COMMERCIAL CLUB MEETING

The Murray Commercial Club held a very enthusiastic meeting last Wednesday evening, and plans were laid for a very busy season the coming summer. They are going to be up and doing all the time, and if you want to be one of the boosters of this community, you want to be after "jimin" the commercial club right now. Now is when you are needed. The officers are Ted Barrows, president; Alf. Gansemer, secretary; and Ed Tutt, treasurer. There were a great many good things taken up at this meeting, and none of them are going to be dropped either until they are properly disposed of. One of the most vital things that needs constant agitation at the present time is the permanent roads question, and a mighty good committee was appointed to look after this end of the business in the person of Dr. G. H. Gilmore, Glen Boedeker and L. D. Hiatt. To carry on the business of a commercial club in a town the size of Murray requires capital the same as the largest club in the state, although not so much, and in order to distribute the burden of this expense, a series of entertainments will be pulled off during the next few months, the proceeds of which will go into the club treasury. Let everybody put their shoulder to the wheel and all push together. The regular meeting nights of the club will be on the first Wednesday in each month. The big annual banquet will be pulled off in the near future.

Offer $100.00 for your car if stolen, if you are insured by J. W. Holmes.

There was quite a number of relatives and friends that gathered in at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Puls, west of Murray last Sunday, to spend the day. The occasion was one of great pleasure to all present. We venture the assertion that the noon day eats were the very best, and an excellent program for a good social time was carried out. Mr. and Mrs. Puls, of Murray were in attendance.

Sam Pitman has been visiting in and near Murray with friends and relatives since returning from his several months visit in California. Mrs. Pitman is in Kansas City at the present time visiting with her mother and will return to Murray in a few days. Mr. Pitman has been engaged in the plumbing, heating and lighting business in Nebraska City, but sold out said holdings Monday of this week.

UNITED PRESBYTERIAN NOTES

Dr. Jackson was able to get to his pulpit last sabbath morning, but did not hold services in the evening. He is yet suffering with lumbago, but hopes to be able to conduct services both morning and evening next sabbath.

The Sabbath School will meet at 10 o'clock.

The annual business meeting was held last Wednesday afternoon.

The every member canvass for the year's pledge is being made this week.

The ladies will hold a Thimble Bee with Mrs. Dr. Gilmore Friday afternoon.

Saturday April 7th the Women's Missionary Society will hold a bazaar or Easter Sale at the Church in the afternoon, and will serve a meal in the evening.

The entertainment given in the United Presbyterian Church last Friday evening by the Saint Cecilia Club of Turko College was pronounced by some of our music lovers, one of the best, if not the very best of its class ever given in Murray. Some have declared that the admission fee should have been fifty instead of twenty-five cents, as the entertainment was well worth the higher price. The Club consists of sixteen singers, a pianist, and a reader, chaperoned and directed by Miss Lafferty, professor of singing in the conservatory of music connected with the college. In all there were in the party nineteen ladies, and it is the testimony of those in whose houses they were entertained that all are ladies in the best sense of the word. Their program for the evening was of a high character, the large audience manifested great appreciation of every number. Several have since said that if the club returned to Murray the church would not accommodate the audience. They went from here Saturday to North Bend and will close the tour at St. Joseph, Mo., Friday evening.

The Omaha Presbytery of the United Presbyterian church will hold its spring meet at Dunbar, beginning next Tuesday.

"ONE GIRL'S MISTAKE" A

PRETTY GOOD SHOW

The Parade Theatre was pretty well filled last evening to witness the performance "One Girl's Mistake" by the company under the management of the Trusdell Brothers. Those in attendance were well pleased with the manner in which the different members of the company carried out their respective roles, and taken as a whole, the play was greatly enjoyed by all. The play was laid along the lines of the white slave problem and depicted the struggles of a young girl in the city striving to keep in the straight and narrow path despite the many pitfalls laid for her by the promoters of the white slave traffic.

A great many from the country motored in to attend the performance and were well satisfied with the manner in which the play was presented.
