them out in great shape. Hostetter and Stuhr sent up explanations of their votes, stating that they didn't want any little old wing, but a complete new capitol—only they thought the people should vote on where it should be located.

Mr. Scudder of Grand Island voted "no" on the bill, but did not take the trouble to explain why.

CONGRESS CALLED TO DECID ON WAR

Congress Probably will be Asked to Declare that a State of War Has Existed for Sometime

Washington, March 21.—President Wilson today called congress in extra session on April 2.

The purpose of the extra session is to take action on the state of war which admittedly exists between the United States and Germany.

Congress probably will be asked to declare that a state of war has existed since some recent date when German submarines began conducting their most warlike operations against American commerce.

In his proclamation calling congress together, the president states it is for the purpose to receive a communication from him concerning "grave questions of international policy."

The proclamation does not state specifically that the president considers a state of war exists, but leaves the question for discussion in his address and for action by congress.

The proclamation follows: "Whereas, public interests require that the congress of the United States should be convened in extra session at 12 o'clock noon on April 2, 1917, to consider grave questions of national policy."

Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim and declare that an extraordinary occasion requires the congress of the United States to convene in extra session at the capitol in the city of Washington, on April 2, 1917, at 12 o'clock noon, of which all persons shall at that time be entitled to act as members thereof, are hereby required to take notice."

VALUE! QUALITY! SERVICE!

The above facsimile of check represents the land-lords share from the 1916 crop raised on 100 acres of Chase County Nebraska land. Mr. Peter M. Jorgensen, of Avoca, Nebraska, bought this land from me two years ago, for $20.00 per acre. He had the land broken out at a cost of $2.50 per acre. This made the land including breaking cost Mr. Jorgensen $2250.00. It was rented for the year 1916 on the terms that the owner was to receive one-fourth of the crop delivered to market, this check does not represent the total rent by about $50.00 and means that the crop grown on the 100 acres brought $2800.00 or $550.00 more than the original cost of the land.

This is not an exception, we have dozen of Chase County land owners doing this same thing year after year.

Do you know that Chase County led all Nebraska Counties on yield of wheat? The past year the average being 36 bushels per acre.

Read this over again Mr. Land Investor, it will do you good then make up your mind to go along out with me and see for yourself.

I make regular trips every week, and have the real goods to show you in Chase County.
