

—THE REFRESHING HEALTH DRINK—

NON-TOXO

Contains No Alcohol—Absolutely Pure!

Made by the

Non Toxo Company,

St. Paul, Minnesota

F. G. EGENBERGER,

Distributor for Cass County.

Automobile Efficiency!

If your car is not fully efficient, bring it to us. The very best of mechanics in our employ. Our business is to give full efficiency. We are fully up to the work, and prepared to remedy any and all trouble.

Difficult Cases Solicited!

We like to have our expert workmen on their mettle. Our storage facilities are the best. Our charges are reasonable. Your patronage is solicited and will be appreciated. Call on our new location, South Fifth St.

The Plattsmouth Garage

ED. MASON, Proprietor

Garage Phone 394 - Residence Phone 229

The Nehawka Mills

are now Rolling and Manufacturing the "Letter Roll" Flour!

"Letter Roll" Flour needs no boosting. For on the top shelf it now is roosting. The best cooks wherever you go Use this famous flour, you know. They just set their yeast and go to bed, For they know on the morrow they will have good Bread.

J. M.

C. D. ST. JOHN, Prop.

JOE MALCOLM, Head Miller.

For Sale by All Dealers

Mitchell Cars

E. W. THIMGAN, Murdock, Neb.,

Cass County Agency

Also agency for

DODGE BROS. CARS

for Elmwood, Stove Creek and east half of Tipton precincts.

For demonstration of either car call or phone 35-B, or write

E. W. THIMGAN GARAGE,

MURDOCK, NEBRASKA,

or JOHN GAUER, Cedar Creek, Nebraska

EAGLE Beacon

A new cement sidewalk was laid in front of the postoffice the latter part week.

At the time of going to press the condition of Will Knupton is not reported improved.

The local elevators received seven cars for loading grain Thursday. The car shortage situation does not seem so serious as in the past.

We are glad to report that Jay Alloway is somewhat improved at this writing. He is being taken care of by a trained nurse from Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim T. Rivett, Miss Iva Barbara, Mrs. A. M. Trumble, Maxine Remaly and Willie Trumble spent Sunday at the Chas Rivett home in Bethany.

The elevators are now receiving a few grain cars and have loaded nine cars of corn within the past few days. They are expecting about ten empties this week.

Mr. Bellman, the English Lutheran minister of Walton, was calling on the folks this week. He is organizing a church at Eagle. May success attend him in his efforts.

Andy Rockenbach of Alvo, Okla., arrived here Monday for a few days' visit with relatives and friends. Mr. Rockenbach says that wheat looks fairly good there but that they need rain badly.

A party was down from Lincoln Thursday afternoon sizing up the town with the view of putting in a general merchandise store here. One surely possesses nerve of iron to even think of such an undertaking in this time of high prices.

NEHAWKA NEWS.

Plum and apple trees are in full bloom. The crop of fruit promises well so far this season.

Carpenters and masons are all busy working on new residences and other buildings going up in Nehawka this spring.

L. C. Todd and family, who recently returned from Long Beach, Calif., have leased the Nelson property, in Nehawka and moved in the past week.

Lawson Conrad of Omaha came down Wednesday and is making preparations to move to Marshalltown, Ia., where he has secured work in a factory.

Miss Laura Sheldon, who has spent a year at Boston, Mass., stopped off here this week for a visit with relatives on her return home at Seattle, Wash.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. H. Stoll were greatly surprised to learn of the recent marriage of their daughter, Irma, which occurred in April. Congratulations to the wedded couple.

Walter Swartz, who has been holding down the position of telephone operator in North Loup, Neb., arrived Saturday morning for a week's visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. B. B. Brown of Pender, Neb., arrived in Nehawka Wednesday afternoon for an extended visit with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Lynde. The children, Kenneth, Warren and May Brown came in a week ago, and will remain until their mother returns to Pender.

Glenn Rutledge, who went to Omaha last week to take examination for the army, was rejected. Glenn tried for anything from beating the snare drum to passing coal on a man-of-war. But the examining officer said, "Kid, you've got flat wheels" and there's no chance for you. Glenn is now lamenting he is half German. His pa is Irish—you will know it when you meet him face to face.

LOUISVILLE Courier

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Shriver of Cedar Creek rejoice over the arrival on Monday, April 14, of a fine baby boy.

The Louisville school picnic was held at the state fisheries on Thursday afternoon and all report a grand time.

Don Mayfield, editor of the Beemer Times, came down Saturday evening and visited over Sunday with relatives.

The stork arrived at the W. T. Starkey home on Railroad avenue, May 17, leaving a bouncing baby boy. Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Diers celebrated their seventeenth wedding anniversary Thursday by going fishing and eating at the lake.

George Vogler was in town early Tuesday morning laying in a supply of paregoric, etc. He announced the arrival of a fine baby boy, who put in an appearance at his home May 15.

Eugene Mayfield came down from O'Neill Saturday evening and remained until Tuesday morning visiting with relatives. His brother, Gail, accompanied him home and will spend the summer.

The commercial club met Wednesday morning for the purpose of deciding on a plan for the erection of a band stand to be used for band concerts which will be held every Thursday evening during the summer months. It was decided to erect a portable band stand so that it might be moved to different locations on Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Nichols and daughter, Miss Voline, Mrs. F. H. Osenkop and Miss Margaret Seybert drove to Omaha Tuesday in the Nichols car. They made a short call at the Methodist hospital to see Mrs. C. M. Seybert, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis. They report Mrs. Seybert doing nicely and think she soon will be able to return home.

WEeping WATER REPUBLICAN.

Miss Larbee of New York, who has been working in Omaha as a stenographer, came down Wednesday to visit her friend, Hazel Rich, as she is returning to her home in New York.

Mrs. Josie Graham of Lincoln visited her sister, Miss Lina Linebach, from Tuesday until Thursday morning. Mrs. Graham is carrying her arm in a sling on account of a dislocated elbow, caused by a fall.

Herman Mitchell, our accommodating butcher clerk, has resigned his position at the Swindle meat market and leaves Friday morning to visit home folks in Missouri. After a short visit Herman expects to join the navy. Word has been received from Harold Lenham at Mare Island that he passed his examinations O. K. in wireless telegraphy, having sent twenty words per minute and received twelve, he is feeling fine and likes the work.

William, the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Doty, had the misfortune to dislocate his elbow Sunday evening. He was jumping over a fence and his foot caught on the fence and gave him a tumble which resulted in the injury.

Probably the highest priced car of grain that was ever shipped out of Weeping Water was shipped out Tuesday by our grain dealer, Nels Sogard. It was a car of wheat that contained 1,435 bushels of wheat, and sold on the track for $4,663.75.

Mrs. Wash King came down from Florence Monday and took Mr. King home with her Wednesday morning. Mr. King is in very poor health and had been staying with his daughter, Mrs. Ed Jewell, the last three weeks. Mr. Jewell accompanied them to Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Carper are mourning the death of their infant son, who died Monday night at 10 o'clock at the age of 1 month and 4 days. Short funeral services were held at the home Tuesday afternoon and the little body was laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery north of town. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the entire community in their hours of sorrow.

Drs. Fred Reed and M. G. Welch were in Lincoln Monday, where they took the examinations for service as U. S. army surgeons and were accepted by the government examiners. They stated that they probably will not be called before September 1st. Dr. Reed will go as a first lieutenant in the medical officers' reserve of the national guard, and Dr. Welch will go as a first lieutenant in the regular army surgeons' corps.

ELMWOOD. Leader-Echo.

L. E. Stone of Del Norte, Colo., visited on Monday here with his brother, Chas S. Stone.

Word has reached the friends of Dr. I. C. Munger, one of Elmwood's former citizens, that he has enlisted for service in the U. S. army.

L. A. Tyson and family went to Omaha Sunday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Tyson. Mrs. Robb and children of Montana were also there and they had a little family reunion.

A deal was made this week whereby Wm. Pahl purchased forty acres of land in Tipton precinct belonging to the Frederick Lenz estate. This land adjoins that already belonging to Mr. Pahl.

In the marriage licenses of Tuesday's State Journal they record the marriage of Hannah A. Dettman and Frank O. Ouderkerk, both of Imperial, Neb. Miss Dettman was a former Elmwood girl and well known to all here.

Mrs. J. P. Cobb returned on Friday

Look Here!

We can help you on the delivery with less time for the longest time. More miles at any time with

G. M. C. TRUCK

First quality and continuous service is all important.

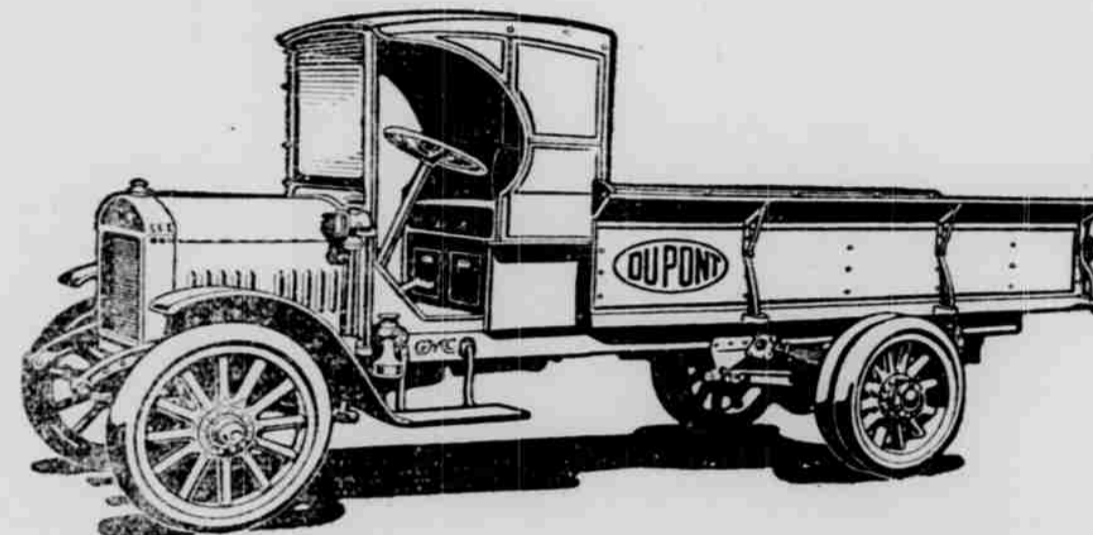

In buying G. M. C. Trucks you save at the start and later.

You get trucks which have demonstrated their worth under every conceivable road and land condition.

Trucks which, with reasonable care and attention, will render years of satisfactory service.

Operate at lowest cost per ton mile and require minimum of repairs and replacement.

"Put it up to us to show you."

There is a G. M. C. for Every Need

1/4 ton, 1 1/2 ton, 2 ton 3/4 ton and 5 ton (BODIES BUILT TO SUIT)

J. H. McMaken's Sons

PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA

from Hot Springs, Ark., where she had spent several months for the benefit of her health. Mr. Cobb and the Aldrich family motored to Lincoln to bring Mrs. Cobb home that evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rogge arrived on Tuesday evening from Norfolk, Neb., an several weeks' visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rogge. Fred gave his friends a great surprise as they did not know that he was married.

A. I. Bast made a deal whereby he became the owner of 120 acres of good land in Jefferson county, near Fairbury. He traded in his property in west Elmwood on the same, receiving $3,400. He paid $100 an acre for the farm. Mr. Bast will move to his farm some time next spring.

Word was received in Elmwood the latter part of last week by friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Slothower of Lincoln, that they were parents of a fine bouncing baby boy. They have the congratulations of all here. Mrs. Slothower is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Wallinger.

Lloyd Eidenmiller happened with an accident last Friday that caused him some little pain. While welding a plow shovel the hot borax wax used in the process flew in his eye. He only saved the eye by closing it in time. His eye for several days was what you would call a "peach" but it is much better at present.

UNION Ledger

Nola Banning was taken to the Presbyterian hospital in Omaha Monday, where her tonsils were removed. Mr. and Mrs. E. McCowan are the proud parents of a bouncing baby boy which arrived Monday night.

Mrs. Harry Royal came down from Lincoln Thursday to spend the day with her father, Chas. L. Graves.

Mrs. Octa Reynolds, who is now working in Lincoln, came down Friday to spend the week end with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Sitzman from Burton, Neb., have been guests at the home of Len Thacker the past week.

Mrs. Will Porter went to Nehawka Thursday morning to attend a surprise dinner on her mother, Mrs. O. I. Carper.

Ward Cheney was walking with crutches a few days last week as a result of injuring his foot while working with a corn sheller.

Mrs. Flemming Robb and children, who have been visiting at the home of Mont Robb, left Friday to spend about a week with relatives in Omaha.

Friday morning J. D. Bramblet, L. G. Todd, E. L. Shoemaker, Dan Lynn and T. W. Swan motored to Lincoln to attend a meeting of the railway commission.

Ray Bramblet, who for three years was a soldier of Uncle Sam, belonging to the Coast Artillery and who had been on the reserve list since the first of the year, received orders and left for Fort Leavenworth Monday afternoon, where he will again be in the service.

AUTO FOR SALE.

1916 model Ford; run less than a year; splendid condition. For sale cheap. W. E. Rosencrans. 5-16-17d

Flags, all sizes and material, at the Journal office, from 1c up. When looking for flags for decorations think of the Journal office, and make your selections early.

If you have anything for sale advertise in the Journal.

SEATS ON SALE.

The seats for the class play of the Plattsmouth High school will be placed on sale this evening at 7 o'clock at the store of Weyrich & Hadraba, and those who desire to secure the best seats should call early and make their reservations for the play.

FOR SALE.

Nemetz & Co., confectionery and ice cream parlor. The well known ice cream and candy kitchen, established fifteen years, better known as Nemetz' Candy kitchen. 5-18-2twkly3td

Bring in your iron. Will be loading soon. B. HANKINSON.

The Home of the Reo Automobile. Plattsmouth Garage, one-half block south of the Bank of Cass County. T. L. Amick.

A want ad in the Journal will bring results.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Wherever Ford cars have pioneered, Ford Service has kept pace. It is the factor which strengthens the personal relation between Ford owners and the Company. To get the best possible service from your Ford car, bring it here when it needs attention and get the benefit of Ford supervision throughout. We use the genuine Ford parts and give you the benefit of the regular standard Ford prices. Touring car, $360; Runabout, 345; Sedan, $645; Coupelet, $505; Town Car, $595—all f. o. b. Detroit. On display and for sale by

T. H. Pollock Auto Co.,

FORD Authorized Sales and Service, 6th St., Plattsmouth, Neb. Office Telephone No. 1. Shop Telephone No. 58.